

DEMOCRATIC STATE TICKET.

FOR JUDGE OF THE SUPREME COURT: J. ROSS THOMPSON, of Erie county.

FOR STATE TREASURER: R. J. McGRANN, of Lancaster county.

DEMOCRATIC COUNTY TICKET.

FOR TREASURER: THOMAS E. HOWE, Cambria.

FOR COMMISSIONERS: JOHN KIRBY, Johnstown. JOHN CAMPBELL, Conemaugh.

FOR FOUR HOUSE DELEGATES: GEORGE W. EASLY, Johnstown.

FOR ADDITORS: J. W. GRIFFIN, Munster Tap. LOUIS HOLLAND, Johnstown.

FRANCIS MURPHY, the temperance lecturer but who don't believe in Prohibition, says: "A man must prohibit whisky himself; the law can't do it for him." So a man must abolish poverty for himself. Henry George can't do it for him.

The State Convention of the Union Labor and Greenback party was held at Williamsport on Wednesday last and a State ticket nominated. Charles S. Keyser, of Philadelphia, was nominated for Judge of the Supreme Court, and Henry L. Banker, of Hollidaysburg, for State Treasurer.

The theatre at Exeter, England, took fire on Monday evening during the performance of "Romeo and Juliet." The occupants of the place after a awful struggle escaped, but many of them were frightfully injured. There was only one way of escape from the gallery and the rest of it was terrible.

The Philadelphia Record of Monday last, in speaking of the prohibited meeting which took place on Sunday on the hill of Ballycoore, Ireland, and which is referred to at length in a Dublin dispatch elsewhere published, says: "More than fifty years ago the great Irish agitator Daniel O'Connell was imprisoned because he had called a meeting of Irish men and women at Clontarf, near Dublin, although the assembly, having been prohibited by the Government, was never in fact held."

The Supreme Court of Illinois, which met at Ottawa on Tuesday did not deliver an opinion either on that day or on Wednesday in the case of the seven Chicago Anarchists who are under sentence of death. It has been so long since they were convicted that even in the verdict of the jury is unexplained, the moral effect of the verdict and sentence will be unaccountably lost through the law's delay.

Men Butler is always picturesque as well in war as in peace, and has just set up all his previous performances by proposing that the surplus in the Treasury should be given to the soldiers of the Union until their wants are satisfied, and then, if there is any left, he would divide it generously among the soldiers of the late Confederacy. Ben is now sure to be a candidate again for the Presidency and they make a sweeping bid for the votes of the boys in blue and the boys in gray.

MAHONE and Riddleberger who were once as thick as two thieves, but who are now as thin as a knife, were the plaintiff and defendant in the order of their names as shown stated, in a case tried before a Virginia court at Woodstock, on Tuesday last. Mahone had brought suit against Riddleberger on a note for $500 given in 1881, which Mahone alleged was for borrowed money. Riddleberger's defense was that the money was given to him for several campaign purposes and that he had expended it for the benefit of the party. His testimony in the case was rich, rare and racy, and among other things he intimated that Mahone had committed perjury. The trial terminated in a disagreement of the jury.

There was another case on the trial list between the same parties in which Mahone seeks to recover $1,000 for money loaned, but it was continued until the next term of court, when two such notes as Mahone and Riddleberger fall out the true ownership of Virginia politics when they were at the helm stands a fair chance of being exposed, and when that is done it affords interesting reading.

SIMON CAMERON arrived at New York on the steamship Sorvia on Monday last on his return from a two month's trip to England and Scotland. He says he enjoyed excellent health during his absence and had a good time generally. To a newspaper reporter who attempted to interview the General at the Girard House, Philadelphia, on Monday evening, he is represented as saying with emphasis: "I don't know anything about politics and I wouldn't tell you if I did. I don't know whether or not my son wants to be Chairman of the next Republican National Committee and I don't care. I didn't see Blaine in England and didn't try to; didn't hear anything about him, and I don't know anything about him." It is very evident that Simon don't feel much interest in Blaine. Nor did he ever do so for it was his son, Don who managed the Pennsylvania delegation at the Cincinnati Convention in 1874, as to defeat Blaine and nominate Hayes. Blaine was a vivid recollection of that disastrous turn in his political fortunes and estimates the Camerons, father and son, accordingly.

The London Times estimates that Great Britain will require during the coming year from 136,000,000 to 152,000,000 bushels of foreign wheat for the use of her people, and that fully 100,000,000 bushels will be taken from the United States.

Since the Charleston earthquake a little over a year ago 6356 residences or other buildings have been rebuilt, and 371 new buildings erected at a total cost of $1,971,699.

In view of the fact that it is now almost an impossible matter in any Court in the country to convict a wealthy man of a criminal offense, while men who are poor and without any political influence are promptly disposed of and sent to the penitentiary on a fast train, the following resolutions were adopted by the Democratic State Convention at Allentown last week: "First—That we renew our allegiance to the principles and declaration of the platform adopted at Chicago in 1884, which Mr. Cleveland, the nominee of the party, heartily endorsed, declaring in his letter of acceptance: 'I have earnestly considered the platform adopted by the convention and cordially approve the same; so plain a statement of Democratic faith, and the principles upon which it rests, appeals to the suffrages of the people need no supposition or explanation.' To these principles he has faithfully adhered in all his public utterances. We further affirm the platform adopted by the State convention of 1884, and in view of the existing condition of the public treasury we demand with emphasis that the large surplus already in the treasury be used to pay the public debt, and that the current and unnecessary increase going on beyond the needs of the Government should be immediately prevented by a wise and prudent reduction of internal taxation; and of duties on imports in accordance with the foregoing declaration. Second—That we support the administration of President Cleveland. Wise, sagacious and patriotic, he has rendered significant to the business interests of the country in the Democratic party, and we commend the administration of the Government with apt ability, has strengthened the public credit and thereby given us a period of great industrial and commercial prosperity. Apprehension in the minds of the people of the advent of our party to the control of the Federal Government would be dangerous to the peace and well-being of the country, and more respected than ever by other nations. His period of administration has been pure, economical and efficient, and we commend the approval of the fair-minded and conservative citizens. Third—We recognize the material benefit which this country has received from immigration. We endorse the legislation of Congress against the importation of contract labor and to compel the return of emigrant criminals. We commend the national administration for its efforts to rigidly enforce these laws, and while we are opposed to any illiberal restrictions, we favor such additional measures of regulation as may be found necessary. Fourth—We favor liberal positions to deserving Union soldiers and sailors. Sectional and class distinctions should be abolished in addition to the pension rolls a larger number than was ever before placed therein within a corresponding period, while at the same time protecting the treasury from fraudulent claims as proof of this fact. Fifth—We point with pride to the fact that since the Democratic party has been in power in any branch of the Federal Government, not one acre of the public lands has been granted to corporations, nor has any land grant been revised or extended. Sixth—The failure of the State revenue bill, after it had been carefully perfected and nearly unanimously passed by the Legislature of the Commonwealth, was a crime against the majority of the Commonwealth, whereby the people must pay $1,000,000 annually in taxation that should and would have been paid by the corporations, to the benefit of the State administration to attempt any correction of the wrong doing or neglect of the fraud or criminal neglect of the Legislature, and that both the people and people, and expressed the supremacy of the rule in Pennsylvania. Seventh—That we reaffirm our declaration that we support the party whose legislation as well as its policy and the provisions of article 17 of the State constitution, relative to corporations, to prevent improper discrimination and equal taxation. Eighth—That we denounce the action of the late Republican Legislature in the defeat of the bill for the relief of the prisoners of the State, and in the all district of the State, known as the Billingsley bill, as being in the interest of monopoly and against the interest of the people of that large section of the State. Ninth—The Democratic party sympathizes with the oppressed of all nations and in all movements having for their object the relief of the oppressed, and of local self-government such as are desired by the people of this Union as the result of the enforcement of democratic principles. We are in favor of the bill for Ireland as the acknowledgment of a sacred inherent right, and the gallant struggle for the accomplishment of this long delayed act of justice under the magnificent leadership of Gladstone, and Parnell commends itself to the moral support of the American people. We are in favor of the bill for Ireland as the acknowledgment of a sacred inherent right, and the gallant struggle for the accomplishment of this long delayed act of justice under the magnificent leadership of Gladstone, and Parnell commends itself to the moral support of the American people. We are in favor of the bill for Ireland as the acknowledgment of a sacred inherent right, and the gallant struggle for the accomplishment of this long delayed act of justice under the magnificent leadership of Gladstone, and Parnell commends itself to the moral support of the American people.

When Henry George goes out into the farmers he does not do it with the enticement of money, but with the enticement of justice. He says he enjoyed excellent health during his absence and had a good time generally. To a newspaper reporter who attempted to interview the General at the Girard House, Philadelphia, on Monday evening, he is represented as saying with emphasis: "I don't know anything about politics and I wouldn't tell you if I did. I don't know whether or not my son wants to be Chairman of the next Republican National Committee and I don't care. I didn't see Blaine in England and didn't try to; didn't hear anything about him, and I don't know anything about him." It is very evident that Simon don't feel much interest in Blaine. Nor did he ever do so for it was his son, Don who managed the Pennsylvania delegation at the Cincinnati Convention in 1874, as to defeat Blaine and nominate Hayes. Blaine was a vivid recollection of that disastrous turn in his political fortunes and estimates the Camerons, father and son, accordingly.

The London Times estimates that Great Britain will require during the coming year from 136,000,000 to 152,000,000 bushels of foreign wheat for the use of her people, and that fully 100,000,000 bushels will be taken from the United States.

Since the Charleston earthquake a little over a year ago 6356 residences or other buildings have been rebuilt, and 371 new buildings erected at a total cost of $1,971,699.

When Henry George goes out into the farmers he does not do it with the enticement of money, but with the enticement of justice. He says he enjoyed excellent health during his absence and had a good time generally. To a newspaper reporter who attempted to interview the General at the Girard House, Philadelphia, on Monday evening, he is represented as saying with emphasis: "I don't know anything about politics and I wouldn't tell you if I did. I don't know whether or not my son wants to be Chairman of the next Republican National Committee and I don't care. I didn't see Blaine in England and didn't try to; didn't hear anything about him, and I don't know anything about him." It is very evident that Simon don't feel much interest in Blaine. Nor did he ever do so for it was his son, Don who managed the Pennsylvania delegation at the Cincinnati Convention in 1874, as to defeat Blaine and nominate Hayes. Blaine was a vivid recollection of that disastrous turn in his political fortunes and estimates the Camerons, father and son, accordingly.

The London Times estimates that Great Britain will require during the coming year from 136,000,000 to 152,000,000 bushels of foreign wheat for the use of her people, and that fully 100,000,000 bushels will be taken from the United States.

Since the Charleston earthquake a little over a year ago 6356 residences or other buildings have been rebuilt, and 371 new buildings erected at a total cost of $1,971,699.

When Henry George goes out into the farmers he does not do it with the enticement of money, but with the enticement of justice. He says he enjoyed excellent health during his absence and had a good time generally. To a newspaper reporter who attempted to interview the General at the Girard House, Philadelphia, on Monday evening, he is represented as saying with emphasis: "I don't know anything about politics and I wouldn't tell you if I did. I don't know whether or not my son wants to be Chairman of the next Republican National Committee and I don't care. I didn't see Blaine in England and didn't try to; didn't hear anything about him, and I don't know anything about him." It is very evident that Simon don't feel much interest in Blaine. Nor did he ever do so for it was his son, Don who managed the Pennsylvania delegation at the Cincinnati Convention in 1874, as to defeat Blaine and nominate Hayes. Blaine was a vivid recollection of that disastrous turn in his political fortunes and estimates the Camerons, father and son, accordingly.

The London Times estimates that Great Britain will require during the coming year from 136,000,000 to 152,000,000 bushels of foreign wheat for the use of her people, and that fully 100,000,000 bushels will be taken from the United States.

Since the Charleston earthquake a little over a year ago 6356 residences or other buildings have been rebuilt, and 371 new buildings erected at a total cost of $1,971,699.

When Henry George goes out into the farmers he does not do it with the enticement of money, but with the enticement of justice. He says he enjoyed excellent health during his absence and had a good time generally. To a newspaper reporter who attempted to interview the General at the Girard House, Philadelphia, on Monday evening, he is represented as saying with emphasis: "I don't know anything about politics and I wouldn't tell you if I did. I don't know whether or not my son wants to be Chairman of the next Republican National Committee and I don't care. I didn't see Blaine in England and didn't try to; didn't hear anything about him, and I don't know anything about him." It is very evident that Simon don't feel much interest in Blaine. Nor did he ever do so for it was his son, Don who managed the Pennsylvania delegation at the Cincinnati Convention in 1874, as to defeat Blaine and nominate Hayes. Blaine was a vivid recollection of that disastrous turn in his political fortunes and estimates the Camerons, father and son, accordingly.

The London Times estimates that Great Britain will require during the coming year from 136,000,000 to 152,000,000 bushels of foreign wheat for the use of her people, and that fully 100,000,000 bushels will be taken from the United States.

Since the Charleston earthquake a little over a year ago 6356 residences or other buildings have been rebuilt, and 371 new buildings erected at a total cost of $1,971,699.

When Henry George goes out into the farmers he does not do it with the enticement of money, but with the enticement of justice. He says he enjoyed excellent health during his absence and had a good time generally. To a newspaper reporter who attempted to interview the General at the Girard House, Philadelphia, on Monday evening, he is represented as saying with emphasis: "I don't know anything about politics and I wouldn't tell you if I did. I don't know whether or not my son wants to be Chairman of the next Republican National Committee and I don't care. I didn't see Blaine in England and didn't try to; didn't hear anything about him, and I don't know anything about him." It is very evident that Simon don't feel much interest in Blaine. Nor did he ever do so for it was his son, Don who managed the Pennsylvania delegation at the Cincinnati Convention in 1874, as to defeat Blaine and nominate Hayes. Blaine was a vivid recollection of that disastrous turn in his political fortunes and estimates the Camerons, father and son, accordingly.

The London Times estimates that Great Britain will require during the coming year from 136,000,000 to 152,000,000 bushels of foreign wheat for the use of her people, and that fully 100,000,000 bushels will be taken from the United States.

Since the Charleston earthquake a little over a year ago 6356 residences or other buildings have been rebuilt, and 371 new buildings erected at a total cost of $1,971,699.

When Henry George goes out into the farmers he does not do it with the enticement of money, but with the enticement of justice. He says he enjoyed excellent health during his absence and had a good time generally. To a newspaper reporter who attempted to interview the General at the Girard House, Philadelphia, on Monday evening, he is represented as saying with emphasis: "I don't know anything about politics and I wouldn't tell you if I did. I don't know whether or not my son wants to be Chairman of the next Republican National Committee and I don't care. I didn't see Blaine in England and didn't try to; didn't hear anything about him, and I don't know anything about him." It is very evident that Simon don't feel much interest in Blaine. Nor did he ever do so for it was his son, Don who managed the Pennsylvania delegation at the Cincinnati Convention in 1874, as to defeat Blaine and nominate Hayes. Blaine was a vivid recollection of that disastrous turn in his political fortunes and estimates the Camerons, father and son, accordingly.

The London Times estimates that Great Britain will require during the coming year from 136,000,000 to 152,000,000 bushels of foreign wheat for the use of her people, and that fully 100,000,000 bushels will be taken from the United States.

Since the Charleston earthquake a little over a year ago 6356 residences or other buildings have been rebuilt, and 371 new buildings erected at a total cost of $1,971,699.

The following are the resolutions adopted by the Democratic State Convention at Allentown last week: "First—That we renew our allegiance to the principles and declaration of the platform adopted at Chicago in 1884, which Mr. Cleveland, the nominee of the party, heartily endorsed, declaring in his letter of acceptance: 'I have earnestly considered the platform adopted by the convention and cordially approve the same; so plain a statement of Democratic faith, and the principles upon which it rests, appeals to the suffrages of the people need no supposition or explanation.' To these principles he has faithfully adhered in all his public utterances. We further affirm the platform adopted by the State convention of 1884, and in view of the existing condition of the public treasury we demand with emphasis that the large surplus already in the treasury be used to pay the public debt, and that the current and unnecessary increase going on beyond the needs of the Government should be immediately prevented by a wise and prudent reduction of internal taxation; and of duties on imports in accordance with the foregoing declaration. Second—That we support the administration of President Cleveland. Wise, sagacious and patriotic, he has rendered significant to the business interests of the country in the Democratic party, and we commend the administration of the Government with apt ability, has strengthened the public credit and thereby given us a period of great industrial and commercial prosperity. Apprehension in the minds of the people of the advent of our party to the control of the Federal Government would be dangerous to the peace and well-being of the country, and more respected than ever by other nations. His period of administration has been pure, economical and efficient, and we commend the approval of the fair-minded and conservative citizens. Third—We recognize the material benefit which this country has received from immigration. We endorse the legislation of Congress against the importation of contract labor and to compel the return of emigrant criminals. We commend the national administration for its efforts to rigidly enforce these laws, and while we are opposed to any illiberal restrictions, we favor such additional measures of regulation as may be found necessary. Fourth—We favor liberal positions to deserving Union soldiers and sailors. Sectional and class distinctions should be abolished in addition to the pension rolls a larger number than was ever before placed therein within a corresponding period, while at the same time protecting the treasury from fraudulent claims as proof of this fact. Fifth—We point with pride to the fact that since the Democratic party has been in power in any branch of the Federal Government, not one acre of the public lands has been granted to corporations, nor has any land grant been revised or extended. Sixth—The failure of the State revenue bill, after it had been carefully perfected and nearly unanimously passed by the Legislature of the Commonwealth, was a crime against the majority of the Commonwealth, whereby the people must pay $1,000,000 annually in taxation that should and would have been paid by the corporations, to the benefit of the State administration to attempt any correction of the wrong doing or neglect of the fraud or criminal neglect of the Legislature, and that both the people and people, and expressed the supremacy of the rule in Pennsylvania. Seventh—That we reaffirm our declaration that we support the party whose legislation as well as its policy and the provisions of article 17 of the State constitution, relative to corporations, to prevent improper discrimination and equal taxation. Eighth—That we denounce the action of the late Republican Legislature in the defeat of the bill for the relief of the prisoners of the State, and in the all district of the State, known as the Billingsley bill, as being in the interest of monopoly and against the interest of the people of that large section of the State. Ninth—The Democratic party sympathizes with the oppressed of all nations and in all movements having for their object the relief of the oppressed, and of local self-government such as are desired by the people of this Union as the result of the enforcement of democratic principles. We are in favor of the bill for Ireland as the acknowledgment of a sacred inherent right, and the gallant struggle for the accomplishment of this long delayed act of justice under the magnificent leadership of Gladstone, and Parnell commends itself to the moral support of the American people. We are in favor of the bill for Ireland as the acknowledgment of a sacred inherent right, and the gallant struggle for the accomplishment of this long delayed act of justice under the magnificent leadership of Gladstone, and Parnell commends itself to the moral support of the American people.

When Henry George goes out into the farmers he does not do it with the enticement of money, but with the enticement of justice. He says he enjoyed excellent health during his absence and had a good time generally. To a newspaper reporter who attempted to interview the General at the Girard House, Philadelphia, on Monday evening, he is represented as saying with emphasis: "I don't know anything about politics and I wouldn't tell you if I did. I don't know whether or not my son wants to be Chairman of the next Republican National Committee and I don't care. I didn't see Blaine in England and didn't try to; didn't hear anything about him, and I don't know anything about him." It is very evident that Simon don't feel much interest in Blaine. Nor did he ever do so for it was his son, Don who managed the Pennsylvania delegation at the Cincinnati Convention in 1874, as to defeat Blaine and nominate Hayes. Blaine was a vivid recollection of that disastrous turn in his political fortunes and estimates the Camerons, father and son, accordingly.

The London Times estimates that Great Britain will require during the coming year from 136,000,000 to 152,000,000 bushels of foreign wheat for the use of her people, and that fully 100,000,000 bushels will be taken from the United States.

Since the Charleston earthquake a little over a year ago 6356 residences or other buildings have been rebuilt, and 371 new buildings erected at a total cost of $1,971,699.

When Henry George goes out into the farmers he does not do it with the enticement of money, but with the enticement of justice. He says he enjoyed excellent health during his absence and had a good time generally. To a newspaper reporter who attempted to interview the General at the Girard House, Philadelphia, on Monday evening, he is represented as saying with emphasis: "I don't know anything about politics and I wouldn't tell you if I did. I don't know whether or not my son wants to be Chairman of the next Republican National Committee and I don't care. I didn't see Blaine in England and didn't try to; didn't hear anything about him, and I don't know anything about him." It is very evident that Simon don't feel much interest in Blaine. Nor did he ever do so for it was his son, Don who managed the Pennsylvania delegation at the Cincinnati Convention in 1874, as to defeat Blaine and nominate Hayes. Blaine was a vivid recollection of that disastrous turn in his political fortunes and estimates the Camerons, father and son, accordingly.

The London Times estimates that Great Britain will require during the coming year from 136,000,000 to 152,000,000 bushels of foreign wheat for the use of her people, and that fully 100,000,000 bushels will be taken from the United States.

Since the Charleston earthquake a little over a year ago 6356 residences or other buildings have been rebuilt, and 371 new buildings erected at a total cost of $1,971,699.

When Henry George goes out into the farmers he does not do it with the enticement of money, but with the enticement of justice. He says he enjoyed excellent health during his absence and had a good time generally. To a newspaper reporter who attempted to interview the General at the Girard House, Philadelphia, on Monday evening, he is represented as saying with emphasis: "I don't know anything about politics and I wouldn't tell you if I did. I don't know whether or not my son wants to be Chairman of the next Republican National Committee and I don't care. I didn't see Blaine in England and didn't try to; didn't hear anything about him, and I don't know anything about him." It is very evident that Simon don't feel much interest in Blaine. Nor did he ever do so for it was his son, Don who managed the Pennsylvania delegation at the Cincinnati Convention in 1874, as to defeat Blaine and nominate Hayes. Blaine was a vivid recollection of that disastrous turn in his political fortunes and estimates the Camerons, father and son, accordingly.

The London Times estimates that Great Britain will require during the coming year from 136,000,000 to 152,000,000 bushels of foreign wheat for the use of her people, and that fully 100,000,000 bushels will be taken from the United States.

Since the Charleston earthquake a little over a year ago 6356 residences or other buildings have been rebuilt, and 371 new buildings erected at a total cost of $1,971,699.

When Henry George goes out into the farmers he does not do it with the enticement of money, but with the enticement of justice. He says he enjoyed excellent health during his absence and had a good time generally. To a newspaper reporter who attempted to interview the General at the Girard House, Philadelphia, on Monday evening, he is represented as saying with emphasis: "I don't know anything about politics and I wouldn't tell you if I did. I don't know whether or not my son wants to be Chairman of the next Republican National Committee and I don't care. I didn't see Blaine in England and didn't try to; didn't hear anything about him, and I don't know anything about him." It is very evident that Simon don't feel much interest in Blaine. Nor did he ever do so for it was his son, Don who managed the Pennsylvania delegation at the Cincinnati Convention in 1874, as to defeat Blaine and nominate Hayes. Blaine was a vivid recollection of that disastrous turn in his political fortunes and estimates the Camerons, father and son, accordingly.

The London Times estimates that Great Britain will require during the coming year from 136,000,000 to 152,000,000 bushels of foreign wheat for the use of her people, and that fully 100,000,000 bushels will be taken from the United States.

Since the Charleston earthquake a little over a year ago 6356 residences or other buildings have been rebuilt, and 371 new buildings erected at a total cost of $1,971,699.

When Henry George goes out into the farmers he does not do it with the enticement of money, but with the enticement of justice. He says he enjoyed excellent health during his absence and had a good time generally. To a newspaper reporter who attempted to interview the General at the Girard House, Philadelphia, on Monday evening, he is represented as saying with emphasis: "I don't know anything about politics and I wouldn't tell you if I did. I don't know whether or not my son wants to be Chairman of the next Republican National Committee and I don't care. I didn't see Blaine in England and didn't try to; didn't hear anything about him, and I don't know anything about him." It is very evident that Simon don't feel much interest in Blaine. Nor did he ever do so for it was his son, Don who managed the Pennsylvania delegation at the Cincinnati Convention in 1874, as to defeat Blaine and nominate Hayes. Blaine was a vivid recollection of that disastrous turn in his political fortunes and estimates the Camerons, father and son, accordingly.

The London Times estimates that Great Britain will require during the coming year from 136,000,000 to 152,000,000 bushels of foreign wheat for the use of her people, and that fully 100,000,000 bushels will be taken from the United States.

Since the Charleston earthquake a little over a year ago 6356 residences or other buildings have been rebuilt, and 371 new buildings erected at a total cost of $1,971,699.

When Henry George goes out into the farmers he does not do it with the enticement of money, but with the enticement of justice. He says he enjoyed excellent health during his absence and had a good time generally. To a newspaper reporter who attempted to interview the General at the Girard House, Philadelphia, on Monday evening, he is represented as saying with emphasis: "I don't know anything about politics and I wouldn't tell you if I did. I don't know whether or not my son wants to be Chairman of the next Republican National Committee and I don't care. I didn't see Blaine in England and didn't try to; didn't hear anything about him, and I don't know anything about him." It is very evident that Simon don't feel much interest in Blaine. Nor did he ever do so for it was his son, Don who managed the Pennsylvania delegation at the Cincinnati Convention in 1874, as to defeat Blaine and nominate Hayes. Blaine was a vivid recollection of that disastrous turn in his political fortunes and estimates the Camerons, father and son, accordingly.

The London Times estimates that Great Britain will require during the coming year from 136,000,000 to 152,000,000 bushels of foreign wheat for the use of her people, and that fully 100,000,000 bushels will be taken from the United States.

Since the Charleston earthquake a little over a year ago 6356 residences or other buildings have been rebuilt, and 371 new buildings erected at a total cost of $1,971,699.

The following are the resolutions adopted by the Democratic State Convention at Allentown last week: "First—That we renew our allegiance to the principles and declaration of the platform adopted at Chicago in 1884, which Mr. Cleveland, the nominee of the party, heartily endorsed, declaring in his letter of acceptance: 'I have earnestly considered the platform adopted by the convention and cordially approve the same; so plain a statement of Democratic faith, and the principles upon which it rests, appeals to the suffrages of the people need no supposition or explanation.' To these principles he has faithfully adhered in all his public utterances. We further affirm the platform adopted by the State convention of 1884, and in view of the existing condition of the public treasury we demand with emphasis that the large surplus already in the treasury be used to pay the public debt, and that the current and unnecessary increase going on beyond the needs of the Government should be immediately prevented by a wise and prudent reduction of internal taxation; and of duties on imports in accordance with the foregoing declaration. Second—That we support the administration of President Cleveland. Wise, sagacious and patriotic, he has rendered significant to the business interests of the country in the Democratic party, and we commend the administration of the Government with apt ability, has strengthened the public credit and thereby given us a period of great industrial and commercial prosperity. Apprehension in the minds of the people of the advent of our party to the control of the Federal Government would be dangerous to the peace and well-being of the country, and more respected than ever by other nations. His period of administration has been pure, economical and efficient, and we commend the approval of the fair-minded and conservative citizens. Third—We recognize the material benefit which this country has received from immigration. We endorse the legislation of Congress against the importation of contract labor and to compel the return of emigrant criminals. We commend the national administration for its efforts to rigidly enforce these laws, and while we are opposed to any illiberal restrictions, we favor such additional measures of regulation as may be found necessary. Fourth—We favor liberal positions to deserving Union soldiers and sailors. Sectional and class distinctions should be abolished in addition to the pension rolls a larger number than was ever before placed therein within a corresponding period, while at the same time protecting the treasury from fraudulent claims as proof of this fact. Fifth—We point with pride to the fact that since the Democratic party has been in power in any branch of the Federal Government, not one acre of the public lands has been granted to corporations, nor has any land grant been revised or extended. Sixth—The failure of the State revenue bill, after it had been carefully perfected and nearly unanimously passed by the Legislature of the Commonwealth, was a crime against the majority of the Commonwealth, whereby the people must pay $1,000,000 annually in taxation that should and would have been paid by the corporations, to the benefit of the State administration to attempt any correction of the wrong doing or neglect of the fraud or criminal neglect of the Legislature, and that both the people and people, and expressed the supremacy of the rule in Pennsylvania. Seventh—That we reaffirm our declaration that we support the party whose legislation as well as its policy and the provisions of article 17 of the State constitution, relative to corporations, to prevent improper discrimination and equal taxation. Eighth—That we denounce the action of the late Republican Legislature in the defeat of the bill for the relief of the prisoners of the State, and in the all district of the State, known as the Billingsley bill, as being in the interest of monopoly and against the interest of the people of that large section of the State. Ninth—The Democratic party sympathizes with the oppressed of all nations and in all movements having for their object the relief of the oppressed, and of local self-government such as are desired by the people of this Union as the result of the enforcement of democratic principles. We are in favor of the bill for Ireland as the acknowledgment of a sacred inherent right, and the gallant struggle for the accomplishment of this long delayed act of justice under the magnificent leadership of Gladstone, and Parnell commends itself to the moral support of the American people. We are in favor of the bill for Ireland as the acknowledgment of a sacred inherent right, and the gallant struggle for the accomplishment of this long delayed act of justice under the magnificent leadership of Gladstone, and Parnell commends itself to the moral support of the American people.

When Henry George goes out into the farmers he does not do it with the enticement of money, but with the enticement of justice. He says he enjoyed excellent health during his absence and had a good time generally. To a newspaper reporter who attempted to interview the General at the Girard House, Philadelphia, on Monday evening, he is represented as saying with emphasis: "I don't know anything about politics and I wouldn't tell you if I did. I don't know whether or not my son wants to be Chairman of the next Republican National Committee and I don't care. I didn't see Blaine in England and didn't try to; didn't hear anything about him, and I don't know anything about him." It is very evident that Simon don't feel much interest in Blaine. Nor did he ever do so for it was his son, Don who managed the Pennsylvania delegation at the Cincinnati Convention in 1874, as to defeat Blaine and nominate Hayes. Blaine was a vivid recollection of that disastrous turn in his political fortunes and estimates the Camerons, father and son, accordingly.

The London Times estimates that Great Britain will require during the coming year from 136,000,000 to 152,000,000 bushels of foreign wheat for the use of her people, and that fully 100,000,000 bushels will be taken from the United States.

Since the Charleston earthquake a little over a year ago 6356 residences or other buildings have been rebuilt, and 371 new buildings erected at a total cost of $1,971,699.

When Henry George goes out into the farmers he does not do it with the enticement of money, but with the enticement of justice. He says he enjoyed excellent health during his absence and had a good time generally. To a newspaper reporter who attempted to interview the General at the Girard House, Philadelphia, on Monday evening, he is represented as saying with emphasis: "I don't know anything about politics and I wouldn't tell you if I did. I don't know whether or not my son wants to be Chairman of the next Republican National Committee and I don't care. I didn't see Blaine in England and didn't try to; didn't hear anything about him, and I don't know anything about him." It is very evident that Simon don't feel much interest in Blaine. Nor did he ever do so for it was his son, Don who managed the Pennsylvania delegation at the Cincinnati Convention in 1874, as to defeat Blaine and nominate Hayes. Blaine was a vivid recollection of that disastrous turn in his political fortunes and estimates the Camerons, father and son, accordingly.

The London Times estimates that Great Britain will require during the coming year from 136,000,000 to 152,000,000 bushels of foreign wheat for the use of her people, and that fully 100,000,000 bushels will be taken from the United States.

Since the Charleston earthquake a little over a year ago 6356 residences or other buildings have been rebuilt, and 371 new buildings erected at a total cost of $1,971,699.

When Henry George goes out into the farmers he does not do it with the enticement of money, but with the enticement of justice. He says he enjoyed excellent health during his absence and had a good time generally. To a newspaper reporter who attempted to interview the General at the Girard House, Philadelphia, on Monday evening, he is represented as saying with emphasis: "I don't know anything about politics and I wouldn't tell you if I did. I don't know whether or not my son wants to be Chairman of the next Republican National Committee and I don't care. I didn't see Blaine in England and didn't try to; didn't hear anything about him, and I don't know anything about him." It is very evident that Simon don't feel much interest in Blaine. Nor did he ever do so for it was his son, Don who managed the Pennsylvania delegation at the Cincinnati Convention in 1874, as to defeat Blaine and nominate Hayes. Blaine was a vivid recollection of that disastrous turn in his political fortunes and estimates the Camerons, father and son, accordingly.

The London Times estimates that Great Britain will require during the coming year from 136,000,000 to 152,000,000 bushels of foreign wheat for the use of her people, and that fully 100,000,000 bushels will be taken from the United States.

Since the Charleston earthquake a little over a year ago 6356 residences or other buildings have been rebuilt, and 371 new buildings erected at a total cost of $1,971,699.

When Henry George goes out into the farmers he does not do it with the enticement of money, but with the enticement of justice. He says he enjoyed excellent health during his absence and had a good time generally. To a newspaper reporter who attempted to interview the General at the Girard House, Philadelphia, on Monday evening, he is represented as saying with emphasis: "I don't know anything about politics and I wouldn't tell you if I did. I don't know whether or not my son wants to be Chairman of the next Republican National Committee and I don't care. I didn't see Blaine in England and didn't try to; didn't hear anything about him, and I don't know anything about him." It is very evident that Simon don't feel much interest in Blaine. Nor did he ever do so for it was his son, Don who managed the Pennsylvania delegation at the Cincinnati Convention in 1874, as to defeat Blaine and nominate Hayes. Blaine was a vivid recollection of that disastrous turn in his political fortunes and estimates the Camerons, father and son, accordingly.

The London Times estimates that Great Britain will require during the coming year from 136,000,000 to 152,000,000 bushels of foreign wheat for the use of her people, and that fully 100,000,000 bushels will be taken from the United States.

Since the Charleston earthquake a little over a year ago 6356 residences or other buildings have been rebuilt, and 371 new buildings erected at a total cost of $1,971,699.

When Henry George goes out into the farmers he does not do it with the enticement of money, but with the enticement of justice. He says he enjoyed excellent health during his absence and had a good time generally. To a newspaper reporter who attempted to interview the General at the Girard House, Philadelphia, on Monday evening, he is represented as saying with emphasis: "I don't know anything about politics and I wouldn't tell you if I did. I don't know whether or not my son wants to be Chairman of the next Republican National Committee and I don't care. I didn't see Blaine in England and didn't try to; didn't hear anything about him, and I don't know anything about him." It is very evident that Simon don't feel much interest in Blaine. Nor did he ever do so for it was his son, Don who managed the Pennsylvania delegation at the Cincinnati Convention in 1874, as to defeat Blaine and nominate Hayes. Blaine was a vivid recollection of that disastrous turn in his political fortunes and estimates the Camerons, father and son, accordingly.