-Charles Spiechel fell from the roof of the Cambria Iron Co.'s mills, at Johnstown on Friday last, and broke both his arms near the wrist. The distance he fell was twenty-four feet.

-There are twenty-seven prisoners in jail, twenty-two men and five women. Four of the men have each a baby, which makes thirty-one when Warner Peach counts his.

-John Clement, a young man residing in the East ward, was with a painful accident on Wednesday afternoon. While hunting wild turkeys his gun burst, badly lacerating his left hand.

-For the largest, finest and most complete line of overcoats go to the Golden Eagle Clothing House, Altoona, Pa.

-The following named persons can each get a letter by calling at the Ebensburg postoffice: Miss Sadie C. Bratler, Mr. G. W. Gilligan, Mr. William Gillings, Mr. Jeremiah Riser, Mr. Richard Walker.

-Two men and a dancing bear gave the usual free exhibition on our streets on Wednesday. The small boy was delighted but the man who passed around the hat was not.

-Joseph McEwen, the Millin county murderer, and his companion, Carter, were about four miles from Millifont on Monday night. McEwen was captured in a barn where he was hiding and Carter in his father's house.

-It is said that Father Hilary Prenselle, of St. Vincent's college, who was elected Abbot of St. Mary's Newark, N. J., last week, has asked permission to decline the honor, and that the electors of the order will be obliged again to elect an abbot.

-Mr. Joseph Walters, a highly respectable farmer who resided near Chest Springs, died of a prostration of disease, on Sunday last. He was a member of Mr. Andrew Walters, formerly a citizen of Carrolltown, but now a resident of Hoatzville.

-The attention of our readers is called to an advertisement of the Empire Copying Company, headed "Holiday Present," in another column. It is a rare chance to secure a fine present at a very low price, and we hope our readers will avail themselves of the opportunity.

-The County Commissioners' committee appointed at the meeting of the County Commissioners at Harrisburg some time ago, decided on Wednesday last week to urge the passage of an act of Assembly dividing the territory between the state and the county into three mill tax.

-The meeting of teachers of Ebensburg, Cambria and Blackie has been postponed until December 4th. The teachers of those districts will meet in the Ebensburg public school building, room 5, at 10 o'clock A. M. Saturday December 4th. By order of chairman, J. W. Leech.

-It is said that a corps of engineers, in the employ of the Seaboard and Western Railway, is at work at present on the proposed line that will connect the original Cambria county, by way of Marysville, Lehigh river and the north fork of Turtle creek to Pittsburgh.

-A young woman employed as a domestic at the Fisher House, Greensburg, while walking on the railroad track at that place on Friday last, was struck by a train and her left arm broken, her head badly cut and she was otherwise seriously and perhaps fatally injured.

-For a large and fine assortment of millinery goods, a fine line of ladies and children's coats and also a nice line of ladies' dresses call at the millinery store of Miss Mary E. Davis in this place. She has just returned from the city after purchasing her fall and winter stock.

-The new dwelling house of Mr. J. A. O'Hara, on Julian and Horner streets, is being rapidly pushed to completion. It will be one of the finest buildings our town can boast of.

-About half past four o'clock on Sunday afternoon the barn of George Krug, in Cambria township, about one mile and a half from this place, caught fire and together with its contents the season's crop, was burned to the ground. A little son of Mr. Krug's, about ten years of age, along with another boy, had not got out of an old pistol when they were shooting mark in the shed attached to the barn.

-The flash from the pistol communicated the fire to some hay and straw, and in a few minutes the barn was enveloped in flames and beyond any possibility of being extinguished. The barn was a new one, built about a year ago, and is a heavy loss to Mr. Krug who has no insurance and is a poor man. The only stock lost was four pigs, weighing about seventy-five apiece, two large hogs being saved. Mr. Krug was away from home at the time on a visit to a sick neighbor.

-For overcoats at less than wholesale rates go to the Golden Eagle clothing house, Altoona, Pa.

-Matthew McKeever and his two maiden sisters lived together on a farm near Butler, Pa. On Wednesday night of last week their house was visited by burglars. Martha heard them and ran for her revolver, but one of the men knocked her down and tried to kill her. Before he could do so, however, Jane laid him out with a hammer. Then Jane was knocked down and terribly abused, but she recovered, got up, and sat in a chair. A desperate fight ensued between the two women and the men, and Jane received injuries which it was feared would prove fatal. The robbers ransacked the house and found a bucket which contained the sum of $5.00 and $10.00. Twelve hundred dollars in other places were also found. The robbers then fled. Mr. McKeever, who does not appear to have taken any part in the fracas, and Martha took all the money they had and placed it in the Butler Savings Bank. Officers arrested Samuel Simpson, a fish dealer, who Martha identifies as one of the robbers, and a man named Sharp, who she also claims was there.

-The Old Plan and the New. [From the New York Financial Review.]

Mr. James F. Morse, Vice-President of the Security Mutual Benefit Society, of New York, 233 Broadway, has recently placed insurance to the amount of $100,000, on the lives of six Southern Army and Navy officers. J. Arkel, proprietor of the Albany Evening Journal and the Judge. This insurance has been placed in the above named and other leading companies doing business on the assessment plan. The annual cost of insuring the lives of these six officers is only $100,000. In the old life level plan companies the cost would be four thousand and five hundred dollars. The Arkel's are among the leading business men of the country, and their endorsement of this method of life insurance will carry weight in the business community.

The Security Mutual Benefit Society was organized in 1881, and we learn that the first assessments to a member forty years of age has been less than five dollars a year for each thousand dollars of insurance.

Successful Carp Raising. CLEARFIELD TWP., Nov. 22, '86. Editor Freeman.—In your issue of October 29 you state that Mr. Joseph Bearer is the man who presented a fish of which was less than five pounds, but was expected to weigh ten pounds. Taking Mr. Bearer's fish as an average of the growth carp will make, their culture would hardly justify much of an outlay. My own experience of one year, however, is so marked as compared with that of Mr. Bearer, that I feel compelled to give it to the public. It is mailed to any address for $3.00 a year; by the month 25 cents.

MARRIAGE LICENSES ISSUED. The following marriage licenses were issued by the Clerk of the Orphans' Court for the week ending Wednesday, November 23, 1886: Thomas Adams and Jessie May Fleck, Conemaugh Borough. Edmund Gorman and Amanda A. Parlane, Quemehoning township, Somerset Co., Pa. James Williams and Maggie A. Vincent, Johnstown. John Rieban, Bennington, Blair county, and Catherine Will, Allegheny township, Flemington, Bennington and Hester Glasgow, Clearfield Co. Jacob Simmons and Matilda Rager, Jackson township.

Married. SIMMONS-RAGER.—Married at Ebensburg, Pa., November 24, 1886, by Rev. E. McCaslin, the Rev. Mr. James Adams and Miss Matilda Rager, both of Jackson township, this county.

Obituary. EVANS.—Died at his residence in Ebensburg, on Sunday, November 20, 1886, Mrs. Mary O. Evans, aged 81 years. The deceased was born in Wales and came to this country with her husband about forty-three years ago, and has resided in this place ever since. She was the mother of Mr. Robert Evans and Mrs. Samuel W. Davis, of this place, a married daughter of Mrs. Mary O. Evans and Mrs. George J. Rodgers, both deceased. She was a good wife, a kind and affectionate mother, and after a long and well spent life has gone to meet her eternal reward. Peace to her ashes.

Remedial Items. Rain and mud are both plentiful. Our cornet band is making commendable progress. Mr. Wilson, of Gallitzin, is once more in the city. Pneumonia and lung fever are prevalent among the children in this vicinity. Mr. Thomas Leathy, foreman of D. Laughman & Co's., mines, who has been confined to his bed for a week past is now convalescing. He had a light attack of typhoid fever.

Herlock Items. Mrs. C. A. George, of the George House, is lying quite ill at present. We hope for her speedy recovery. The clothing store owned and run by F. A. Thompson recently changed hands; Mr. I. Baskin becoming proprietor.

A fine twenty-pound wild turkey was shot Monday last near Lily by Mr. Keninger, a Washington township teacher.

Mr. F. Thompson, is erecting a large hall for public use. The building is 24 by 74 feet, and will have a stage or platform in it. This is an improvement in the right direction. We wish all our business men were as pushing as our friend Asbury.

A lad about twelve years old named Willie Dunn was shot by a revolver in his own hands on Monday last near here. He was hunting turkeys, and in some manner the revolver was discharged, the ball entering his right leg, inflicting a dangerous wound.

Remarkable Journalistic Success. The Pittsburgh Times during the past year, by a liberal expenditure of money and ceaseless energy in all its departments, has worked its way to the head of the list of one cent newspapers in the country, and is fully as good and complete a newspaper as any of its more expensive contemporaries in this State. Its news gatherers cover every important occurrence, foreign and domestic; its editorials are able and fearless; its market reports corrected by experts in every line, and what is more especially commendable—everything of an objectionable character is excluded from its columns. The Times is in every respect a first class newspaper, and we take pleasure in referring to its success and recommending it to our patrons. It is mailed to any address for $3.00 a year; by the month 25 cents.

As you may look on this statement as "fishy," I will add that Messrs. S. A. Ryan, D. C. Ryan, E. Krise, John Cooper, Francis Hoover, Joseph Behr, Esq., Joseph A. Yabner and others saw the fish, all of whom will vouch for the truth of the above.

Allow me to add that I think every farmer should build ponds and stock them with carp.

Of the above named gentlemen D. C. Ryan, E. Krise, John Behr and Joseph A. Yabner have commenced the erection of ponds.

Flemington has no doubt that ten years hence every farmer in Clearfield township will have ponds full of carp.

Mr. S. J. Luther, of White township, stocked a pond the same time I did. He informed me a few days ago that his fish were as large as mine.

LUKE BEHR.

Brace Up. You are feeling depressed, your appetite is poor, you are bothered with headache, you are fatigued, nervous, and generally out of sorts, and want to brace up. Brace up, but not with stimulants, spring medicines, or bitters, which have for their basis very cheap bad whiskey, and which stimulate you for an hour, and then leave you in worse condition than before. What you want is an alternative that will purify your blood and start healthy action of Liver and Kidneys, restore your vitality, and give renewed health and strength. Such a medicine you will find in Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People, and only 25 cents a bottle at E. James' Drug Store.

All the right, title, and interest of John C. Wilman, of, in, and to sixty-seven acres of land and two plank houses in Susquehanna township; to be sold at the suit of Francis J. Baker.

PERHAPS NO LOCAL DISEASE has puzzled and baffled the medical profession more than nasal catarrh. While not immediately fatal it is among the most distressing, nauseous disgusting ills the flesh is heir to, and the records show very few or no cases of cure of chronic catarrh by any of the multitude of modes of treatment until the introduction of Ely's Cream Balm a few years ago. The success of this preparation has been most gratifying and surprising.
