JOHN BOYLE O'LEARY, the poet and editor of The Boston Pilot, died suddenly of heart failure at his summer residence in Hull about 4 o'clock Sunday morning.

ON and after September 1 it will be unlawful in New York for any child actually or apparently under sixteen years of age to smoke or in any way use cigars, cigarettes, or tobacco in any form whatever in any public street, place or resort.

EVEN Senator Ingalls broke away from his party and voted with the Democrats on several amendments to the McKinley bill.

CHAIRMAN KEEL, of the Democratic State Committee, has leased the premises 1416 North Penn Square, Philadelphia, for the Pattison campaign.

THE organs of monopoly continue to abuse Senator Pumb because he thinks the McKinley bill is a humbug measure and has the courage to say so.

DR. ALVAN MCCLANE HAMILTON, who has studied and written since 1873 on the application of electricity to the human body, has after many experiments, come to the conclusion that electrical excitation is a humbug, and avows his belief that carbonic acid gas introduced secretly by concealed pipes into a lethal chamber would furnish the ideal of civilized extermination for murderers.

THE commission of judges appointed two years ago by Governor Beaver to decide the entangled judgeship in Lycoming county, between Benjamin Bentley, the Republican contestant, and John Metzger, the Democratic incumbent, decided on Tuesday in favor of the latter.

THE national debt statement for August 1 shows an increase in the debt of the United States during the month of July of $46,000,000.75.

THE President, it seems, is tired of Cape May, says the Detroit Free Press, and will establish the Summer capital of the United States in Pennsylvania.

OKLAHOMA has proved to be anything but the golden land of promise that was anticipated. It is only a little over a year since there was a grand rush to prospect land there, and people trampled over each other in their haste for possession.

THE old bull-nose coupler, which has been used for many years by the Pennsylvania railroad company, is at last to be displaced and the improved Jenny coupler will fill the vacancy.

SIX weeks have elapsed, says the Harrington Patriot, since the nomination of Senator Delamater for Governor was made by the Republican State Convention, and it is now a month since ex-Governor Pattison was placed before the people by the Democrats as their choice for the gubernatorial office.

THE Republican opponents of Delamater demanded the nomination of Ex-Governor Pattison from the Democrats. While a large portion of the Democracy of the State desired that the ex-Governor should be nominated on account of his record as a political reformer, his nomination was undoubtedly due, in the main, to the pledges made by anti-Delamater Republicans to support him if nominated and to their open requests that the Democrats should make him their candidate.

NEVERTHELESS it becomes the Democracy to bestir themselves so as to be in form to do their full duty at the polls. The preliminary work of the canvass is just beginning. Registration, assessment and naturalization require immediate attention.

IT is not a myth, asserts the Daily Telegraph, that the senior Senator from Kansas wants to be re-elected and evidently sees that the west is down on McKinley's measure "like a thousand of bricks."

THE fact that Mr. Pattison made a good Governor is as firmly fixed in the minds of his political opponents as in the minds of his political associates. The doubt whether Mr. Delamater would serve the first, or whether he would serve Mr. Quay first and the people afterward, is quite as strongly and generally entertained by Republicans as by Democrats.

THE commission of judges appointed two years ago by Governor Beaver to decide the entangled judgeship in Lycoming county, between Benjamin Bentley, the Republican contestant, and John Metzger, the Democratic incumbent, decided on Tuesday in favor of the latter.

A CAREFUL analysis of Mr. Blaine's recollection scheme, says the Philadelphia Herald, discloses the fact that it is a most dangerous and reprehensible proposition. So far as it contemplates reciprocity it is a failure, for the reason that it will not open a market for another barrel of pork.

THE principal of reciprocity is one that would naturally commend itself to a business people. It implies an increase of trade, a broadening of markets and an improvement in business.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 10.—Throughout the monotonous proceedings of the Federal election here was a constant refrain: "I shall vote against the Federal election bill, whatever form it may assume. I am opposed to it in principle and in its details."

WASHINGTON, Aug. 10.—Senator Cameron has openly declared against the Federal election bill. He was asked: "What shall I do?" he replied, "I shall vote against the Federal election bill, whatever form it may assume."

THE 400,000 new names that are expected to be added to the pension list will pass out to the pension agents to the extent of $4,000,000.

Railroad Strike.

NEW YORK, Aug. 9.—The strike of the employees on the New York Central and Hudson River Railroad was begun at 7:30 o'clock last night. Not a train has left the depot at Forty-second street since that hour. The Grand Union hotel is crowded with passengers expected to leave the city and had engaged passage for various points.

THE whole question of the liquor traffic is now in the hands of the people of the several States. If they choose to legislate, as in Iowa and Kansas, so as to violate the personal rights of the people themselves, No American State has ever submitted to despotic enactments, even when invoked with the name of the gods.

NEW YORK, August 11.—The strike upon the New York Central Railroad is practically at an end, and the employees of that road have returned to work. The strike had been the most crushing defeat that has befallen any big labor organization in many years.

THE object of this movement was to break down dissenting tendencies which were creeping into the ranks of the church and to restore the respect for all ecclesiastical institutions and customs. The movement also aimed at correcting all errors of doctrinal tendencies.

The Original Package Act.

President Harrison signed the Wilson Original Package Act on Friday and that measure is now a law of the land. Serious as may be the misgivings in regard to the principle of this legislation, its practical value consists in the fact that it will at once put an end to the scandalous evasions of the liquor law in many of the States.
