Wm. Murray & Son, 1315 Eleventh Avenue, Altoona. A new and dangerous counterfeit five dollar gold piece is being circulated in different parts of this state. To detect them from the good ones look closely at the word 'refuse' and if it is upside down refuse, it is a counterfeit.

Mr. F. J. Burgeon, who for the past eight months has been night operator in the position of Assistant Train-master's office, at the West End, this city, has accepted the position of Train Dispatcher on the Cresson & Clearfield Road, with headquarters at Cresson. Mr. Burgeon is a well-doing, capable and courteous gentleman, and many friends who have made during his brief sojourn in this city will be rejoiced to learn that he has gone up higher in the matter of emoluments, to say nothing of the extra altitude he attains by his return to his first love, Cambria county.

The drummer with the silver dollar split in two and followed out to roaming around the country denouncing credulous victims. His manner of procedure is as follows: He throws his prepared dollar into the bar or counter and bets that it is the real dollar. He always finds some one to bet with him, and when he gets most of the money in the crowd put up by defectors his silver dollar and shows a five dollar gold piece reposing in the center. The dollar is very ingeniously constructed; it is made of jointure seems to be perfectly concealed. It requires a dexterous twist to open up the coin.

Mr. Trout, a Jackson township farmer, left his two-horse team and wagon standing near the window on Monday morning. About 11 o'clock the Wilkesburg engine on the Cambria Iron Company's railway frightened the horses and they ran behind the tannery and dashed on the railroad bridge across the Conemaugh in the rear of the tannery works. The ties of the bridge are cut covered and the horses' legs dropped down between them. The wagon was completely wrecked and the horses badly skinned and bruised. About one hundred men gathered on the bridge and succeeded in rescuing the horses. The scene when the horses plunged into the water is described as peculiarly frightful.

The Holidays Standard of this week says: A woman named Rebecca Myers, daughter of Mr. Anthony Myers, of Galitzin township, Cambria county, was brought to Altoona on Thursday last week in a maimed condition. It seems that she was of sound mind and of a roving disposition, and was brought to Altoona by her home from Ardmore. When near Millin, Juniata county, as the train was moving at a fast rate, the woman escaped the officer's attention for a moment, and a window sash and jumped headlong from the train. The train was stopped and when the woman was picked up she was found to have been terribly injured by the fall. Both arms were broken at the shoulders and her face horribly crushed. The head and jaw bones were broken. She was taken to the hospital where her injuries were attended to by the hospital physicians. Subsequently she was removed to the almshouse, and her friends notified to come and see her by Poor Director Loudon. She is about 40 years of age and the chances are that she will not recover.

The Fourth Excursion to the New Jersey Coast. The fourth of the series of popular excursions by the Pennsylvania Railroad to Atlantic City, Cape May, or Sea Isle City will be run on Thursday, August 19th. The date is most opportune, and it is not only fits well the time when most people indulge in their summer vacation, but will take place during the season when the weather is at its best, and the sea is calm. This is by large odds the choicest time of summer for such an excursion, and no one should allow the opportunity to go by.

The special train will run on schedule given, and excursion tickets good for ten days will be sold from points at rates quoted below.

Table with columns: Destination, Rate, and other travel information.

Excursionists will spend the night in Philadelphia and proceed to the seashore by a regular train of the following day. Tickets are good to return on any regular train (except New York and Chicago Limited) within the time limit.

An End to How Scrupling. Edward Shepherd, of Harrisburg, Ill., says: "Having received so much benefit from Electric Bitters, I feel it my duty to let suffering humanity know that I have been running since my boy for eight years; the doctors told me I would have to have the bone scraped or leg amputated. I used, instead, three bottles of Electric Bitters and seven boxes Buckler's Arnica Salve, and my leg is now sound and well." Electric Bitters are sold at fifty cents a bottle, and Buckler's Arnica Salve at 25c. per box, by E. J. Kane.
