—On Thursday night of last week, a large black bear made its appearance in the residence of Mrs. Buz, in Summerhill township, and attempted to carry off a pig.

—When you buy a lamp chimney you will find that you will not get the best unless you buy a lamp chimney from the maker. A lamp chimney thus treated has been known to last for years. No degree of heat will break them.
—George Stormer, a seventeen-year-old son of Mr. John Stormer, of Johnstown, had his right leg ground off by the cars near the freight station in this city, on Wednesday evening, while attempting to jump from a moving freight train. His left foot was so badly crushed and he is in a precarious condition.

—Mr. Peter Wagner, a prosperous merchant of Homestead Pa., accompanied by his wife, is stopping at Maple Park, where they intend remaining for a couple of weeks. Mr. Wagner, who some time five years ago had a store in the Tudor building in this place, is remembered by many friends who will be glad to know that both time and fortune are smiling favorably upon him.
—Mr. E. D. Crosswell, of this place, has the contract for furnishing the poles along the line of the New York and Chicago Cable and Telegraph Company, between this place and Hollidaysburg. The poles are to be 30 feet long, seven inches in diameter at the top and are to be delivered at the place of use. The contractor has a capacity of five hundred thousand gallons, is supplied from three artesian wells each 180 feet deep. Two hundred thousand dollars are invested by the company and about four million feet of poles are being cut.

—On Tuesday Mrs. Joseph Matthews, the wife of a prominent citizen of Braddock, appeared on the threshold of her house, on Pittman avenue, and fired a revolver at a crowd of boys on the opposite side of the street. The bullet struck Samuel Young, aged twelve years, in the leg without inflicting serious injury. Mrs. Matthews, who is an invalid, says that the boys have been annoying her constantly.

The remains accompanied by the grief-stricken parents, went to Dayton on Monday night.

—Cholera Morbus can be easily checked, in nine cases out of ten, by the use of the following, which any druggist can fill: Tincture capsicum, laudanum, tincture of rhubarb, spirit of camphor and essence of peppermint, of each two drams, mix and take from 15 to 30 drops every half hour until relieved. This has been known to cure some of the worst cases in a short time. No family should be without it during the hot season.
—Mr. Charles Wharton, who for several years past has been engaged in the mercantile business at Chest Springs, will next week remove from there to Dyars, on the Coalport railroad, where he will continue in the same business in a room recently erected by J. & A. —Harry Marsh, who is confined in the jail for the murder of Clara Shaskaft, attempted to commit suicide on last Wednesday night by cutting a vein in his arm. The cutting was done with a piece of wire secured by breaking a lamp chimney. He made two cuts, one about midway between the elbow and the shoulder and the other on the wrist. Neither of the cuts severed an artery, but only the smaller veins. After bleeding for some time, his courage failed him and he called for Warden Young who called in a physician and stopped the flow of blood. Marsh since his incarceration has become very low spirited and says that sleeping or waking the presence of the murdered girl is continually before him.
—A writer says that the proper way to clothe one's feet cheaply is to buy several pairs of shoes at a time and never wear any of them out. Shoes worn twice a week will last for years. A pair of shoes worn every day will not last more than a few months. When a man wears the same pair or shoes every day, the strain comes on the same places in the shoes and the same parts of the feet, the shoes get damp and the feet are not relaxed except at night. When a man steps into a mud puddle or gets rained on one day, the leather, by the next day is not in a condition to be worn, while if the shoes were put away and laid stand over a night, they should be a right again and might even be better for having been wet.

—J. Wilkinson & Son, marble and granite dealers of Ebensburg, Pa., wish to inform the public that they are prepared to fill all orders for cemetery work, in either marble or granite, at figures that defy competition. The artistic excellence and superior workmanship of their designs are evidenced by the many specimens now on exhibition at their establishment and by the numerous designs which they have erected in the various cemeteries in this county and elsewhere. Every department of their business is in the hands of capable and competent workmen, who are capable of executing any piece of work from the plainest to the most elaborate, which together with the personal supervision that every job receives is a guarantee that perfect satisfaction will be given to the most exacting of patrons. They ordered forty tons of marble which arrived in April, and now have as fine a stock as any dealer in the best marble that ever came to Western Pennsylvania. Persons wishing anything in the line would do well to give them a call before leaving their order with any other manufacturer, as you can depend upon getting a good job at fair price.

—The Farmers of Cambria County, Pa., July 25th, 1896.
Dear Sirs:—The conditions by which we are surrounded require upon our part special efforts and new methods to maintain the interests of our business, in competition with the energetic and unscrupulous methods adopted by corporations in this State and elsewhere.
All other industries are controlled and their interests protected by organizations—the concentration of the influence of all interested for their specific objects. The great success that has been gained by trusts, syndicates, corporations and stock companies not only prevent the value of organized effort, but also points out the way for farmers to meet successfully the depressed condition of their own business. Overburdened with an unjust proportion of taxes (farmers pay about five per cent. on their valuation or fifty mills on the dollar, while corporations pay three mills), brought to the verge of ruin by the destruction of our farms by excessive rain storms, followed by drought and famine, we are constrained by a condition which will soon drive the farmer to seek other means of obtaining a livelihood. Our most serious need is to organize and demand, as one man, that these and other wrongs be righted, and to demand that the burdens of government shall be borne alike by all classes of property. We have the power and the majority. Let us organize with the farmers of our State and of the United States. Already there are upwards of three million farmers organized for self-protection. This appeal is made to all. Let every farmer heed it. Failure now would make a life effort in the future impossible. Turn out, then, farmers of Cambria county irrespective of party. Save yourselves from financial ruin while yet you may. Organization, determination and perseverance are our only weapons. If we yield them to enemies determined to win—our success is assured.
LUCK REIS,
President Farmers' League.

—Mamie Weaver, of this place, aged 16 years, and Annie Ansell, of Mt. Pleasant, were arrested in Pittsburg on Wednesday night by Policeman Jas. McLaughlin, and given in charge of the matron at Central station. At the hearing McLaughlin stated that he had found the girls wandering about the streets at 2 o'clock in the morning. The girls allege that the officer followed them to their boarding house, where he made improper proposals, and when they resented the insult, he arrested them. Miss Weaver has been attending school at Loretto, Pa. She recently met Miss Ansell, and the two, on the advice of Miss Ansell, left their homes and came to Pittsburg to find employment. Miss Weaver was taken home by her sister. Her companion was turned over to Agent Dean. Officer McLaughlin was suspended from the force.—Greenburg Democrat.

—Facts Worth Knowing.
In all diseases of the nasal mucous membrane the remedy used must be non-irritating. The medical profession has been slow to realize this. Nothing satisfactory can be accomplished with powders, snuffs, or sprays because they are all irritating, do not thoroughly reach the affected surfaces and should be abandoned as worse than failures. A multitude of persons who had for years borne all the worry and pain that catarrh can inflict testify to radical cures wrought by Ely's Cream Balm.
