

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Next Sunday is Easter. To-day (Friday) is a legal holiday. "Tigs in clover" struck Ebenburg last week. The ladies of the Presbyterian Congregation of this place, will hold a festival at...

Samuel Bohr and Mary Cassella, of Bedford, took out a marriage license a few days ago and started for the residence of a person to be made one. As they drew near the parson's door, however, the intended bride's heart failed her, and what was to have been a joyful occasion ended in an unceremonious flight.

The telephone line from here to Hastings was completed to-day. There is a petition afloat to have the mail from Carrolltown to Flinton go by way of Hastings, which would be a great convenience both to Carrolltown and Hastings, as it is now a little from here to Hastings would go around a hundred miles to reach there...

There are eighteen applicants for license at the coming term of Bedford county court, one of whom from South Woodbury township has 372 names signed to his application, over 150 of which were signed last week. Another applicant from the same township has 110 names in his list of signers, 80 of whom are women.

There was a shooting affray happened here on Wednesday last. A young buck having fired up with some flinching shotguns went into the bar-room of J. King wrapped in a Smith & Wesson revolver and fired upon the customers who were standing by the door and subsequently arrested and fined nine dollars and costs for his cow-boy act.
