Court Proceedings.

On Monday, November 20, at 10 o'clock with Judge Johnston on the bench.

In the case of Anthony Anna vs. D. E. Noddy, the Court overruled the motion for a new trial.

The case of Elliott Tallman vs. the District Home Insurance company was continued on account of the absence of Chas. L. Dick, Esq., counsel for the plaintiff.

A. V. Daker, Esq., called the attention of the Court to the fact that the election returns of Blacklick township, Upper Yoder township, and Prospect borough do not show that any votes were cast for Auditor General, and asked the Court to order a recount. The Court accordingly made an order on the election officers of the three districts named, to meet on Saturday, December 1st, to recount the votes for Auditor General, and make a return of the same to the Court on the following Wednesday.

At noon on Tuesday Judge White, of Indiana, arrived and at 2 o'clock in the afternoon he called he took the bench.

John R. Gardner vs. John G. Galt. A verdict for plaintiff for $62.

In the case of the Cambria Iron company vs. Mrs. Bonville's father, has passed into the hands of C. B. Crawford.

Mr. John M. Sloan, of Washington last week on that dread scourge diphtheria. Michael, aged thirteen, died on Monday the 19th inst., and a daughter, Mary, was about six years, died the day following. Their interment took place on Wednesday last at the Summit.

A good company coming at the Opera House, commencing to-morrow (Friday). There are twenty-two people, including Miss. Philadelphia brass band and orchestra. Proceeds the highest price and one who will answer they appear.

Every reader of this paper to thoroughly understand the value of the medicine advertised in this paper, let them call on the proprietor, who will give them a full trial. Ask your druggist for it. It is not a cure, but a relief. One bottle usually for a cure, as advised by would-be competitors, but it is a cure, unless you are a doctor, for further information, Max Klein, 82 Federal street, Allegheny, Pa.

Items from Carrolltown.

CARROLLTOWN, PA., Nov. 29th, 1888.

DEAR FREEMAN—A Thanksgiving ball is being held here. Everybody is invited to attend.

Mr. J. V. Scanlan, who superintends the business for A. C. Buck & Co., at this place, is now in Clearfield attending court. Mr. S. will likely return to-day.

Your solicitor had the pleasure of taking another trip on Sunday through Hastings and St. Boniface. Mr. Wm. Waltz, one of your compositors, who kindly invited me to accompany him, expressed himself as being greatly astonished at the number of buildings erected at the former place.

Mr. Adam Fees, the accommodating hack driver, took out his sleigh for the first time on Tuesday. He says the sleighing is smiling as handsome as of yore, was visible on the streets of Glasgow last Saturday.

Messrs. C. A. Buck and Isidore Binder, of this place, are having buildings erected at Hastings. It is the intention of the former to open a furniture store, but the latter is undecided at present as to what he may embark in. We wish both gentlemen success.
