Cambria Freeman. EBENSBURG. PA .. FRIDAY. - - - AUGUST 20, 1886. a pension shall be given to every survi-DEMOCRATIC COUNTY TICKET. FOR CONGRESS: THOMAS COLLINS, FOR ASSEMBLY DANIEL McLAUGHLIN, Johnstown. JOHNS, RHEY, Ebensburg. FOR PROTHONOTARY H. A. SHOEMAKER, Ebensburg. FOR REGISTER AND RECORDER: CELESTINE J. BLAIR, Ebensburg. FOR DISTRICT ATTORNEY: H. G. ROSE, Johnstown. FOR HOUSE HOUSE DIRECTOR: JACOB SHAFER, Allegheny Twp. GENERAL YOUNG, one of the candidates in the Fifth, Louisians, District, when asked last week to say something why he should be sent to Congress, re- gress intent upon conciliating the "soldier vote." plied : "No one would appreciate a nomination for Congress near as much as I would. I was numerously solicited to become a candidate, but no one solic- time of the year in the Western States, for gaining exact information. ited me as thoroughly and persistently the home of that valuable and important as I did myself."

O'Brien, Deasy and Redmond, selected by Mr. Parnell to attend the National Irish League Convention which met at to the 4th of July the general prospects Chicago on Wednesday last, arrived at New York on Monday morning and left of Parliament, but Mr. O'Brien is not, or less by dry weather : that ever since three votes by the Tory candidate.

THE venerable widow of James K. Polk who was elected President of the United States over General Scott in 1852, has written a letter to General C. H. Grosvenor in favor of securing the ous throughout nearly the entire corn National Encampment of the Grand growing region and further reduction of Army of the Republic in 1887 at Nashville, in the course of which she says :---"Before I die I would that mine eyes should see the grand reunion of my beloved country in the city where my dear husband lies-see the veterans of the North encamping in amity where they once did in anger ; and those who wore the gray shaking hands with their fellowcountrymen in the fellowship of a common destiny."

As showing the desperation of the combatants in the riots at Belfast, Ireland, a dispatch one day last week said : "Never did two different religions display a more blood-thirsty desire to kill

THE pension cranks of Congress, such blatant friends of the soldier as John A. ving soldier and sailor of the war of the rebellion have again been repudiated by the Grand Army of the Republic. At the late meeting of that organization in San Francisco a "pension for every body" resolution was defeated by the decisive vote of 327 nays to 86 ayes, vote by the same body of soldiers a year ago, with this difference-that the vote has ever been so liberal and open handed soldiers as that of the United States .---

All have been generously provised for and it is not the true soldiers who are now advocating an indefinite extension hours of the Paris reign of terror. This of the pension system, but pension attor- evidence, which reached us too late for should receive the respect and approval for neys at Washington and elsewhere remforced by brawling politicians in Con-

THE condition of the corn crop at this cereal, is always a matter of general interest. The very latest reports received THE three Irish delegates, Messrs. at Chicago from the twelve corn States including Kentucky and Tennessee, nothing equivocal or qualified about his bring out the following facts : that up statement that the Belfast riots are due east of the Missouri were exceptionally called Loyalist press and incendiary fulgood ; west of the river the corn situs- minations from the platform and the for Chicsgo in the evening. Messrs. tion, comprising the States of Kansas pulpit." He challenges any one to cite Deasy and Redmond are Irish members and Nebraska, had been reduced more a recent case of rioting in Belfast wherehaving been defeated at the recent elec- that date the corn has been subjected. numbered Catholics have not been driven tion in one of the Ulster districts by with the exception of portions of Ohio to resistance in order to save their lives and Indiana, to such extremes of dry and homes. As an unanswerable proof weather and intense heat that the general prospects to-day point to a crop greatly reduced in quantity and quality. Rains during last week have been copithe crop from drought has been stopped, but the season is now so far advanced that no amount of rain can bring the crop up to more than three fourths the aggregate yield of last year, which would indicate a crop of about fifteen are filled with rage because Lord Aberhundred millions of bushels Against this total must still be counted the risk of frost during the fist two weeks in September. If this danger is once passed there will be enough for home consumption as well as a reasonable amount for foreign export.

Ar the election in Tennessee for five | says, for the borough magistrates, who Judges of the Supreme Court, which | feel themselves to be the creatures of the Orange majority, to remain at home and ok place two weeks ago, the Democrats let justice be administered by the sticarried the State by about thirty-five pendiary magistrates, who are responsithousand majority. Another general ble to the imperial government. What election will occur in the same State in the animus of the local officials is he indicates by the significant remark that Novemder, and it promises to be very the Mayor, if he chose to do so, might interesting, although a Democratic viccertainly induce his own workingmen to tory is not doubted. A Governor is to refrain from attacking Catholics. We be elected and the two candidates are may add that he might take measures to brothers, Alfred A. Taylor being the prevent them from supplying themselves from his own factory yard with deadly Republican nominee and Robert L. Taymissiles in the shape of iron bolts. lor the Democratic. Both are good If there be any of our readers in whose stump speakers and the Democratic canmind remains a doubt as to where the blame for the Belfast atrocities should didate has served one term in Congress, fall, we ask him to read and nonder the clear, emphatic statement of an upright sides removing their dead and wounded publican district. The district embraces and pious man, who lives where he can to their homes. Both sides are doing the mountainous region of the State and learn the truth, and who performs a duty in telling it .- N. Y. Sun. Taylor, who is an expert with "the fiddle and the bow," took his musical THE President last week suspended instrument along with him during the Humors of the Three Mill fax. The payment of taxes under the new -mill levy is now about completed. As Territory, and appointed William G. mountaineers, fiddled for them at their Auditor General Niles and some other officials still affect to regard that extremely complicated special assessment as a passably bright piece of business, it may be well to look at the results. To practised law here thirty years ago and two candidates is Rev. Henry Taylor, start with, a very high degree of intelligence was required upon the part of the citizen in order to be able to make a return under the act without on the one hand committing technical perjury thro' quently represented Lycoming county 1860 was regarded as perhaps the ablest its confused prescriptions, or on the other making a return of more than was atended to be assessed. As one of the first consequences, a great many, if not majority, made no return. Of those who did there were numbers who could not be certain whether they had exactly illed the bill as was desired. Those who gnored the act wholly had their person-I property guessed by the Assessors, and 50 per cent. added by the Commission-According as these guesses were of the Supreme Court of Washington ers in the State proclaimed their ability shrewd or not, equality or inequality of taxation was insured. Considering that the amount of an individual's personal in the Presidential contest of 1888, but property affords, in most cases, the witheir crushing defeat not only in that dest latitude for speculation, and not State but also in Alabama, has once taking into account the mood of each of the several hundred Assessors, the state more blasted all their hopes of dividing of the temper and digestion of each at the "Solid South," the particular moment of assessing every

Who is to Blame !

A day or two before Congress adjourn No reasonable man is at a loss to fix Logan and that superlative demagogue, Henry W. Blair, of New Hampshire, in Belfast. Common sense tells us that a political stump speech, was introduced who warmly support the proposition that Irish Catholics if they were animated in the House by Hon. Charles Simeon with batred for their Protestant breth- Baker, of the Thirtieth New York disren, would not remain quiet in all parts trict, at the instigation of Tom Reed of Ireland, where they could act with and other mad wags on the Republican relative impunity, and confine their secside Mr Randall very properly objected to tarian ferocity to the stronghold of Orthis outbreak of waggery, as neither re-

Mr. Randall on the Results.

the future of the American people. Let me recite a few of the results of their legislation :

millions of acres of public lands, sought to reaching 70,000,000 seres.

in favor of monopolles

legged soldiers.

be unlawfully kept by insatiate corporations the Senate an opportunity to join with us in passing an inter-State Commerce bill which only forty men on the other side dared vote

present proceeding on the part of gentlemen on the other side, we should probably have reached an opportunity of passing a bill to increase the pensions of one-armed and one-

"Finally, I say deliberately that the appropriation bills as they have passed this House are, so far as 1 know, freer from suspicions or unnecessary propositions than they have this remark applies to the appropriations reported from the committees over which I have the honor to preside or those emanating from the other committees having charge of appropriation bills. Whatever may be the

we have done so well that we ought to command, and I believe will command, the confidence and approval of the American people.

broughout the United States were idle

"Nay, more; when we came here thou-sands and thousands of working people

Even in my own city the number ran up to tens of thousands. But to-day, so far as my nformation gives me knowledge, there are few laboring men who want work who cannot secure it ; [applause] and I add that this is due in a large degree to the confidence ocratic Executive in the direction of good government have given to the American

This statement, coming from the Democrat who has contended so persistently for honest and economical government.

not only at the late session, but also at which this Democratic House and the Demeen in any Congress since the war, whether against. But for the delay involved in the

"We have returned to the public domain

"We have entered upon the work of con-

We have given to angeism, where they are outnumbered spectful nor decent, and as a proceeding four to one, and see almost all the civil the like of which he had never knowr in authorities arrayed against them. his long experience in the House. Tom Yet although all the elements of t e Reed, with a solemn expression on his Irish situation combine to fasten inef-Shakespearean countenance, and with which was simply a re-affirmation of the faceably the stain of blood-guiltiress his tongue in his cheek, proceeded to upon the Orangemen in this wicked discuss the matter as if it was seriously ousiness, there is no lack of loud and intended ; and this drew from Mr. Ranlying asseverations to the contrary, and dall a still more serious statement of the this year against the proposition is larger too many of the telegrams despatched and more emphatic than on the previous from London to New York newspapers results in the way of good legislation occasion. No government in the world are palpably inspired by these false wit- due to the Democratic majority in the We are, therefore, glad to lay reproducing before our readers in another column of "Mr. Speaker, we are all about to return in pensioning her wounded and destitute The Sun testimony of the greatest to the people who sent us here, and the rec-ord of this House will be weighed and meas-ured by them. The results of our actions weight touching the true originators of the hellish scenes of which Belfast has been made the theatre, and to which we will be carefully scanned, and the elections will show whether in the popular judgment the party in control of this House to-day can find a parallel only in the darkest > publication on the day of its transmission, is as timely and decisive now as it was then, for it emanates from a prelate of the highest character, the Right Rev. Patrick McAllister, who, as the Roman Catholic Bishop of the Diocese of Down, lives close to the heart of the Orange section, and has the largest opportunities

Dr. McAllister confirms every conclusion drawn by The Sun from the telegraphed reports, which, as we have said, equire at all times diligent sifting and sometimes complete rejection. There is to nothing else but "the incitement of Orangemen to acts of violence by the so in the Orangemen have not been the aggressors, and where the vastly outof this assertion he points, as we have pointed, to the fact that Protestants in strongly Catholic districts have not been molested. Then, as to the outery against the police, the Bishop gives a cogent reason for the fact, that when they are forced to fire upon the mob, Orangemen are the sufferers. Orangemen are hit because they alone defy authority, the Catholics at once retiring when ordered to do so by the constabulary. The Orangemen are thus defiant because in the past they have been wont to count upon the connivance of the police, and they deen and Mr. Morley, before leaving Ireland, took precautions to infuse a more impartial spirit in the guardians of public order. Were the present Government of Ireland and the local authorities of Belfast inspired by a like determination to mete out even handed justice to both parties, ful consideration. it is Dr. McAllister's conviction that the whole agitation could be speedily allayed. It would be only necessary, he individual, it can be seen at a glance that there was liable to result about as much of an approach to accuracy as in

In a collective way the injustice and only one-sixth of the whole personal sing to learn further that one wealthy citizen who could not understand the requirements of the act, was so returned betting upon a base-ball game or making predictions of the weather.

NEWS AND OTHER NOTINGS.

-If Irishmen would put discord behind them until they could sow and reap the harvest of concord, they would not have long to wait. Stated by H. B. Cochran, druggist Lancaster, Pa., "Have guaranteed over 300 bottles of Burdock Blood Bitters for dyspepsia, sour stomach, billous attacks, liver and kidney troubles." -Lord Palmerson's good humor as a distinct element of his character is well known. We find it even during his last illness, when his physician was forced to mention death. "Die, my dear doctor," he exclaimed, "that is the last thing I shall do."

"I'll attend to it soon." Dont cheat yourself in that way. Your hair is growing thinner, dryer and more lifeless every day. Save it and restore its original color, softness and gloss by using Parker's hair Balsam while you may.

-Roast dog is to the Sioux Indian what roast turkey is to Americans. Dogs intended for the table, or its Sioux equivalent, are always carefully fattened beforehand. It is used on all state occasions and at the making treaties, and army officers say it isn't bad

-With your next order to your grocer, send tor sample pound of Dreydoppel's Borax Soar. You will find it to be the best structing a new navy. We have passed every act that we have been asked to pass for the purpose of bettering the condition of the working people of the United States.— We have not in a single instance, so far as I remember, passed through this House a bill in favor of monopolles. We have given to and cheapest soap you ever used. It is used by the best families in Boston, New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore and Washington.

-It is related that an Oll City dog, who wouldn't or couldn't, get out of the way of an oncoming freight train, calmly lay down between two ties, hugging the earth as closely as possible, until the train had passed over him, when he got up and scampered away, wagging his tail in a knowing manner

-Emma Reynold's mother rushed into a residence at Atlanta one day last week and prevented the Rev. Mr. Flood from marrying the girl to M. N. Blair. The ceremony was half completed when interrupted. The mother objected to the marriage on account of the youth of the parties.

-Sells Bros.' circus exhibited at Edius, result of the next election, I venture to say Mo., on Thursday of last week, and an Immense crowd was in attendance at the afternoon performance, which had just begun, when a tremendous wind storm came up, tearing the immense canvass from the poles. The whole fell to the ground, burying great numbers of men, women and children beneath the canvass, creating a panic which resulted in a number of persons being sertously injured. Two women had their legs broken.

-Another smart American woman has been discovered. She lives in Washington Territory, and her name is Mrs. Annette Wynne. This lady is the proprietress of a fine farm, which contains 420 acres, much of it in a state of cultivation. Here she conevery session for the past twenty three ducts a stock and diary business, all the years, is deserving of the most respect- work being done under her supervision. She is also owner of a large number of town lets in Tacoma, the business connected with which she personally attends to.

-Victoria's dislike for Gladstone is said

As ageneral family remedy for Dyspepsia forpid Liver, Constipation, etc., i hardly ver use anything else, and have never seen disappointed in the effect produced. ELEGANT FURNITURE, Parlor and Chamber Suits, DONALD E DUFTON, W. J. MCELROT, Macoh, Gu

WARDROBES, SIDEBOARDS, ## Office in Arminy Holiding. Centre, Extension and Breakfast Tables H. H. MYERS CHAIRS, CUPBOARDS, SINKS,

Age other in Wallonade New out or

ATTHENEY STALLS.

ri and collections a specially

Applause.

The Philadelphia Press avows that by the St. Stephen's Gazette to date back to Mr. Blaine could have been elected in the passage of the Irish church disestabilsh-

PREPARED BY

How's

to be almost a perfect of

Fertil

election.

O

H

H

F

Ø

H

ailor

ltoon

Ŵ

Ы

Q

or maim each other. During the fighting on Sunday and Monday whenever powder run short viragoes on both sides took flat irons and other implements and ground large grains of blasting powder into a size suitable for small arms, while boys of tender age melted lead into bullets and slugs. While the rioters were firing, youths and women stood behind them busily loading the spare guns in order to prevent a waste of time. The fusillade lasted until nine o'clock Tuesday morning, when the ammunition gave out and a tacit truce ensued, both defeating a Republican in a strong Retheir utmost to hide their losses."

Samuel C. Wingard, one of the Judges campaign and when not engaged in of the Supreme Court of Washington making speeches to the rough Tennessee Langford in his place. The cause of dancing parties, and in that way Wingard's suspension is not stated. He changed enough Republican votes to is a native of Huntingdon county- beat his opponent. The father of the is a man of very decided ability. He now well advanced in years, an original removed from this place to Pittsburg and Henry Ciay Whig, and in the political from there to Williamsport. He subse- contests prior to Lincoln's election in for one term in the Legislature as a Re- | stump speaker in Tennessee. The Propublican, and refused to vote for Simon | hibition party of the State want to nom-Cameron for the United States Senate. inate him, if he will accept, as their When he lived here he was a full-blooded candidate for Governor, and if that is Democrat and was a candidate for nom- done the singular and unprecedented ination for District Attorney against spectacle will be presented of a father Theophilus Hever when the latter gen- and two of his sons all candidates for tleman was seeking a renomination. In the same office. Before the recent elec-1867 he was appointed one of the Justices tion in Tennessee the Republican lead-Territory where he has resided ever to carry it as the forerunner of success since.

PRESIDENT CLEVELAND with his wife, her mother, Mrs. Folsom, his private Secretary, Daniel Lamont, and Mrs. Lamont, left Washington on Monday morning last for the Adirondack Mountains on the head watersof the Hudson River, N. Y., where Mr. Cleve. a new phase. It seems that Secretary land will spend his summer vacation .- Bayard acting on the positive declara-Mr. Lamont and his wife will leave the party at Albany. Unless something not ington that Cutting was to be punished now anticipated should occur the Presi- in Mexico for an act done in Texas, dedent will not return to Washington until manded that he should be delivered up about the 20th of September. No former and asked that Congress should support teen-odd million dollars. This included three times the weight of the Washing-President has ever done so much hard his demand by a resolution on the sub- what was voluntarily returned and what ton Monument. This to a single square work in his office as Mr. Cleveland. He ject. The first dispatches from El Paso. keeps on steadily engaged in disposing Texas, all asserted that the libelous of the vast amount of business before | article had been published by Cutting in him, and his ability to do so without the United States, and upon this inforbreaking down is a matter of general mation Mr. Bayard made his demand. wonder at Washington. No man better Later advices and especially the opinion deserves a brief respite from the toil and of the Judge before whom Cutting was incessant labor which he has devoted to tried, make it appear that the libel of his high office than the present industri- Cutting upon Medina was first published ous and hard working President of the in Mexico and that Cutting retracted it. United States.

Or the speech of Michael Davitt at a returned to Mexico bringing with him mass meeting in Chicago on Saturday his paper containing the libel for distrilast, the New York World says : The bution, and that the paper was circulated speech of Michael Davitt in Chicago on on the Mexican side of the river. If Saturday was a notable one. It was an this statement is correct it alters the appeal to the Irish in America not to case very materially. In order to ascermisjudge the situation following upon tain the exact truth of the whole busithe defeat of the Home Rule Bill and ness Mr. Bayard hay appointed A. G. ciy out for violent measures, but to con- Sedgwick, of New York, as a special tinne to sustain the Nationalist leaders commissioner to proceed to El Paso and

THE Mexican difficulty has assumed tion of the Mexican Minister at Wash-He then crossed over the Rio Grande into Texas, republished the libel, and assessed upon the county. Mr. Thaw, who enjoyed the distinction, is no doubt very rich, but assuredly not, by any means, in anything like that proportionate degree to all the rest of the community, including the long list of other ocal millionaires.

Property taxation is always a difficult matter. The great object should be the securing of equality, proportioned to means ; but any system that depends but suspected is sure to work out unin the peaceful prosecution of their thence to Chihuahna, the capital of the equally. Added to that the terms of the cause. He declared that notwithstand- Mexican State of the same name, where 3-mill tax statute are hopelessly wanting kidney troubles, nervousness and debility. ing the elevation of the Tories to power, Cutting's case is now pending upon an in clearness. It is not the Assessors nor 1884 "but for the studity or perversity ment bill in 1868. The queen expressed to of Burchard and the blunder of a Delmonico dinner.

The Press leaves its readers somewhat, in doubt as to whom it holds responsible for these blunders. If to them was due ed and rejoined with indignation : "Sir, do the defeat of Blaine there is no one to you know who I am?" "Yes, madam, the blame but himself ; and if his party re- queen of England. But does your majesty grets his defeat it should hold him to know who I am? I am the people of Engleserved accountability for the result. land.'

The Delmocico dinner, or "Belshazzar's feast," which was held to demonstrate that he was the favorite of the millionaires and monopolists was approved by him and he became its willing guest upon his own judgment and pleas-He considered there was ten thousand dollars under each plate for his campaign fund, and that he ate and drank political salvation with that com- and sent to Elizabeth, N. J., for burial, pany. It was a short sighted conceit. The vulgar pretentiousuess of the whole affair disgusted many and captivated few. The party was the loser, but who was responsible if not Blaine ? When Burchard blurted out his fatal "rum, Romanism and rebellion," had Blaine been a sincere man, justead of an unprincipled demagogue, feverishly anxious to make votes, his honest imnulses would have prompted him to resent the insult to his mother's religion and to the patriotism and morality of half the people of the country. He failed to do it and lost such a chance as had never occurred to him before nor that Xenla dude went ker plunk. since. Nobody but himself was responsible for this failure. If the Press would tell the truth it could easily demonstrate that the chief perversity and blunders of that campaign were its candidate's. We hope he will be given another chance to Mabitt's hand, drove in a carriage to the swim the whirlpool in 1888.-Lancaster Intelligencer.

----Extent of a Three-Inch Rainfall. Few people have any idea of the extent of a two or thres-inch rainfall, and a great many think it doesn't amount to much. They have often seen the water six inches deep in a gutter or a foot deep in a cellar, so that a little three inch shower is looked upon as a very insignificant affair. Let's look at the figures a moment. By an easy mathematical calculation it may be demonstrated that a rainfall of three inches, or rather of three and a-quarter inches, as now officially reported for a recent storm, is equivalent to about 88.250 gallons to the inoperativeness of the tax are best shown forty-gailon barrels. Estimating the

by the fact that the total of personal | weight of this enormous rainfall at the property in Allegheny county that was old accepted rate of a pint to a pound, sessed under the 3 mill law was seven. we find it to be 225,920 tons, or almost was guessed at, Yet, by other and more mile, remember. Those who may feel exact processes of determining the per- a further interest in the matter can, sonal wealth owned in the county, the without great difficulty, approximate sum supposed to be actually liable to the the number of tons and barrels of water assessment was about $117,000,000, in which fell in the ten miles square of the place of $17,000,000. It follows that original District of Columbia, and before they get through ciphering they will property paid the tax. It is not surpri- come to the conclusion that a three and a quarter inch rainfall is a decidedly wet and an amazingly heavy one. The Prohibitionists may certainly conclude that by the Assessors that he had to pay upon | Providence is on their side .-- Washington one-fourteenth of the whole amount Critic.

Undigested Food.

In the stomach develops an acid which stings the upper part of the throat and palate, causing "heartburn." It also evolves a gas which produces "wind on the stomach," and a feeling and appearance of distension in that organ after eating. For both this icidity and swelling Hostetter's Stomac Bitters is a much better remedy than alkaline saits, like hartshorn and carbonate of soda. A wineglassful of the Bitters, after for the most part upon voluntary returns or before dinner, will be found to act as a or Assessors' estimates of the invisible reliable carminative or preventive. This fine specific for dyspepsia, both in its acute and chronic form, also prevents and cures malarial fever, constipation, liver complaint, Persons who observe in themselves a decline

Gladstone her aversion to the essential principle of the bill, and he replied: "But madam, you must sign." The queen flush-

-In a camp of gypsies near Lynchburg, Va., the Queen of the camp, Annie Cos- may be made for it in tello, died on Thursday of last week' of typhoid-fever. She was the daughter of the fortune-teller of the camp and a great favorite. She had the best medical attention of Lynchburg physicians. Her body was embalmed and placed in a coffin costing $250, These gypsies are thrifty, and their meals are served on solid silver ware. There are fifteen in the camp.

-One day last week, a Xenia, O., young man was in Dayton on business, and, while standing on Third street bridge, amused himself winking at the factory girls as they passed on their way home. It was fun for him, until a little "sawed off" German girl passed, when he winked at her and said, "Hello, Dutchy." "Vot's dot?" she said. and handing her dinner basket to her little sister, grappled with him, and into the canal

-There is great excitement at Logansport, Ind., over the forcible abduction and probable murder of Miss Luella Mabitt. Last week Amos Green, a rejected sultor for Miss home of the young woman selzed the young woman forcibly, placed her in the vehicle and carried her off. Green returned to his home next morning., turned his horse loose and disappeared. Miss M. has not been seen since the night of the abduction, and as Green had threatened to take her life, it is believed that she has been murdered.

-General Christopher C. Augur, on the retired list of the army, was shot and wounded four times in front of his residence in Washington, by a colored rough named William Pope, about 1 o'clock Sunday morning. Pope and another fellow were using indecent language in front of the general's house, and he opened the door and ordered them away. A volley of coarse ep mare acre, or 56,480,000 gallons to the lithets was the reply, when the general aquare mile-enough to fill 1,412,000 struck Pope on the head with a light cane. Pope then drew a pistol and fired. The general's wounds are not consideren dan-

> -Buffalo Bill is the claimant of property valued at $15,000,000 situated in the heart of Cleveland There are 400 defendents to the suit, including Mr. McAndrews, of the Standard Oil Company, who built a magnificent mausion, which is placed half on the ground claimed claimed by Cody. Joe Jef ferson also has a mansion on the grounds. The suit is pending in the United States Courts. Cody's grandfather bought 167 acres of land which a son deeded to outside parties, forging, it is charged, his father's signature. Officers of compromise have been made but declined by Mr. Cody,

-The Rome correspondent of the London Standard says that the alarming reports about the Pope are without foundation, Leo XIII has occupied the Papal chair a little more than eight years, having been elected to it at the ripe age of 68, after the death of Plus 1X. The latter reached the age of 86, and had been at the head of the Roman Catholic church thirty-two years, the longest pontificate in history. The Holy Father suffers from an affliction of the bladder, the result of his long coufinement in the Vatican, but his malady, though grave, causes no more alarm to-day than it did a month ago.

iver 2000 pages A.J Holman & O

