There has been very little opportunity for cultivating the corn fields, and in many parts of the State the ground is badly washed and covered with rank growth of weeds. —The Pittsburg and Ebensburg special made its first trip on Saturday last and will continue to run during the summer, leaving Pittsburg every Saturday at 2:55 P. M., arriving at Ebensburg at 6:20 P. M., and leaving Ebensburg every Monday morning at 7:55 A. M. and arriving at Pittsburg at 10:35 A. M. —A woman manages to sit upright, and doesn't change her position, scarcely looking to the right or left, during a sermon in church. A man will sit on a plucked fence whole half day to see a game of base ball played; but place him in a church pew for ten minutes and he will wobble all over the seat. —Johnstown Democrat, July 13: Robert Butler's house, the Pennsylvania railroad hotel, more generally known as the Field house property, on Iron street, Millville borough, had in it at the time of the flood thirty one persons, not one of whom is known to have escaped, and none of their bodies, we are informed, have yet been found. —A solution consisting of three pounds of lime, one tablespoonful of concentrated lye and six gallons of water, is given as an effective remedy for the protection of potato roots from other crops from potato bugs. It has been used with success. One application with an ordinary sprayer is all that is necessary. This application not only protects the crop, but stimulates growth. —No losses having been granted in the east end of Mercer county, the express traffic to that section has grown very large, and many of the trains to and from New Castle are almost wholly "log trains." The regular passenger trains on the Indiana road might be called "log trains" also. An extremely cold day when from twenty to fifty kegs are not brought to the station.—Johnstown Democrat.

—Six miners from Gallitzin were in the city yesterday. One of them played the violin while the other five danced the waltz, and the funds given by the spectators were contributed to the aid of the strikers on the mountain.—Allentown Tribune.

—An accident occurred at Blue Knob, Blair county, on Friday last which resulted in the death of a young man by name of Thomas Diehl, who was off-bearing at the saw mill of Jno. Diehl. By accident he fell from a log on the saw, which was running at a fast speed, and it threw the young man on the saw, cutting through his left side, into the heart, killing him instantly. With exception of a small gash in the arm the body was not otherwise mangled. There is a blame resting on any one, it being purely accidental. —Mr. John Dorsey, of Philadelphia, died on Tuesday at his home in Philadelphia. Mr. Dorsey was a victim of the Johnstown flood, having been one of the four commercial travelers quartered at the Hubert House on the night of the flood. Mr. Dorsey has traveled for his firm, Rettew & Co., Philadelphia tobaccoists, through Western Pennsylvania, Eastern Ohio and West Virginia for a number of years. He was a frequent traveler to Ebensburg, where he was well and favorably known by all our merchants, and his death will be deeply regretted by all who knew him. —If any of our readers are in need of artistic and substantial cemetery work, made from the best qualities of marble and granite, they should call on W. L. Wilkinson & Son, marble and granite dealers in this place, where they will find a nice stock to select from, or send them word and they will visit you with a large selection of new and original designs, they guarantee all their work and if their work is not as represented they will not ask you to take it, they are prepared to fit all orders at home and abroad at prices that defy competition. Give them a trial. A 5 fm. —This is the law regulating vicious dogs and it gives that kind of a dog about all the rights he ought to have. If anybody is attacked by the highway by a dog, the owner has a right to kill the dog, and the owner can be held accountable for an injury inflicted by the animal. Even on the premises of the owner of a dog, should a party be attacked and injured, after endeavoring to protect himself, the owner can be held responsible for damages inflicted, provided it can be shown that at the time he was in pursuit of business or on a friendly visit. If a dog by barking at passing horses or vehicles occasioned any damage, its owner is liable for the loss sustained. —The vicinity of New Alexandria, Westmoreland county, was visited last week by an city-tongued fellow who represented to the farmers that he had just embarked in the jewelry business in New Alexandria, and, being a stranger, he had started to "drum up" some work. His genial, kind-hearted disposition soon captured the farmers, who gave him their watches to repair, and he, in turn, gave them some jewelry. Some of the plates, he promised to return in a couple of days. A week has now passed and the fellow has failed to show up, and an investigation has revealed to them the fact that he never was in New Alexandria.

Will Get the Cash. The Johnstown Tribune of Wednesday says: No orders were issued by the Board of Inquiry to-day. To-morrow the sufferers of the Sixth Ward will secure their orders. To-morrow also Judge Cummins will be on the Pacific Express at 9:30 and at once repair to their office and begin cashing orders. Treasurer Thomson will come up from Pittsburg this evening and spend the night at Cresson with Judge Cummins. To-morrow morning he and the Judge will come to town on the Pacific Express at 9:30 and at once repair to their office and begin cashing orders. The office is in the lower room of the temporary building on the Diibert corner of the Market Square. It has been fitted up with necessary tables, chairs, etc. On a counter running the full width of the room at the rear are five stamps for the notaries public, who will swear the people to their claims. The notaries appointed for this purpose are Messrs. J. Frank Condon, John D. Roberts, M. B. Stephens, W. Williams, E. S. Murphy. Mr. Roberts having been declared ineligible, another will have to be obtained in his place. Each Notary will have three clerks. The following are their names: W. H. McCullen, E. T. Edwards, Conrad Trickett, C. F. Kress, Jr., William J. Lambert, George E. Raab, J. Henry Schiffbauer, W. C. Smith, L. D. Barber, Charles McNeill, J. S. Sweeney, Frank Phillips, C. C. Clusson, Gilbert Blair, Harry Mainhart. Judge Cummins says he expects to be able to cash off about two hundred people per day. At this rate it will take about twenty days to pay the claimants, who number about four thousand. The Judge says that at the same time the people receive their money they will be given a blank to fill out for their second claim. After that there will, he says, be no more blanks to fill. The only sufferers who will receive their money to-morrow will be those of the Seventh ward. The next day the Fifth ward people will be paid.

What the People of Johnstown Want. A meeting of the citizens of Johnstown was held on Saturday last, of which Burgess Irwin Horrell was president and the representatives of the press were secretaries. Messrs. Scott Dierker, John T. Jones, John E. Linn, Louis B. Brown, Eben James, Frank Devlin, Sr., William McLean, W. S. O'Brien and A. N. Wakefield were elected vice-presidents. Remarks were made by Burgess Horrell, Dr. Dierker, Mr. E. C. Chalk, Dr. Dick, Rev. Dr. Dierker, H. H. and others. The following resolutions were adopted: Resolved, That the citizens of Johnstown and vicinity respectfully request that the fund raised for the relief of the sufferers by the disastrous flood which devastated the Conemaugh Valley be as speedily as possible distributed in money direct to the people for their use, and that all our claims, contracts and expenses to be paid out of this fund shall immediately cease. Resolved, That any appropriation of this fund to meet prebentual future wants will materially diminish its usefulness and only result in delaying to a more distant time the restoration of homes, of business, of industry, and of commerce. It will do more good in the hands of the people now than at any time hereafter. Resolved, That any appropriation of this fund to meet prebentual future wants will materially diminish its usefulness and only result in delaying to a more distant time the restoration of homes, of business, of industry, and of commerce. It will do more good in the hands of the people now than at any time hereafter. The Tail End of Old 1888 AND The Beginning of 1889 will be made memorable by WOOLF, SON & THOMAS for low prices. Our Overcoat Department is teeming with Bargains. Words and figures cannot possibly convey a correct idea of the number in which we have cut the prices of all our stock of Men's Boys' and Children's Overcoats and heavy suits. The sacrifice we make in unloading this stock is without parallel. Not a price will we quote, but of this fact you may be assured: that from our finest Dress Suit of Overcoat for a young gentleman down to the strong every-day Suit for a school-boy, we will give more and better for the price than we have given before. This Reduction Sale is carried out in earnest. We mean business. The Overcoats and heavy suits must be sold. The weather was against us in the early part of the season, and now if you have a little ready money it will prove a saving of several dollars to you in your purchases from us.

The Greatest Reductions have been in the Prices of HOLIDAY GOODS:

Given Away! Given Away! From now until New Year's Day we shall continue to present each of our many customers (purchasing goods to the amount of $5 or more) with one of those Handsome Photo Albums which have delighted thousands of our lady friends during Christmas week.

WOLFF & RANDOLPH, PHILADELPHIA.

Will Get the Cash.

The Johnstown Tribune of Wednesday says: No orders were issued by the Board of Inquiry to-day. To-morrow the sufferers of the Sixth Ward will secure their orders. To-morrow also Judge Cummins will be on the Pacific Express at 9:30 and at once repair to their office and begin cashing orders.

Treasurer Thomson will come up from Pittsburg this evening and spend the night at Cresson with Judge Cummins. To-morrow morning he and the Judge will come to town on the Pacific Express at 9:30 and at once repair to their office and begin cashing orders.

The office is in the lower room of the temporary building on the Diibert corner of the Market Square. It has been fitted up with necessary tables, chairs, etc. On a counter running the full width of the room at the rear are five stamps for the notaries public, who will swear the people to their claims.

The notaries appointed for this purpose are Messrs. J. Frank Condon, John D. Roberts, M. B. Stephens, W. Williams, E. S. Murphy. Mr. Roberts having been declared ineligible, another will have to be obtained in his place.

Each Notary will have three clerks. The following are their names: W. H. McCullen, E. T. Edwards, Conrad Trickett, C. F. Kress, Jr., William J. Lambert, George E. Raab, J. Henry Schiffbauer, W. C. Smith, L. D. Barber, Charles McNeill, J. S. Sweeney, Frank Phillips, C. C. Clusson, Gilbert Blair, Harry Mainhart.

Judge Cummins says he expects to be able to cash off about two hundred people per day. At this rate it will take about twenty days to pay the claimants, who number about four thousand.

The Judge says that at the same time the people receive their money they will be given a blank to fill out for their second claim. After that there will, he says, be no more blanks to fill.

The only sufferers who will receive their money to-morrow will be those of the Seventh ward. The next day the Fifth ward people will be paid.

The Pennsylvania Railroad Excursions to the Jersey Coast.

Of all the excursions offered to the people of this section none possess more merit than those of the Pennsylvania railroad to the attractive resorts of the New Jersey coast. The dates of these trips are opportunely fixed, the limit of the tickets cover the usual vacation period, the points of destination, Atlantic City, Cape May, Seaside, or Ocean City, are all of the highest quality, and the fares are so liberal as to come within the means of every one and the means of transportation is of the highest grade.

These characteristics have made these trips exceedingly popular and have afforded many of our people a delightful holiday tour
