

Cret By F. E. WOODWAND, lata POST-OFFICE Service New Boost Jree Puncising by an official of or 15 years' experience in the Secret Service, in Magnificent Royal Octavo Volume of over 600 and alegantly illustrated by the best artists in

00 SUPERB ENGRAVINGS. A unfilling record of detertion in the U.S. Poet-class Department; embracing sketches of Wosder-bal Empirity of Post-Office Inspectors in the Detec-tion Furnalit, and Capture of Robbers of the U.S. Valle; bagsther with a complete description of the mass measures and completed contrivances of the sky and unsacuptions to defraud the public; also concentrate approach of the

TOUS STAR HOUTE FRAUDE.

philet, with testimonials, free. For sale by all drugglets. If one or the other is PFAELZER BROS. & CO. 819 & S21 Market Street, Philadelphia 这些新闻学生的中的分子 USSIAN Ah, no! false fears ; it is a vision blest-HEUMATISM CURE With such a smile as mild Madonnas don't ours anything but Rhsumatism, but it curst The twilight glimmering round her gold-

meanwhile long?

wear.

meek

Oh! such a look-so gracious and so

HERBERT'S FORTUNE.

Old Mr. Turnbull had a will of his possibly no one would have objected to it, had he acknowledged the right of anyone else to have a will of his own :

but this he was by no means content to being of the opinion, it seem trade Roddy, the orphan daughter of a distant relative, was installed in his place with all rights, present and pros-

Herbert had saved Ethel Jarvis' life, ner, upon the occasion of a berrible bost disaster, and he had become from that original the idea and here of the young in a very herole and praiseworthy man think lightly of the deed, and turnecalled for yet he must have secret) sense of the old man's injustice burain, graph office-a position for which she had qualified herself in secrecy, for her father, a gentleman by birth and con-cation, looked with horror upon the idea of b i lovely daughter increasing their income by an avocation which called her taken as gently as possible, longhing merrily at his old-fashioned objections from him an unwilling consent to that

-for so she styled them-and coaxing

" still another use for the magic fluid !"

he replied with a smile; then sighed and kissed the girl's golden head, but offered no more objections to her project. Thus their affairs stood when Herbert

A not flush rose on Mr. Jarvis' pale came and announced his uncle's welcome" he said haughtly

She broke the news of the step she had from the shelter of her home.

bolling by electricity the life behad saved for a revarit.

and moury having it was with a Poor Ethell"

and dates in the world.

fast every time. It cured Sam'r. HUESS, Lancaster, Pa. MR. HARTMAN, SE., Bloomsburg, Pa. Mas. REV. R. H. RODINSON, Staonton, Va. Mus. Was. Murrauo, 180 Wylle St., Philadelphis. J. F. NEWICH, Camden, N. J. Mus. MART CAPRON, Moorestown, N. J.

FRANE MARL, Manch Chunk, Pa EVERY BOX RAS BOTH TRADE MARRS AND

For complete information, Descriptive Pam-

For entry that he possessed the monopoly of the article Herbert Langley did not often go against his uncle's will, but when he did, then came the tug of war. Mr. Turuball had forbidden his

And with a shrug and a light laugh How look, how speak? Why tarries she she turned andswept away. Miss Roddy sppreciated her new maid, Thus wantonly their torture to proand valued highly the improvement in her own apperance since Linda Lyle had had the section and adjustment of At last she comes. Hush, hush, unwelher toilettes. come guest, Usurper of dead rites and dearest ties ! She was in he habit of treating her rather differently from her former maids. having discovered that she was quite a An angel stands before their glistening uperior person for the station. Her new mult puzzled her. Sha would have been more puzzled, perhaps, had she seen Lina after the door was closed. For oce moment she stood with lashing eyes and glowing check, then ie sank on a ofa with hands clasped. Ah, now I how why Herbert was so enger to be goie. His uncle not only forbate his parriage with me, but insisted on he marrying her. Dear boy [he dreade some entanglement, and feared to stay. "And he wis right. For if I read her truly, Gerrude Roddy would not hesitate to tike the initiative if she own. No one disputed the fact, and wished to make a man marry her. "Ab, Herbet, my love, why do I not hear from your but I will keep r. good wart, still hoing for your return. And I am not the oily one; for well I underthand the sad wstful look on your unclo's these. Descriptionan, cruel and wilful as no is to us, yet do I love him dearly;

A handsome closed brougham, with an enameled monogram upon the shining olive panels and the silver lamps and polished mountings glis-tening in the sunlight, stood before one of the great stores in Union IUBTG.

The coats of the tall bay horses were glossy and smooth, the silvermounted barness trappings shone bright-ly, and everything about the equipage was as it should be, except the coach-

Not that the coachman was less elegant in appearance than the carriages or the horses. The proportions of his chest were majestic, his great coat fitted without a wrinkle, his tall slik hat shape with the undimmed luster of the maker's gloss, a handsome fur cape adorned his broad shoulders and his gloves were new and perfect. But instead of holding his head creet with that dignity and hauteur that being alone to coachmen and kings, he nodded steepily upon his bex and every other minute his chin sank into the fur of his cape. There were no other carriages near and the sleepy coach-man's head bobbed up and down. Destiny had arranged that at this juncture of affairs John A. Mackny should be passing through Union Square with a friend on his way to dress for and it will be astrange thing if I do not the alternoon performance line" at the Fourteenth Street thea The comedian entertains a lofty contempt for men who cannot stay up three nights in succession and remain awake the next day; and, therefore, when he caught sight of the nodding coachman, his soul was disturbed. He stopped and remarked to his friend : I'll bet $4 that that duffer will nod his hat off in less than eight minutes. The other refused the risk as unduly hazardous, and the two watched the coachman for a few moments, and were about to walk on again, when Mr. Mackay was suddenly seized with an Finally, a night or two ago, as they landed from the boat on the other side, the detective inquired: "You must be an agent of some sweat as if I had galloped him twenty miles. I realized how he must long with the lariat drawn taut and trembled in every limb, and he was as wet with break away and join the wild rovers and forever end his drudgery. I dared not rise to my feet for fear of alarming the drove, but, neverthe-ess, I had a clear view of each horse.

Most of them were magnificent animals.

Manes down on their shoulders and

We had been observing each other

Tol

They

the air and broke off at a gallop, circuit five times before stopping. Then, at another signal from the leader, the circle broke and the horses wheeled into a long, single line, or "company nied in a coasing manner to my own i-s and actually grouned his disap-stoly approached me a few rods it is beward but bottoms in boots in fina I set up a shouting, waved the market some more, and he took his lace at the head, formed the hand at uld see the waving line .- [Detroit Free Trashy Literature and Buns.

I come up town the other day in the

He was engaged in dining. The meal espringled with currants, and not at all viting to any one save the little fellow.

It was a matter of interest and amazement to watch so puny a creature con-sume so much. Like "the ennomile tea Weller, the queer little boy "awelled vis-ble and astroughing. Do such excellent matters go with early youth, or are they the especial attributes of boys who read heartiness that neither Dehaonico nor Biccadonna can give mu, What one of us grown men, who would despise that queer youngstor could eat dinner with him and the things; but if my little equinting com-pution grows into wealth and fame, he will never enjoy a menu so much as he did those six dreadful buns .- [Dramatic Hopelessly Bankrupt.

"Fate is against me," said a despairing Wall street man to his wife. "I have borrowed money from every quarter to keep my margins good, but without avail.

but every cent that I could get from

"Yes, overwhing save honor. That alone remains,"-[N.Y. Times,

Virtues of Lontil Flour

- ----

A writer in the Therapeutic Gazette with one eighth part of ground for the use of invalids. In warm recommends soups made of leatil flour, ton ton dissume of the mult convers the flour into solution and endly disected have not only lost all that I possessed.

Manhood and fine position are estima-

He ats his dinner with a relish and light literature and have cock eves?

He nuished six buns calmly, rolled his who excited the wonder of Tony ding forth a challenge.

capacion month ly afore my eyes."

was rowling about.

to tell the tale?

Times, N. Y.

friends as well."

I rase up then and waved my blanket.

front.

batter.

sort? "Oh, no," was the reply, "I am simply traveling for pleasure." "Where do you live when at home?" "In Indiana."

"Why, I'm from Indiana!" "Yes, you told me so the first day." "Whereabout in Indiana?"

" Vincennes "Good gracious! but my home is tails on the grass. They were of various colors, and they ranged in age from the only three miles from Vincennes." yearing colt up to the veterans probably 20 years old. The bays predominated, but every color was present. Yes, I know." "What did you do In Vincennes?"

"Clerked for Lath & Shingles." "What! Why, that is the very firm that was robbed !"

about ten minutes, when a jet-black stallion, who was the leader of the herd, "Yes, I know," was the placid reply. And your name is-what?" queried gave a snort, threw up his heels into the detective. lowed by the drove in single file. They ran in a true circle, and they made the

" William Green !"

Great Scott! but you are the chap who stole the money!" howled the officer. Yes, certainly! What are you go ing to do about it?" calmly replied the nice young man, as he lighted another fifteen-center. - [Detroit Free Press.

> ----A Skilful Young Canvasser, on the plain for a mile. A good story is told of a little girl. and returned. whose mother is a member of Bosworth When the lender was within pistol-shot Rellef Corps, which goes to show that he wheeled out and the horses formed even at her tender age she is smart in a square, with the four yearlings in the center. They gailoped off for a mile enough to run a fair. The little miss is only nine years or so, broke again and returned in two old. She is very pretty and ladylike. I had an almost irresistible desire to When the Relief Corps decided to kill the leader with a bullet. Indeed, I hold a fair the ladies, as is customary, reached for my rifle with that intent saked the friends to contribute articles but then came the reflection that it would be little short of murder. Such to their various tables. Now, our little miss thought she another perfect horse I had never seen. would do business on her own hook. His black coat shone like silk, his limbs and bely were perfection, and he So she called on many ladies she knew. interested them in the fair, and when had the speed and bottom of a raceit was time to open the fair this little miss had secured so much and of such Not a halt was made for a full hour. variety that a cart had to be sent to and it was only preparatory to taking a swift departure. The last maneuver was collect the contributions. This little miss was very attentive circle at a slow trot, and each horse thing to drink." during the fair. One evening Mayor Deering cause into the ball. The yourn hady waltzed up to him and said-he Poor Solim! He struggled in the right face and sparkling eyes attractost frantic manner to break loose, ing the attention of listoners : d when finding all his efforts of no all he threw himself down on the lean Hamilets, and seem to be of opinon that there is an artistic discord between romance and rotundity. And indeed it cannot be doubted that this opinion is very widespread. The only instance to the contrary that we know of is in the case of a gentloman in Europe were rendered stays could not conceal.

interable by that stoutness which even

It is true that Shakspere intended Hamlet to be fat, feeling probably that t would be characteristic of such a lethargie nature, but modern audiences are not ready to accept fat Handlets; they prefer thin Hamlets, and even lady who, on being shown the Apollo Belvidere, remarked that she preferred "stouter statues;" but this indy was from Chicago.-[Pall Mall Gazette. -----

The Mad Dog Scare,

The old racipe of "a hair of the dog that bit you" was almost literally realized in a prescription for the cure of hydrophobla much in vogue with the Pastents" of the fifteenth conterv which, somehow or other, it did mat, ful method was employed within

A more primitive but more success-memory of living much in a remote part of Ireland, the patient being the chilest son of the family, a fire fad

His recovery appearing hopelens tram the strong symptoms of hydrophylds which he exhibited, the doctors doctord upon bleeding bim to death as the only alternative to the barbarons plum of smothering under a feather bed,

A yein was opened, and he was locked into an outhinise and loft to die. But toward evening the militanid of the household, passing near the spot with her pail, was annated to her the sufferer's voice faintly asking for some-Overjoyed at this annistateable sum f recovery, she last no time in summoning assistance, and the young man's life was saved, the physicians ascribing his extraordinary escape to the carrying off of the poison by the

A Gold-Eating Goose,

Ambi the great excitement caused in this section over the recent discovery of gold, it now imppeas that fuel is to be added to the finnes by a Mr. Novels who found while dressing a goose, several particles of pure gold in Its

Mr. Walter Nevels, a substantial citizen of Lewis County, had recently brought from Oregon and placed on his this one being valueless alone, was killed, and while Mrs. Nevels was dressing the fowl, noticed some bright

Calling her husband, an investigation was made, and the shining substance proved to be particles of gold, which amounted in value to about one dol-

And what now troubles Mr. Nevels is to find the place where the goose got the gold, while many of his neighbors wonder if this is not the verit-able goose that haid the golden egg.

Where She Mept Her Money.

A few days ago a lady stopped into the depot at Stillwater and purchased a ticket for St. Paul. She then ap-proached the station agent and told ilm that she had a large sum of nioncy on her person and was afraid to go alone, as there were several man in the walting room that she thought

Sha stated that she had been trayeling through Europe and had stopped off in New York several days on her return, where she had obtained $20,000 in money, making in all $25,000, which The agent doubted her story and saked hor where the money was. "In my stocking, she replied, and drawing therefrom a bunch of paper, which she showed and which proved the employee at the deput necempanied the lady to St. Paul, where he was presented with a handsome pin as a reward for his services .- St. Paul

The Judge as a Family Man.

has a large family of children, of all of whom he is justly proud. The day after he had been presented with twins he was listening to Jurors'

"Your Honor, I can't serve." "Why not?" asked the court, in tones that had become stereotyped.

as he looked out of the court room excuses, when a man who had been

Judge Thomas A. Moran, of Chicago,

By the direction of the agent one of to be genuine Government bonce.

worth of Government bonds and $5,000

-[Portland Oregonian.

were watching her.

Pioneer Press.

drawn said, mildly :

window.

she carried on her person.

substance in the contents of Its mate from some cause died and

The goose was one of a pair that

The sea ward

the

which was then common.

coplous flow of blood.

Take a mastiff pup of a month old, Troop horses could not have done and stuff the same with cloves, clr-I thought at first the line meant namon, and divers other spices, and to charge me, but at a signal it made a left wheel and galloped straight off thereafter boll the carcass entire, the which, taken warm from the pot and Then ft hid unto the part that both been bitke, assumed the shape of a triangle of 19.

craw

craw.

lar.

ranch here.

AGENTS WANTED. Et y town there are Postmasters, Merchants as, Farmirs, Professional Men, and hus pospie who util is glad to get this thrillin. In it is not that the point is put this the filling it. It is now having an unparalled sale, it sells at the oral. More and Women Agents miking from the point of the sells of the sells of the sells of the sells. We want an agent in explore which is a sell of marks, give the this point of the sells of the sells of the comparison of the sells of the sells of the comparison of the sells of the sells of the comparison of the sells of the sell of the sells of the sells of the sell of the sells of the sells of the sells of the sell of the sells of the sells of the sells of the sell of the sells of the sells of the sells of the sell of the sells of the sells of the sells of the sell of the sells of the sells of the sells of the sell of the sells of the sells of the sells of the sell of the sells of the sells of the sells of the sell of the sells of the sells of the sells of the sell of the sells of the sells of the sells of the sell of the sells of the sells of the sells of the sell of the sells of the sells

VINTER & OO., SPRINGFIELD, MASS.

RUMA Peruna is composed wholly of anregetable ingredients, each one anek aswisdged by the 1 n os bu the most potent cf al adles houve to medical swithout fall every case 6 THE REPORT OF THE PARTY OF THE branie Catarrh, Consumption, neral and Nervous Debility. uralgia, Chronic Rheuma-

m. Dinbetis, Stone in the ladder, Bright's Disease, Dys "pala, Liver Complaint and Diseases of the Stomach.

THE OWNER DESCRIPTION OF THE OWNER OWNER OF THE OWNER Druggist is out of our pumph a "I'lls of Life," or if you ar over a discuss not multime in these advartisement & Co., Co., Co., Co., (No. 4.

MANALIN positively Sold by a Dona in Mercelials and THE MERICAN PROPERTY OF THE MERICAN reavings and even the stars prepared and filed the Patent (these are even indice. Terms very sortable. So there is a constraint of models drawings. A busic of a star for SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN, shirth has out of its kind privation in the world. rge and around dry timetrated terrespaper and AVPERIETS Y at Halos a year, and is to have been derived to protect. t induced and a second Try of tour months for one dollar. and by all newsfulters. If you have an income from to paramit write to from A Co., publicate of Scientific American, it income again to the second scientific and the iteration of the second science in the second science of the second sci

B. J. LYNCH, UNDERTAKER.

And Manufacturer and Dester in HOME AND CITY MADE FURNITURE

PARLOR AND CHAMBER SUITS, LOU'NGES, BEDSTEADS

TABLES, CHAIRS,

Mattresses &c., 1605 ELEVENTH AVENUE

Between 16th and 17th Sts., ALTOONA, PA. #g- Citizens of Cambria county and all others wishing to purchase honest FURNITURE, &c. c! iest prices are respectfully invited to give me. I before buying elsewhere, as we are confident that we can meet every want and please every Altoona, April 16, 1880 .- tf.

de from WASHINGTON. than those remo Send MODEL OR DRAWING, Wendvise as to patentability free of charge; and we make NO CHARGE UNLESS PATENT 1S SECURED. We refer, here, to the Postmaster, the Supt, of Money Order Div., and to officials of the U.S. Patent Office. For circular, advice, terms and references to actual clients in your own State or County, write to

C. A.SNOW & CO., Opp. Patent Office, Washington, D.C.

DRAW-POKER

nervousiv

al my way nto his heart soon, for fierberr's sake

That very niht, when Gertrude Roddy returned from the opera, she was in-formed that hr uncle-she called him rephew, under pain of his perpetual discashre, which meant domnheritance so, though th relationship was much and an end of all intercourse between them, even to dream of a marriage with tore distant-yas very III. She loguined bout him with the kind-est interest, bu did not go to him. Fibel Jamis; and the young man had ujetly informed him that the said mar-She asked to see the physician, and ringe had ceased to be a matter of reams, and was very soon to be a reality. manifested th greatest concern when Consequently, open war was declared : Herbert was ordered to leave his uncle's she was informed that the symptoms indicated typical lover. se at a moment's notice, and Ger-

Bui I approad no immediate dan-ger, Miss Revie. I will send a purse M u wish, ultimigh there is a young lady in the house whoseems competent to do all that s required. She will make no. mbanker about he medicine. I'm sure, Whom do pu mean? There is no ing hely in te house but myself." "She is a sight, fair girl and your uncle scenes plesed with her attention." "Ab, it is jinda. Yes, sho is very

As for himself, although he affected to capable. She sny maid, Dr. Ross." Your maid Miss Roddy? Wellwell, whoever se is, she's the right kind aside all expressions of gratitude as un of a per-on tobe in a sick-room, and placed a high estimate on the conduct, for he would accept nothing loss time you can't do beer than lend her to Mr. Une dull as nese, Good evening, Miss. Roddy. I shulbe in early in the mor-The two young people loved cash other faillerafly and foundly, and as fourdug, and havegiven all necessary incilons for th night to your maid." bert loft his uncless house, with provid Miss Boddy mg her bell.

Send Linda hme," she ordered, as the housemaid apsured in answer to it. If you pleas, miss, she is in Mr.

horiv at his heart. What right had he to bring me up Turnball's roomand he is sleeping. "All the mot reason why she can be without profession, or other means of eavility a fivefilood, if my position in his spared. Do yo take her place. Mrs. business were not a sure thing, irre-Remain and sen her to me at once. I spective of his wishes with regard to my have business o great importance to be magninger, or anything else? Even a good trade would be a boon now. As it is ----" Linda," sheaid, as the girl entered the room with male and troubled face. Ethei kept house for her father in a I must leave ten to-morrow.

pretty little cottage that they rented near Hastings, from the windows of I have profised to marry Colonel Rachurn as soons I can get ready, and which they had, upon one side, the most dare not run he risk of contagion. superb of ocean views; upon the other. Make as much hate as you can, and be a woodland scene of the loveliest hills prepared to comwith me. "Why, Miss Bildy, typhold fover is Mr. Jarvis was a fournalist whose not contrations there is no danger, snews red the dir surprise giving place "Many doctor claim that it is, al-work was not nearly an renumerative ar-it was hard and constant; lately his health had failed, and both mind and hand had deconded rost, in a way that though Ross thirs otherwise; and I am could not be denied. Symptoms of paralysis were evident, and Ethel, in great alarm, fasisted that putte sure that is, especially when one's own health; run down, as mine is at present. But surely ye do not mean to leave her father should cause work. Their little "rainy-day" fund was called into requisition, and Ethel herself Mr. Turnbull wile he is ill-perhaps dying? obtained a clerkship in the town tele-

"How dare yu argue with me! I have told you lam obliged to do so, stupid girl. Te Doctor Ross in the morning to engre a skilled nurse, the best that can be obtained, and be ready to accomany me at noon. Do you understand Your duty is to obey me, is it notinot to discuss my wishes

"Not after thight, I believe, madame. My engrement with you will have expired theorrow, as it was an express conditit that I was not to be required to leavHastings. "No doubt, I. Ross will be willing which was indeed a necessity. " Dear father, your old-world notions are mere projudices, in which I take no to engage my selices as nurse. In the mean time, I collder myself in charge." part. Anyway, it's only for a while, dear, for you know I, too, am of a lit-And she left to room without another word, and returid to the sick man. erary turn of mind, and when that henp of senttered manuscript upstairs in metamorphosed into a successful book "I have deterined to alter my will then I will remember my duty to my in your favour, ada Lyle. I have been ancestors, and retire into private life. In the meantime I must keep the pot appointed in 1 belonging to me. It is meet th J should reward faithfulness when I id it, though I am copvinced no thoujt of reward influenced

What is youfull name, child, that I may give it to a lawyer?" My full man is Ethelinda Lyke Jar-vis. Dear Mr. (rabuli, if I have indeed won your good vision, forgive my deception, and ddustice to your nephew, delicate face, and his fingers worked Herbert Langle

"I am Ethel arvis, the unfortunate My daughter shall never marry into cause of your seration from him." a family where she will not be more than Ethel Jarvi What do you mean, girl? "I do not ask it, sir. I have no family. "Just what I y, sir. I entered your My unete has himself severed all connec-tion between us, and henceforth I owe him no duty. Your daughter is my behouse with myeind made up to win your kind regardif possible, and, with your consento my marriage with trothed wife, with your consent, and, Herbert Langlej Believe me, had no thought of please heaven, I will soon make a home

He inde his friend go on and wait for him before the next show window. Then he stepped up to the side of the carriage, opened the door softly and then slammed it shut again. The effect upon the coachman was electrical. Up went his chin into the air, and in his features could be detected the relief he felt that his mistress had got into the carriage without detecting his criminal sleepiness. Then he turned his head slightly to receive his directions, and observed Mr. Muckay apparently in conversation with the occupant of the carriage. The comedian addressed a few polite remarks to the carpty carriage, said | and said Good afternoon." raised his hat, and then turned to the coachman. "Home," he is 1, and the broughman turned maje-theally about and rolled swiftly up to town. A moment later a seal-skin clad lady charged from the store, followed by a porter carrying half a dozen bundles. She walked to the curbstone and looked with annovament up and down the street, and then turned amprily back to

" Far be it from me to intrude upon the samelity of her grief," observed Mr. Mackay softly, and with his friend e walked down Fourteenth street.-[New York Sun.

The People Not Wanted on Street Cars. Men who wroke bad eights on the front platform. Men who cross their legs when the cars are crowded.

Men who chew and expectorate in the cars. Peddlers who fill the cars with their ares and smell badly. Men who whistle. The stareful dude.

The awful masher.

Men who talk so loudly that no one else can hope to be heard by his neighbor.

Men who sit sidewise when people are looking for sents. Men who crowd the platform so that people are squeezed nearly to death in getting on or off the cars.

Men who pick their teeth in public. Men who clean their finger-nails in Juveniles who insist on skylarking, Boys who eat peanuts. The small boy who, on muddy days, insists on kneeling on the seats.

Squalling babies. Men who have been indulging in too nuch Pleasant Valley mixtures.

Men who hum all the way. Men who want to know where the car is going to and when they get there. Women who flirt with the wrong fellow The girl who hangs on to him all the way. The bundle woman. The lady who has just been doing a little shopping and bought out the store. Glagling girls.

The umbrella flend who always pokes the driver in the back or the conluctor in the stomach.

The stout lady who, when the car urches, subsides in one's lap. The shrill-voiced female. The mother of six who brings the whole six along. The lady who will mistake the bell rope for the strap. The woman who at every street corner asks where she is to get out. The gum-cating girl.

Mayor Deering, I am collecting some money for the fair; won't you contribute? The Mayor put his hand in his pocket, took out come money, and, without looking at it, handed it to the little Instead of rushing off in affright, as I had expected, the leader of the band demiss. She thanked him and went off but in a few moments was back again

" Mayor Deering, I forgot to tell you that we proposed to print the names of those contributing the money I am collecting, and when you gave me some money you didn't stop to look at it, and I thought you cught to " company front," and they went off at a gallop and maintained it as long as I know that you gave mo seven cents, Press. because I didn't believe you would want it printed that the Mayor of Portland gave seven conts to the fair.

A broad smile overspread the Mayor's face, and, drawing his pocket-book, he same car with a queer small boy who had handed the little miss a scrip $5 bill. a ca.4 in his eys, a patch on his knee, and " Now," says our little miss, "I hear Governor Roble is here, Mr. Mayor, and I would like over so much to be introduced. Won't you introduce me?" " Certainly," replied his honor, always He extracted them, however, with a vora gallant, "come with me." Bo the couple walked up to where the Governor was, and the Mayor addressclous rapidity from a paper mag, and read some trashy story paper the wille.

ng him, said : Governor, here is a little girl who is very anxious to know the chief magistrate of the State."

The Governor turned, shook hands with our little miss, asked her her name, patted her head and asked her what he could do for her.

cock-eve through the paper bag to dis-" Why, Governor Robie," she replied, cover stray crumbs, and relaxed into de-"I am collecting some money for the light over the adventures of the here he falr. His importuriable demeanor, his appa-tite, and his digestion, were alike envia-

" Of course, I will," replied the Governor: "what shall I give you? Well, you see," said our little miss, Mayor Deering has given me $5, and of course the Governor of a State would wish to give more than the mayor of a city."

The Governor was quick to see the joke, and laughingly drew his wallot and our little miss a bill to add to the other contributions for the relief fund. -Portland (Me) Press.

Bean Soup Better Than Beef Ten.

A writer in the People's Health Journal tells of a debilitated patient who did not do at all well on beef tea, but was easily restored to health on a diet of bean sour The only remarkable thing about this is that the patient ever expected to derive strength and nourishmont from heef toa alone. Considering that we have upward of a hundred thousand doctors, and that a very large proportion of them are fully agreed that beaf tea is almost valueloss, except as a stimulant, it is surpris-" Is everything swept away?" asked his anxious wife. ing that people continue to look upon It as a food.

A Funny Mistake,

adjusted to its fingers. Thereupon the dy quietly pushed farther into her sent,

It was on a Lehigh Valley train bound South the other day. Approaching the seat occupie i by a lady, the conductor pleasantly extended his right hand, with the punch handily

The most master staurer Over health by the -f Panere's Tomo, but delay is that the is its time. Sold by all Dragslets in a spin. The DERCORNS officient and heat arms for Overs, otherways and the arms for Overs, which are the arms to reach the transmission of the arms of the time transmission of the time transmission of the time transmission of the time transmission of the time transmission of the time transmission of the time transmission of the time transmission of the ti	The second string, with calendarium. Fest matter of proving Triteroscess between a winners and being proving Triteroscess between a winners and being proving the second string and your string the second string between the second string and the second string between the second string string in the second string between the second string string the second string between the second string string franklin fublishing Go., The second string	He turned and caught her two hands in his and drew her to his side. "Ethel, darling, I have come to may good-by. I must go away at ones." "Go away?" she gasped in surprise. "Yes: I cannot stay to straggle in poverty. Thave an uncle in Australia- my father's brother-who has often asked	ngainst the step at has offended you. Dear, kind find, will you not forgive	The woman who at every street cor- ner asks where she is to get out. The gum-cating girl. The women who, after stopping the car, only take five minutes to kise and say good-by. The old young girl. The young old girl. The musical enthusiast.	my tooth extracted. It hasn't been a source of annoyance to me in several days." The conductor stepped nearer to the end of the seat, and was about to make a	A Talking Match.	Approaching quite close the juror whispered.
A CHARGE AND A THINK LAKE MITTA	T. W. DICK, ATTORNEY-AT-1.AW Ebenshurg, Pa. Office in building of T 1. Lloyd, dec'd, (first floor,) Centre street. At manner of legal business attended to satisfactor ril and collections a speciality. (10-14,-17.) AGENTGS MANTED for DR. SCOTT'S beauti- Sample free to these becoming agents. DR. SCOTT, 842 Broadwar, New YORK.	him gratefully the assistance I have hitherto slighted. 	was soft and gem, and he searched the girl's face with fnest eyes—eyes that	The single-struck girl. The girl who captures the conduct- or's attention so that he has no eyes or ears left for his business. The loud girl. The women who paint. The stalwart party who challenges you for your seat. The girl who looks at you too hard. The girl who won't look at you at	facetious reply, as he considered that the lady was not in earnest, when she met him with: "Didn't I tell you in sufficiently plain terms that I would not submit to the operation? Are you deaf? Go on about your business with that instrument" She was really in earnest, and when she learned what the number was for	Two French women entered into a contest to determine which of them could talk the faster. A mutual friend was appointed unpire, and the sum of 1,000 frames was to go to the victor. For three hours they read from Eu- gene Suc's femilieton, and during that time the victor successed in pronouncing	Foetical, Husband: "I would I were in Heaven." Talkative Wife: "That is unkind; I'm sure I make it as pleasant as I can for you."