DEMOCRATIC STATE CONVENTION.

The Democratic State Convention will assemble in the Opera House, in the city of Harrisburg, on Wednesday, September 4, 1889, at 12 o'clock, m., for the purpose of nominating a candidate for the office of State Treasurer and transacting such other business as may properly come before it.

Chairman Democratic State Committee. BENJ. M. NEED, Secretary.

Democratic State Committee Meeting.

A meeting of the Democratic State Committee will be held at the rooms of the Committee, No. 306 Market street, Harrisburg, on Monday, September 24, 1889, at 4 o'clock, P. M.

Chairman. ELLIOT P. KESNER, Secretary. BENJ. M. NEED, Chairman.

International American Congress.

An International American Congress will meet at Washington, at noon on October 2nd, 1889. It will be attended by some fifty to sixty delegates, including some of the most distinguished men in Central and South America.

A PENNSYLVANIA CRANK.

The Chicago Herald, has made three hundred clay idols of various grotesque shapes, which he worships devoutly every night and morning.

THE LAST LEGISLATION WAS KIND.

The last Legislature was kind enough to set apart September 2 as a legal holiday to be known as labor day.

TANNER boasts says the Boston Herald.

TANNER boasts says the Boston Herald, of the amazement he is to bring upon Congress by the extent of his calls for money from the Treasury.

In view of the pledge of Mahone's Dispatch (Republicans).

In view of the pledge of Mahone's Dispatch (Republicans), says the Pittsburgh Dispatch (Republicans), that the Republicans will secure financial aid to ex-Confederate soldiers and their widows and orphans, it becomes a rather pertinent inquiry whether Republican platforms are intended to state Republican principles or to catch votes.

SEPTEMBER 5th is the last day to have your name registered in order to get a vote at the general election November 5th.

SEPTEMBER 5th is the last day to have your name registered in order to get a vote at the general election November 5th. If you are not positive, it is sure that you are registered go and attend to this duty at once. It might be well enough to see your neighbor and remind him of the necessity of having his name registered in time.

THE United States circuit court at San Francisco, California.

THE United States circuit court at San Francisco, California, was officially informed on Tuesday that the charge of murder against Justice Stephen J. Field, growing out of the shooting of Judge Terry had been dismissed by the Stockton Court, Judge Sawyer, according to the habeas corpus proceedings in the case of Justice Field.

JOHN LEE, one of the prominent woolen manufacturers of Philadelphia.

JOHN LEE, one of the prominent woolen manufacturers of Philadelphia, says: "I have come to the conclusion that the only salvation for this country must be found in free raw materials. Unless Congress removes the tariff on wool it won't be long before some of the largest factories in this country will be compelled to close their doors."

The gallows did ghastly work in New York city last Friday morning.

The gallows did ghastly work in New York city last Friday morning, but it seems as if the lesson it conveyed had not been given quickly enough. But a few hours before the four men plunged through the fatal trap a young ruffian in Brooklyn, surprised while robbing a house, plunged a dagger repeatedly into the heart of the man who had detected him.

THE United States, says the Toronto (Canada) Mail, according to the latest interpretation of the alien labor law.

THE United States, says the Toronto (Canada) Mail, according to the latest interpretation of the alien labor law, will allow no more clerymen of foreign birth to accept invitations to preach to American congregations. There was more enlightenment than there is among the American Christians. Had there not been Paul would have been turned back when responding to the cry from Macedonia for help. It is to be hoped other countries will not follow the American example and resist the arrival of ministers of the Gospel. Suppose the pagans were to take a lead out of all the American missionaries, what a terrible outcry there would be from Sandy Hook to the Golden Gate.

THE Prohibition State Convention met at Harrisburg on Wednesday, and nominated J. R. Johnston, of Pittsburg, for State Treasurer.

At the meeting of the new County Committee held at the Opera House on Monday, W. A. B. Little, Esq., was elected Secretary for the ensuing year; W. H. Rose, was elected member of the State Central Committee, and C. A. Shaughnessy, of Carrolltown, Dr. J. B. Noonan, of Chest Springs, C. N. Crouse, of South Fork, M. Fitzharris, of Gallitzin, and Dr. Geo. Waggoner, of Johnstown were elected delegates to the State Convention.

The farmers have this year says the Philadelphia Record, raised a tremendous wheat crop for which they will get European prices, less the cost of transportation. But when they buy sugar, lumber, clothing, salt, tools, medicines, tinware, or any other of the thousands of necessary things taxed in the tariff schedules, they must pay American prices. They sell in the cheapest market and buy in the dearest market. As long as they are satisfied with this kind of trading there is no reason why Harrison shouldn't be President.

A WASHINGTON special to the New York World, of Wednesday says that some astounding figures came to light on Tuesday in the matter of increased and repeated pensions. It appears that during the month of August, Commissioner Tanner has paid out the enormous sum of $75,000 in seventeen repeated cases. Richard Whiting, of St. Louis, received the largest amount, $12,251.50. Ithram Smith, Deputy Commissioner of Pensions, has himself been related, and pockets $6,055.72. Cardenio Bruce, of Kansas gets $6,341.72. John S. Fay receives $6,341.85. Henry Finking shares in the big garb to the tune of $5,231.05. Tanner bases this wholesale distribution of the surplus upon a recent decision of Assistant Secretary Chandler in the case of Henry Schmidt, in which the Secretary ruled that a man might be pensioned for double disability.

THE Democratic primaries were held on Saturday last and on Monday the return judges met and counted the votes.

THE Democratic primaries were held on Saturday last and on Monday the return judges met and counted the votes. As will be seen by the official table of the votes polled, published on this page, James C. Darby, of Conemaugh borough, was nominated for Prothonotary; Celestine J. Blair, of Ebensburg, was nominated for Register and Recorder; Francis J. O'Connor, of Johnstown, was nominated for District Attorney; Raphael Hite, of Carroll township was nominated for Director of the Poor; Peter McGough, of Portage township, was nominated for Coroner and Henry Scanlan, of Carrolltown was nominated for County Surveyor. The ticket is a good one, composed of Democrats worthy of the support of every Democratic voter in the county and having been nominated in accordance with the rules of the Democratic party the entire ticket should be voted in November without being defaced by a scratch, by every Democrat, and triumphantly elected. We will refer to the ticket again at some future time.

THE Campaign of Education goes right along, rain or shine, winter or summer.

THE Campaign of Education goes right along, rain or shine, winter or summer. The failures of the woolen manufacturers are causing many persons to think; and out West great meetings are being held for the purpose of discussing Tariff Reform from political and discussing it on merits. At Plattsburg, Mo., on Wednesday, some 20,000 people who had met to look into the question greeted with applause the following letter addressed to the Chairman of the Committee on arrangements:

I have received your cordial and earnest invitation to attend a Tariff Reform meeting at Plattsburg, Mo., on Wednesday, 21st instant, and I am exceedingly pleased to learn that such an active and ardent measure is to be adopted to arouse the intelligence of the people of your locality upon a question so vital to their interest and to the good of the entire country. The time is opportune for instruction and information upon the subject of Tariff Reform and for the correction of misapprehension and prejudice. The question is so deep and so much to be desired for the welfare and happiness of the American people that its consideration ought not to be restrained within the limits of party servility, and it is not thus to be restrained if it is understood.

THE Mills bill, says the Pittsburgh Post, proposed to reduce the duty on pig iron from 35 to 25 cents.

THE Mills bill, says the Pittsburgh Post, proposed to reduce the duty on pig iron from 35 to 25 cents. That was denounced as free trade. But Governor Ames, of Massachusetts, (one of the largest iron manufacturers in the Union) elected on the ticket with Harrison last November, and every Republican manufacturer of iron and steel in New England, have signed petitions to Congress asking that the duty on pig iron shall be reduced to the anti-war rate of 24 per cent.—that is, about $3 per ton. These Republican manufacturers also ask that coal be admitted duty free, instead of paying 75 cents a ton, a rate that the Mills bill did not disturb, and very foolishly in our judgment, as it would clearly open new markets for the bituminous of Western Pennsylvania in Canada, if we should repeal the duty on coal, the Dominion making no secret that in that case it will repeal its duty of 60 cents a ton.

New England is determined, not as a question of politics but as a necessity of her industrial situation, to have free coal and iron ores, and a marked reduction in the duties on crucial manufactures of iron and steel.

New England is determined, not as a question of politics but as a necessity of her industrial situation, to have free coal and iron ores, and a marked reduction in the duties on crucial manufactures of iron and steel. She has the votes in Congress, with those of other tariff reformers, to make certain the result. But the movement for free raw material will not end with the success of her demands. Free wool is of even more importance to manufacturers and consumers. The silence of the trust and monopoly papers of this region as to the extraordinary movement in New England for tariff reform is about as significant as the Yankee's statement of Governor Ames, that "there is reason in all things, and when the system (protection) has been carried as far as it has in this case, so that many industries have been ruined, it is time for a change."

Daily Object-Lessons.

Every day brings the story of some new failure in one of the protected industries. These things mean loss of employment to workmen and a curtailment of bread to helpless women and children.

Who is Responsible.

Every indication is coming month by month that the West are much heavier than usual, and the movement of the new grain to market, has commenced a fortnight earlier than is customary.

Magnificent Leadership.

The late Pennsylvania Republican Convention was held in the city of Harrisburg, and was presided over by its adulation Senator Quay of that State, who was Chairman of the Republican National Committee during the last campaign.

A Makeshift in the Treasury.

When Mr. Harrison undertook the formation of a Cabinet he remembered the financial standing of the country, and he accordingly made a makeshift in the Treasury.

NEWS AND OTHER NOTICES.

—C. E. Lyberger, postmaster at Millwood, Knox county, Ohio, on Sunday shot at his daughter Daisy, but missed her, the ball striking Mr. Lyberger and fatally wounding her. Lyberger then blew his own brains out. The cause of the shooting was old family troubles.

—Warren Kenney, a farmer near Erie, met with a singular death on Saturday. He fell from a log of lumber and broke his neck, but was not immediately killed. He was brought to the Hamot hospital for treatment, but when the nurses were adjusting him in bed his neck was slightly turned and he died instantly.

—Charles Noll, an employe of the Central Pennsylvania Telephone Company, while upon a pole in Lock Haven on Saturday adjusting some wires was thrown to the ground by the pole breaking. The heavy timber fell on him. His jaw was broken and he was otherwise badly cut and bruised. He is a resident of Bellefonte and may not recover.

—J. C. Ruff, of Gloucester, Mass., has four tomato vines trellised on his premises, which have recently produced 25 bushels and are still growing. There are over 100 green tomatoes growing on the vines. He has also a pea vine which has grown to 10 1/2 feet in height, from which 77 pods, each pod containing seven peas, has been produced.

—Ed. Staubaugh, of Spring township, Perry county, has recently purchased 25 head of western cattle, nearly all of which he sold to neighboring farmers. Last week most of them were taken sick with a mysterious malady and 10 or 12 have died. It was feared they had pleuro pneumonia, but the disease proved to be "Texas fever," a fatal but not contagious disease.

—An inventive genius in Rome, Ga., has constructed a little machine that he calls the "chicken walker." It proposes to do away with the fences around gardens, and protect the gardens from damage by chickens. When the machinery is placed on a chicken's feet, and it goes in the garden and makes an effort to scratch the soil, instead of accomplishing its desire, the attachment walks the chicken out of the garden; the harder it scratches the faster it goes.

—Above Augusta, Ga., on the Carolina side of the river, there is an old man who is half crazy by the carting business. He positively refused to live in a house, and has never entered one since he fled from his tatterling home three years ago. At Sand Bar Ferry a young colored man's hair turned perfectly white from black on the night of the earthquake. It is still white. At a station on the Carolina road a cow went through the quake shook all the time until her death, a year ago. For nearly two years the animal constantly trembled and piteously moaned.

A terrible collision occurred on Friday morning on the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad near Petrolite, in which three men were instantly killed and many wounded. An accommodation train going west crashed into a special train occupied by railroad officials on a tour of inspection. The killed are James Layman, engineer, Alexander Daily and John Fletcher, firemen. Clinkers Rowlands, an old engineer, was injured internally and cannot live. The special car occupied by the officials was smashed. Roadmaster Hunter, trackmaster E. J. Malloy, and George Douglas were badly injured.

—Spring Lake reservoir, near Piskville, in the southwest corner of Cranston, Rhode Island, which supplies the villages along the Pawtuxet river, burst on Sunday afternoon. Mrs. Greene Tew, aged 99, a Mrs. Hawkins, aged 99, and Mrs. Tew's son, aged 9 or 7 years, were walking through a strip of woods and were overtaken by the food and drowned. Their bodies were found in the wood through which the water quickly ran until it emptied in the Pawtuxet river. The river rose rapidly and caused considerable alarm among the people. Many of them left their houses and fled but the flood subsided as rapidly as it had come. The path of the water from the reservoir was through the newly settled country, causing only damage to property was the wrecking of a stable belonging to Russel Matthews, the expiring of the carriage shop belonging to Dr. E. K. Clark and the demolishing of three road bridges.

Whiskey Kills.

How often are we yet to be told that whiskey kills? Arsenic kills; opium kills; so do hundreds of other good remedies kill if used instead of used. But ask the question, "Will whiskey cure?" "Yes!" is the positive reply of the most eminent physicians of all the land. Disease steals into your system like a sneaking thief into your house, and often by neglecting a bad cold, you end our days in lingering, and wishing for health—when, indeed, one bottle of Pure Whiskey or Brandy would have cured the cold. Such goods may be scarce, but they can be found at Max Kleins, 82 Federal Street, Allegheny. His "Silver Age" is only whiskey endorsed by the doctors. You can get the pure Guckenheimer, Finch or Gibson Rye at $1.00 per quart or six quarts for $5.00. Send for price list.
