midst and that the trial of Aunkenbauer. -Mr. Joseph Brown, has purchased the just over at last court, would be followed by house on Centre and Crawford streets from the trial of Jacob Wilson, for murder at the next court.

On Saturday evening a number of men had gathered into the store room of Munroe Barkers', who have now received a new & Co., at Galitzin ; among the rest were two brothers, William and Jacob Wilson. Everything passed along quietly until the arrival of three Hungarians one of whom appeared to be slightly under the influence of liquor. It was not long until a wordy altercation ensued between the intoxicated Hun and son, knocking the Hungarian down, Michael panion knocked down, picked up an iron ebiliat raised it in his hand and started toward Wilson At this Wilson jerked out a revolver, and as Kunzman advanced upon him with the uplifted skillet, fired, when Konymon made a step and fell with his face in the skillet and the life-blood ebbing out at a bullet hole in the right breast near the breast bone. The bullet had entered the right breast and passed to the left, severed the windning and cutting the main artery and lodged in the left side. Some time after, some parties about the office of the hotel surmising that the stranger might be the Wilson who had done the shooting at Gallitzin, went over to the jall and wekened un Warden Peach, and then went down to Joseph Gutwald's residence and wakened up Mr. Peter Gutwald, of Gal-Itzin, who happened to be on a visit home, and who was brought up to the hotel for the surpose of identifying the man Wilson.

They proceeded to his room, knocked at the door and demanded admittance, and inform ed him of the object of their late visit. He admitted that he was the man and said that t was his intention to give himself up in the morning. He accompanied Warden Peach to the bail and was locked up. He is about 24 years of age and is unmarried.
