The public schools open on Monday.

WHEELER, Fayette county, on Thursday of last week, an entire orchard was wiped from the face of the earth by a terrible storm which rained over that section. Not a single tree remained.

The residence of Jacob Cox, near Bell-wood, Blair county, was burglarized on Thursday evening of last week and $150 stolen. The money belonged to Samuel Cox, and was taken from a bureau drawer.

A coal-train while descending the eastern slope of the mountain on the Belle Gas railroad on Thursday of last week, jumped the track in the vicinity of Bellewood, wrecking the entire train and injuring three brakemen, but not seriously.

Some counties in Pennsylvania actually show a decrease of population since 1880. This is the case with Wayne, Monroe and Pike counties, which have a decrease of 800, 500 and 275, respectively.
Susquehanna county has been at a standstill since 1880.

Jacob Taylor, of Todd township, Huntingdon county, has suffered long from rheumatism, and now as a result, one of his limbs is gradually dying. Operation is necessary to save his life, and on account of his extreme old age the operation is very dangerous and he will not consent to it.

A new mail route has been established between Ebensburg, and Kimmel, Indiana county. The route is by way of Felera and Nicktown, leaving Ebensburg on Tuesdays and Saturdays. Felera is the name of the new post office at Evans' mill, eight miles northwest of Ebensburg.

A railroad laborer at Williamsport was waiting an old iron from under the rails lost his hold and fell. At the moment a pick in the hands of another man was brought down, the sharp point entering the prostrate man's spine. His extremities are paralyzed and his condition is serious.

While the borough council is pondering over the question as to where to locate the new water works, they are also taking into consideration the feasibility of tapping the Blacklick creek west of town, near what is known as Todd's meadow. There they have an abundant supply of water for years to come. The building of the new dam five years ago was a piece of folly that can only be equalled and repeated by building another dam on the next largest stream of water. If the council waters it should go to the largest stream for its supply. If it wants to build a new dam every five years, there are several locations that they should take into consideration in feeling away the people's money.

Soon after Harry Marsh was looked up in the Ebensburg jail for the murder of Clara Shakhoff, some of his Galitzin friends undertook to raise a purse for his defense. They succeeded in collecting about $100 and had contracted with a lawyer to look after the prisoner's interests. They paid the lawyer part of his fee and agreed to pay the remainder at a certain time. Instead, however, of handing over the remainder of the fee, they wrote the attorney saying they had concluded to retain the money to pay Marsh's general expenses. This, of course, terminated the lawyer's connection with the case, and Marsh is now without counsel. It is presumed one will be accused him by the Court. -Johnson Tribune.

Isn't it strange that not one cook in city, nor housekeeper, either, knows how to boil an egg. And yet most people think they know this simple matter. They will tell you to drop it into boiling water and let it remain three minutes, and to be sure the water is boiling. Here is where the mistake is made. An egg so prepared is hardly fit for a well person, let alone one who is sick, to eat. The moment it is thrown into boiling water the white hardens and toughens. To boil an egg properly put it in a vessel covered with cold water, place it over the fire, and the second the water begins to bubble, turn off the stove.
The white is as delicate as a jelly, and as easily digested and nutritious, as it should be.

J. Wilkinson & Son, marble and granite dealers of Ebensburg, Pa., wish to inform the public that they are prepared to fill all orders for cemetery work, in either city or granite. Their designs are superior. The designs are made to order, and are superior workmanship of their designs are evidenced by the many specimens now on exhibition at their establishment and by the numberless designs which they have erected in the various cemeteries in this city and elsewhere. Every department of their business is in the hands of skillful and competent workmen, who are capable of executing any piece of work from the plainest to the most elaborate, which requires the use of machinery, and their every job receives in a guarantee that their satisfaction will be given to the most exacting of patrons. They ordered forty tons of marble which arrived in April, and now have as few, if not the finest, stock on hand as any dealer in the West. They are now in the line of world to give them a call before leaving their order with any other manufacturer, as you can depend upon getting a good job at a fair price.

On Thursday evening of last week Edward Shoemaker, of this place, started to drive to Greenock, in a harness and a buggy. When about two miles from town, at the foot of the Hill near the Hanger farm, the team became unmanageable, upset the buggy, threw Mr. Shoemaker out and ran off. After running a quarter of a mile the team ran into a boggy going in the same direction which was occupied by William Ludwig and wife, of this place. Mr. Ludwig was thrown out and his team ran off dragging him a short distance by the lines, which by his buggy, throwing Mrs. Ludwig out. Mr. Ludwig's team became detached from the vehicle when it upset and after running a short distance, stopped.
The first runaway team, when they struck Mr. Ludwig's buggy were thrown off their feet, and also when they were thrown off they were caught by Mr. William Carney, who happened to be on the road at the time.
Mr. Shoemaker, and Mr. and Mrs. Ludwig, were all considerably bruised and scratched but fortunately escaped serious injury.
The horses in both teams escaped uninjured.
Both vehicles were badly wrecked, that of Mr. Ludwig, faring worse than that of Mr. Shoemaker.

on September 26th to 29th, all day comprising the best horses in Cambria and adjoining counties. The races will far exceed any ever held there while the other features will be on a grander scale than formerly. The Loretto Cornet and other bands will attend the occasion. The management of the Association has spared no expense to make the Fair the best ever held in the county.

Robbery at Lilly.
On Saturday evening, while the family of Mr. Evan Griffith, of Lilly, were absent at church, thieves entered the house and took therefrom some jewelry, two hundred dollars in money, Mr. Griffith being uncertain as to the exact amount. The entrance to the house was effected by raising a window, and as no being in the house was discovered, the family on their return from church were informed of the robbery and did not discover their loss until Monday morning when on entering the military store of the Misses Griffiths, daughters of Mr. Griffith, and in the same building, it was found that the money drawer was missing and its contents, which amounted to about fifteen dollars. A further examination resulted in the discovery that about three hundred dollars had been taken from a trunk in the bedroom of Mr.
Griffith. As yet there is but very little, if any clue to the robbers but the supposition that it was done by some one who was acquainted with the premises and aware that the family were at church, seems to be well founded and may lead to the detection of the guilty party.

Since the above was in type we learn that a young man named George Linzerfelt was arrested on Tuesday, suspected of being connected with the robbery, and on Wednesday was given a hearing and brought to jail to await trial for the offence.
Linzerfelt is a resident of Lilly and had formerly worked for Mr. Griffith.

Miss Twidlers.
The following dispatch from Brookville shows how a citizen of Jefferson county was swindled out of a nice sum of money:
"Two strangers here at Brookville, Pa., had a lively talk here and drove out to the farm of Joseph Matson, in Union township, where they entered into negotiations for the purchase of Mr. Matson's farm. The sale was soon arranged, and Matson to receive $5,000 cash. The purchasers there produced a New York sight draft for $5,000, but Matson did not have enough money to give the difference, and they prevailed upon him to drive into town and get the amount, which he did by depositing a note at the Jefferson county Bank and borrowing the balance."

Supplied with $1300, Matson hastened back to consummate the sale, the purchasers meeting him at a spring some distance from the house, where he was supposed to have a drink, when the men produced revolvers and by threatening to shoot their victim, forced him to hand over the $1300. They then jumped into the buggy and drove off, presumably on the afternoon train.

Matson was so badly frightened he admitted that he did not even tell his own family of his loss until a late hour that night, and even then did not make his loss public, thus giving the sharpers plenty of time to get away with the money."

formerly worked for Mr. Griffith.

Miss Twidlers.
The following dispatch from Brookville
shows how a citizen of Jefferson county was
swindled out of a nice sum of money:
a lively talk here and drove out to the
was soon arranged, and Matson to receive $5,000
cash. The purchasers there produced a
did not have enough money to give the dif-
he did by depositing a note at the Jeff-
ance."

Supplied with $1300, Matson hastened back
a drink, when the men produced revolvers
and by threatening to shoot their victim,
forced him to hand over the $1300. They
then jumped into the buggy and drove off,
presumably on the afternoon train.

Matson was so badly frightened he ad-
ey."

Robbery at Lilly.
On Saturday evening, while the family
at church, thieves entered the house and
uncertain as to the exact amount. The entrance to the house was effected by raising
did not discover their loss until Monday
of the Misses Griffiths, daughters of Mr. Griffith, and in the same building, it
taken from a trunk in the bedroom of Mr.
any clue to the robbers but the supposition
that it was done by some one who was ac-
the guilty party.

brought to jail to await trial for the offence.
formerly worked for Mr. Griffith.
