Opposition to Delamater. Senator Quay has returned from Florids to find the grand old party in Pennsylvania very much disorganized, and in the seclusion of his Beaver home, whither he has gone, it is not at all improbable he will give the matter his serious consideration. He doubtless knows by this time that the opposition to Delamater is too strong in its character for him to ignore, and it will be surprising, indeed, if he, in the face of this opposition, forces the sepator from Crawford on the gubernatorial ticket. The Philadelphia correspondent of the Chronicle-Telegraph is authority for the statement that Quay is no: at all p'eased at the manner in which Chairman Andrews, of the State Committee, has mansged affairs. He says;: "Quay denounced the Cambria steal as stupid and unnecessary, and declared that the elections by County Committees in Eik and Fulton counties was about as bad.
