Cambria Freeman.

EBENNBURG, PA. FEIDAY. . . NOV. 15, 1889.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

last.

them.

badly.

-Teachers' Institute next week. -Winchester rifles cheap at Duftons'. -Hose Anna ? Of course, lots of 'em in all styles and weights at Barkers'.

-For cloths, flannels, muffs, furs, underwear and coats go to Mrs. K. E. Jones', -Peace to your sole. You will find it every time if you wear Sarkers' shoes.

-The highest cash price paid by G. L. Fredericks, the sadiar, for all kinds of furs. -We've got an overcoat that is just your gauge in size, style, stuff and fit at Barkers'. to Pittsburg on Thursday morning to be absent several days.

-The cool air is a geotic reminder that the bear while Mr. Bibgood shot it. you need an overcoas, call in and see Barkars' big stock.

-Mrs R. E. Jones is in Philadelphia this week, and when she returns will have more new goods to show you. -The biasting northeast wind can't make chased as Barkers'. -December 16th, 1889, is the time annonneed for the opening of the Clearfield county Teachers' Institute.

-It will cost you less than it ever cost you to get a good overcoat, if you get it at Rarkers'.

-A lady was severely injured in Johnstown Monday last by falling into the cellar way of the old Merchants Hotel. -Did you see those heet plates for over shoes at Barkers' ? If not go at once and get a pair put on and save money. -Put a wine glass full of strong borax water in a pint of raw starch, and you can do up collars and cuffs as stiff and glossy as any. -We never had such a trade on coats as and qualities and low prices .- Mrs. R. E. Junes.

this town, and the prices are right down to fiftcer years ago. hard pan. .

-Mr. John Potter formerly of Johns-Steel Works.

place, but now pastor of the Catholic con- | twenty-two pounds. gregation at Lilly, spent a few hours in town on Thursday.

-And still the rush for those cheap coats at Mrs. R. E. Jones' continues.

-There is no temptation to steal clothing when you can buy it so cheap at Barkers'. -Mrs. L. H. Linton, of Johnstown, was visiting friends in Ebensburg on Saturday

-Advice is cheap. The only cheaper thing is Barkers' goods. Come and see -According to the report of the Com-

States this year than last. -The Johnstown people are looking around for the man who is to be the first mayor of their new city. Several prominent men are spoken of for the position. ting

-On last Friday, as Mr. James Henderson, of Blacklick township, was working ing among his horses one of the animals kicked Lim on the leg and fractured it very -At Covington, Wayne county, a 390 -EC. Parrish, of this place, took a trip pound bear, which was foraging on the per end of the Clinton street crossing. It > the nose by a big snapper. The turtle held -Mr. Frank Sloan, of Carrolltown, is bartender at the Blair House, this place, he having succeeded Mr. James McBreen, who has accepted a like position at the hotel of Charles Crouse at South Fork. -The Hollidaysburg correspondent to operate in Cambria county, along the line of the Cresson and Coalport railroad.

Main street, Carrolltown, Pa., at present not survive the severe operation of two leaving a vacant place in the hearts of her occupied by J. D. Thomas and known as amputations, annointed him. The doctors stead. But our loss is her gain, for it is Hotel Brunswick, will be sold on reasonable then proceeded and amputated both legs said "Those who seek me early shall find terms. For further information address M.

burg. -John H. Shoenberger, a prominent iron manufacturer of Pittsburg, and a son of Dr. Peter Shoenberger, who in the early | talked to him. He seemed very much disdays of iron making in this county, in com- tressed at his condition, and burst into tears pany with George S. King, operated at when Mr. Woolf came to where he was. Johnstown, died in New York on Tuesday, aged 80 years.

-Mr. Tnomas McGough, an old resident this season-the cause of it is good styles of Johnstown, died on Wednesday morning after a short illness from "painters colle." Mr. McGough was born near Wilmore -You will find the largest stock of over- about fifty years ago and is survived by coats in Barkers' store that you ever saw in | four children, his wife having died about -T. Mason Richards and Ed. Lloyd, of the Herald, each were lucky enough on Mon- there are opinions in regard to it. town, has succeeded Mr. Charles Schwab as day last to bring in a wild turkey. Mr. Superintendent of Caraegie's Homestead | Lloyd, however, had a printer's usual luck, his being a very small one while Mr. Richs -Rev. Father Walsh, formerly of this ards' turkey tipped the beam down to

-Miss Rosa Leib, daughter of Mr. Adam that the physicians say he will recover.

hoge, farming implements, bay, grain, etc.

thair owners.

-A deer bunting party that went out worthy cause

Both Legs Taken Off. From the Johnstown Democrat of Friday

last we take the following account of a lamentable accident that befel Mr. Anthony Glasser, son of Jacob Glasser, of Susqua-hana township known to many people of Johnstown. His Every address of his is a good deed from home is near the village of St. Bonifacius a generous heart." not far from Hastings. He was employed for some time by the firm of Geis, Foster & cible manner. His lecture was one of the more bushels of potatoes in the United bartender. Since last spring he was em- given in our city.-Grant County Witness, ployed by L. M. Woolf & Son as salesman. On Wednesday evening Mr. Glasser left

About midnight he was seen by some par- every night for six weeks. - Millwawkee Sun.

Yesterday morning (Thursday) between the hours of 1 and 2 o'clock, as Engineer ana," was returning from having taken a 13, 1889 : train out the Baltimore & Ohio to the yard, he saw a man lying on the track at the upproperty of Jacob Bibgood, was caught on | was impossible to get stopped before the engine had passed where the man was lying. Keedle, East Conemaugh. It was then found that both legs had been ground off the man. Joseph Beiter, who ings. keeps a saloon near by, was aroused and Morreliville. the injured man was taken to his place. It was there learned that the man was Andy county.

Glasser. He was laid on a board and taken on the engine to the Pennsylvania railroad station, and from there carried to the Cam-bria Hospital. Drs. W. B. Lowman and James Stephen and Andie Melvin, Millan impression on those who wear caps pur- the Altoona Times says : A number of bria Hospital. Drs. W. B. Lowman and our capitalists are contemplating the forma- J. C. Sheridan were summoned. They saw tion of a new coal and coke company, to at once that both legs would have to be amputated. Glasser moaned some all the -The valuable hotel property located on was summoned, and fearing that he would Oct. 26, 1887, in her 16th year, May Adams, > below the knee. Glasser still remained un- me. D. Kittell and C. A. Langbein, Ebens- conscious and apparently insensible of what was taking place till about 8 o'clock

Thursday morning. He was visited by Mr. L. M. Woolf early in the forenoon, and His relatives have been notified and are expected to-day (Friday). The chances are that he will recover, being a man of physical vigor, but the idea of having to pass through the world without feet discourages him very much. Last night at a late hour he was reported as doing well. flow he came to be lying on the track seems to be clouded in mystery, being unable to account for it himself. However,

The County Institute.

EDITOR FREEMAN :- It is announced in circulars and through the county papers -The authorities of Johnstown up to gold watch that is to be awarded at the instruction and benefit of the teachers of First and final account of Christian Leffler, this time have failed to capture Carter, the colored man who shot John Matthews in Johnstown last week. Catholic fair at Nicktown. Miss Leib is soliciting votes and those giving will not only be voting for an accomplished and the past six or eight years, these meetings have been conducted for the best interests.

Institute Lecturers. Following are press notices of the Institute lecturers :

From Albany Journal : "It is said that Mr. Conwell began leturing twenty-four year ago. If so, what a great amount of Mr. "Andy" Glasser has long been well | good he must have done as a public teacher!

Hon. B. K. Bruce speaks in a clear formissioner of Agriculture there are 70,000,000 | Quinn, and later by Mr. John I Hornick as | most scholarly productions that have been Plattsville, Wisconsin.

Col. Sanford is one of the best lecturers in his employer's store-room about 10 o'clock. in America, and can entertain an audience

MARRIAGE LICENSES ISSUED. The following marriage licenses were issued by the Cierk of the Orphans' Court William Sweeney, with the engine "Indi- for the week ending Wednesday, Nov. John R. Good and Maggie Shriver, Frank-

Edward Hoffman, Stonyereek and Lizzie

Lavering, Johnstown. John VanAit, Johnstown and Annine Gust Fors and Augusta Peterson, Hast-

John Sauer and Catharine Koohline, John Lance and Sarah Lydick, Indiana

John H. Miller aud Lena Ernest, Johnstown Lewis Guge, Omaha, Nebraska and Anville.

ADAMS-Fell asleep at her home in Alwhile, but was unconscious. Father Alto | legheny township, near CLest Springs, Pa.,

> "Those who suffer on, and follow, In my footsteps, shall be safe." She hath suffered in that pathway .-On life's ocean but a waif,-He, Our Lord, the "Man of Sorrows," Passed through deep affliction's vale ; And, made perfect by His passion, Stands our surety without fail. Leading captive death and satan, Glorious prophet, priest and king ; In His blood is sure redemption .-Let our hallelujahs ring !

.... With Ely's Cream Balm a child can be treated without pain or dread and with perfect safety. Try the remedy. It cures catarrh, hay fever and colds in the head. It is easily applied into the nostrils and gives relief with the first application. Price 50c. REGISTERS' NOTICE.

The following accounts have been examines that the Teachers' Institute will meet in Ebensburg next week. This is the annual meeting required by law to be beld for the orphan's Court of Cambria county for con-

GALLITZIN.

SIMON BROTHERS. CENERAL STORE.

CHESTNUT STREET,

DIED.

-The rates for the Institute lecture course has been lowered for school children in order that they can attend. Let everybody get a season ticket.

-The claim is made that sait fish dampened by water and bound on the soles of a typhoid fever sufferer's feet will break up the fever and assure a cure. -A thirty-horse-power stationary en enzo Everett, of Watsontown, is President gine and boller, also a Perry shingle mill of the company. and jointer complete, for sale at a bargain. For further particulars inquire at this of-

-Rupture cure guaranteed by Dr. J. B. Mayer, 831 Arch St., Philadelphia, Pa. Ease at once, no operation or delay from business, attested by thousands of cures after others fall:

-Wanted at McDonald's Loretto and arrest and return. Creason stores, butter, eggs, potatoes, turnips, beans, onions, corn, ozts, wheat and rye, also country knit wool socks and mitts. The highest prices paid.

-Henry Hayman, a wealthy farmer and cattle dealer, of Donegal, Westmoreland county, was in Greensburg on Monday attending to legal matters, and while on his way home dropped dead. and conveyed to his home.

-Another small quantity of gas was struck in the Carrol township gas well on Minday audit is estimated that there is now about 100 pounds pressure. Keep on, It may yot turn out a gusher.

-Twenty-six new locomotives, built for peed, have just been turned out of the his railroad shops at Altoona. ome of the engines will materially shorten the ranning time next summer

-Mr. Adam Miller has a number of well town of East Hastings dispose of at low figures and For further particulars ap-Mr. Miller at Hastings. Walker, aged about thirty term and a painter by occupation received fall while working in the Juniata shops, Allonna, last Thursday and had his neck troken. He was married eight weeks ago. -We have been used to surprises, but the prices on boots, shoes and underwear take the wind out of us. Take our money slong and go to see them, for ven we cried when we went there strapped.

-We are under obligations to Representative E. E. Allen, of Ebensburg, for copies of the Laws of Pennsylvania and Smull's legislative Hand Book for 1889 .- Cherry-No such man lives in Ebens-

-liates for Institute lecture course Season tickets with reserved seat for each evening $1.50. Season ticket without reberved sent $1. Reserved sent for one lechare The. General admission 50c. School Children 25a

-The new Central Hotel is now open for mests. This house has been remodeled, refuted and refurnished and guests will find its pleasant place to stop. Heated rooms a moderate prices. Special rates to teachers daring the week of the Institute.

-Mr. Robert James, of Cambria township, while beloing to put a reaping mathe belonging to Hoo. A. A. Barker into Tuesday evening got the third inger of his right hand in between two cogs and the it ampotated at the first joint.

-We have a speedy and positive Cure served. Do not fall to be there. hr Catarrh, Diphtheria, Canker Mouth, and -The Pennsylvania Railroad company ownes a number of shares of stock in the sixche, in Shiloh's Catarrh Remedy. A Nasal Injector free with each bottle. Use Altoona Mechanics' Library Association, and each of these shares entitles the holder health and sweet breath. the prests. Sold by Dr. T. J. Davison, to the free use of the books and periodicals and free admission to lectures, concerts,

-Cards are out for the marriage of M. D. etc. These privileges the company has of the teachers as they were held about the amiable young lady, but will be aiding a opening of the schools. By the announce--The Pittsburg, Beech Creek and New ment this year by the County Superintens dent it seems that the Institute this year is to be held for the sake of the course of lec-tures instead of the instruction for the teach-ers. This is plainly to be seen. The Su-tion and final account of Jno. J. Carroll, ad-ministrator of Thomas P. Carroll, late of Con-mangh borough, deceased. Account of David R. Edwards, administrator of Catharine Cittings, late of Cambria township, deceased. York Railroad company was chartered on Thursday last. Capital $1,500,000. The line runs from Mill Hall, Clinton county, to Butler, Pa., a distance of 150 miles, and is supposed to connect with the Bellefonte of his colored lecturer, Mr. Bruce, and othand Eastern railroad at Bellefonte. Lorers to "influential" persons with complimentary tickets. Directors he says will be admitted free to his lectures, but they get -William Reams, Jr., residence Johnsno tickets unless they come and solicit town, Pa., aged 17 years, medium size, them. How many are going to "cringe" stout build, dark brown eyes, black hair, to do this ? Then the teachers are expectdark complexion, pug nose, face covered with pimples, absconded from the Morganza Reform school at 6 o'clock on Saturday evening. A reward of ten dollars will be paid for information leading to his -John M. Wilson, foreman of the Argyle Coal company of South Fork, who was visiting Johnstown on Monday last, when on not forgotten the "lift" that was given the his way to the station in the evening tripped Institute two years ago. It is not my puron a pile of dirt on Market street and fell pose to speak a word against the County breaking his leg. His injuries were proper-Institute when properly conducted and ly attended to by a physician and he was when of benefit to the cause of education ; taken to the station, placed on Fast Line but when "run" for the benefit of a lecture course they do not conform to the in--Mr. Jacob Glasser, father of Anthony tention of the law or for the best interests Glasser, who was so frightfully injured at of the teachers. We do not think the di-Johnstown on Thursday of last week, a rectors will accept the "dead head" tickets notice of which will be found in another at the expense of the teachers who attend at column, passed through town on Wednesconsiderable expense above what they reday on his way home from Johnstown celve for their time at the Institute. The where he had been to see his son. He re- teachers of the county, too, seem to be alports the young man as doing well and most entirely left out, as only a few names appear on the program. It is evident that -Sale bills were printed at this office for the dissatisfaction among the teachers in rethe sale of the personal property of the late gard to the expensive manner in which the Peter Sell, of East Wheatfield township, Institute is to be run this year is well found-Indian county. The sale will take place ed and many will not attend. They will endeavor to hold their own local meetings at the late residence of the deceased, about and receive from the leading teachers of the 3% of a mile from the Pittsburg Pike, on Wednesday, Nov. 27th, at 10 o'clock A. M., county such instructions that will give them the property consists of horses, cattle, sheep, direct help in their schools. DIRECTOR.

A Railroad Wreck.

from Lock Haven recently returned with a On last Friday morning about 11 o'clock less number of dogs than they had when big freight wreck occurred on the eastern they went to the woods, several of their slope of the mountain, near McGarvey's stadeer running dogs having been poisened. tion, by which William Stevens. of Gallitz-The poison was placed on pieces of fat in, was killed, Daniel Shank had the back meat which were scattered through the of his head cut and was injured internally, woods where the dogs would be likely to and Joseph Rhodes, Gust Shank, Lesley get it. The poisoned dogs were valued by Flick and Albert Williams, all of Gallitzin, were slightly injured, H. J. McKelvy, of -Daniel Powell, brother of David Wat-Derry, a fireman, and W. H. Ashcraft, an kin Powell, of this place, was fatally inengineer, were also badly, but not fatally jured in the Cambria Bessemer Steel hurt.

jured in the Cambria Bessemer Steel Works at Johnstown, on Thursday of last week by an empty stocking wheelbarrow which fell a distance of sixty feet from the top of a hoist, striking him on the head and fracturing his skull. He was taken to his home in Morreliville where he died soon after. He leaves a wife and one child. — The Catholic fair at Nicktows has been postponed from the 18th of November to the optote of the 18th of November to the strike ment it will begin for certain and con-tinue until December 6th, St. Nicholas' Day, During the fair there will be two gais days, Thanksgiving Day and St. Nicholas' Day, and on the latter all articles up for chances will be raffled off and a number of other articles soid at public sale. The fair will be held in Mr. Casper Leib's new store room, and on Thanksgiving Day and St. Nicholas' Day, and on Thanksgiving Day and St. Nicholas' may heid in Mr. Casper Leib's new store room, and on Thanksgiving Day and St. Nicholas' may heid in Mr. Casper Leib's new store room, and on Thanksgiving Day and St. Nicholas' may heid in Mr. Casper Leib's new store room, and on Thanksgiving Day and St. Nicholas' Day, and on Thanksgiving Day and St. Nicholas' may heid in Mr. Casper Leib's new store room, and on Thanksgiving Day and St. Nicholas' Day, and on Thanksgiving Day and St. Nicholas' may heid in Mr. Casper Leib's new store room, and on Thanksgiving Day and St. Nicholas' may heid in Mr. Casper Leib's new store room, and on Thanksgiving Day and St. Nicholas' may heid in Mr. Casper Leib's new store room, and on Thanksgiving Day and St. Nicholas' may heid in Mr. Casper Leib's new store room, and on Thanksgiving Day and St. Nicholas' Day. las' Day a grand dinner and supper will be a-way train and bringing both trains to a stand still.

They Must Hang.

Chief Justice Paxson, in the Supreme Court at Pittsburg on Monday rendered an opinion affirming the judgment of the lower court in the appeal of Joseph and David Nicely. The men were convicted in the First and final account of Dwight Koberts, administrator of Mary S. Roberts, late of Johns-First and final account of Dwight Roberts, administrator of Otis Roberts, late of Johns-

First and final account of Florence Willibrand, dministrator of Henry Willibrand, late of lunster township, deceased. First and final account of Inc. C. Carroll or Jno. C. Carroll, exiter of Hugh Gaffrey, deceased. First and final account of Hiram Goughnour executor of Catharine Gaughnour, late of West Taylor township, deceased. First and final account of Jno. T. Long, ad-ministrator of W. A. Barnet, late of Croyle to do this? Then the teachers are expect-ed to pay at least twice as much as ever be-fore for tickets for the course and all for the "glory" of the "best Institute the county ever had." Again teachers and di-rectors are asked to put their "shoulders to the wheel" and make this Institute the best ever held in the county. We think the rensible teachers and directors too, have not formation the "luft" that may clean the should be the should be the the wheel." And make this Institute the best ever held in the county. We think the rensible teachers and directors too, have township, deceased. ount of Paul H. Gaither, administrator

First and final account of P. F. Custer, admin-trator C. T. A. of Wm. H. Richards, late of tekson township. deceased. Jackson township. First and final account of Samuel N. McDowell, administrator of Frederick Hibblett, late of West Taylor township, deceased. First and final account of Oliver Roberts, ad-ministrator of Linne S. Roberts, late of Frankith berough deceased. berough, deceased. First and final account of T. S. Fisher, admin-istrator of Hugh McMonagie, late of Prospect borough, deceased.

Notice is hereby given that the following named appraisements of property appraised and set apart for widows of decedents under the Act of Assembly of the 4th of April, A. D. 1851, has been nied in the Register's office in and for the County of Cambris and will be presented to the Orphans' Gourt of said county for confirmation and allowance on Wednesday, Dec. 4 1889. Inventory and appraisement of personal proper-ty appraised and set apart for Catharine Car-ponter, widow of Albert Carpenter, inte of Oroyle township, deceased, $200. Inventory and appraisement of personal proper-ty appraised and set apart for Ella Wilson, wid-ow of James A. Wilson, inte of Taylor township, deceased, $200.

appraised and set spart for Mary Ludwig, dow of Charles E. Ludwig, late of Concinaugh rough, deceased, $102.99.

inventory and appraisement of personal proper-spiralised and set apart for minor children of homas Buck, late of Carroll township, deceased, ough, deceased, $150. CELESTINE J. BLAIR, Ebensburg, Nov. 8, '89,-41. Register.

TRIAL LIST.

SECOND WEEK IN DECEMBER, vs. Etliott.

Eckenrode & Hoppel, Carrolltown, Penn'a.

Having just returned from the Eastern cities with a full, complete assortment of merchandise, consisting of Dry Goods, Notions, a large stock of Clothing, Overcoats and Gents' Furnishing Goods for Men, Boys and Children, a fine line of Ladies' and Children's Coats and Wraps, including a line of Plush goods, and Boots and Shoes, we claim to lead. Then we have Hardware, Queensware, Glassware, Oilcloth, Robes and Horse Blankets not to be excelled anywhere. We are prepared to meet the public wants at the very lowest prices. We will not be undersold and always guarantee satisfaction. Soliciting your patronage and thanking you for past Respectfully Yours, favors we are

ECKENRODE & HOPPEL,

CARROLLTOWN, PA.

Gum Boots for Men and Boys,

turers for Twenty Years.

tory and acid chambers.

BECAUSE of our extensive manufac-

ECAUSE we give our entire personal attention to the manufacturing of Fertilizers. This is our specialty, and we place at your disposal all our facilities.

Gum Shoes for Ladies and Children,

JULIAN ST., EBENSBURG, PA

WHY we Solicit your Orders.

Shoes for Children and Babies,

MANUFACTURERS OF

PHILADELPHIA, PA. S

We have just returned from New York where we succeeded in purchasing a splendid stock of Underwear, Hosiery, Caps, Rubbers, PENN'A.

FALL AND WINTER STOCK Shoes, Clothing,

etc., that even we, with our record of low prices, were never able to quote before and may never be again. These splendid bargains are here and next week we will quote you prices on them if they are not all gobbled up before this paper goes to press. Don't buy anything in our line until you see our new stock. Talk about Bargains !

All on the Way

"Bargains" is a Small Word and there is no other word in the English language that will give you Shoes to fit Everybody at Lowest Prices. a clear idea of what we can and will do; nothing but seeing them for yourself. They will be here soon and will be

Marked in Plain Figures THAT WILL

Sweep Everything Before Them BECAUSE we have the experience as practical Farmers and Manufac-with as little mercy to high prices as the flood of the Conemaugh Valley showed to life and property. We have a few of those allwool Undershirts for 45 cents, with drawers to match at same price. Good wool Mittens for 19 cents, wool Hose at 21 cents, and a very heavy all-wool Hose, our best, for 25 cents. Ribbons at different prices. But

What is the Use of Talking?

Morrow et. al. H. A. SHOEMAKER, Proth'y. Ebensburg, Nov. 8, 1880.

Kline.

ugh, deceased. First and final account of Annie L. Brookbank, dministratrix of David Brookbank, late of Ash-tile borough, deceased. First and final account of H. McHugh, adminis-rator of Richard Mayer, late of Summerhili oranghis deceased. Mary E. Hurst, late of Johnstown borough, de eased. First and final account of P F. Custer, ad-anistrator of Wm. Richards, late of Jacksor

CELESTINE J. BLAIR, Ebensburg, Nov. 8, 1889.-41. Register

Widows' Appraisements.

recased, $200. Inventory and appraisement of personal prope brough, deceased, $102.99. Inventory and appraisement of personal proper-y appraised and set apart for Bridget Mallen, ridow of John Mullen, late of Cambria borough, eccased, $309. Inventory and appraisement of personal proper-y appraised and set apart for Mary Ann Myers, ridow of Michael Myers, late of Reade tewn-bin deceased $300. Boots for Men and Boys.

thip, deceased, $300. Ladies' and Misses' Shoes,

Thomas Buck, late of Carroll township, deceased, 500. Inventory and as praisement of personal proper-ty appraised and set spart for Annie Kipple, widow of Jackson Ripple, late of Johnstown For-

EXECUTRIX NOTICE -

BUUTS, SHUES & RUBBER WEAR JUST RECEIVED AT R. L. DAVIS' CHEAP BOOT AND SHOE STORE.

