HOW HE TRADED HUSBANDS

A Pittsburg Woman Goes from No. 1 to No. 2 and Back Again Three Times, When She Finally Settles Down With No. 3. A peculiar marriage relation was brought to light in a document drawn up in the office of Alderman Rodgers, of the Thirty-third Ward, on Monday evening. The document referred to is as follows: PITTSBURGH, July 4, 1887. Articles of agreement, this day between Joseph Miller, Elizabeth Miller, and E. Connor, Joseph Miller, and Elizabeth Miller, agree to leave her, her lawful husband, and not go near while they remain together as wife and husband from this date. [Signed:] JOSEPH MILLER, ELIZABETH MILLER, E. CONNOR. The circumstances which led to the agreement are as peculiar as the document itself. The story supplied by friends of all parties concerned is about as follows: Mrs. Miller was married to Miss Elizabeth Hine, the daughter of a respected and well-to-do West End family. Miss Hine married a highly cultivated young lady, of a winning disposition, and she made a good wife. Miller was a puddler employed at Lindsay & McCutcheon's, a large brick-making establishment, and he lived happily for nearly a year, making their home in the Thirty-fifth Ward, this city. Then Miller was overtaken by adversity. He got out of work and went to another city in search of employment, leaving his wife at their home in the West End. Shortly after he left news of his death reached his wife's ears, and she was overcome with grief. Time, however, healed her sorrows, and after a year she became the wife of Mr. E. Connor, a former business friend of her husband No. 1. They had lived together about a year when their consternation Miller put in an appearance. He had never been ill, but some evil-minded person had circulated the rumor of his death for some unknown period. In the face of these circumstances all parties were at a loss to know what to do. Both men had been warm friends in their youth days. They had worked and lived together and regarded each other as brothers. A consultation was held, and it resulted in the release of Miller from the hands of his wife. The release was made and husband No. 2 returned to the solitary life of a bachelor, and took up his abode on Ann street, South Side. Mr. Miller then lived with his wife a few months, when he was found that his life would be more pleasant if he parted from her, and she separated. Miller went to board on Rebecca street, Allegheny, his wife remaining with her mother in Shalersville. It was not long until Mr. Connor presented himself as a candidate for the 11th Pennsylvania Reserve and can collect the $100 without trouble. Every man is entitled to the $100 excepting those who joined in 1862. The heirs are 1st widow, 2d children, 3d father and mother, 4th brothers and sisters, and 5th the most distant blood relation.
