

It is generally believed that the Republican State Convention, will be held some time in July and the Democratic Convention in August.

STATE TREASURER ARCHER, of Maryland, has been found to be short in his accounts with the State to the tune of something over $100,000.

The new Republican tariff bill has been reported to the full committee of ways and means. The measure appears to give satisfaction to nobody.

GOVERNOR BEAVER has issued a proclamation fixing Friday, April 11th, and Friday May 2nd as Arbor Days. In his proclamation the Governor says: "In those portions of the Commonwealth where the climatic conditions are favorable the day first named should be observed for tree planting. In the higher altitudes and more northerly latitudes of the Commonwealth the day last named can be observed."

AFTER many weeks of figuring, fifty-two families in Decatur, Illinois including many of wealth and position, have united in a novel manner of living. They have joined together to maintain a co-operative boarding house, the expense to each person for the best of food and cooking being not more than $2.50 a week, or 11c. a meal. The ladies take charge a week at a time and buy all the food, while a paid housekeeper attends to the details and serving. Another similar establishment is projected.

NEW YORK says the St. Louis Globe, has not given its electoral vote to the same party in two successive canvasses since 1864. In 1856, 1860 and 1864 it began its oscillation between the parties in presidential years. It was carried by the Democrats in 1868, 1876 and 1884, and by the Republicans in 1872, 1880 and 1888. In 1892, if this vibration should be kept up, the pendulum would swing to the Democratic side. Ballot reform is one of the agencies which would hold that State in Republican hands in 1892, but to get ballot reform the Republicans must elect a Republican Governor in the canvass of 1891.

It is now stated on the highest official authority from London as well as being a matter of common gossip in Parliament and at the club, that Queen Victoria is seriously considering the step of abdicating the British throne. The Queen's bodily infirmity is increasing and she is at last willing to give the Prince of Wales a chance to play the leading role in England. One strong objection the Queen has to abdicating is the contingency of being called ex-Queen. She wishes to assume the title of Queen Regent for the rest of her life. A special bill will be introduced into Parliament when she is willing to resign the actual throne, and the Prince of Wales will be crowned King of England and Emperor of India.

A DECISION was rendered at Washington on Monday by the Court of claims, in the claim of Representative Grain against the United States for salary as a member of Congress for the month of November, 1880, which he failed to receive, owing to the defection of Cashier Silcott last Fall. The Court sustained the position and awarded judgment in the sum of $360, acting on this decision the House of Representatives will probably make an appropriation sufficient to cover the total amount of the defalcation—at least $70,000—in order to save useless expense in the institution of other suits for the same end. It will thus be seen that our Congressional statesmen will not suffer in pocket from the peculations of the absconding cashier.

THE tanneries of north-western Pennsylvania, says the Warren Ledger, do well to avoid the temptation to become treasurers. The particular run of trouble now is among State Treasurers; lately it was among association treasurers, bank cashiers and other like people distinguished for their integrity as to be custodians of other people's money. Put not your trust in princes, we are enjoined; put not your trust in treasurers; the command of daily experience. Good men go wrong; but when they are treasurers they go with a rush. Mr. Archer, of Maryland, was a treasurer of the supposed-to-be fire proof class, of ancient lineage and fairest fame. But he had use for more money than he had of his own and borrowed from himself the money of other people put in his hands for safe keeping. And he borrowed more than he could repay. Easy is the descent to larceny; and easier is it to get consent to lend to yourself than the only consent to be got in your own. Therefore people who want to be happy do well to shun a treasurer's ship as they would sin.

THE latest news from Washington is to the effect that at a conference between President Harrison and Senator Quay on Monday last among other matters discussed was a proposition which Postmaster General Wamaker made to the President while Quay was in Florida to the effect that it would be a good thing for the public service, and at the same time a good thing for the Republican party of Pennsylvania, to make Adjutant General Hastings Assistant Secretary of War, under the act just passed creating that office.

COUNTERFEIT money is extensively circulated in some counties of the State. It was just an ordinary case of wrapping paper, but it saved her life. She was in the last stages of consumption, told by physicians that she was incurable and could live only a short time; she weighed less than seventy pounds. On a piece of wrapping paper she wrote "King's New Discovery, and got a sample bottle; it helped her, she bought a large bottle, it helped her more, bought another and grew better fast, her weight increased to 140 pounds. For further particulars and stamps to W. H. Cole, Druggist, 219 North Third Street, Philadelphia, Pa. Sold by Dr. J. P. Smith, Trial Bottle of this wonderful Discovery Free at E. J. Mayer, Ebensburg, and W. W. McAteer, Loretto.

Even the New York Tribune is protesting against the duty on hides as is proposed by the Republicans in Congress in the McKinley bill and we would not be surprised to hear of that unflattering Republican organ being denounced as a free trader. The Tribune says: The Republican members of the committee have not gained in confidence by their action regarding the duty on hides. There was no good reason for imposing the duty of one and a half cents per pound, and it was quickly made clear that such a duty would be in no way useful for protection. The committee then voted to restore hides to the free list. But on Saturday, upon representations by some Western members, another change was made: a duty of 15 per cent. was voted, with rebate in full to exporters of products from dutiable hides. The duty now proposed would obviously be of no benefit to farmers or cattlemen, growers of the imported hides are now used mainly in the manufacture of goods for export. But to the exporters and manufacturers of goods for export it would be a vexation and needless burden. It is to be hoped that the Republican members of the House will not hesitate to overrule their committee in this respect, since the committee does not seem to have been clear in its own mind. For industrial and for political reasons it would be better to keep hides on the free list.

A WASHINGTON correspondent of the Philadelphia Ledger, (Republican) says: "Around the Capitol great surprise is expressed with the absolute subserviency of the Republicans of Pennsylvania and the visitations of Republican local leaders to Washington for the purpose of consulting with Senator Quay and obtaining his approval of this or that candidate is commented upon and held up as an illustration of the absolute demoralization that prevails in the politics of the Keystone State. The general belief here is that no man can receive a nomination in Pennsylvania for any office, State or municipal, who does not receive a ticket of leave from Mr. Quay. Said a Republican Representative, speaking of this matter: "This thing will not proceed much further without receiving a check. The people are getting disgusted with this machine business, and with the class of men who are placed at the head of affairs, and will undoubtedly smash the machine, as they did not long ago, when Pattison was elected over Beaver by Republican voters. I would not be surprised if this same thing occurred next Fall. At all events, it is sure to come, sooner or later, and is being hastened by the methods that are now prevailing."

ON Monday last Judge Barrett of New York city, rendered his decision in the case against Sheriff Flaek, of that city, recently convicted of a criminal conspiracy in attempting to obtain a divorce from his wife. The decision was on a motion for a new trial which the Judge refused and he proceeded to sentence the prisoner. Ex-Sheriff James A. Flaek was sentenced to pay a fine of $500 and to be imprisoned in the county jail, to wit, the city prison, for two months. Joseph Meeks, the referee, was sentenced to pay a fine of $500 and to be imprisoned in the county jail, to wit, the city prison, for one month. William L. Flaek, the ex-Sheriff's son, was sentenced to pay a fine of $500 and to be imprisoned in the penitentiary for four months. Within an hour after sentence was pronounced, Judge Van Brunt granted a stay of proceedings in the cases of the Flaeks and Meeks, pending an appeal. Bail was fixed at $700.

THE steamer City of Paris the fastest vessel afloat, which was several days overdue and which carried over one thousand passengers was towed into port on Sunday last. Much anxiety was felt and grave fears were entertained for the safety of the vessel. The delay was caused by the breaking of a cylinder on the evening of the 20th of March. A portion of the machinery was smashed through the steamers double bottom when 2000 tons of water poured in compelling the engineers and fireman to abandon their posts and seek safety on deck. For 120 hours the steamer floated helplessly with the passengers in momentary fears of going to the bottom. A life boat was sent out in the track of other vessels with the hope of finding assistance and finally came across the Aldergate which went in search of the City of Paris, found her and towed her into port in safety.

EX-SENATOR WILLIAM A. WALLACE, in a letter to Ex-Judge Edward Harvey, of Allentown, on Saturday last formally announced his candidacy for the Democratic nomination for Governor. In his letter, ex-Senator Wallace says: "I am not a noisy or aggressive candidate for the Democratic nomination for Governor of Pennsylvania, for I appreciate the dignity of the place and the labors and the risks that the nomination involves. Still, I would be proud to lead an united and harmonious party in a struggle for good government, for progressive reform, and for political supremacy in a good old State. If, therefore, the Democratic State Convention shall, with any reasonable degree of unanimity, nominate me as its candidate for Governor upon such a platform of principles, I will accept the nomination and try to be elected."

THE latest news from Washington is to the effect that at a conference between President Harrison and Senator Quay on Monday last among other matters discussed was a proposition which Postmaster General Wamaker made to the President while Quay was in Florida to the effect that it would be a good thing for the public service, and at the same time a good thing for the Republican party of Pennsylvania, to make Adjutant General Hastings Assistant Secretary of War, under the act just passed creating that office.

ABOUT ninety-five people were killed and several hundred painfully injured as the result of a tornado which struck the city of Louisville, Ky., a few minutes past 8 o'clock on Thursday night of last week, and in a few moments had laid level with the ground a swath half a mile wide and two miles long through parts of the finest business section of the city. Thousands were buried in the ruins, and while the majority escaped with injuries comparative to slight, many hundreds were killed or dyed beneath masses of tangled timber and heaps of brick and stone. Fire caught in the ruins in several places, and many whose escape was delayed met a slower and more horrible death in the flames. The greatest loss of life was in a public hall where a children's dancing class and several ladies on being were in progress at the moment when the tornado swooped upon the city. Scarcely a dozen of the three or four hundred persons who were in the building escaped being caught in the ruins of those who were not crushed to death outright, many were suffocated by escaping flames and others were burned to death in the fire which subsequently started in the wreck. Horrible incidents of a less terrible nature were found at every step through the desolated district. The rector of one of the largest churches in the city was crushed into a shapeless mass without momentary warning as he stepped from his pulpit to his study, and the rector's wife so badly injured that she has lain low ever since. Another man, reading to his little son, who stood at his knee. The child also was killed, and the rector's wife so badly injured that she has lain low ever since. Another man, reading to his little son, who stood at his knee. The child also was killed, and the rector's wife so badly injured that she has lain low ever since.

CHILDREN were stricken dead in their mother's arms, fathers who changed to have left their homes for a few minutes returned to find their children killed, husbands and wives were found dead in each others arms, and occasionally, the tornado, waxing madly, killed a family at once, leaving none to mourn. With these dreadful incidents were many marvelous escapes. People were seen to be bodily carried by the wind, to be dropped safely to the ground. Others crawled out almost unscathed from masses of debris, into which they were liable for a being to have remained alive. After leaving Louisville the tornado destroyed a large number of the finest residences in the city, and killed many persons, but killed none. The damage to property in Louisville will amount to $2,500,000.

AN astonishing programme for June 2. On Monday, June 2, the census takers went on their rounds equipped with a schedule of thirty-one questions and other objects of inquiry, they are instructed to ascertain from every citizen whether he is suffering from acute or chronic disease, with the name of the disease, and the length of time the citizen has been afflicted; whether he is suffering from defective mind, sight, hearing, or speech, or whether crippled, maimed, or deformed; and the name of his physical defect; whether, in case the citizen owns a house or farm, his house or farm is free from mortgage or encumbrance. In preparation for the great campaign of the night, the census takers are instructed to inform people through the newspapers that anybody who refuses to answer the questions propounded on the census enumerators will be fined $30. Section 2191 of the Revised Statutes provides, in fact, that every person who, after being sworn, refuses to render a true and correct answer to questions asked by law; and for a refusal to answer such questions he shall be liable to a penalty of $30. But does any law exist, or is it necessary and admissible inquisition contemplated by the census which have quailed from the enumerators' schedule? If a man is suffering from a physical defect, is he compelled to disclose the circumstance to the enumerators? If he is in debt for the house he lives in, is he compelled to disclose his physical defect, is he compelled to disclose the circumstance to the enumerators? If he is in debt for the house he lives in, is he compelled to disclose his physical defect, is he compelled to disclose the circumstance to the enumerators?

THE Pennsylvania politicians seen in and about the Fifth Avenue Hotel were in a hurry to get their backs to the wall. Some of them who know personally a thing or two about the inside workings of the Senator's career intimated that he would hold his seat and characteristically say nothing.

ST. LOUIS, March 30. J. J. Hogan of the Memphis Commercial arrived here today, direct from the flooded district along the Mississippi River. He says that the water is retreating, and that in his opinion, the flood has not reached the highest point.

Had a Circus on Board. Cairo, Ill., March 31.—Officers of the steamer City of Paris reported that the City of St. Paul tugging at Showet's field a complete wreck from Thursday's storm. The St. Paul had a circus on board, and the circus was a large one belonging to George Edwards. The party are women who are living in a shanty boat and the men are without shelter, and for several days have had no food. The spot where the party is about an acre in extent and no dry land is within 12 miles. The steamer Nail City arrived at noon and reports she met the City of St. Paul day and night on Island 14, and succeeded in making a landing after three hours' hard work. She had eight barges of coal and three barges of hay, and while she was in the bay she had a protest here and left for Pittsburgh.

A special dispatch from Harrisburg to the Pittsburg Post, on Tuesday says: There is a great deal of quiet smiling here over the way the alleged leaders who have had Senator Quay's ear at Washington have been plaiting that statesman's hair in telling him of the rosy outlook for Delaware. The fact that from information received from various parts of the State, the outlook is not only not rosy for Delamater, but there is an undercurrent of opposition that will be particularly felt in the case of the way in which Chairman Andrews worked Cambria county for Delamater, has set people talking, and politicians will combine parts of the State are out spoken in their denunciation of a campaign in which the State chairman uses the party machinery to further the interests of a particular candidate. Especially aggravating to the free thinking voters are the dispatches sent out from Washington under Andrews's direction to the effect that any man who enters the field against Delamater does so at his peril, and to the "injury of his future political prospects." This warning to clear the track or be smashed will not be taken as a candidly, especially aggravating to the free thinking voters are the dispatches sent out from Washington under Andrews's direction to the effect that any man who enters the field against Delamater does so at his peril, and to the "injury of his future political prospects." This warning to clear the track or be smashed will not be taken as a candidly, especially aggravating to the free thinking voters are the dispatches sent out from Washington under Andrews's direction to the effect that any man who enters the field against Delamater does so at his peril, and to the "injury of his future political prospects." This warning to clear the track or be smashed will not be taken as a candidly, especially aggravating to the free thinking voters are the dispatches sent out from Washington under Andrews's direction to the effect that any man who enters the field against Delamater does so at his peril, and to the "injury of his future political prospects." This warning to clear the track or be smashed will not be taken as a candidly, especially aggravating to the free thinking voters are the dispatches sent out from Washington under Andrews's direction to the effect that any man who enters the field against Delamater does so at his peril, and to the "injury of his future political prospects." This warning to clear the track or be smashed will not be taken as a candidly, especially aggravating to the free thinking voters are the dispatches sent out from Washington under Andrews's direction to the effect that any man who enters the field against Delamater does so at his peril, and to the "injury of his future political prospects." This warning to clear the track or be smashed will not be taken as a candidly, especially aggravating to the free thinking voters are the dispatches sent out from Washington under Andrews's direction to the effect that any man who enters the field against Delamater does so at his peril, and to the "injury of his future political prospects." This warning to clear the track or be smashed will not be taken as a candidly, especially aggravating to the free thinking voters are the dispatches sent out from Washington under Andrews's direction to the effect that any man who enters the field against Delamater does so at his peril, and to the "injury of his future political prospects." This warning to clear the track or be smashed will not be taken as a candidly, especially aggravating to the free thinking voters are the dispatches sent out from Washington under Andrews's direction to the effect that any man who enters the field against Delamater does so at his peril, and to the "injury of his future political prospects." This warning to clear the track or be smashed will not be taken as a candidly, especially aggravating to the free thinking voters are the dispatches sent out from Washington under Andrews's direction to the effect that any man who enters the field against Delamater does so at his peril, and to the "injury of his future political prospects." This warning to clear the track or be smashed will not be taken as a candidly, especially aggravating to the free thinking voters are the dispatches sent out from Washington under Andrews's direction to the effect that any man who enters the field against Delamater does so at his peril, and to the "injury of his future political prospects." This warning to clear the track or be smashed will not be taken as a candidly, especially aggravating to the free thinking voters are the dispatches sent out from Washington under Andrews's direction to the effect that any man who enters the field against Delamater does so at his peril, and to the "injury of his future political prospects." This warning to clear the track or be smashed will not be taken as a candidly, especially aggravating to the free thinking voters are the dispatches sent out from Washington under Andrews's direction to the effect that any man who enters the field against Delamater does so at his peril, and to the "injury of his future political prospects." This warning to clear the track or be smashed will not be taken as a candidly, especially aggravating to the free thinking voters are the dispatches sent out from Washington under Andrews's direction to the effect that any man who enters the field against Delamater does so at his peril, and to the "injury of his future political prospects." This warning to clear the track or be smashed will not be taken as a candidly, especially aggravating to the free thinking voters are the dispatches sent out from Washington under Andrews's direction to the effect that any man who enters the field against Delamater does so at his peril, and to the "injury of his future political prospects." This warning to clear the track or be smashed will not be taken as a candidly, especially aggravating to the free thinking voters are the dispatches sent out from Washington under Andrews's direction to the effect that any man who enters the field against Delamater does so at his peril, and to the "injury of his future political prospects." This warning to clear the track or be smashed will not be taken as a candidly, especially aggravating to the free thinking voters are the dispatches sent out from Washington under Andrews's direction to the effect that any man who enters the field against Delamater does so at his peril, and to the "injury of his future political prospects." This warning to clear the track or be smashed will not be taken as a candidly, especially aggravating to the free thinking voters are the dispatches sent out from Washington under Andrews's direction to the effect that any man who enters the field against Delamater does so at his peril, and to the "injury of his future political prospects." This warning to clear the track or be smashed will not be taken as a candidly, especially aggravating to the free thinking voters are the dispatches sent out from Washington under Andrews's direction to the effect that any man who enters the field against Delamater does so at his peril, and to the "injury of his future political prospects." This warning to clear the track or be smashed will not be taken as a candidly, especially aggravating to the free thinking voters are the dispatches sent out from Washington under Andrews's direction to the effect that any man who enters the field against Delamater does so at his peril, and to the "injury of his future political prospects." This warning to clear the track or be smashed will not be taken as a candidly, especially aggravating to the free thinking voters are the dispatches sent out from Washington under Andrews's direction to the effect that any man who enters the field against Delamater does so at his peril, and to the "injury of his future political prospects." This warning to clear the track or be smashed will not be taken as a candidly, especially aggravating to the free thinking voters are the dispatches sent out from Washington under Andrews's direction to the effect that any man who enters the field against Delamater does so at his peril, and to the "injury of his future political prospects." This warning to clear the track or be smashed will not be taken as a candidly, especially aggravating to the free thinking voters are the dispatches sent out from Washington under Andrews's direction to the effect that any man who enters the field against Delamater does so at his peril, and to the "injury of his future political prospects." This warning to clear the track or be smashed will not be taken as a candidly, especially aggravating to the free thinking voters are the dispatches sent out from Washington under Andrews's direction to the effect that any man who enters the field against Delamater does so at his peril, and to the "injury of his future political prospects." This warning to clear the track or be smashed will not be taken as a candidly, especially aggravating to the free thinking voters are the dispatches sent out from Washington under Andrews's direction to the effect that any man who enters the field against Delamater does so at his peril, and to the "injury of his future political prospects." This warning to clear the track or be smashed will not be taken as a candidly, especially aggravating to the free thinking voters are the dispatches sent out from Washington under Andrews's direction to the effect that any man who enters the field against Delamater does so at his peril, and to the "injury of his future political prospects." This warning to clear the track or be smashed will not be taken as a candidly, especially aggravating to the free thinking voters are the dispatches sent out from Washington under Andrews's direction to the effect that any man who enters the field against Delamater does so at his peril, and to the "injury of his future political prospects." This warning to clear the track or be smashed will not be taken as a candidly, especially aggravating to the free thinking voters are the dispatches sent out from Washington under Andrews's direction to the effect that any man who enters the field against Delamater does so at his peril, and to the "injury of his future political prospects." This warning to clear the track or be smashed will not be taken as a candidly, especially aggravating to the free thinking voters are the dispatches sent out from Washington under Andrews's direction to the effect that any man who enters the field against Delamater does so at his peril, and to the "injury of his future political prospects." This warning to clear the track or be smashed will not be taken as a candidly, especially aggravating to the free thinking voters are the dispatches sent out from Washington under Andrews's direction to the effect that any man who enters the field against Delamater does so at his peril, and to the "injury of his future political prospects." This warning to clear the track or be smashed will not be taken as a candidly, especially aggravating to the free thinking voters are the dispatches sent out from Washington under Andrews's direction to the effect that any man who enters the field against Delamater does so at his peril, and to the "injury of his future political prospects." This warning to clear the track or be smashed will not be taken as a candidly, especially aggravating to the free thinking voters are the dispatches sent out from Washington under Andrews's direction to the effect that any man who enters the field against Delamater does so at his peril, and to the "injury of his future political prospects." This warning to clear the track or be smashed will not be taken as a candidly, especially aggravating to the free thinking voters are the dispatches sent out from Washington under Andrews's direction to the effect that any man who enters the field against Delamater does so at his peril, and to the "injury of his future political prospects." This warning to clear the track or be smashed will not be taken as a candidly, especially aggravating to the free thinking voters are the dispatches sent out from Washington under Andrews's direction to the effect that any man who enters the field against Delamater does so at his peril, and to the "injury of his future political prospects." This warning to clear the track or be smashed will not be taken as a candidly, especially aggravating to the free thinking voters are the dispatches sent out from Washington under Andrews's direction to the effect that any man who enters the field against Delamater does so at his peril, and to the "injury of his future political prospects." This warning to clear the track or be smashed will not be taken as a candidly, especially aggravating to the free thinking voters are the dispatches sent out from Washington under Andrews's direction to the effect that any man who enters the field against Delamater does so at his peril, and to the "injury of his future political prospects." This warning to clear the track or be smashed will not be taken as a candidly, especially aggravating to the free thinking voters are the dispatches sent out from Washington under Andrews's direction to the effect that any man who enters the field against Delamater does so at his peril, and to the "injury of his future political prospects." This warning to clear the track or be smashed will not be taken as a candidly, especially aggravating to the free thinking voters are the dispatches sent out from Washington under Andrews's direction to the effect that any man who enters the field against Delamater does so at his peril, and to the "injury of his future political prospects." This warning to clear the track or be smashed will not be taken as a candidly, especially aggravating to the free thinking voters are the dispatches sent out from Washington under Andrews's direction to the effect that any man who enters the field against Delamater does so at his peril, and to the "injury of his future political prospects." This warning to clear the track or be smashed will not be taken as a candidly, especially aggravating to the free thinking voters are the dispatches sent out from Washington under Andrews's direction to the effect that any man who enters the field against Delamater does so at his peril, and to the "injury of his future political prospects." This warning to clear the track or be smashed will not be taken as a candidly, especially aggravating to the free thinking voters are the dispatches sent out from Washington under Andrews's direction to the effect that any man who enters the field against Delamater does so at his peril, and to the "injury of his future political prospects." This warning to clear the track or be smashed will not be taken as a candidly, especially aggravating to the free thinking voters are the dispatches sent out from Washington under Andrews's direction to the effect that any man who enters the field against Delamater does so at his peril, and to the "injury of his future political prospects." This warning to clear the track or be smashed will not be taken as a candidly, especially aggravating to the free thinking voters are the dispatches sent out from Washington under Andrews's direction to the effect that any man who enters the field against Delamater does so at his peril, and to the "injury of his future political prospects." This warning to clear the track or be smashed will not be taken as a candidly, especially aggravating to the free thinking voters are the dispatches sent out from Washington under Andrews's direction to the effect that any man who enters the field against Delamater does so at his peril, and to the "injury of his future political prospects." This warning to clear the track or be smashed will not be taken as a candidly, especially aggravating to the free thinking voters are the dispatches sent out from Washington under Andrews's direction to the effect that any man who enters the field against Delamater does so at his peril, and to the "injury of his future political prospects." This warning to clear the track or be smashed will not be taken as a candidly, especially aggravating to the free thinking voters are the dispatches sent out from Washington under Andrews's direction to the effect that any man who enters the field against Delamater does so at his peril, and to the "injury of his future political prospects." This warning to clear the track or be smashed will not be taken as a candidly, especially aggravating to the free thinking voters are the dispatches sent out from Washington under Andrews's direction to the effect that any man who enters the field against Delamater does so at his peril, and to the "injury of his future political prospects." This warning to clear the track or be smashed will not be taken as a candidly, especially aggravating to the free thinking voters are the dispatches sent out from Washington under Andrews's direction to the effect that any man who enters the field against Delamater does so at his peril, and to the "injury of his future political prospects." This warning to clear the track or be smashed will not be taken as a candidly, especially aggravating to the free thinking voters are the dispatches sent out from Washington under Andrews's direction to the effect that any man who enters the field against Delamater does so at his peril, and to the "injury of his future political prospects." This warning to clear the track or be smashed will not be taken as a candidly, especially aggravating to the free thinking voters are the dispatches sent out from Washington under Andrews's direction to the effect that any man who enters the field against Delamater does so at his peril, and to the "injury of his future political prospects." This warning to clear the track or be smashed will not be taken as a candidly, especially aggravating to the free thinking voters are the dispatches sent out from Washington under Andrews's direction to the effect that any man who enters the field against Delamater does so at his peril, and to the "injury of his future political prospects." This warning to clear the track or be smashed will not be taken as a candidly, especially aggravating to the free thinking voters are the dispatches sent out from Washington under Andrews's direction to the effect that any man who enters the field against Delamater does so at his peril, and to the "injury of his future political prospects." This warning to clear the track or be smashed will not be taken as a candidly, especially aggravating to the free thinking voters are the dispatches sent out from Washington under Andrews's direction to the effect that any man who enters the field against Delamater does so at his peril, and to the "injury of his future political prospects." This warning to clear the track or be smashed will not be taken as a candidly, especially aggravating to the free thinking voters are the dispatches sent out from Washington under Andrews's direction to the effect that any man who enters the field against Delamater does so at his peril, and to the "injury of his future political prospects." This warning to clear the track or be smashed will not be taken as a candidly, especially aggravating to the free thinking voters are the dispatches sent out from Washington under Andrews's direction to the effect that any man who enters the field against Delamater does so at his peril, and to the "injury of his future political prospects." This warning to clear the track or be smashed will not be taken as a candidly, especially aggravating to the free thinking voters are the dispatches sent out from Washington under Andrews's direction to the effect that any man who enters the field against Delamater does so at his peril, and to the "injury of his future political prospects." This warning to clear the track or be smashed will not be taken as a candidly, especially aggravating to the free thinking voters are the dispatches sent out from Washington under Andrews's direction to the effect that any man who enters the field against Delamater does so at his peril, and to the "injury of his future political prospects." This warning to clear the track or be smashed will not be taken as a candidly, especially aggravating to the free thinking voters are the dispatches sent out from Washington under Andrews's direction to the effect that any man who enters the field against Delamater does so at his peril, and to the "injury of his future political prospects." This warning to clear the track or be smashed will not be taken as a candidly, especially aggravating to the free thinking voters are the dispatches sent out from Washington under Andrews's direction to the effect that any man who enters the field against Delamater does so at his peril, and to the "injury of his future political prospects." This warning to clear the track or be smashed will not be taken as a candidly, especially aggravating to the free thinking voters are the dispatches sent out from Washington under Andrews's direction to the effect that any man who enters the field against Delamater does so at his peril, and to the "injury of his future political prospects." This warning to clear the track or be smashed will not be taken as a candidly, especially aggravating to the free thinking voters are the dispatches sent out from Washington under Andrews's direction to the effect that any man who enters the field against Delamater does so at his peril, and to the "injury of his future political prospects." This warning to clear the track or be smashed will not be taken as a candidly, especially aggravating to the free thinking voters are the dispatches sent out from Washington under Andrews's direction to the effect that any man who enters the field against Delamater does so at his peril, and to the "injury of his future political prospects." This warning to clear the track or be smashed will not be taken as a candidly, especially aggravating to the free thinking voters are the dispatches sent out from Washington under Andrews's direction to the effect that any man who enters the field against Delamater does so at his peril, and to the "injury of his future political prospects." This warning to clear the track or be smashed will not be taken as a candidly, especially aggravating to the free thinking voters are the dispatches sent out from Washington under Andrews's direction to the effect that any man who enters the field against Delamater does so at his peril, and to the "injury of his future political prospects." This warning to clear the track or be smashed will not be taken as a candidly, especially aggravating to the free thinking voters are the dispatches sent out from Washington under Andrews's direction to the effect that any man who enters the field against Delamater does so at his peril, and to the "injury of his future political prospects." This warning to clear the track or be smashed will not be taken as a candidly, especially aggravating to the free thinking voters are the dispatches sent out from Washington under Andrews's direction to the effect that any man who enters the field against Delamater does so at his peril, and to the "injury of his future political prospects." This warning to clear the track or be smashed will not be taken as a candidly, especially aggravating to the free thinking voters are the dispatches sent out from Washington under Andrews's direction to the effect that any man who enters the field against Delamater does so at his peril, and to the "injury of his future political prospects." This warning to clear the track or be smashed will not be taken as a candidly, especially aggravating to the free thinking voters are the dispatches sent out from Washington under Andrews's direction to the effect that any man who enters the field against Delamater does so at his peril, and to the "injury of his future political prospects." This warning to clear the track or be smashed will not be taken as a candidly, especially aggravating to the free thinking voters are the dispatches sent out from Washington under Andrews's direction to the effect that any man who enters the field against Delamater does so at his peril, and to the "injury of his future political prospects." This warning to clear the track or be smashed will not be taken as a candidly, especially aggravating to the free thinking voters are the dispatches sent out from Washington under Andrews's direction to the effect that any man who enters the field against Delamater does so at his peril, and to the "injury of his future political prospects." This warning to clear the track or be smashed will not be taken as a candidly, especially aggravating to the free thinking voters are the dispatches sent out from Washington under Andrews's direction to the effect that any man who enters the field against Delamater does so at his peril, and to the "injury of his future political prospects." This warning to clear the track or be smashed will not be taken as a candidly, especially aggravating to the free thinking voters are the dispatches sent out from Washington under Andrews's direction to the effect that any man who enters the field against Delamater does so at his peril, and to the "injury of his future political prospects." This warning to clear the track or be smashed will not be taken as a candidly, especially aggravating to the free thinking voters are the dispatches sent out from Washington under Andrews's direction to the effect that any man who enters the field against Delamater does so at his peril, and to the "injury of his future political prospects." This warning to clear the track or be smashed will not be taken as a candidly, especially aggravating to the free thinking voters are the dispatches sent out from Washington under Andrews's direction to the effect that any man who enters the field against Delamater does so at his peril, and to the "injury of his future political prospects." This warning to clear the track or be smashed will not be taken as a candidly, especially aggravating to the free thinking voters are the dispatches sent out from Washington under Andrews's direction to the effect that any man who enters the field against Delamater does so at his peril, and to the "injury of his future political prospects." This warning to clear the track or be smashed will not be taken as a candidly, especially aggravating to the free thinking voters are the dispatches sent out from Washington under Andrews's direction to the effect that any man who enters the field against Delamater does so at his peril, and to the "injury of his future political prospects." This warning to clear the track or be smashed will not be taken as a candidly, especially aggravating to the free thinking voters are the dispatches sent out from Washington under Andrews's direction to the effect that any man who enters the field against Delamater does so at his peril, and to the "injury of his future political prospects." This warning to clear the track or be smashed will not be taken as a candidly, especially aggravating to the free thinking voters are the dispatches sent out from Washington under Andrews's direction to the effect that any man who enters the field against Delamater does so at his peril, and to the "injury of his future political prospects." This warning to clear the track or be smashed will not be taken as a candidly, especially aggravating to the free thinking voters are the dispatches sent out from Washington under Andrews's direction to the effect that any man who enters the field against Delamater does so at his peril, and to the "injury of his future political prospects." This warning to clear the track or be smashed will not be taken as a candidly, especially aggravating to the free thinking voters are the dispatches sent out from Washington under Andrews's direction to the effect that any man who enters the field against Delamater does so at his peril, and to the "injury of his future political prospects." This warning to clear the track or be smashed will not be taken as a candidly, especially aggravating to the free thinking voters are the dispatches sent out from Washington under Andrews's direction to the effect that any man who enters the field against Delamater does so at his peril, and to the "injury of his future political prospects." This warning to clear the track or be smashed will not be taken as a candidly, especially aggravating to the free thinking voters are the dispatches sent out from Washington under Andrews's direction to the effect that any man who enters the field against Delamater does so at his peril, and to the "injury of his future political prospects." This warning to clear the track or be smashed will not be taken as a candidly, especially aggravating to the free thinking voters are the dispatches sent out from Washington under Andrews's direction to the effect that any man who enters the field against Delamater does so at his peril, and to the "injury of his future political prospects." This warning to clear the track or be smashed will not be taken as a candidly, especially aggravating to the free thinking voters are the dispatches sent out from Washington under Andrews's direction to the effect that any man who enters the field against Delamater does so at his peril, and to the "injury of his future political prospects." This warning to clear the track or be smashed will not be taken as a candidly, especially aggravating to the free thinking voters are the dispatches sent out from Washington under Andrews's direction to the effect that any man who enters the field against Delamater does so at his peril, and to the "injury of his future political prospects." This warning to clear the track or be smashed will not be taken as a candidly, especially aggravating to the free thinking voters are the dispatches sent out from Washington under Andrews's direction to the effect that any man who enters the field against Delamater does so at his peril, and to the "injury of his future political prospects." This warning to clear the track or be smashed will not be taken as a candidly, especially aggravating to the free thinking voters are the dispatches sent out from Washington under Andrews's direction to the effect that any man who enters the field against Delamater does so at his peril, and to the "injury of his future political prospects." This warning to clear the track or be smashed will not be taken as a candidly, especially aggravating to the free thinking voters are the dispatches sent out from Washington under Andrews's direction to the effect that any man who enters the field against Delamater does so at his peril, and to the "injury of his future political prospects." This warning to clear the track or be smashed will not be taken as a candidly, especially aggravating to the free thinking voters are the dispatches sent out from Washington under Andrews's direction to the effect that any man who enters the field against Delamater does so at his peril, and to the "injury of his future political prospects." This warning to clear the track or be smashed will not be taken as a candidly, especially aggravating to the free thinking voters are the dispatches sent out from Washington under Andrews's direction to the effect that any man who enters the field against Delamater does so at his peril, and to the "injury of his future political prospects." This warning to clear the track or be smashed will not be taken as a candidly, especially aggravating to the free thinking voters are the dispatches sent out from Washington under Andrews's direction to the effect that any man who enters the field against Delamater does so at his peril, and to the "injury of his future political prospects." This warning to clear the track or be smashed will not be taken as a candidly, especially aggravating to the free thinking voters are the dispatches sent out from Washington under Andrews's direction to the effect that any man who enters the field against Delamater does so at his peril, and to the "injury of his future political prospects." This warning to clear the track or be smashed will not be taken as a candidly, especially aggravating to the free thinking voters are the dispatches sent out from Washington under Andrews's direction to the effect that any man who enters the field against Delamater does so at his peril, and to the "injury of his future political prospects." This warning to clear the track or be smashed will not be taken as a candidly, especially aggravating to the free thinking voters are the dispatches sent out from Washington under Andrews's direction to the effect that any man who enters the field against Delamater does so at his peril, and to the "injury of his future political prospects." This warning to clear the track or be smashed will not be taken as a candidly, especially aggravating to the free thinking voters are the dispatches sent out from Washington under Andrews's direction to the effect that any man who enters the field against Delamater does so at his peril, and to the "injury of his future political prospects." This warning to clear the track or be smashed will not be taken as a candidly, especially aggravating to the free thinking voters are the dispatches sent out from Washington under Andrews's direction to the effect that any man who enters the field against Delamater does so at his peril, and to the "injury of his future political prospects." This warning to clear the track or be smashed will not be taken as a candidly, especially aggravating to the free thinking voters are the dispatches sent out from Washington under Andrews's direction to the effect that any man who enters the field against Delamater does so at his peril, and to the "injury of his future political prospects." This warning to clear the track or be smashed will not be taken as a candidly, especially aggravating to the free thinking voters are the dispatches sent out from Washington under Andrews's direction to the effect that any man who enters the field against Delamater does so at his peril, and to the "injury of his future political prospects." This warning to clear the track or be smashed will not be taken as a candidly, especially aggravating to the free thinking voters are the dispatches sent out from Washington under Andrews's direction to the effect that any man who enters the field against Delamater does so at his peril, and to the "injury of his future political prospects." This warning to clear the track or be smashed will not be taken as a candidly, especially aggravating to the free thinking voters are the dispatches sent out from Washington under Andrews's direction to the effect that any man who enters the field against Delamater does so at his peril, and to the "injury of his future political prospects." This warning to clear the track or be smashed will not be taken as a candidly, especially aggravating to the free thinking voters are the dispatches sent out from Washington under Andrews's direction to the effect that any man who enters the field against Delamater does so at his peril, and to the "injury of his future political prospects." This warning to clear the track or be smashed will not be taken as a candidly, especially aggravating to the free thinking voters are the dispatches sent out from Washington under Andrews's direction to the effect that any man who enters the field against Delamater does so at his peril, and to the "injury of his future political prospects." This warning to clear the track or be smashed will not be taken as a candidly, especially aggravating to the free thinking voters are the dispatches sent out from Washington under Andrews's direction to the effect that any man who enters the field against Delamater does so at his peril, and to the "injury of his future political prospects." This warning to clear the track or be smashed will not be taken as a candidly, especially aggravating to the free thinking voters are the dispatches sent out from Washington under Andrews's direction to the effect that any man who enters the field against Delamater does so at his peril, and to the "injury of his future political prospects." This warning to clear the track or be smashed will not be taken as a candidly, especially aggravating to the free thinking voters are the dispatches sent out from Washington under Andrews's direction to the effect that any man who enters the field against Delamater does so at his peril, and to the "injury of his future political prospects." This warning to clear the track or be smashed will not be taken as a candidly, especially aggravating to the free thinking voters are the dispatches sent out from Washington under Andrews's direction to the effect that any man who enters the field against Delamater does so at his peril, and to the "injury of his future political prospects." This warning to clear the track or be smashed will not be taken as a candidly, especially aggravating to the free thinking voters are the dispatches sent out from Washington under Andrews's direction to the effect that any man who enters the field against Delamater does so at his peril, and to the "injury of his future political prospects." This warning to clear the track or be smashed will not be taken as a candidly, especially aggravating to the free thinking voters are the dispatches sent out from Washington under Andrews's direction to the effect that any man who enters the field against Delamater does so at his peril, and to the "injury of his future political prospects." This warning to clear the track or be smashed will not be taken as a candidly, especially aggravating to the free thinking voters are the dispatches sent out from Washington under Andrews's direction to the effect that any man who enters the field against Delamater does so at his peril, and to the "injury of his future political prospects." This warning to clear the track or be smashed will not be taken as a candidly, especially aggravating to the free thinking voters are the dispatches sent out from Washington under Andrews's direction to the effect that any man who enters the field against Delamater does so at his peril, and to the "injury of his future political prospects." This