

Great catches! Big sales! Bargains in clothing at Barkers'.

Mr. Lemuel Davis, of the Park House, Roaring Springs, was in Ebensburg on Wednesday.

A valuable horse belonging to Messrs. O'Hara & Davis, of this place, died on Wednesday morning.

Mr. Hervey Russell has been elected leader of the Ebensburg Band, to succeed Mr. John Lehighy who resigned.

Mr. Charles Eck, son of P. L. Eck, of Carrolltown, while hauling a steam drill from Carrolltown to Ebensburg on Tuesday last, had an accident, making a mischief in attempting to get on the wagon with the result of having the wagon run over his foot, crushing it badly.

The County Commissioners asked authority of the court to negotiate a loan of $27,000 for the purpose of erecting bridges and other extraordinary expenses.

The court made an order for the sale of $30,000 of bonds and authorized them to be sold in such a manner as they could apply again.—Johnson Messenger.

—Mother Hartness, Superior of the order of the Sisters of St. Joseph, at Findling N. Y., died at the convent in that place on Tuesday of last week. The deceased was the Superior of the mother house of the order in this place a number of years ago and her death will be deeply regretted by all who knew her.

—Mr. Ira Tomlinson, of Altoona, while at work Saturday afternoon shingling a roof fell from the roof to the ground, a distance of twenty-five feet, and injured himself pretty badly. When picked up his left arm was found to be broken, his ankle badly twisted, his body receiving a regular shaking up.

—George J. Myers, of Ashville, has been appointed Poor Director to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Jacob Shaffer. The appointment was made by Messrs. Easley and Long, the members of the board of directors, and is for the unexpired term of Mr. Shaffer, which would have ended on the 1st of Monday in January next.

—Male members of the Amish sect of Somerset are not permitted to wear suspenders, brown a hairy with a folding flap, or a top to the stationery of all right. All members wear "books and eyes" instead of buttons on their clothes. This is strictly adhered to by both sexes. No female member is allowed to wear a hat or have any ornaments.

—A tramp printer, aged about 45 or 50 years, after making the rounds of the printing offices in Greensburg on Friday morning last, started alone the railroad towards Jeannette, where he had been informed he could obtain work. When midway between Greensburg and Jeannette he was struck by a Day express and instantly killed. He was stably dressed and was utterly destitute.

—Pennsylvania has been divided into the districts by the Census Bureau for the approaching census. The eighth district comprises the counties of Armstrong, Cambria, Clarion, Fayette, Indiana, Jefferson, Somerset and Westmoreland; population in 1880, 361,340. Each district will receive a superintendent, who will receive as compensation in addition to one dollar for each one thousand names enumerated.

—An infant child of Mr. and Mrs. P. S. Gunest, who were en route on Day Express, died on Sunday morning in the car after the train had left Wilmore, from cholera infantum. The remains were brought to Altoona where Undertaker Arthur took charge of them and prepared them for burial. They were then taken East on the Ball, the parents accompanying them. The parents were from Beatrice, Michigan, to Landville, this State.

—Hon. Daniel McLaughlin and family, of Johnstown, are now residents of this place. They occupy the fine building of Mr. James McCloskey, on Main street. Mr. McLaughlin is now at the office of an excellent lawyer. He still retains his office in Johnstown. He resided in this place for years, where he carried on the mercantile business, which he gave up when he went to Johnstown to practice law.—Gallitzin Pinditor.

—A terrible accident, as happened on the Barley farm, in Bloomfield township, Bedford county, on Tuesday. The Bedford Development Company has been prospecting for minerals on the farm, and found it as safe as any other in the county. It is reported that the explosion was caused by the use of dynamite. There was a premature discharge, and Smith was literally blown to pieces. Hans was buried a distance of twenty feet, but, strange to say, was not seriously hurt.

—On Wednesday morning about 9 o'clock Jim Lewis, a notorious colored barber at Derry, shot his wife twice. The first ball struck her in the arm and the second shot took effect in the groin. She is now in a critical condition. It is thought, will prove fatal. The tough customer who has figured in several cutting scrapes, and at one time shot Conductor Bell, for which he served a term in the penitentiary, is now in a critical condition. The couple have not been living together as man and wife as they should, and on Wednesday morning they had the usual racket with the above result.

—Many of our readers are in need of artistic and substantial cemetery work, made from the best qualities of marble and granite, they will do well to call on J. W. Keeler & Co., marble and granite dealers in this place, where they will find a nice stock to select from, or send them word and they will visit you with a large selection of the most artistic designs, they guarantee their work, and they will not ask you to take it, they are prepared to fill all orders at home and abroad at prices that defy competition. Give them a trial. A 56m.

—You will find the greatest bargains of the year in clothing down at Barkers'. They say they have too many goods, and in order to make room for new goods, have reduced this early to close out. If white clothing, say a dress, to put away in a drawer or closet it will become yellow. But if it is placed in a box lined with blue cloth or blue paper it will come out as white as it ever was, no matter how long it lies.

The census of 1890 is to be made as close, searching and intimate as possible, and among other items never before embraced in census reports will furnish tabulated statements of the recorded indebtedness of the people. The idea is to present statistics showing the extent of this private indebtedness of record and the form in which it exists—namely, whether in real estate or mortgages, debts otherwise secured, or in general indebtedness through notes and bills payable.

—Emercy Thompson, son of Thos. Thompson, of near this place, met with a serious accident on Monday last. He was playing with powder and bored a hole and filled it with powder in a board when he went to light it with a match the head flew off exploding the powder which struck him fair in the face. His face is terribly mangled and is swollen out of all manner of shape but it is thought that he will recover without the loss of his eyes which are also full of powder. This is a warning to boys who are in the habit of playing with powder.—Cherrytree Record.

—William Zundel was arrested at Mauch Chunk last week and Monday morning was taken to Johnstown by J. T. Harris, the Chief of Police of that city, to answer to the charge of stealing a heavy gold ring, valued at $250, from the dead body of Mrs. Katerzina, a victim of the Johnstown flood. The ring was found in a pawn broker's shop in Pittsburg, and a ticket for it in Zundel's possession. Zundel is a native of Carbon county, about 25 years of age, and was employed as a bar-tender in Ben Sulka's restaurant in Johnstown at the time of the flood. He waved a hearing and was brought to jail on Tuesday.

—A telegram from Kansas City says: A detective from Indiana, Pa., is here attempting to find Belle Allison, from that place, who her friends fear, has met with foul play. She left her home on June 19th, having previously arranged to elope with D. S. Harrod, a barber of Effingham, Kan., who is married and the father of eight children. The couple arranged to meet at the city of Johnstown, where Harrod was here, but since then nothing has been heard of Miss Allison since her departure from Indiana. When she left she had $2,000 in her possession, and it is feared that she has been murdered and robbed.

—Charles Scott, son of John Scott, a contractor of Pittsburg, was shot and instantly killed by James Lehr, of Allegheny, at the camp of the Eureka Fishing Club, of Allegheny in Somerset county, on Sunday last. Scott and several other young men were guests of the club, and Lehr was the cook. Lehr had been drinking heavily, was in a dangerous mood and had threatened to shoot several members of the club. Young Scott was the last to be shot. He was a practical member, he is hoped for reward beyond the grave. On Saturday, July 20th, his remains were taken to St. Patrick's Catholic church, this place, where a Requiem High Mass was said by the Rev. Father Boyle for the repose of his soul, and thence to the cemetery thereto attached, where the body was laid to rest, until summoned, we hope, to a glorious resurrection. Four brothers survive him, one of whom is John R. Litzinger, aged 25 years, of Indiana county. May he rest in peace.

—DRISKEL—Died at his home in Allegheny township on Thursday, July 18th, 1889, Mr. Michael Driskel, aged 47 years. He was born near the spot on which he died about 47 years ago. From his earliest years he was remarkable for industry, intelligence, energy and perseverance. His traits of character led him at an early age to try his fortune in the West, where he spent about twenty years, returning with a handsome competence. About ten years ago his health was, however, impaired, and his infirmities of improvement he gradually declined and during the past nine months his sufferings were indescribable. He endured all with heroic fortitude and died without regret—referred by all. For many energy, genuine integrity and high moral principles he was conspicuous, and has not left his superior behind him. May he rest in peace.

LITZINGER—Died at his home in Chest Springs, July 12, 1889, of consumption, John R. Litzinger, aged 25 years. He was greatly esteemed for his kind and cheerful disposition. He was a good husband and an affectionate and loving father, and we have every reason to believe that he is now in the enjoyment of a blessed immortality. He leaves to mourn his loss a bereaved wife and seven children, the youngest being about one year of age, besides his aged mother and several brothers and sisters. He was a member of the Catholic church, followed by a large number of relatives and friends, who were present at the funeral, which was held at the Catholic church, and the remains were taken to the Catholic cemetery and consigned to the family plot. May his soul rest in peace.

History of the Johnstown Flood. J. W. Keeler & Co. of Philadelphia have in press for early issue, a complete and accurate History of the Johnstown Flood, including all the other cities and towns that have suffered from the overflow of the Allegheny. Will be sold through agents, or mailed direct on receipt of $1.50.

The demand will undoubtedly be immense, as the thrilling experience, pathetic incidents, deeds of heroism, unparalleled suffering, desolation and death, and the sympathy shown in the contributions of millions for their relief, form a History of the most intense interest to all, and a history every one will want to preserve in book form. It certainly offers a great opportunity for agents—a host of whom will be needed to supply the demand for this work.

This work was begun systematically by Col. John Rodgers when the military authorities assumed control. It was continued by Mr. Harry Keller, and completed by Mr. French.

A Believable Husband. He had imbibed too freely of intoxicants, and conceived the idea that some one must feel the force of his displeasure. There were no men about whom he considered his equals, and he was a loss that to do.

In casting about he saw a medium sized woman, Mrs.
