Fifty people would be pretty Route Railroad Company entered into a good for an ordinary hotel, but with a house the contract with Henry McTigh to complete size of the Mountain House, intended to accom modate twelve hundred guests, fifty makes a very slim appearance. However, everything must have a beginning, and thenfty guests on opening day will in a week or ten days grow to eight or

Taking the train east we got to Altoona, we had a twenty minutes supper, and reached Tyrone about seven o'clock, where we changed cars, taking the Baid Eagle Valley road to Lock seven miles. Bonds were thereupon Haven. Here we met Mr. G. B. Goodlander, edissued for $750,000 when in fact the amount | iter of the Clearfield Reguldican, who, accompanied by his estimable wife, was booked for the same destination

Going up the Bald Eagle Valley was a disappointment. A valley to us had always been suggestive of fine farms, which at this time of the Jacob Rubino is the party who recently to color would be a sight pleasing to behold. But brought suit against Israel C. Caldwell, of the Bald Eagle Valley, for twenty-five miles out from Tyrone, when it got too dark to make observations, is a valley of poor and for the most part uncultivated land. The land appears to bring nothing but a sort of sour grass, and a fejlow passenger, who seemed to know the country, informed us that the land was very poor, too cold they are sufficiently alike to cause interest- to raise grain with any profit, it costing more to bring the land up with fertilizers than the crop would pay for, and even after being put in condiion, required a constant outlay to prevent them
