A five-year-old son of Levi Snoberger, of Altoona, was struck by New York and Chicago Limited Express on Friday last while playing on the railroad track near the BO mill and instantly killed.

—Sam Luther was committed for trial on Monday by Alderman Esley in default of $500 bail on a charge of rape, preferred by Mr. Sauer, who is employed as a watchman at the Johnstown Chemical Works.

The offense was committed last August. A warrant was issued at the time, but Luther had skipped and could not be found until he was arrested on Monday for disorderly conduct.—Johnstown Democrat.

—H. H. Mator, a brickman on the Penna. Ry. railroad, was badly injured at Portage on Tuesday morning. The train to which he belonged was doing some shifting at that place and while making a coupling Mator was knocked off the car, one of the wheels of the engine striking his leg, crushing it from the knee to the ankle. He was taken to the Altoona hospital on the Johnstown Accommodation.

—On Monday evening at Mr. James Keating and his mother, of Summerhill township, were returning from Easton, Pa., for their home, when about two miles out of town their horse got frightened at some cuts that were on the road, and in its mad efforts to get away, broke the shafts of the buggy. Mr. Keating fell his mother at a farm house near Portage, Pa., and got another vehicle to return home in.

—Burt McMichael, a 12-year-old son of William McMichael, a blacksmith living at Williamsburg, Westmoreland county, committed suicide by hanging himself in his father's barn on Tuesday night of last week. His parents were returning from a late excursion on that day, and the boy left the morning and could not be found. The next morning his lifeless body was discovered suspended from the rafters of the barn.

—Mr. P. A. Schwan, late of Chester, Pa., but now of Ebensburg, on Wednesday purchased the grocery establishment of Mr. George C. Driesbach, at 1223 Sixteenth street, a few doors above the White Hall Hotel, and will henceforth conduct the business for all there in it. We can recommend the new proprietor as an honest and obliging gentleman, and hope he will succeed in his new venture.—Allentown Times.

—Miss Jess Gena, of Meador, Pa., who is a charming vocalist of a high degree of merit and Miss Grace Foy, of Altoona, who is an elocutionist without a rival, gave an entertainment to a delighted audience at the Opera House, in this place, on Wednesday evening, the proceeds of which were for the benefit of the Catholic church in this place. Miss Blanche Henry, of this place, during the evening's entertainment presided at the piano and manipulated the keys with a skillful hand.

—Eugene Knibbed on Wednesday held an inquest on the body of William O'Connell who died on Tuesday evening at the Hotel Denny. The jurors summoned were E. Dutton, G. T. Roberts, George Gurley, J. A. Schaefer, E. G. Parrish and J. Lloyd, who rendered the following verdict: "That William O'Connell came to his death by accidentally falling out of 3d story window at the Hotel Denny to the pavement below, in High street, in the borough of Ebensburg, Cambria county, Pennsylvania, on Sunday, July 20th, 1890."

—Mr. August Humbert, of Broad street, Fifteenth ward, is in luck. His home was swept away by the flood, and among other things afterward recovered was the family clock, much worse for the water, but it nevertheless taken to the new home in Brownstown and kept as a relic. Having occasion to use the spring Mr. Humbert opened the clock and to his surprise found built in the amount of $25, or representing the accumulated savings of several months. His wife had made the clock the receptacle of their treasure, but had forgotten this fact.—Johnstown Democrat.

—Father Dufour, of Saint Peter's, on South Side, Pittsburgh, on August 2d will lay the corner stone of Saint Mary's Church in the Sixteenth ward (Cambria City). He will be assisted by Father Trautwein, the present pastor. The several church societies in the city and also visiting societies will be present at the ceremony. The foundations were begun more than a year ago, but the flood delayed the completion. The building will be of brick with stone trimmings. The first floor will be divided into school rooms. When completed the structure will be a handsome one.—Johnstown Democrat.

—James N. McGuire, Esq., of Gallitzin township, was found dead in the basement of his house at Bakers Mines, in that township, on Tuesday night about ten o'clock, with his neck broken. He was alone in the house at the time, the rest of his family having been out at a show that was in town. As there were two doors in the hall way Mr. McGuire's door close together. The one leading to his bedroom, the other to the basement, it is supposed the man was going to his bedroom in the dark and mistaking the wrong door, fell with the result above stated. The deceased was about 60 years of age and leaves a family.

—Two little boys, aged seven and five years, respectively, the children of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Dodge, of Munson's Mill, started, on Saturday, in their mother's wagon, which had gone out into the woods for berries. The youngsters wandered almost ten miles through the woods on the mountain, and were found on Sunday near the old New York coal mine, two miles east of Philadelphia. A large force of men on horseback followed the children, but they were not allighted and said they had eaten berries for their supper and had slept under a tree. They were immediately taken to their distracted mother, who had passed a night of anguish on their account.—Philadelphia Ledger.

—Sherman T. Hughes, formerly of this vicinity was brought to jail on Monday last on a charge of obtaining money under false pretense. For some time past he has been traveling for a Philadelphia grocery house and on his arrival in Johnstown recently, he got John W. Owens, one of his customers, to cash a draft on the Philadelphia place, which turned out to be worthless, when Mr. Owens had him arrested and in default of bail he was brought to jail to await a trial. Hughes was married in this place at the Mountain House, on the 6th of June last to Miss Mattie Ferguson, a daughter of a P. R. Railroad conductor residing in Altoona. His wife was with him in Johnstown at the time of his arrest. Since the above was put in type the case has been settled, the prosecution withdrawn, and Hughes was to-day (Thursday) released from jail.

—The marriage of Miss Ella Steiner, of Adamsburg, and Frank Painter, of Greensburg, was to have been solemnized one day last week. Elaborate preparations had been made for the occasion and the little village of Adamsburg, was all agog over the affair. The young man procured the license the evening before and at the hour appointed the invited guests met at the home of the bride, but the room came not, neither has he shown up since and the wedding has been declared off. The friends of the young man cannot account for his actions. The young woman is heart-broken and refuses to be comforted.

—Arrangements have been made for an exciting horse race on the Carrolltown race course on Tuesday, July 29th. The race to be run is two A.M. horses, one "Hot Box," owned by M. J. Nigle, and the other "Dudley," owned by Aaron Thomas. The stakes are $200 a side and a forfeit of $100 each has already been placed in the hands of George Brown, of A. Morris, the owner. The horses are to run a mile under the saddle the best out of three heats. "Hot Box" will be ridden by David Dodd, of Lancaster, while Aaron Burley, of Altoona, will hold down the saddle on "Dudley." The race will come off at 1 o'clock, p. m.

—Henry Rebe, of Allegheny township, on Tuesday last met with an unfortunate accident which will cripple him for some time. His children had made a swing in the barn, partly with a chain fastened to a beam above the threshing floor. The swing when not in use was thrown up over the beam. On Tuesday Mr. Rebe went to get the swing down and to do so, jumped up to swing the chain off the beam, when the hook in the chain caught in the heart of his hand, tearing into the flesh and holding him there with the tips of his toes barely touching the floor. He was unable to extricate himself and remained there until his call for assistance brought his wife to his aid. She tried to lift him up but could not and finally got a broom and put under his feet, when he was released from his painful position and fell fainting to the floor. He soon revived, however, and had his hand dressed but it is extremely painful and it will be some time before he will have the use of it.

—J. Wilkinson & Son, marble and granite dealers of Ebensburg, Pa., wish to inform the public that they are prepared to fill all orders for cemetery work, in either marble or granite, at figures that defy competition. The artistic excellence and superior workmanship of their designs are evidenced by the many specimens now on exhibition at their establishment and by the numerous designs which they have erected in the various cemeteries in this county and elsewhere. Every department of their business is in the hands of skillful and competent workmen, who are capable of executing any piece of work from the plainest to the most elaborate, which together with the personal supervision that every job receives is a guarantee that perfect satisfaction will be given to the most exacting of patrons. They ordered forty tons of marble which arrived in April, and now have as fine, if not the finest, stock on the best marble that ever came to Western Pennsylvania. Persons wishing anything in the line would do well to give them a call before leaving their order with any other manufacturer, as you can depend upon getting a good job at a fair price.

Killed on His Engine.
Engineer Matt Vandevander, who formerly ran on the Pittsburgh division of the Pennsylvania railroad, a native of Hunt-don county, brother of R. H. Vandevander, of Bellwood, and Mrs. J. T. Tennis, of Altoona, was killed on his engine on last Friday night in a fight with his freeman at Van Wert, Ohio. The train which they were handling on its arrival at Van Wert, collided with a switch engine and came to a standstill when engineer Vandevander and fireman Roadhouse, were found insensible, the former dying on Saturday about noon. The fireman on regaining consciousness said a strange man suddenly jumped into the cab while they were running and using a heavy long handled hammer used in breaking coal struck Vandevander on the head, falling to the floor. After heading down Roadhouse, the assailant dealt Vandevander several more blows, and then jumped off the engine. Detectives however, arrested fireman Roadhouse, on suspicion and he afterward confessed that he and Vandevander had been quarreling all along the trip, and among other things, Vandevander accused him of reporting him for drinking. When the train neared Van Wert the engineer rushed at Roadhouse with a curse, saying he would kill him. With that he dealt him a blow on the face, knocking him down and cutting his head. When Roadhouse recovered he picked up the hammer and raised several blows on his head, knocking him insensible. Roadhouse controlled the engine so he could have checked it at the railroad crossing had any train been in. Just before running into the switch engine Roadhouse says Vandevander raised up and he dealt him another blow which killed him. Roadhouse is in jail and threats of lynching have been freely made.
