The jury in the latest Whitechapel murder brought in a verdict on Tuesday that it knew nothing about it.

Congressman Nettino, of the Oswego district, New York, is so seriously ill that he contemplates resigning so a new election can take place before Congress meets.

The Republicans of Nashville, Tenn., are so disgusted with the new postmaster at that city, that Harrison's picture was taken out of a frame on the wall of the Republican club room.

At Rosalia, Kan., the other day, Alonzo Edwards and his wife Mary were strung up by a mob to make them confess the killing of the little daughter of George Dudley. They were awfully maltreated, and the woman at last consented to throwing the child in the river. On Tuesday the missing child turned up alive and well.

Cardinal Gibbons stated in a recent address that in 1790 there were 4,000,000 inhabitants in America and 40,000 Catholics. After the lapse of a century there is a population of 65,000,000, of whom 9,000,000 are Catholics. There are 650 colleges and academies, and nearly as many large hospitals and asylums for the care of the young, the sick and infirm.

In the fraudulent Black divorce case, in New York city, Sheriff James A. Black, Wm. Black, son of the Sheriff, Civil Justice Ambrose Monell, Joseph Meeks, the referee and Mrs. Raymond Reynolds, will be indicted by the Grand Jury. Judge Bookstaver, who signed the decree of divorce, will not be indicted, but the Grand Jury will recommend a document that amounts to a recommendation of impeachment in his case.

It is stated upon good information that President Harrison was closely guarded by detectives on his way from Washington to Deer Park, as a precaution against any possible assault on the part of those dissatisfied with his action in dismissing Tamm. The cracks all over the country belong to the Republican party and the fate of Garfield makes it necessary for the friends of President Harrison, to use the utmost caution.

China is waking up, as Japan long ago did, to the importance of railroad communication. The emperor of China recently signed a decree directing the building of a railroad 700 miles long, to extend southward from Peking to one of the treaty ports on the Yang-tze, about five hundred miles from the mouth of that river, whose foreign trade last year amounted to about $55,000,000. It will lie wholly in the interior of the country. China has now only 86 miles of railway, while Japan in 1875 celebrated the completion of 1,000 miles of railway in that empire. The Japanese are the Yankees of the Orient.

The annual report of Hon. E. S. Mitchell, Commissioner of Patents just issued furnishes food for study. It shows the total number of applications for patents for the year ending June 30, to have been 28,740 and the total number granted during the same period to have been 21,515. In view of the statistics one is apt to lose faith in the old maxim "There is nothing new under the sun." The patent office is a money making institution for Uncle Sam. The present report shows the profits for last year to have been $186,866. This added to previous profits makes a grand total of $3,254,526 which the Government is ahead through the fees paid by its inventors.

This is the season says the Pittsburgh Times, for going to the Mountains—any time the next six weeks. There is not in this or any other country anything that is comparable to what one can behold of nature in the Fall here in the Alleghenies. Even now the forest trees are changing their colors little by little, and the change repeats one who studies it. Soon the change will deepen, and it will not be long before the slopes will be dressed in colors that no artist can reproduce. A side over the mountains then will repay anyone who has an eye for nature's glories; not a day, not a week, not even a month will suffice for unequalled study. Our people travel abroad for studies of nature, but nowhere abroad will they see glories that surpass those of the Alleghenies. How many are there who have lived all their days within a few hours' ride of the Alleghenies, and yet are either ignorant of their scenery, especially when the frosty nights begin to succeed one another, or have no eye for nature's beauties. He must be wanting in a great deal that makes him a companionable sort of person who is thus deficient in appreciation of the glories of nature. Go to the mountains when they begin to blaze in their Fall colors.

During the late session of the Legislature, says the Harrisburg Patriot, Hon. S. M. Wherry, representative from Cumberland county, made the charge that the Commissioner of the sinking Fund had sold over a million dollars' worth of United States bonds belonging to the State which brought $60,000,000 interest to the State Treasury every year and that the proceeds of this sale of the United States bonds were deposited in certain banks without interest. This charge was couched in the plainest and most specific language, and Mr. Wherry moved that the House appoint a special committee to inquire into the management of the Sinking Fund and the Treasury under which this achievement in financialing was accomplished. But the Republican House, with Speaker Boyer, (now the Republican candidate for State Treasurer) at its head, deliberately refused to make the inquiry.

The only explanation of this remarkable financial transaction which has been vouchsafed by the Commissioners of the Sinking Fund is that the United States bonds were sold with a view of employing the proceeds of the sale in the purchase of State bonds, but that when the Commissioners appeared in the market for the purpose of buying State bonds the holders of the latter insisted upon a premium which the Commissioners regarded as exorbitant. But most loss, by the sale of United States bonds even if the State bonds could be bought at a reasonable premium. This explanation, therefore, fails to explain.

Do the people of Pennsylvania approve of a management of the Treasury by which the State loses $60,000,000 in interest annually, a loss which must be made good by taxation? Are the voters of the State ready to endorse Henry K. Boyer, the Republican candidate for State Treasurer, who is speaking of the House of Representatives stilled the inquiry into the management of the Treasury proposed by Representative Wherry? Can fealty to party cover quite this glaring infidelity to the public interest? These questions are submitted to the candid and intelligent judgment of the voters whatever may be their political affiliation, in the confident belief that they will decide them at the polls, not as the blinded slaves of party, but as free and thoughtful citizens.

On Thursday evening of last week about half past seven o'clock a terrible slide occurred immediately below Duffie's terrace in Quebec, Canada, by which seven houses were crushed out of shape and from twenty to forty people killed and wounded.

Those who witnessed the fall of the rock say that they heard a loud, loud noise, as of several cannons, and, on looking up toward the terrace and citadel, were horrified by the sight of an immense mass of stones, rock and earth breaking loose and rushing down the 360 feet of declivity upon the doomed houses below.

Immediately the air was filled with dust, so that no one could see ten feet in front of him, and breathing was made difficult. This was followed by the sounds of timbers crashing and yielding to the immense power of the avalanche, and the shouting and screaming of men, women and children, in all the agony of despair.

A low avalanche was caused by the hot weather of the past few weeks cracking the earth and rock, which were loosened and driven down by the heavy rain of the last few days.

The men of the water police, whose station is near the scene of the accident set to work at once to rescue the imprisoned persons, which called out the fire brigade and police, with ladders and ropes breaking, the houses soon caught fire.

Why "hush up" as is proposed, the Tamm scandal? Why suppress a single detail of the great scandal of the public Treasury? Why should any one act of theft or the name of any participant therein not to be exposed to public indignation? Tamm never sought silence when in power. His was the loudest yell of all. His strongest weapon was his jaw; no adversary escaped his cutting sarcasm, as he is for his silence; but it is only the silence of a man who has been stunned. Now he will break out again. So with Tamm's silence he has been offering the public a riddle. It is the Administration that demands a hush. Harrison, who has already lost much by the penitentiary scandal, offers the effect of disclosures. With them will come further estrangement of his intimates and even greater designs among the lukewarm. And yet an Administration that shuns investigation—that has anything to hush up—is an Administration which the people will never trust.—Chicago Herald.

A 235-ton Cast-steel Gun.
A cast-steel gun, weighing 235 (135) tons has just been shipped by Messrs. Krupp from Hamburg for Crostend. The calibre of the gun is 13 1/2 inches, the length is 49 feet 6 inches, the greatest diameter being 61 feet. The weight of the gun is over eleven million, and it will fire two shots per minute, each shot weighing 400 lbs. The gun is being tested at the trials of the gun held in the presence of Russian officers at Meppen, the range of the Essen firm, the projectile, 13 1/2 inches in diameter, weighs 1,200 lbs., and propelled by a charge of 700 pounds of powder, penetrated 19 1/2 inches of armor, and went 1,312 yards beyond the target. The gun is the largest in existence.

The Verdier Experiment.
W. D. Sait, Druggist, Bippus, Ind., testifies: "I can recommend Electric Bitters as the very best remedy. Every bottle sold has given relief in every case. One man 'sixty years of age' and was cured of Rheumatism of 10 years' standing." Abraham Hart, druggist, Belleville, Ohio, affirms: "The best selling medicine I have handled in my 29 years' experience, is Electric Bitters." Thousands of others have added their testimony, so that the verdict is unanimous that Electric Bitters do cure all diseases of the Liver, Kidneys or Blood. Only a half dollar a bottle of the drug of E. James, Ebensburg, and W. W. McAteer, Loretto.

Quay's Machine Breaking.

From the latest and best accounts of the condition of Republican politics, Senator Quay had better turn his attention to his own State and let Virginia and the new northwestern States shift for themselves. The Republican primaries recently held in Pennsylvania in the Republican organization of Pennsylvania by a very peculiar feature. The fact that he is the man who has broken the Republican machine in that great Republican stronghold has passed out of the hands of the aspiring Senator, his bedchamber a few days before the delegates to the next Republican State Convention were elected by the opponents of Mr. Quay. And now comes the news that the Republican machine is broken in that great Republican stronghold has passed out of the hands of the aspiring Senator, his bedchamber a few days before the delegates to the next Republican State Convention were elected by the opponents of Mr. Quay. And now comes the news that the Republican machine is broken in that great Republican stronghold has passed out of the hands of the aspiring Senator, his bedchamber a few days before the delegates to the next Republican State Convention were elected by the opponents of Mr. Quay.

Even if such a combination to control the price of wheat and other essential commodities should temporarily succeed, it could end only in disaster to the American farmer. Its beneficiaries would be a few speculators, who are speculating in a rise of prices in the broad market.

The next effect of an attempt to arbitrarily raise the price of bread in this country would be to increase the price of wheat in other quarters of the globe, and by largely increasing the world's supply, to lessen the independence of consumers upon the American markets.

President Harrison is having a hard time in seeking for a successor to Corporal Tanner.

Who is the American, born Yankee or naturalized, that will evolve from his inner consciousness the idea of the greatest exhibition ever held in the world?

The Eiffel tower may be ugly, but it is great—great in its appeal to the imagination. There is no doubt that it will be the greatest exhibition ever held in the world.

When You Go to the Great Western Pennsylvania Exposition.
There is a place of special interest that will pay you to visit, whether you are purchasers or not, that is the Great Dry Goods store of Boggs & Buhl, 115, 117, 119 and 121 Federal street, corner Park Way, Allegheny, Pa.

This establishment is an exposition within itself in its vastness—up stairs and down of these four large stores in one, devoted to the Dry Goods, Cloak and Suit business, and any and everything pertaining thereto, that is necessary to constitute a large well appointed and represented Dry Goods store of the 19th century. Ladies say that the goods exhibited in their Exposition cases are gems of beauty and superiority. All these goods are taken from the best stores and their stores, and not imported as "show pieces," or Fabrics for the Exposition. You will readily see that for the departments of the store represented by such goods as these, proves conclusively that there has been no overcharging. The goods are more than the usual order exercised in the purchase of these rich and elegant Fabrics, as well as in the artistic and able manner of draping, trimming and display of their Exposition cases. The goods are the feature of the exhibit—not the case that contains them. The Bx Ex Barzains offered at Boggs & Buhl's will pay to you hundreds of miles to see, and you go to the Exposition, visit their mammoth stores in Allegheny. They have for 20 years made specialties in Silks, Dress Goods and Suitings—Veilings, Cloaks, Wap-Silks and Seal Garments—whether it is a Cashmere Dress, Seal Scarve or Jacket, or a Cashmere Dress, we assure our readers it will be to the interest of those who come to go to Boggs & Buhl's, in Allegheny. They have built up their immense business, amounting to millions, annually, by selling only the best goods at such low prices—so much less than the average—so-called largest and best dry goods stores, that their regular stock is steadily such successive season. They do one of it, not the largest Mail Order Department business in the country, and you can shop by mail with them, getting goods from them at the same low prices as sold over their counters.

The Pittsburgh Exposition.
We wish to call attention to that great enterprise, where one can see so much for so little money. We advise our readers to take advantage of the cheap transportation, and see the great exposition, and while visiting the sister cities do not fail to look for number 82 Federal street, Allegheny, where one of the finest and most complete Hoop stores can be seen in this country. You will convince yourself at a glance, that when you give your patronage to such a house you are sure to be well treated and to receive value for your money. The proprietor of said house cannot afford to expose his reputation and his credit. He continues to sell six year old pure rye whiskey at $1.00 per quart, or six quarts for $5.00. His Silver Age has no equal, which he sells at $1.50 per full quart. All kinds of wines, from 50c upwards, and no extra charges for packing or shipping to any place. Send for his price-list and catalogue and oblige. MRS. KLEIN.
