

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Vote for John S. Kinney. -The Sheriff Luther, of Carrolltown town-ship, was in town on Wednesday.

Mr. John Reese, of this place, purchased a fine match team of horses this week.

Mr. H. Myers, Esq., of this place, who visited here last week returned home on Monday.

McDonald, Loretto, Pa., has just received a car load of A. No. 1 salt, cheap for spot cash or trade.

At Barkers you can buy the best black or white worsted suit for $10 over brought to town for that money.

Work is progressing rapidly on the new store-room and dwelling of Mrs. R. E. Jones, on High street.

Mr. R. E. Jones, of this place, who is employed near Reynoldsville, Jefferson county, is at home on a visit.

Mr. John Fitzharris and wife of Hollis township, Pa., are visiting friends in Ebensburg the latter part of last week.

A large and varied stock of horse blankets and robes, at very low prices, at Eckenerode & Hopple's, Carrolltown.

Quills a number of "Sneakers" attended the Indian Medicine show on Tuesday evening. Next time get new goods. Fall and winter stock just received at McDonald's, Loretto, Pa., at hard pan prices, for spot cash or trade.

Mrs. Abel Lloyd, Jr., of Shady-Side, Allegheny county, paid a short visit to this place, Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Kerr, of this place.

Quills apples sold in Perry county at the rate of one dollar for three bushels. Potatoes are also a large crop and are quoted at thirty cents a bushel.

A prominent citizen of Portage, offers to wage $100 to $75 that John J. Kinney will be the next Sheriff of Cambria county.

Headquarters for boots and shoes for fall and winter, at prices to suit everybody at Eckenerode & Hopple's, Carrolltown, Pa. No need to shiver with cold.

A rise in the price of wheat very soon floods the flour market, when wheat comes down there appears to be a sort of "glow" in flour's tumble.

At Barkers you can buy a stripe worsted suit (very pretty style) either in sack or cut-away for $15.00; cheaper than either of them in town.

Mr. James Galt, one of our best artists has fine painting at his snazzy parlor on Centre street, which illustrates how staining was done in olden times.

At Barkers you can buy a diagonal (sack or cut-away) suit, something very different from the other suits, and also suit look alike, can't be beat in the State.

In need of a suit of clothes or an overcoat, remember the largest and finest assortment and the lowest prices will be found at Eckenerode & Hopple's, Carrolltown.

J. D. Barron, near Farmington, Clinton county, has a fine eagle, a grass eagle, which measured seven feet from tip to tip of its wings. The eagle had captured one of Mr. Barron's turkeys.

The store of Thomas Prosser, of Brimfield, Clearfield county, and the dwelling of Thomas Lloyd, adjoining, were destroyed by fire last Saturday. The former's loss is $10,000, with only partial insurance.

The sale of the personal property of Joseph Noel, deceased, that was to have taken place on Saturday, October 20th, was postponed on account of the weather until the 27th of the month.

Another new lot of ladies' and misses' coats just received, at a discount, which will be sold at prices within the reach of all, at Eckenerode & Hopple's, Carrolltown, Pa.

Professor Leach, who has been laid up for five or six weeks with typhoid fever, is again to be seen on our streets, looking considerably worse for his illness. He is rapidly improving and will soon be himself again.

Last Monday John Ricketts, of Rocke township, killed one of his Cotons, which weighed 110 pounds of beautiful mutton. John says that such sheep protects the American farmer and his family enough without any protection on his part.

The Elmhurst Opera and Musical Comedy company will appear at the Opera House on next Monday night and if half what the papers say is true our people are in for a rare treat. Tickets for sale at James' drug store. Go in time as the seats will soon be taken.

Messrs. D. Simon & Brother, of Altoona, were here on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday with a large and varied assortment of clothing and boots and shoes. Mr. Simon was well pleased with his sales, particularly in the shoe line, having sold a large number of pairs of shoes.

Vote for Thomas H. Greener. -You have had lots of chances this week to buy clothing, but we know that you have not all bought, and our advice is, slip in at Barkers' and see their immense stock of clothing, and examine their prices, and then you will know how much money you can save by buying your goods at home.

The Huntington Globe says that Misses Dullie and Minnie Himes, of Mount Union, have out and shopped over 1,500 shoes this season, earning over $30. They did not have any of the "high-fingered gentry" for their Thanksgiving festivity.

A mounted parade of some twenty patriots belonging to the order of the "Fraternal Sons of America," wearing the uniform of the "Fraternal Sons of America," marched last Saturday on the occasion of the first anniversary of the organization of the Glasgow Post.

Mrs. Samuel Turner, better known to the section as "Aunt Susie," is severely afflicted with rheumatism in the head and neck.

Messrs. Eider and Perry Kubo are each erecting handsome dwelling houses near Glasgow.

Frank Gilmore, blacksmith, of Mountain Dale, by a very profitable trade, has secured a large number of his hands' most obstinate servants, with the handsome reward of $4.

G. S. Glasgow, of Glasgow, returned home from Philadelphia last week, where he had been laying in a large stock of merchandise, and doing a flourishing business.

A potato weighing 4 1/2 pounds has come to light near Shirley. It was cultivated on Mrs. Powell's farm, which lies along the banks of the Clearfield creek.

The following party was entertained at the residence of Mr. J. W. Sharbaugh, in Carroll township, on Monday, aged probably 70 years. He remains well, and is still in the enjoyment of his faculties.

Mrs. Joseph Kuntz, of Grapeville station, Westmoreland county, is visiting her aged and infirm mother, Mr. Joseph Zoller, in this place.

The exceptionally large smile of Mr. C. A. Luter this (Wednesday) evening indicated that something new had taken place and upon inquiry we learned that during the afternoon his wife presented him with a bouncing boy baby. Mother and child are doing well.

John F. Fee, of your town, as you, of course, already know, is now running the back between Ebensburg and this place, and is doing a very successful business.

The Shirley real estate agent at Shirley, desires it to be tacitly understood that his business hours do not extend to midnight, and hereafter when any more applicants come growing around at such an unreasonable hour, we will not be held responsible.

On Monday last the Supreme Court handed down two decisions on appeals from this county.

In the case of Thomas McCloskey et al. vs. James McKinley, error to the Common Pleas of Cambria county, the judgment of the lower Court was affirmed.

In the matter of the appeal of T. M. Richards, Burgess of Ebensburg, the lower Court was reversed.

Vote for John S. Kinney. -McDonald at Loretto, Pa., is selling off the following lines of goods at actual cost for spot cash or good marketable produce as follows: Dry goods, flannels, Kentucky jeans, ladies' misses' and children's shoes, boys' hats and men's boots and shoes, hats, cap clothing, etc. Now is your time to get bargains.

The Elmhurst Combination are knocking the twinkling little stars out of the azure depths at Clough's Opera House. Last night's rendition of Bon Bons was given to a jammed house up stairs and down and lit the audience hard. Peters' comedy work is ridiculously funny—he can't keep from being funny, even in his announcements, and the music is rattling. The sextet last night brought down the house for a triple encore. Cambria Co., Daily News, Oct. 11th, 1887.

Vote for James A. Wharton. -"Some Adopted Americans" is the title of an article in the November number of The American Magazine. This article was prepared by the editor of the Journalist, Mr. Allan Forman, who has made a careful study of the lower class immigrants and tenement house dwellers of New York City. Mr. Forman has not been a mere casual observer, but has lived in these densely populated tenements, and is, therefore, competent to write on this subject from the mode of life of these poor people without any aid from his imagination.

As S. Fessler, of Marysville, Perry county, was driving some steers home a few days ago, a cow belonging to Robert Bolton joined the procession. As Bolton was driving along on William Toland came along with a bag of apples on his shoulder, and one of the steers made an attack on him, ripping open the bag, and while another made for John McKenzie, who was carrying a bag of chestnuts. The animal gave him a good shake, and finally made out to catch him, throwing him down and making some ugly cuts and bruises.

Vote for Daniel McLaughlin. -Professor Joseph Kimball exhibited his trained (?) mare, "Nance," in the old skating rink in this place, on Monday evening, to a large and enthusiastic audience.

"Nance" performed many new and difficult tricks, and finally made out to catch a box and resting one foot on her trainer's head. She also stood on the same box and held a silver dollar in her mouth, and we have the Professor's word for it that she can do the same thing, just as easily, with a hat dollar. One of the features of the entertainment was the sweet (?) and appropriate music, which was furnished by Kimball's original "tom-tom" orchestra. After the entertainment the Professor thanked the audience in a short, but eloquently worded address, for their generous patronage.

DEAR FREEMAN:—We welcome the sunshine again, and hail with intense delight the favorable change the weather has taken. The recent long wet spell had cast a damp over the hopes of the most sanguine husbandmen; and for a time, the continuous wet weather threatened destruction to the outstanding crops of buckwheat, corn, etc.

Miss Amelia Smith, daughter of Wm. Smith, Esq., of this township, was united in marriage to Mr. Bernard Wise, of Galitzin, at the residence of her father, on last Tuesday.

J. M. Beers now manipulates the yard stick in the store of Glasgow & Co., at Fall-ten Timber. H. J. Yackoway, the former clerk, has stepped down and out to engage in butchering.

Prof. J. H. Sharp, the well-known ventriloquist, was billed for an exhibition at this place, last Saturday evening, but the Professor disappointed a large and expectant crowd by not putting in an appearance.

"Auntie" Glasgow, a venerable old lady of Glasgow village, is prostrated by sickness, being under the treatment of Dr. L. W. Worthington, of Shirley.

Grant Gallaher, of Fynn City, was united in marriage last week to a Miss Miller. A big demonstration by the boys of the village of Fynn and vicinity marked the importance of the event.

Mr. J. M. Beers now manipulates the yard stick in the store of Glasgow & Co., at Fall-ten Timber. H. J. Yackoway, the former clerk, has stepped down and out to engage in butchering.

Prof. J. H. Sharp, the well-known ventriloquist, was billed for an exhibition at this place, last Saturday evening, but the Professor disappointed a large and expectant crowd by not putting in an appearance.

"Auntie" Glasgow, a venerable old lady of Glasgow village, is prostrated by sickness, being under the treatment of Dr. L. W. Worthington, of Shirley.

Grant Gallaher, of Fynn City, was united in marriage last week to a Miss Miller. A big demonstration by the boys of the village of Fynn and vicinity marked the importance of the event.

Mr. J. M. Beers now manipulates the yard stick in the store of Glasgow & Co., at Fall-ten Timber. H. J. Yackoway, the former clerk, has stepped down and out to engage in butchering.

Prof. J. H. Sharp, the well-known ventriloquist, was billed for an exhibition at this place, last Saturday evening, but the Professor disappointed a large and expectant crowd by not putting in an appearance.

"Auntie" Glasgow, a venerable old lady of Glasgow village, is prostrated by sickness, being under the treatment of Dr. L. W. Worthington, of Shirley.

Grant Gallaher, of Fynn City, was united in marriage last week to a Miss Miller. A big demonstration by the boys of the village of Fynn and vicinity marked the importance of the event.

Mr. J. M. Beers now manipulates the yard stick in the store of Glasgow & Co., at Fall-ten Timber. H. J. Yackoway, the former clerk, has stepped down and out to engage in butchering.

Prof. J. H. Sharp, the well-known ventriloquist, was billed for an exhibition at this place, last Saturday evening, but the Professor disappointed a large and expectant crowd by not putting in an appearance.

"Auntie" Glasgow, a venerable old lady of Glasgow village, is prostrated by sickness, being under the treatment of Dr. L. W. Worthington, of Shirley.

Grant Gallaher, of Fynn City, was united in marriage last week to a Miss Miller. A big demonstration by the boys of the village of Fynn and vicinity marked the importance of the event.

Mr. J. M. Beers now manipulates the yard stick in the store of Glasgow & Co., at Fall-ten Timber. H. J. Yackoway, the former clerk, has stepped down and out to engage in butchering.

Prof. J. H. Sharp, the well-known ventriloquist, was billed for an exhibition at this place, last Saturday evening, but the Professor disappointed a large and expectant crowd by not putting in an appearance.

"Auntie" Glasgow, a venerable old lady of Glasgow village, is prostrated by sickness, being under the treatment of Dr. L. W. Worthington, of Shirley.

Grant Gallaher, of Fynn City, was united in marriage last week to a Miss Miller. A big demonstration by the boys of the village of Fynn and vicinity marked the importance of the event.

Mr. J. M. Beers now manipulates the yard stick in the store of Glasgow & Co., at Fall-ten Timber. H. J. Yackoway, the former clerk, has stepped down and out to engage in butchering.

Prof. J. H. Sharp, the well-known ventriloquist, was billed for an exhibition at this place, last Saturday evening, but the Professor disappointed a large and expectant crowd by not putting in an appearance.

"Auntie" Glasgow, a venerable old lady of Glasgow village, is prostrated by sickness, being under the treatment of Dr. L. W. Worthington, of Shirley.

Grant Gallaher, of Fynn City, was united in marriage last week to a Miss Miller. A big demonstration by the boys of the village of Fynn and vicinity marked the importance of the event.

Mr. J. M. Beers now manipulates the yard stick in the store of Glasgow & Co., at Fall-ten Timber. H. J. Yackoway, the former clerk, has stepped down and out to engage in butchering.

Prof. J. H. Sharp, the well-known ventriloquist, was billed for an exhibition at this place, last Saturday evening, but the Professor disappointed a large and expectant crowd by not putting in an appearance.

"Auntie" Glasgow, a venerable old lady of Glasgow village, is prostrated by sickness, being under the treatment of Dr. L. W. Worthington, of Shirley.

Grant Gallaher, of Fynn City, was united in marriage last week to a Miss Miller. A big demonstration by the boys of the village of Fynn and vicinity marked the importance of the event.

Mr. J. M. Beers now manipulates the yard stick in the store of Glasgow & Co., at Fall-ten Timber. H. J. Yackoway, the former clerk, has stepped down and out to engage in butchering.

Prof. J. H. Sharp, the well-known ventriloquist, was billed for an exhibition at this place, last Saturday evening, but the Professor disappointed a large and expectant crowd by not putting in an appearance.

"Auntie" Glasgow, a venerable old lady of Glasgow village, is prostrated by sickness, being under the treatment of Dr. L. W. Worthington, of Shirley.

Grant Gallaher, of Fynn City, was united in marriage last week to a Miss Miller. A big demonstration by the boys of the village of Fynn and vicinity marked the importance of the event.

Mr. J. M. Beers now manipulates the yard stick in the store of Glasgow & Co., at Fall-ten Timber. H. J. Yackoway, the former clerk, has stepped down and out to engage in butchering.

Prof. J. H. Sharp, the well-known ventriloquist, was billed for an exhibition at this place, last Saturday evening, but the Professor disappointed a large and expectant crowd by not putting in an appearance.

"Auntie" Glasgow, a venerable old lady of Glasgow village, is prostrated by sickness, being under the treatment of Dr. L. W. Worthington, of Shirley.

Grant Gallaher, of Fynn City, was united in marriage last week to a Miss Miller. A big demonstration by the boys of the village of Fynn and vicinity marked the importance of the event.

Mr. J. M. Beers now manipulates the yard stick in the store of Glasgow & Co., at Fall-ten Timber. H. J. Yackoway, the former clerk, has stepped down and out to engage in butchering.

DEAR FREEMAN:—We welcome the sunshine again, and hail with intense delight the favorable change the weather has taken. The recent long wet spell had cast a damp over the hopes of the most sanguine husbandmen; and for a time, the continuous wet weather threatened destruction to the outstanding crops of buckwheat, corn, etc.

Miss Amelia Smith, daughter of Wm. Smith, Esq., of this township, was united in marriage to Mr. Bernard Wise, of Galitzin, at the residence of her father, on last Tuesday.

J. M. Beers now manipulates the yard stick in the store of Glasgow & Co., at Fall-ten Timber. H. J. Yackoway, the former clerk, has stepped down and out to engage in butchering.

Prof. J. H. Sharp, the well-known ventriloquist, was billed for an exhibition at this place, last Saturday evening, but the Professor disappointed a large and expectant crowd by not putting in an appearance.

"Auntie" Glasgow, a venerable old lady of Glasgow village, is prostrated by sickness, being under the treatment of Dr. L. W. Worthington, of Shirley.

Grant Gallaher, of Fynn City, was united in marriage last week to a Miss Miller. A big demonstration by the boys of the village of Fynn and vicinity marked the importance of the event.

Mr. J. M. Beers now manipulates the yard stick in the store of Glasgow & Co., at Fall-ten Timber. H. J. Yackoway, the former clerk, has stepped down and out to engage in butchering.

Prof. J. H. Sharp, the well-known ventriloquist, was billed for an exhibition at this place, last Saturday evening, but the Professor disappointed a large and expectant crowd by not putting in an appearance.

"Auntie" Glasgow, a venerable old lady of Glasgow village, is prostrated by sickness, being under the treatment of Dr. L. W. Worthington, of Shirley.

Grant Gallaher, of Fynn City, was united in marriage last week to a Miss Miller. A big demonstration by the boys of the village of Fynn and vicinity marked the importance of the event.

Mr. J. M. Beers now manipulates the yard stick in the store of Glasgow & Co., at Fall-ten Timber. H. J. Yackoway, the former clerk, has stepped down and out to engage in butchering.

Prof. J. H. Sharp, the well-known ventriloquist, was billed for an exhibition at this place, last Saturday evening, but the Professor disappointed a large and expectant crowd by not putting in an appearance.

"Auntie" Glasgow, a venerable old lady of Glasgow village, is prostrated by sickness, being under the treatment of Dr. L. W. Worthington, of Shirley.

Grant Gallaher, of Fynn City, was united in marriage last week to a Miss Miller. A big demonstration by the boys of the village of Fynn and vicinity marked the importance of the event.

Mr. J. M. Beers now manipulates the yard stick in the store of Glasgow & Co., at Fall-ten Timber. H. J. Yackoway, the former clerk, has stepped down and out to engage in butchering.

Prof. J. H. Sharp, the well-known ventriloquist, was billed for an exhibition at this place, last Saturday evening, but the Professor disappointed a large and expectant crowd by not putting in an appearance.

"Auntie" Glasgow, a venerable old lady of Glasgow village, is prostrated by sickness, being under the treatment of Dr. L. W. Worthington, of Shirley.

Grant Gallaher, of Fynn City, was united in marriage last week to a Miss Miller. A big demonstration by the boys of the village of Fynn and vicinity marked the importance of the event.

Mr. J. M. Beers now manipulates the yard stick in the store of Glasgow & Co., at Fall-ten Timber. H. J. Yackoway, the former clerk, has stepped down and out to engage in butchering.

Prof. J. H. Sharp, the well-known ventriloquist, was billed for an exhibition at this place, last Saturday evening, but the Professor disappointed a large and expectant crowd by not putting in an appearance.

"Auntie" Glasgow, a venerable old lady of Glasgow village, is prostrated by sickness, being under the treatment of Dr. L. W. Worthington, of Shirley.

Grant Gallaher, of Fynn City, was united in marriage last week to a Miss Miller. A big demonstration by the boys of the village of Fynn and vicinity marked the importance of the event.

Mr. J. M. Beers now manipulates the yard stick in the store of Glasgow & Co., at Fall-ten Timber. H. J. Yackoway, the former clerk, has stepped down and out to engage in butchering.

Prof. J. H. Sharp, the well-known ventriloquist, was billed for an exhibition at this place, last Saturday evening, but the Professor disappointed a large and expectant crowd by not putting in an appearance.

"Auntie" Glasgow, a venerable old lady of Glasgow village, is prostrated by sickness, being under the treatment of Dr. L. W. Worthington, of Shirley.

Grant Gallaher, of Fynn City, was united in marriage last week to a Miss Miller. A big demonstration by the boys of the village of Fynn and vicinity marked the importance of the event.

Mr. J. M. Beers now manipulates the yard stick in the store of Glasgow & Co., at Fall-ten Timber. H. J. Yackoway, the former clerk, has stepped down and out to engage in butchering.

Prof. J. H. Sharp, the well-known ventriloquist, was billed for an exhibition at this place, last Saturday evening, but the Professor disappointed a large and expectant crowd by not putting in an appearance.

"Auntie" Glasgow, a venerable old lady of Glasgow village, is prostrated by sickness, being under the treatment of Dr. L. W. Worthington, of Shirley.

Grant Gallaher, of Fynn City, was united in marriage last week to a Miss Miller. A big demonstration by the boys of the village of Fynn and vicinity marked the importance of the event.

Mr. J. M. Beers now manipulates the yard stick in the store of Glasgow & Co., at Fall-ten Timber. H. J. Yackoway, the former clerk, has stepped down and out to engage in butchering.

Prof. J. H. Sharp, the well-known ventriloquist, was billed for an exhibition at this place, last Saturday evening, but the Professor disappointed a large and expectant crowd by not putting in an appearance.

"Auntie" Glasgow, a venerable old lady of Glasgow village, is prostrated by sickness, being under the treatment of Dr. L. W. Worthington, of Shirley.

Grant Gallaher, of Fynn City, was united in marriage last week to a Miss Miller. A big demonstration by the boys of the village of Fynn and vicinity marked the importance of the event.

Mr. J. M. Beers now manipulates the yard stick in the store of Glasgow & Co., at Fall-ten Timber. H. J. Yackoway, the former clerk, has stepped down and out to engage in butchering.

Prof. J. H. Sharp, the well-known ventriloquist, was billed for an exhibition at this place, last Saturday evening, but the Professor disappointed a large and expectant crowd by not putting in an appearance.

"Auntie" Glasgow, a venerable old lady of Glasgow village, is prostrated by sickness, being under the treatment of Dr. L. W. Worthington, of Shirley.

Grant Gallaher, of Fynn City, was united in marriage last week to a Miss Miller. A big demonstration by the boys of the village of Fynn and vicinity marked the importance of the event.

Mr. J. M. Beers now manipulates the yard stick in the store of Glasgow & Co., at Fall-ten Timber. H. J. Yackoway, the former clerk, has stepped down and out to engage in butchering.

Prof. J. H. Sharp, the well-known ventriloquist, was billed for an exhibition at this place, last Saturday evening, but the Professor disappointed a large and expectant crowd by not putting in an appearance.

"Auntie" Glasgow, a venerable old lady of Glasgow village, is prostrated by sickness, being under the treatment of Dr. L. W. Worthington, of Shirley.

Grant Gallaher, of Fynn City, was united in marriage last week to a Miss Miller. A big demonstration by the boys of the village of Fynn and vicinity marked the importance of the event.

Mr. J. M. Beers now manipulates the yard stick in the store of Glasgow & Co., at Fall-ten Timber. H. J. Yackoway, the former clerk, has stepped down and out to engage in butchering.

Prof. J. H. Sharp, the well-known ventriloquist, was billed for an exhibition at this place, last Saturday evening, but the Professor disappointed a large and expectant crowd by not putting in an appearance.

"Auntie" Glasgow, a venerable old lady of Glasgow village, is prostrated by sickness, being under the treatment of Dr. L. W. Worthington, of Shirley.

DEAR FREEMAN:—We welcome the sunshine again, and hail with intense delight the favorable change the weather has taken. The recent long wet spell had cast a damp over the hopes of the most sanguine husbandmen; and for a time, the continuous wet weather threatened destruction to the outstanding crops of buckwheat, corn, etc.

Miss Amelia Smith, daughter of Wm. Smith, Esq., of this township, was united in marriage to Mr. Bernard Wise, of Galitzin, at the residence of her father, on last Tuesday.

J. M. Beers now manipulates the yard stick in the store of Glasgow & Co., at Fall-ten Timber. H. J. Yackoway, the former clerk, has stepped down and out to engage in butchering.

Prof. J. H. Sharp, the well-known ventriloquist, was billed for an exhibition at this place, last Saturday evening, but the Professor disappointed a large and expectant crowd by not putting in an appearance.

"Auntie" Glasgow, a venerable old lady of Glasgow village, is prostrated by sickness, being under the treatment of Dr. L. W. Worthington, of Shirley.

Grant Gallaher, of Fynn City, was united in marriage last week to a Miss Miller. A big demonstration by the boys of the village of Fynn and vicinity marked the importance of the event.

Mr. J. M. Beers now manipulates the yard stick in the store of Glasgow & Co., at Fall-ten Timber. H. J. Yackoway, the former clerk, has stepped down and out to engage in butchering.

Prof. J. H. Sharp, the well-known ventriloquist, was billed for an exhibition at this place, last Saturday evening, but the Professor disappointed a large and expectant crowd by not putting in an appearance.

"Auntie" Glasgow, a venerable old lady of Glasgow village, is prostrated by sickness, being under the treatment of Dr. L. W. Worthington, of Shirley.

Grant Gallaher, of Fynn City, was united in marriage last week to a Miss Miller. A big demonstration by the boys of the village of Fynn and vicinity marked the importance of the event.

Mr. J. M. Beers now manipulates the yard stick in the store of Glasgow & Co., at Fall-ten Timber. H. J. Yackoway, the former clerk, has stepped down and out to engage in butchering.

Prof. J. H. Sharp, the well-known ventriloquist, was billed for an exhibition at this place, last Saturday evening, but the Professor disappointed a large and expectant crowd by not putting in an appearance.

"Auntie" Glasgow, a venerable old lady of Glasgow village, is prostrated by sickness, being under the treatment of Dr. L. W. Worthington, of Shirley.

Grant Gallaher, of Fynn City, was united in marriage last week to a Miss Miller. A big demonstration by the boys of the village of Fynn and vicinity marked the importance of the event.

Mr. J. M. Beers now manipulates the yard stick in the store of Glasgow & Co., at Fall-ten Timber. H. J. Yackoway, the former clerk, has stepped down and out to engage in butchering.

Prof. J. H. Sharp, the well-known ventriloquist, was billed for an exhibition at this place, last Saturday evening, but the Professor disappointed a large and expectant crowd by not putting in an appearance.

"Auntie" Glasgow, a venerable old lady of Glasgow village, is prostrated by sickness, being under the treatment of Dr. L. W. Worthington, of Shirley.

Grant Gallaher, of Fynn City, was united in marriage last week to a Miss Miller. A big demonstration by the boys of the village of Fynn and vicinity marked the importance of the event.

Mr. J. M. Beers now manipulates the yard stick in the store of Glasgow & Co., at Fall-ten Timber. H. J. Yackoway, the former clerk, has stepped down and out to engage in butchering.

Prof. J. H. Sharp, the well-known ventriloquist, was billed for an exhibition at this place, last Saturday evening, but the Professor disappointed a large and expectant crowd by not putting in an appearance.

"Auntie" Glasgow, a venerable old lady of Glasgow village, is prostrated by sickness, being under the treatment of Dr. L. W. Worthington, of Shirley.

Grant Gallaher, of Fynn City, was united in marriage last week to a Miss Miller. A big demonstration by the boys of the village of Fynn and vicinity marked the importance of the event.