it you must. Note that collars you shaplif, if stop it you must. Note that collars as it is considered. Don't be a scalar way.—Then a ten share,

JAS. C. MASS IN, Editor and Publisher.

"HE IS A PREEMAN WHOM THE TRUTH MAKES PREE, AND ALL ARE SLAVES BESIDE."

$1.50 and postage per year in advance,

VOLUME XX.

EBENSBURG, PA., FRIDAY, DECEMBER 24, 1886.

Secret Chief of P.O. Detective Corps. POST-OFFICE Service A New Book Just Punisher by an official of over 15 years experience in the Secret Service, in one Magnificent Royal Octavo Volume of over 600 pages and elegantly himstrated by the best artists in the contry with 200 SUPERB ENGRAVINGS.

A thrilling remard of detection in the U. S. Post.
Office Department; embracing sketches of Konskeye pul Reptot s of Post Office Impactors in the Detect.
Loc. Purent, and Capthre of Bulburk of the U. S.
Mails; by ther with a complete description of the will and completed contributes of the will and completed contributes of the will and unscriptions to detrand the public; may FAMOUS STAR ROUTE FRAUDS. ACENTS WANTED. In serry town these are Russmanters, Merchants, Mechanics, Fartners, Professional Mon. and handreds of people who will be glad to get this thrilling book. It is now having an unperalled sale; if sale at shall to all. More nod Woman Aponts misling from sight to all. More and Women Agents making from the to $380 a month easily. We want an agent in every loweship in the U.S. and Canada. $27 We give testractions so that ANY Parson with this phenomenal selling book, can become a successful Agent. No Competition undulerer. Agents are moving with imparableled success. $27 Distance no hindrance, as we give Special Terms to pay Freights. Hemember, we give you the exclusive sale of this book in territory assigned you. Write for our large illustrated Circulars, containing full particulars. Special Terms to Agents, etc., sent free to all. Address immediately the Publishers. WINTER & CO., SPRINGFIELD, MASS.

BUGGIES, SPRING WAGONS, Two-wheeled Village Photons, AND TWO AND THRHE SPRING PRACTICAL

Per tra is compared which of Bo Bladder, Bright's Disease, Dys. 8 gepsia, Liver Complaint and Diseases of the Stomach. THE OWNER OF THE PARTY OF THE P If your firungist is out of our pamp?

THE COT AT THE FOOT OF THE HILL. There's a mansion of stone at the top of With beautiful gardens around,

Where rarest exotics, in gorgeous dyes, Thro all the long winter abound. Its floors are inlaid with mosaic designs, Its windows are smothered in lace, And treasures of art, in marble or oil, Fill every available space.

At the foot of the hill is a dear little cot Embowered in clambering vines; Round doorway and windows the sweet

And in front is my small garden-plot, Where the old-fashioned flowers, in bright flaming tints, Shed perfume around the dear spot.

In the beautiful house at the top of the Lives a lady so stately and fair; In sating and velvets her figure is robed;

Like the star-points ashine in the sky; And yet-her red lips seem just ready to And give vent to a heart-broken sigh. The hours pass swiftly away;

With my overyday duties and round of small cares. I am happy and busy all day. In my protty pink dress and with un-adorned tailr, At even a walk to the stile, To wait for my husband returning from

And to give him a kies and a smile. The lady who lives at the top of the hill Has her carriage, her pony to ride; And often she drives past the door of my But her husband is ne'er by her side. And often she meets us, my husband and

Going home thro' the long shady lane, and her beautiful features, so haughty and cold Contract in a spasm of pain. th, the house at the top of the hill is a

We have love in our cot that, in sunshine Our hearts with pure happiness fills. In, no lid not give for the wealth of the

The child to an itlied will was under an high was surred and binding. todow and told me to watch a certain and. A blue curl of smoke arose, which Then down the narrow mountain side we rode, guided by the sensible animal. If a slip of his foot, was made, eternity would have been our doom.

Soon a point was reached about 200 yards from the still. One of my com-panions took from his pocket a whistle, made of a piece of road, and gave two The animals were sted, and one of the raen said to the other, "Jim, his poopers are too good; I guess we had better With these words the two men proceeded to bind a cloth over my eyes

When the door was thrown back, my eyes were freed and a scene of interest

You can't know all, stranger; whar that runs to you not any other man will know, but it is taken off you can ranged nine-year-old child, who had a stick stirring the contents. The little see the stranger The child, half frightened and cowered. oproached me, but her timidity overne her and she stopped. Come here, you little hell cat and g," was spoken by one of the mon. The child began to sing in a voice plaintive as a dove, and before she had finished the tears were streaming child has a history as long as your arm, but she will never tell it. She knows she will get the strap."

Poor little pitiful object to be in the hands of such demons. But how did she Her dark blue, childish eyes looked moistened with tears, and pleaded to spared the lash. Her story was a strange one, and was calculated to louch the chords of a har lened heart. One cold morning six years before, a mun was seen slowly riding along the mountain road with a child in front on the saidle. The enow was falling, and he tenderly chaped her wraps around who had been introduced, and they were gazing at the sight below, Take the glass and see if you are sure he is a spy. Soon the sharp ring of a rifle was heard

The duty of the child is to mix sour mush and seep her mouth closed, which she performs faithfully. The question was asked of these men: Are you not afraid of the revenue men Y.) Republican.

or hell, much less anything on two legs. We are trying to make an honest living, respondence of Atlanta Constitution.

THE LOGIC OF EVENTS.

"Well, well," said Mrs. Catson, putting aside a newspaper and turning to her hus-band, " a pair of ext-rings caused the Burmese war. I never heard of anything Ob, said Mr. Catson, "I have heard of stranger things."

"Well, I have, and I'll give you an example. One night, in Boston, a young man, meeting an acquaintance, said, Come, let's have a drink. I was never Boston, but that remark brought out our marriage."

"Why, George," exclaimed Mrs. Cat-son, "you are foolish. Neither of us were ever in Boston. You must be losing "Tell you what I'll do: I promised to get you a new cloak, didn't I?"

"Well, now I'll bet you the cloak that I can prove my assertion."

"If I succeed you don't get the cloak." "I mederstand." "Well, one night in Boston, about ten years ago, a young man, meeting a friend, asked nim to come and have a de took several drinks and got drunk. That settled It.

"The fact of our marriage. "How can you be so footish?" "Never mind, Fil explain. The drug clork got drunk and went to the store. Shortly afterward, a servant girl entered and handed him a prescription. In putting it up, he used morphine instead of quisine. The girl went away, and delivered the medicine to Mrs. Potter, who took it and died."

"Oh, what's the use of prolonging this "Hold on. The death of that woman drew you and me closer together than we We were not acquainted with each other ten years ago." "That is very true, but wait. Mr. Potter, the lady's husband, was almost crazed by grief. He could stay in Boston no longer, so he came down to Kentucky nd, after awhile, went into business. Don't see any light yet, do you?"

"Walt a minute. He had not been in business long until I met him. He took a fancy to me, and gave me employment. After I had been with him several years, ie sent me to Arkansaw. I had been in is state but a short time until I met Summary: If the friend had not asked the drug clerk to drink on one cerdo occasion he would not have got rok, if he hadn't been drunk he would not have made a mistake in filling the ite, Mrs. Potter would not have been killed, and had she not died. Potter would that city I should not have mot him, and and I not gone into business with birn Oh, for goodness sake, bush, You "I'll make her another bet. I'll bet she deem't get that cloak. I have always thought that the logic of events failed to meet with proper appreciation in this country. - Arkansaw Traveler.

Mock Auction of Cigars.

That aged system of swindling by means of mock nuction sales of cigars is still carried on successfully in New York.

The other day a well-known Southern man entered a little place where clears wors below noted by an emotioneer. There's ere appointly three or four men who lown to him for $5. Immediately after ward the sale was declared closed. The Southerner stepped up to the counter, where apparent customers were receiving parcels, and asked for his box, at the same time tendering a $5 bill. You owe $60," said the cashier se-"For what?"

"These eights are sold in lots, not by "But I distinctly bid for one box." " You are mistaken.

"We all bid for lots," declared the The Southerner concluded he had a bargain anyway, and that his friends would be glad to take such eigars off his hands. He thought that he might, after all, have been bidding under a misappre-

He wrote an order on a prominent hotel where he was staying for $60, and directed that the cigars be sent there. Then he went down town and forgot all about the matter until evening. When he returned to the botel the We paid your order, but we know that

"Oh, no; the cigars are worth double Look at them and see!"

The package was untied, and twelve boxes of the commonest kind of cabbageleaf cigars were exposed to view. The Southerner turned away in intense dis-Don't give me away," he begged, Rather give the cigars away-to the porters-anybody."

The next day he took a policeman to the auction store, vowing vengeance. The place was empty, and he invested another dollar in treats to the official begging him also in the same disgusted Don't give me away."-[New York

---She Blistered Him.

A young man goes twice a week to see a young lady residing a few miles in the country, making his journeys on foot, On Friday might he remained with the girl until midnight and found it dark snowing when he went to the door. He disliked to go home in the darkness and hinted the fact to his girl, but as she did not invite him to remain over night, he resorted to deception to accomplish his design and is now

He let himself fall gently upon the steps and at once set up a groan. The girl shricked, the men folks came out, picked him up and put him to bed. His prospective mother-in-law inquired the said as the small of his back she left the room hurriedly. He had Just began to congrutulate himself upon the success of his ruse as he listened to the storm beating against the window when his intended motherin-law returned to the room bearing a huge mustard plaster, which she clapped over the region of the kidneys and sat down to wait the result. For two hours he writhed in pain, and by that time a blister of sufficient size to satisfy the old lady appeared and he was left alone to repent his He says he will never practice decave of the moonshiners. The child has ception again as long as he lives, and can never feel as kindly toward the young lady's mother as he has heretofore, as every sight of her from this time forward will be suggestive of mustard plasters and misery .- [Hudson (N.

> The Polyglot Population of Texas. reach the polygot population of that State In four different languages. Thirty thousand copies are printed in English, 10,000 in German, and 5,000 each in Spanish and Bohemian.

NATIVE HOUSES OF ALASKA. Homes of the People in the Territory Our Government Bought from Russia.

The houses of the natives are much iwellings are thus described; ing and littered with all sorts of house-soft mixture of mud and offal surround-The entrance to this house is a low, trregular sounce aperture, through which foot or two through a short low pas-sage on to the earthen floor within. The interior generally consists of an irregularly-shaped square circle, twelve or fifteen feet in diameter, receiving its only light from without throng the small smoke-opening at the apex of the roof, waich rises, tent-like, from the floor. The fire-place is directly Rude beds or couches of skin and grass muts are laid, slightly raised above the floor, upon clumsy frames made of sticks and saplings or rough-hown planks, and sometimes on little elecations built up of peat or sod. Sometimes a small hall-way with bulging sides is erected over the entrance. where, by this expansion, room is afforded for the keeping of utensils and water vessels and as a shelter for houses will be found a small summer kitchen, a rude wooden frame, walled in and covered with sods, with an pening at the top to give vent to the smoke.

fuel and building material are more abundant, the houses change somewhat in appearance and construction: the excavation of the coast houses, made for the purpose of saving both, disappears, and gives way to log-structures above the ground, but still covered with sods. Living within convenient distance of

The Mad-Dog Scare.

" You see, we have been excited about this mad dog scare, and I asked pa what be would do if he met a mail dog. I told

She arose and left the room. Her hus | and run when any calamity hap-"I thought I would by pa, 'cause said Mr. Gaskill. I never heard of his showing much and took pa's leather brush and put lather all around the dog's mouth for form. Then I took one of these little rubber bands and put it around the dog's upper jaw. That made the to get the rubber off. "But the dog wagged his tall all the time, cause he knew it was only one of my felies on him, and he we But he did look savage.

"When pa came in from down town at supper time I was up stairs with the dog, and I let him go, and he went

"The dog was going to jump up on pa as usual, and have pa take off the rubber band, but pa yelled, Take him off! He's mai! Hanner, lock yourself in the closet and telephone for the patrol-Well, you'd a dide to see pa. He imped right over the deg, and went own the cellar stairs at two lumps, and crowded in the coal-tin under the " I wiped the inther off the dog's mouth, and took the rubber off, and me and the dog went down cellar and hunted When you saw our dog wanging his on his mouth, he came out, and then he said. That settles it. I drunk an eg-nogg down town, and it went to my ad, and I thought I saw egg-neg If over the dog's nose and mouth, and thought he was mad. Pour doggle! here egg-nogg for your Uncle Ike. " And then pa crawled out of the coalbin, and gave me half a dollar not to meditation, lowever, we are startled to discover a huge rat investigating our pillow. The chase affords five minutes itversion; but he makes good his ascape through the window, as if he knew the way well, and disappears. Tenminutes later he reappears at another window, and, on being dislodged, shows up again at a third. The mystery is explained by our discovering a small cornice running round the house, which is evidently a rats' highway. After endeavors to get rid of the creature, we place a piece of cake on the window sill at his disposal, and he probably cats himself into a state of peace.

Night Time In Cairo, And so to bed at the unwonted hour of

At 6 in the morning we are awakened by one of the officers, who insists on sulphur tank. For the moderate charge of one plaster we are provided with towels and a wooden shed to undress in. The tank is open to the air, and a few Bedouins sitting under the trees which line its edge devote themselves to watching our gambols. The water is cool and deep, and the swim is delicious, notwithstanding the suggestive performs which strikes one unpleasantly at first. Back again to a nice little breakfast of coffee, new-laid eggs, fresh rolls and strawberry jam and then another day's laziness .- |Sat rday Review.

Athletic Maidens.

in the world-getting to be the univer sal language; and to woman is com-" Have you any records of what your mitted the invaluable and the caclusive young lady pupils have done during their power of improving all lime ducks, for it is she who teaches the haman moe to "I do not keep any, for the pupils do not like the idea of having it talked speak. She is miraculously endowed when about. But I can give you several. One young lady who was exercising word; and the world gives her credit, by here became so strong that she lifted on the health-lift 700 pounds. Another who took to vaulting, who was only 19 tongue, for the proud confider has been bestowed upon her. -[Leslie's years old, vaulted five feet. This was a Newspaper. splendid leap for a woman."- Teacher in Caliethenics. A witty auctioneer described the excel-Making Sen Water Drinkable. lenge of a cow he was offering for sale, in the following verses:

Long in her sides, bright in her eyes, Short in her legs, —thin in her thighs, Big in her ribs, —wide in her plus. Full in her bosom,—small in her ships, Long in her face,—fine in her tall, And never deficient in filling her pail.

UUBIQUE ATTEMPTS AT FRAUD. MEN IN PADDED CLOTHING. Hard Cases With Which Life Insurance Companies Have to Deal. Thin Legs Made Stout, and Narrow Chests Made Broad.

know nothing of. It is that of the man who models the human figure, but not in clay. He models in cloth. An expert in this art can demand a large salary, and is always oure of one in reporter for the Mail and Express. ployment in the large tailoring houses. A reporter visited a fachlooghle un town tailor to have a talk with one of these

"I can best give the story in the lan-guage of the gentleman who told it and in whose company the $10,000 policy "You have had a large experience in your profession, I suppose?" asked " I have given it my constant study for nearly twenty years, and the more I see of it the less faith I have in the common sense of the most of my patrons." "That's rather a broad assertion to

"Nevertheless it is true and becoming more so every day. You Americans are of all people the least satisfied with skill, who reported that the party, in company with his brother god a less, bad been out fishing at 11 o'clock at night in the Catskill creek, near its hat nature has given you. You see always trying to go one better than nature, and instead of trying natural means in the way of taking plenty of air unfluence with the Hudson river, and and muscular exercise, you substitute the

Will you tell me the latest idea of a and fell swerboard. Search was made for the body by the citizens of the lown in the waters of the flushen, while we were nearching for the body on hard,
It would be fedlous to tell you the

" If he wants a finely-developed pair of calves, I can supply him. If he tacks breadth of chest, I can formish him with as fine a chest as you could wish to see. Should the deficiency be in the in Chemical, Older, and on his person shoulders. I can produce a pair that Atlas imself would envy. The process of pro-"A case told by the representative of another company showed how an agent "But first I must inform you that I have nothing to do with tailoring. I simply make cloth coats or puls which > "The insurance was effected through an application presented in the name of James W. Herre, of Norfolk, Virginia be agent sout on the application. It would lead to a very amusing con-The man who had been examined "Once I had a customer who wanted of six feet one inch and weighed DC to possess a shapely pair of legs. The original ones were sufficiently full for all practical purposes, but he wanted them more full. I made some pads for the thights, calves and hips. They were made of fine chances heather and when

"The result was the gentlemm valued on Fifth avenue rextmorning with finely-shaped legs, but entirely out of pro-portion with other parts of his body." the police was sent to the agent,
- The head treasurer reported back to the beam office that he could not find The many people wear pade of this "Quite a large number. Most positie has such name to James W. Reit number to wear probled ander gar have a name by first same why had bulky uppearance which trades of the fived there in the Recember province.

> the sidew, who wever would here " She was satisfied before her leadend rooster he coos gently, as if inviting her to be his tride, and then he rises in the died, in November, that he had obir and flies away followed by the and probably these two men who put, up this jee had insured this man in some other company, making the policy and had received the amount of the a nest and reared young. Whorever a Another class of frauds upon us are "You see that pigeen on the real with her feathers all ruffled up. She is a discensolate widow. She has had a people who have cancers and know it.

"A typical case of the kind was disbad the entour obtained $15,000 progshe was courted by one of my resident's costers. They made a materiof it, but had been suffering from it for two series and that he had been breated there - > that twenty-two different, physicians had treated the man, although in his application to the company 'no' was believe he had been treated by may be being within five years. The con-linate was made payable to ble saids that this evenery knew the facts in the

In the Knights of Honor, two or three years ago, from 15 to 20 per-cent, of the death lesses were from signistic body to probability the payment.

"It is a singular fact, no threat is

"He said be poight go out hunting and necidentally full lown, and get shot, and the company would claim that be con mitted suicide. So he thought he would look up some other company. A short and not while out imiting estion. 414

Prese and Poetry,

The birds were singing merrily, and the flowers that bloom in the spring ardened the air with their perfume child was in the conservatory; when Resalind McGush stepped to the window to look out upon the snow-rlad earth. How delightful I she orchimed.

a dozsn cold gradie cukes for breakfast, when you might have just as well have had bot ones if you had got up sarly enough."-[Indinsapolls Times. ---- population of Sitks vilings.

It is finished with a ferule of Alaska Objectionable Phrase, "There is the last report I would "ask the server quest if the about use count of my identify it more questing of it is not the more than the more quies. - Those ton A current.

5 months " I year

APPETIZERS. Disadvantage of Being Two-Volced.

Rodress Stems, first tomerties the per line : each

Obsequent insertion Sc. per line, dministrator s and Executor's Noticel, udran's Notices.

Advertising Rates.

The large and reliable corrulation of the Cam-mula Function comments it to the favorable con-certation of advertisers, where favora will be in-scred at the following per rates:

Ben Maildox, who for some time carried the built between the towns of Hills-tory and Whitney Trains, is the possessor of a surregular voice. He usually begins agreeding to a very high, repirate voice, but when towns had through the contained fille to a very drug two. In which he fin-then day in returning from Whitney, his tonia tan away. Here hen out in the mud, and turned the light covered back which to was deling aver on the in such a macoust that, attlemen annuared, he was until a variety in motor it.

While he was there a stranger came by, when the following convertation took house his time voted; - Bello, mister, will you please go down an raise this back up some I can got out?"

Size on a Very I gome I can, but how the you got maler there?" Bin the his course bear votes; "The horses can away, and mirror the back two or three of you under there, you are able to more that lank yourselves, and I am not indee to get flows in the mud to And away he reste, leaving Poor Ben, to get out the best way he could.

No Ples

Jossa Wood tells a good story of a farmer whom he saw at the breakfast table one marning in the leading hetel in While the water handed the rustle the till of fars, be gimeed over it and re-Schung, just bring ben all in. I'm gosh daried hungry, and just got in The waiter primed, and, after being gone for a lew minutes, returned with dishes that nobe a great semi-circle Look bely, water, I don't see any pie, and I in mighty foul of pie, too."

Say, mister, we don't set no pie for breakfast at this hotel. Only have ple disgreet, toroica to Mr. Wood, and said:

"Neighbor, this is a — of a hotel." Doe Rammard, siers at the Burnet House, teles a similar atory at a man who Chicago.-ICincinnati Enquires. 415 Just the Ordinary Taffy.

"Well, we are possibles; or mighty

A New Portent Store as a Cordo-was not feeling very tour tire out or morning, so Mr. trireli underfook to get the triviation voice. Then be substant her say

- Linear of morey in evolutional and wife, no who between it on a fort. "you have

Matthda Spowball is a domestic in the family of Judge Peterby:
A few marnings ago Mr. Poterby usked Maticity. Why do you go over leto the neighbor's wird to get a pitcher of water, when there is a faucet right in ter your "Hum, bolody kin hab any entertain-N. B .- Three by a colored conclusion on the actions by pendees. "Pac" will little Eddie McDenald early this morning, "the storm Eignel one in your own kitches?"

"Oh, yes. Ma vays she found a nothplot in the front floor lock this norning and your shoes on the top of the lacrosm, and she mays it's going to be an waiting for breakfast; -{Chreshand

Gave Blunelf Away.

A man at the telephone the other day Hello, there; why in thunder don't

West did you say the constraint the Workster Times. A Children Streamfeld

The Citronian twoot incapable of hus posts over the door of his washee house The Chicase must go. None but Melicum man surpluyed he

There is fun in Gin Fan .- Alta Call-The English Drop Letter,

Mrs. Blackfrier quet from London; They Americantees are most perfect-ur, you know. What on earth is a ble been und a circle latter Esser a Thrilling hisery My has Ringment.

· Ever 1940 me un templote vin ac daz

There is a bound in Property which ! fourty has recognit the board a ysick materialy. - [Atlanta Constitution problems of any Afford. The unting Yire-Prosident John Sheeman, is a graduate of the common school

Absolutely Pure. The partier never varies. A marvel of purity ftrength and wholesomeness. More economical has the ordinary kinds, and cannot be sold in competition with the multimde of the lew test, short weight, alum or phosphate powders. Sold a sure-all. It curve nothing but Blesma-ii to safe and cure cur for that disease, who have been cured will testify to its rei. Unsure of Pill N. Pith St. Philads, wrote in offer he had been creed by the Proplem F. O. to waiting to be whether it would not be in the creek and would be a his reson from the agony he is, and inche of two weaks he are creed by, although he had his been physician, her restricted with the creed, and of the waited physician, her restricted without result, previous to wanderful remedy. A. Cox. American and Morris St., Phile, ille was bedridden, and her condition made. Doctors and everything size failed. The unation Cure error her in one week." TANH EVERY BOX HARBOTT TRADE HARBS SIGNATURE COST

Wallst, New York. OF RHEUMATISM by using RUSSIAN RHEUMATISM CURE.

SAS & BUL Market Street, Philadelphia.

large and splendidly illustrated necessaries tished WFIFIETS at $5.00 a per second it by all never an invention to patent write to one & Co., publishers of Scientific American, I Broadway, New York. 'tandwook about patents mailed free. B. J. LYNCH

UNDERTAKER, HOWE AND CITY MADE FURNITURE PARLOR AND CHAMBER SUITS, LOUNGES, BEDSTEADS,

TABLES, CHAIRS, Mattresses, &c., 1605 ELEVENTH AVENUE

Between 16th and 17th Sts., ALTOONA, PA.  Citizens of Cambria county and all others wishing to purchase honest FURNITURE, ac. at honest prices are respectfully invited to give us a call before buying elsewhere, as we are confident that we use meet every want and please every

Obtained, and all PATENT BUSINESS at tended to for MODERATE FEES. fice, and we can obtain Patents in less time than those remote from WASHINGTON

Send MODEL OR DRAWING. Wead-

vise as to patentability free of charge; and we make NO CHARGE UNLESS PATENT

We refer, here, to the Postmaster, the Supt, of Money Order Div., and to officials of the U. S. Patent Office. For circular, advice terms and references to actual clients n your own State or County, write to C. A. SNOW & CO.,

T. W. DICK, ATTORNEY-AT-LAW and the traveller dropped lifeless from his saddle, and the child was taken to the manner of legal business attended to satisfacto the cave of the moonshiners. The child has been there since. gil and callections a specialty. [10-14-tf.]

DR. SCOTT, 842 Broadway, NEW YORK. REENTS VARIED to character and control states to the care of the c climbing rose

With the fragrant Madelra entwines. The sunbeams paint pictures all over the

In the braids of her soft dusky hair Gleam radiant jewels that shimmor and

At the foot of the hill in my little white work.

gem! But it cannot compare with my cot. All the jewels and wealth of the lady up Could not tempt me to change with her

My cot at the foot of the hill. - English Paper. ALABAMA MOONSHINERS Scener in an illicit Silli-A Child's Pittful Situation.

R was about two miles in the mounallow away from any settlement. The listance was travelled on the back of a through bashes, over rocks, down hillala passes, a point of a precipice was My companions pointed to the depths

After walking around and about, a cave

In a corner of the onvern was a much sustly emorged in pouring willicar whilely it is funnel, which was conveyed off through a pipe made of mountain case.
"Where does that go to?" was asked

Belijad a tub of sour mash was a little Chunk it up, Mag, and come hereand

What is the child's name?" was We call her Mag, for short. That

Up the mountain higher were two men and will they not get you?" Stranger, we are not afraid of heaven and the man who tries to stop us diesthat's all. The law has got to take the same chances we do."—[Huntsville Cor-

A circular mound of earth, grass growhold utensils, a small spiral cell of the same in all divisions of Alaska. The smoke rising from the apex, does eroughing, children climbing up or rolling down, stray morsels of food left from one meal to the other, and a

Immediately adjoining most of these pad and corset."

good figure from a dude's standpoint?"

lucing these is very simple.

That depends a great deal upon what "To do this it is absolutely necessary finished they were sewn hits the trensers

$35."- [N. Y. Mail and Express.

----Retinance Among The Pigeons.

"It is interesting to see them pair,"

. You. The rooster who has an ambition to enter the wedded state flies lown beside a coy little hen and coos.

and does not care for attentions from the opposite sex, slic goes on with her feed-ing, paying no head to the soft pigeon

"If the ken turns a willing car to the placent-house that he makes his house gover weeks that is its permused persuasion, they decided to play quits.

He Gave Her His Hand.

gone." - Atlanta Constitution.

Therefore she is here and her beau is

The train was slipping along toward.

Now, gents, there's a woman in the sympathics: She's a poor whlow, and ust as she got on the train some one ed cent to her name, and will be among

Every man in the car cheerfully con-ributed to the fund-every man but one.

He was a young man about 25 years old, poorly dressed, and evidently without

"Gents. I'm as surry as anybody car tell you what I'll do. If she isn't over 40 and basn't got a game leg, or a stiff neck, or a bad breath, I'll marry take her right out to my farm."

and wound an with:

hind you."

faculty of speech.

ner as soon as we reach Elmira, and Woll, come in and see her and

The young man went back to the ear proceed at first eight. He sat down and carnel his intentions and circumstances,

"I've bin looking for a wife for a year

you are agreed we'll be married

The woman said it was pretty sudden.

past and haven't found anybody except a cross-syed gal and a rheumatic widow.

but she guessed it was the best she could do. A purse of $30 was handed her, and as the pair got off at Elmira, hand in hand, the man said to a back-hearts to the nighest preacher, and drive

as if there was a tornado coming up be-

There is nothing which laso interestic.

to everybody as the perfecting of the the passession of the English tonger, the most musical, rich and flexible harding

A Model Cow.

We have an invaluable inheritance in Here you! Drive these two ford neh money; in fast, he explained:

trangers when she gets to Elmira.

Elmira at forty miles an hour, when a passenger came into the smoker and

"And if she is single, what then?"

These are entirely above ground, rarely over five or six feet in diameter, and are littered with filth and offal of all kinds; serving also as a refuge for the dogs from the inclement weather. In the interior regions, where both timber, the people (inland) do not depend so much upon the natural warmth of mother earth .- | Chambers's Journal.

"He said men were cowards generally.

If she is heart whole and fancy free she pays attention to his wonings.

If she is already mistress of a nest dog's upper jaw. That make the dog show his teeth and chew, so as down stairs on a gallop to welcome pa. He thinks everything of pa.

" Pa saw him coming and he saw the form on his mouth, and pa's hair just tall and acting so happy, and no froth

10, under the fatal illusion that the amount of fresh air we have imbibed After an hour or two of undisturbed

A suggestion has been made that bottles The messages of the Governor of Texas | containing citrate of silver be stowed away in ships' boats. Seven ounces of the citrate will, it is said, turn enough sea water into drinking water to supply a man for a week.

"A number of curious instances of attempts to defrand life in arrance con-There is a profession which many people vention held in Boston of a number

"One was of a mon in Catalille N. and obtained it, and shortly afterwards obtained an accident policy of $5,000 He was introduced to a dapper little in a New England company. Frenchman of about 45 years.

> was oblained. " The first we beard of the case." he said, was a telegrow that the in-sured referred to had been drowned. My or my storious disappearances.
>
> We therefore sont an agent to Cat-that he took an our to neertain the depth of the water, look his between trief to exace money freedstently from answer the same purpose to the tailors na lasts to the shoemaker. B Delinguny, to have an accurate tiles of the proportions of the customer, otherwise it

> The examination was made by one I the limst and best physicians in the adopted by the association of found treas-a bospital.

"It was also found in the lavestication car back there whose case appeals to our our experience, that persons laterally act so long beforemand and go atout "A recent case in point was a man who came to the office of one of our communies and east that he wurted The next day he returned and said the

"The les king seems to have talorn assession of the universe, while I-I am Yes, Rosey, you are left to out half Aintim, but cont. to Was Lington a consmain of Silina, and is of out or resist, skillfully energed. The convince repro-tents the income of the time can be that make," said the styles greenesting

----Provident Clow-hard mover attended