Items from Carrolltown. CARROLLTOWN, Pa., Dec. 19, 1888. ED FREEMAN - Dr. S. Rico intends shortly to remove from St. Bouffice to Hastings, making the latter place his headquarters. Mr. L. Binder has also completed a building at Hastings for a hardware store. Mr. Leonard Hartman, of St. Lawrence, will take possession of his fine large hotel at Hastings about the first of January. Mr. Joseph Hirsch has purchased the hotel property formerly occupied by Mr. Hartman at St. Lawrence. We wish both these gentlemen success. Carrolltown has held two successful fairs, the total income of the late fair being $1,173.15, and yet, after the management having conducted everything in a strictly honest manner, the Association is in debt $2,114.42, according to the late report of the auditors. By improvements to the track and the erection of necessary additional buildings, this indebtedness will be largely increased. Taking all in all, with strict management and all things being favorable, the Association will do well if the stockholders begin to realize on their stock two years hence. This may be a pointer to parties in the county seat who may desire to invest stock in a similar enterprise. However, it is the intention of the association to continue to make the fair more attractive every year. Mrs. A. Scanlan, of this place, and Miss L. A. Gompers, of Indiana, donned the wedding garments at the latter place on Tuesday. They will take up their residence in Carrolltown. Mr. Henry Hopple is gradually recovering from a very serious accident which happened him some time since, and his many friends hope to see him about in a short time, though the injury to his hip will likely keep him housed for several weeks hence. On or about the holidays an entertainment will be given in Sbarbaugh's hall for the benefit of our cornet band by mostly home talent. Mrs. Martin Kirk continues to be very ill. Mrs. M. Myers, has been rather feeble for some time. Our farmers are resting mostly by their firesides, enjoying the fruits of their labors of the summer, with a little variation by way of bringing their produce to market, attending to their stock in the stables and making long sausage and curing them. Happy farmers! Of course they read the FREEMAN through and through these long winter evenings and wonder where the printer finds so much interesting matter to print. St. Boniface is said to be either too far from Hastings, or Hastings too far from St. Boniface, and yet they are only a short distance apart. To accommodate teachers and school directors desired to attend the County Institute to be held at Ebensburg, commencing Dec. 21st, the Cresson & Coalport Railroad Company will sell excursion tickets to all holding an order from the County Superintendent of schools of Cambria county, making the tickets good to return until January 5th, 1889. No excursion tickets on trains. The Cresson & Coalport Railroad has authorized its agents and passenger conductors to sell excursion tickets during the holidays, on the 21st, 23rd, 25th, 27th, 29th, and January 1st, making them good to return until January 5th, 1889. No excursion tickets on trains. A very large consignment of relatives and friends in fact one of the largest funerals seen in this neighborhood for years - followed the remains of Aloysius, son of Mr. Charles Anna, to the Catholic cemetery in this place from Carrolltown on Monday. He died of consumption on Saturday, at the time of his death was about twenty-one years of age. Deceased was an excellent young man and his demise, in the springtime of life, is mourned by a host of friends. The "Mexican Variety Show" was exhibited here on Tuesday evening. Several wild rabbits have been seen in town recently by early risers. Messrs. C. A. & S. E. Buck, of this place, will soon have completed a large building at Hastings for a branch factory. It is reported here, with some foundation, that another newspaper will be started in Carrolltown soon. It is asserted that Hon. J. J. Thomas, of Carrolltown, will edit the new journal and it will be an eight column paper. The paper will be Democratic in politics, of course. Mr. Dodson, representing the reliable wholesale liquor firm of Fisher & Co., Johnstown, was in town this week. Mr. Frederick Snyder is visiting his home in this place after several months absence. Mr. James Sbarbaugh, of Carrolltown, will open up a smith shop in Carrolltown, adjoining the wagon-making shop of Messrs. Wetzel & Bender, in a few days. School Reports. Headed Township Items. READE TOWNSHIP, Dec. 19, 1888. DEAN FREEMAN - Mr. John Landis, of Fynn City, was tendered a grand surprise on Monday last week in honor of his birthday. It was a pair-day for that whole "city." Mr. Landis received many congratulatory tokens of respect in honor of the event. Harry B. Williams, who is a very industrious and steady young man, residing at the romantic city of Fynn, took a jaunt over to Indiana, the capital of our adjoining county, about a week since to visit his sister, Mrs. Cora Lovins, of that place. He has again returned work. John Russel, of New Germany, this township, was married recently to Miss Ida Coon, formerly of Lloydsville. W. A. Chaplin, of the Alpine Hotel, Reade township, will give a grand ball on next Friday evening. A good time is anticipated for lovers of the art terpsichorean. On Thursday last week, Drs. B. D. Ringler and Woods, two of our best physicians, were in town. Dr. Ringler is a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania, and Dr. Woods is a graduate of the University of Michigan. They are both well known in the township. Mrs. Pratt, of Beaver Valley, has opened a meat market at Fynn's. He receives his meats from the western markets. Mrs. Harry Ringler, of Fynn City, was the guest of Mrs. John Ricketts, of the township, last Sabbath. Spencer's Hall, at Glasgow, is being rapidly pushed to completion. It will be dedicated on New Year's evening. Rev. G. M. Spangler, of this place, has been obliged to retire from the ministry, on account of his eyesight failing. We hope he may speedily regain his vision and be able to continue his pastoral duties. Ed. Kuhn, of Mountain Dale, the successful artist who brought poor brain to his untimely end some time ago, is the tinsorial artist of his resident village. Mr. K. is a good barber as well as a crack marksman. John Ricketts, accompanied by his daughter, Susan, attended the Mountain Dale Institute last Saturday evening. Fred. Stab, of Glasgow, sold his house, hold effects at public outcry last Saturday. Mr. Stab, I understand, intends to move west. The first session of the Reade township teachers' local institute convened at Mountain Dale last Saturday afternoon and evening. The evening exercises were of an instructive, literary and entertaining nature. Prof. A. K. H. minister on the subject of "The Elevation of Public Sentiment," and declaration, were the "crown jewels" of the evening session. The clear, forcible, and pleasing style of his delivery was felt and highly admired by the audience.
