Mrs. Caroline C. Akers died at the residence of her brother, Mr. George Rhey, of Millwood, Westmoreland county, on Wednesday, Nov. 24, 1886, aged 70 years. She was born in Munster, this county, in 1816, the earliest settlers in that place, who went from there to Westmoreland county and died at Millwood many years ago. She was married to her husband, Mr. L. Akers, who survives her, in 1843, and was the mother of Mr. George Akers, local editor of the Johnstown Tribune. The deceased was a lady of great culture and refinement and received a thorough education in her youth at Mrs. Oliver's young ladies' seminary, which was situate near the site of the present railroad station at Braddock, a few miles east of Pittsburg. Her remains were Interred in the Catholic cemetery at New Derry, Westmoreland county. May her soul rest in peace.

WE KNOW WHY THE POPULAR CLOTHING STORE OF L.M. WOOLF & SON,

Main street, Johnstown, Pa., is daily thronged with Customers from early morning till late at night while other merchants in the same city are complaining of business falling off instead of improving. We have thoroughly sifted the matter for ourselves and find that WOOLF & SON give better value in Clothing and Furnishing Goods for less money than any other House in Johnstown or any other town.

L. M. WOOLF & SON.

We had the pleasure of going through their magnificent Fall Stock a short time ago and have no hesitation in pronouncing it to be the best assorted and most complete of its kind in the state and can confidently recommend all our acquaintances to make their purchases at the above mentioned store and trust themselves in the hands of its Proprietors and Salesmen. Their line of Overcoats is well worth a long journey to see.

THE BOTTOM IS REACHED at LAST!

THE LARGEST STOCK OF HARDWARE EVER OFFERED the County can be found at my Store. These are all First-Class Goods, which were bought for ash at rock-bottom prices. I do not buy or keep in stock any Cheap Job Lot or Auction Goods, and whatever you buy from me you can rely on being worth the money you invest. Owing to an advance I am now selling many goods at much less than I can replace them for, but I shall continue to sell at Bottom Prices until I am compelled to replenish my stock. When you want a Cooking or Heating Stove, Tinware, Hardware, Nails Iron, Glass, Trunks and Farming Implements, call and see my Stock and learn my Prices. I will no be undersold. [Aug. 13,'85]
