- Died at her home in Ebensirg, on Monday September 8th, 1890, Mrs. Margaret Kittell, in the 76th year of her

The appouncement of the death of Mrs. Kittell, on Monday morning was a surprise and shock to the people of Ebensburg. many of whom had seen her at church on Sunday, in the enjoyment of her usual Benith. She had been troubled with a bronchical affection for a long time but no apprehensions were felt that it would soon terminate fatally or that her death was near at hand. She retired on Sunday n ight in good spirits and seemingly well. About half-past 3 o'clock on Monday morning, her son M. D. Kittell, Esq., was awakened by a rapping at his door and on opening the door found his mother, urable to speak, suffering from a severe hemorage, the blood rushing from her mouth and before anything could be done for her, she expired. Mrs. Kittell was born in Ballymackey. near Dundalk. Ireland in the year 1814 and came to this country with her parents when about two years old. She was married in 1840 to William Kittell, Esq., who was a member of the Cambria county Bar and whose death occurred about twelve years soon after their marriage Mr. and ago. Mrs. Kittell moved to Ebeneburg, which has been the home of the family ever since. Mrs. Kittell, was the mother of nine children, eight of whom survive her, three daughters, Fannie, in religion Sister Bernadine, of the Sisters of Mercy, Pittsburg, Pa., Maud K. wife of Philip Collins and Mrs. Samuel Henry, of Ebensburg, and five sons James A.
