 braith and Jennie Loughry, of Johnstowh, were married by the above named minister. Saturday night Douglas Beegle, a farmer, while on his way home from Bedford, attempted to cross the river, which was very much swollen from the recent rains, and was almost drowned. His horse and buggy were lost and he made a narrow escape. As we go to press we learn of the death of Mr. Edward Dougherty, of Gaillizin, formerly of Ebensburg, at the former place on this (Thursday) morning, of consumption. He was about stray-eight years of age and had been Hi for a long time. 	fire is supposed to have originated from a defective stovepipe which it is thought may have faller apart and communicated the fire to the floor of the building. The building was a frame structure about 40x60	charged owing to having had some trouble with the colored cook. When at East Con- emaugh the evening before the fire they had been beard making threats to "kill the nigger and burn the building." The four men were arrested on Saturday and at a hearing before Justice Hart, in Johnstown, Patrick Moulton and John McDowell were committed for trial, Hawkins and Cronin being discharged for want of evidence im- plicating them in the burning of the build- ing.
