WHEREAS, They now have been taken away so red by the loving Savior, where we shall em no more in this world, but hope to do so when we are to be here no more; therefore, be it liesolved. That we as a school do sincerely mourn the departers of our little friends whom we had learned to love, and by this act do wish to manifest and to extend to the sorrowing parents our earnest and heartfelt sympathy and condolence in this sad hour of their bereavement and affliction.

Resolved, That while we are trying to serve the loving Jerus who took in His arms and blessed loving Jesus, who took in His arms and blessed little children, and spoke in the highest terms of love and appreciation or them while here on earth, and finally gave His life a ransom for the world, we would most carnestly direct the mourning parents to this same loving Jesus for comfort and consolation in this dark hour of trouble and and consolation in this dark hour of trouble and sorrow, and most successly and prayerfully ask them to lean upon his strong arm of love and mercy, feeling very confident that they will obtain the comfort and solace they so much need and desire in the the blessed words of cheer that he has spoken, and in the precious promises of love that he has given.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sen to the bereaved parents, and that a copy of them be preserved in the records of the Sunday School, and that they be given to the papers of Ebensburg and the Johnstown Prisums for publication.

THOUGH WRONG YESTERDAY.

You have been paying other Stores big prices for your Ciothing. You've seen Neighbor Wilkin's boys dressed neatly and tastily, in fact better than your own. You have argued with Wilkins that the yearly Savings on his Clothing bill is false Economy. Whitins has told you again and again that his entire outlay for Clothing for himself and three

You have figured out the cost of your's to your Better Half at $157 and yet you haven't the moral courage to say "Wilkins, I was wrong yesterday; I'll be right to-day."

Don't Cut Off Your Nose To Spite Your Face,

when you can plainly see the fallacy of your position on the Clothing question. Acknowledge the corn and say "I'll be right in the future," and buy (where Wilkins buys) at the GREAT ONE PRICE CLOTHIN
