EBENSBURG, PA.

FRIDAY, .. MARCH 7, 1890.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

—Joseph Donahue publishes an assignee's notice in another column.

—Mrs. Will Horan, of Johnstown, paid a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John A. Blair, this week.

—No person holding a State, county, borough or township office can be appointed census enumerator.

—Five passenger cars were required to transport the crowd that came up on the first train on Monday to attend court.

—You have nineteen different styles and qualities of black Jersey coats to select from at Gable & Co.'s, ranging in price from $2 to $12.

—Mr. David Stewart, a compositor in the Johnstown Tribune office, paid his respects to the FREEMAN office while in town this week.

—The Grant parlor match factory, located at Philipsburg, was destroyed by fire Thursday night of last week. The loss is estimated at $18,000 with no insurance.

—Rupture cure guaranteed by Dr. J. B. Mayer, 831 Arch St., Philadelphia, Pa. Ease at once, no operation or delay from business, attested by thousands of cures after others fail.

—Look out for a stranger who is going the rounds swindling people by selling a powder "warranted to cure all ills." He charges from $3 to $5 and leaves a little bit of cornstarch.

—W. A. B Little, executor of Jeremiah Topper, deceased, advertises a lot of real estate for sale in another column of this issue. Also, John Whalen, executor of Patrick Cogan, deceased.

—McDonald, of Loretto, Pa., will, from the present date until April 1st close out a lot of notions, dress goods, ladies' and children's shoes, men's boots, etc., at actual cost for spot cash or trade.

—LOST—On the 25th of January, on the road between Cresson and Loretto, a red and white woolen shawl. The finder will be suitably rewarded by returning it to Mrs. S. J. Denny, of Allegheny township.

—Father John Ward, of Morey Hospital, Pittsburg, spent a few days in town during the present week, on a visit to his father, Mr. Martin Ward, and his brothers Al. and William Ward, both of the latter being ill.

—Mr. William Leighty, an aged citizen of the East ward, had a paralytic stroke on Saturday evening while on the road from the barber shop to his home, and since that time has been lying in a critical condition.

—It is highly probable that the money subscribed by the children of the State to the Higbee Memorial Fund, will be returned to them, the movement meeting with great opposition in many parts of the State.

—The new stone bridge at the Viaduct is nearly completed and one track is now in use over which all trains pass. The first train to cross on the new bridge was Philadelphia Express East on Thursday evening of last week.

—A man in a neighboring county saw advertised "a sure cure for drunkenness." He forwarded the necessary dollar and received by return mail, written on a valuable postal card in beautiful violet ink the magic words: "Don't drink."

—Last Monday evening one of our butchers, fearing a failure of the ice crop, put a force of men on Shenkle's dam to saw and haul ice. The men worked all night and filled the ice house. The ice was only three inches thick.

—Perry Gentzell, whose home is near Zion, Centre county, while attempting to butcher a beef a few days ago, came near killing himself. By some mishap the knife which he held in his hand penetrated his thigh, inflicting a serious wound.

—As McDonald, at Loretto, Pa., intends removing to Cresson, on or about April 1st, he offers his store room and dwelling attached for sale or rent. The hotel property adjoining known as the Mrs. J. B. Myers property, will also be for sale or rent.

—A number of our citizens have been busy for several days past filling their ice houses. The ice is only about three inches in thickness, but it is the best that has been on the dams this winter and those having ice houses to fill are afraid to wait any longer.

—George L. Frederick, Ebensburg's harness manufacturer, will close out his large stock of robes and blankets at cost. He has a fine assortment, and if you wish to secure good goods at low prices now is your opportunity. Don't wait but go at once and examine them.

—Mr. Wes. Baynon, an engineer on the P. R. R., and who was raised in this place, was injured at Summerhill one evening last week by being struck on the head by the mail stand. His injuries though painful are not of a serious nature. His mother and sisters still reside in this place.

—The hearing in the case of the condemned Nicely brothers, the Somerset county murderers, will take place before the Board of Pardons on the 18th of this month. Every effort will be made by their friends to have the sentence of death commuted to one of imprisonment for life.

—A scheme is on foot at Johnstown to change the course of the Stonycreek for over a mile in order to acquire about 100 acres of land now useless. The contemplated improvement will cost $1,000,000. Two bridges will have to be moved. The scheme is looked upon with favor.

—A number of defeated candidates for the office of constable in various townships in Westmoreland county, who hold the office last year, met at Greensburg, on Monday, and decided to raise a fund for the purpose of contesting the legality of the election of constables this year. They believe that the election last year entitles them to a three-year term.

—On Thursday morning of last week as the Indiana Accommodation was making its run from Blacklick to Blairsville, on the Indiana branch, the smoking car jumped the track and fell into a ditch. The passengers were badly shaken up, but none were seriously injured. A train from Blairsville was dispatched to the scene of the wreck and transferred the passengers.

—The card of Captain M. Fitzharris, of Gallitzin, as a candidate for Assembly, will be found in this issue of the FREEMAN. It is hardly necessary to introduce the Captain to the Democracy of Cambria, as he is generally known throughout the county as an active worker in the Democratic cause, a man of ability and who, if elected to the Legislature would represent the interests of his constituents with the honest and firm purpose of serving their best interests.

—The Brown-Lovett trial, which was ordered at Lock Haven on Monday of last week, and wherein Brown was charged with murdering Lovett, terminated at 10 o'clock Saturday evening, when the jury brought in a verdict of murder in the second degree. On Monday last Brown was sentenced to undergo imprisonment in the Western Penitentiary at labor for the term of seven years. The prisoner did not exhibit any emotion, but his wife's tears burst forth when she heard the sentence pronounced.

—Mr. Ed. Bolsinger, of Altoona, visited his parents, in this place, this week.

—John Burns, Esq., of Jeanette, is visiting his father-in-law, Michael Donovan, in this place.

—Mr. Charles Farbaugh, of Barr township, paid the FREEMAN a short but pleasant visit yesterday.

—There is some interesting dry goods news in to-day's FREEMAN, furnished by Gable & Co. in their advertisements.

—We have a speedy and positive Cure for Catarrh, Diphtheria, Canker Mouth, and Headache, in Shiloh's Catarrh Remedy. A A Nasal Injector free with each bottle. Use it if you desire health and sweet breath.

—Mr. Charles Murray, of Cambria township, who had been ill for the past year, or longer, from consumption died at his home on Thursday morning, aged about forty-eight years. He leaves a wife and five small children to mourn his death. His burial will take place at the Catholic cemetery in Ebensburg on Saturday morning at 10 o'clock.

—The annual report of the Pennsylvania Railroad contains the statement that among the property damaged and destroyed by the great flood were 24 passenger cars, 561 freight cars, 34 locomotives, some of the latter, notwithstanding their weight, being carried more than a mile by the force of the flood, and that the amount expended in repairing the loss caused by the flood to 31st of December last, was $3,475,425.01.

—The town of Hastings was represented in Ebensburg during the present week by Mr. Ed. McHugh, Superintendent of Mines at that place; Dr. Rice, the well-known physician; Justice of the Peace, Anthony Anna, and Constable P. P. Miller. Hastings for the time was bereft of its surgeon and officers, but it is said 'Squire Anna before leaving put the inhabitants under bail to keep the peace until their return, when business will again go on in the regular way.

—When the constables elect were ready to be sworn in on Monday M. D. Kittell, Esq., presented a petition from a number of citizens of the West ward of Ebensburg, setting forth that Edward W. Humphreys, constable-elect from the West ward, was a member of the election board at the time of his election and therefore ineligible at the time of his election. The Court fixed the fourth Monday in March as the time for hearing the arguments of counsel and rendering a decision in the matter.

—The Johnstown Democrat on Tuesday says: As usual there was a great crowd in Ebensburg yesterday. Ebensburg whisky has a reputation for its paralyzing qualities. Not a few were quite overcome. One of them was a stout chap from Lilly. When the train arrived at that place he could not be aroused, and it was not till he had reached this city that he was awakened from his stupor. He resisted and threatened to abuse the trainmen. Officer Harris, who happened to be on the train, took him into custody and brought him to the Johnstown lock-up.

—About ten o'clock Tuesday morning Sammy Duffy, a 12 year-old son of Mrs. Mary Duffy, of Greensburg, was badly burned about the body and face. He had been confined to bed with la grippe, and during the temporary absence of his mother he got out of bed and went to the grate, where his night clothing took fire. This frightened him so badly that he ran out on the street, and had it not been for some men who were standing near, and who ran to his rescue and tore the clothes from his person, he would have been burned to death. His injuries are very serious.

—The card of W. A. Lantzy, of Lower Yoder township, appears in the announcement column this week as a candidate for County Commissioner. Mr. Lantzy is a well-known citizen of Lower Yoder township, who has been engaged as a contractor and builder in that end of the county for a number of years and is held in high esteem by all acquainted with him. He has always been a Democrat and has taken an active part in the success of the party, and should he be nominated his election will be followed by his well deserved election. Mr. Lantzy is a native of Carroll township and has many friends in that locality.

—Some years ago John Williamson, of Bedford township, bought a young cow in Cumberland Valley township. When she was two years old she gave birth to two calves. Mr. Williamson then sold her to John Henderson, who owned her for several years. She produced twins when she was three years old and again at the age of four. When she was five she had three calves at a birth, and a year later had twins for the fourth time. Charles Burket, of Bedford township, then became the owner of the animal, and last Friday night she presented him with triplets. This wonderful cow has had fourteen calves and will not be eight years old until next summer.—Bedford Gazette.

—J. Wilkinson & Son, marble and granite dealers of Ebensburg, Pa., wish to inform the public that they are prepared to fill all orders for cemetery work, in either marble or granite, at figures that defy competition. The artistic excellence and superior workmanship of their designs are evidenced by the many specimens now on exhibition at their establishment and by the numberless designs which they have erected in the various cemeteries in this county and elsewhere. Every department of their business is in the hands of skillful and competent workmen, who are capable of executing any piece of work, from the plainest to the most elaborate, which together with the personal supervision that every job receives is a guarantee that perfect satisfaction will be given to the most exacting of patrons. They have ordered forty tons of marble which will arrive in March and April, and they will then have as fine a stock of the best marble that ever came to Western Pennsylvania. Persons wishing anything in their line would do well to give them a call before leaving their order with any other manufacturer, as you can depend upon getting a good job at a fair price.

—A gentleman meeting on the streets of Ebensburg, on Monday last, at different times, two well-known citizens of Blacklick township, inquired of the first as to the health of a prominent Blacklicker, who was reported seriously ill. "Well," said he, "Mr. — is in a pretty bad way, and its hard to say what ails him." The gentleman mildly suggested that he might have had an attack of la grippe. "The grip be d—nd," said he with emphasis, and the utmost disgust, "there is no such thing as grip, the only grip is this kind of grip," at the same time reaching out his hardened and brawny hand to grasp that of his interrogator, which was, however, fearfully and respectfully declined. Later on the second individual, with a companion, was encountered on the street by the gentleman referred to, who, after some preliminary conversation, said to him "that he had heard that Mr. —, of Blacklick, was dangerously ill," etc. "Yes," he replied, "he was, and it was doubtful if he got over it." At this point his companion innocently asked his friend "what was said to be the matter with Mr. —." "Why," said he "the doctors say he has got a knapsack on his liver, and that he cannot recover, they are afraid it may bust, and if it does, he will bleed to death at once, no way of stopping it," and then related "that he once knew a man who had a knapsack on his liver, and that it busted, and he bled to death immediately." The whole thing was intensely ludicrous and amusing, notwithstanding its seriousness.

—Mr. B. F. Williams, son of John T. Williams, of Cambria townsnip, has been appointed postmaster at Cookport, Indiana county, where he has been a resident for a number of years and one of Cookport's most enterprising citizens.

—The New York Star says that C. C. Holland, a stationer and bookseller, of Portchester, disappeared on Monday, leaving numerous debts unpaid. Holland located in Portchester about eight months ago and said that he was one of the Johnstown flood sufferers. Some of the citizens of Portchester assisted him to start in business. When he went away he owed his landlord, M S Madden, $500, and to W. H. Fehrs he owed $400, money which he had borrowed. When they learned that Holland had left the town they hitched up their fast horses and drove at a high speed to the Sheriff's office in White Plains. Madden got there first and his placed his attachment on Holland's effects in the hands of the Sheriff for execution.

Those $19.50 Sewing Machines.

There are a good many of those $19 50 sewing machines at Gable & Co.'s, and people find them just as good as the high priced machines of many sewing machine companies. $19 50 for a good sewing machine, $25 for extra fine finished machines.

His Skull Was crushed.

Johnstown Tribune: About half-past 9 o'clock Tuesday evening Stanley Somerville met with a terrible and fatal accident at the Johnson Works. He was employed as a "rigger" in the roll shop. About the hour named, while walking through the shop, he tripped and fell, his head being caught by a belt and drawn between it and the wheel, stopping the machinery. The injured man, rendered entirely unconscious from his wounds, was carried into the mill office to wait the appearance of Dr. W. B. Lowman, who had been immediately summoned, who arrived at 10 o'clock. The doctor quickly discovered that his patient was beyond all human help, and that death was but a question of a short time, the skull being crushed over the left temple in such a way as to render surgical skill of no avail. The doctor, however, remained with him until he expired, which was about half-past 11 o'clock.

Perhaps

no local disease has puzzled and baffled the medical profession more than nasal catarrh. While not immediately fatal it is among the most distressing and disgusting ills the flesh is heir to, and the records show very few or no cases of a radical cure of chronic catarrh by any or the multitude of modes of treatment until the introduction of Ely's Cream Balm a few years ago. The success of this preparation has been most gratifying and surprising.

Reade Township Items.

This morning we wake up and find the ground again dressed in a mantle white.

Mrs. Grace Hommer, of Bellwood, is visiting at the home of her father, Mr. G. L. Davis, of near Glasgow.

Mrs. Russel, of New Germany, was the guest of her mother, Mrs. J. F. Hollen, of Glasgow, last Thursday.

Constable Troxell, Perry Troxell and Henry Hon, all of Reade township, are at Ebensburg this week "courting."

Ed. Ricketts, of Utahville, now conducts the hotel at that place. The grand opening took place on Thursday of last week.

On Tuesday, March 11th, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Gilmore, of Mountain Dale, will celebrate their crystal wedding with much eclat.

The closing institute of Reade and White townships, will be held on Saturday, March 29, at the "No. 2" school house in Reade.

Samuel Berdun and wife, of Newton Hamilton, are visiting their relatives, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Troxell, of Roseland.

Mr. James W. McCartney, of Mountain Dale, is lying dangerously ill at his home. His chances for recovery are very doubtful. Heart disease is his ailment.

Mrs. Delila Griffith, who has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. May, of near Glasgow, for the past couple of weeks, has returned to her home at Shirley.

A young lady teacher, of this township, in order to increase her percentage of attendance has opened a "night school." She has numerous applications for admission.

C. E. Kantz on last Wednesday resigned his position as teacher of the No. 2 school, in this township. Mr. David Fry has been appointed to teach out the unexpired term.

E. F. Spencer, the energetic and successful druggist at Hastings, paid Glasgow a business visit last week. Mr. Spencer reports business booming in that growing borough.

William Miller and family, of Glasgow, has moved to Collier Station, on the Bell's Gap, Railroad, near Flynn & Louther's saw mill. Mr. Miller will be employed there on a log contract.

The ellocutionary entertainment given by Miss Grace Fury, of Altoona, at Mountain Dale, last Tuesday evening is said to have been a brilliant success. The young lady deported herself in a creditable manner.

Alonzo Nevelling, who is employed at Hastings, in the watch repairing and jewelry business, but whose family resides at Glasgow, will, in the near future, move to the former place and make it his permanent home.

Mr. Ed. Kunn, Mountain Dale's boss groceryman and "star" tonsorial artist, had an operation performed recently on his right eye by the occulist, Dr. Ross, of Altoona, by which the lachryman duct was opened, which had become closed. The operation was successful.
