

Democratic State Ticket. For Governor, ROBERT E. PATTISON, of Philadelphia.

Democratic County Ticket. For Congress, THOMAS H. GREVEY. Subject to the decision of Democratic conference.

For Assembly, M. FITZGERALD, of Gallitzin. ED. T. McNEELIS, of Johnstown.

For Justices, WILLIAM C. BERRY, of Wilmore. JOSEPH HEPPEL, of Chest Twp.

Mr. GEORGE W. BOYD, of the Pennsylvania Railroad, arrived at Cresson on Monday morning in Vice President Thompson's private car.

ROBERT RAY HAMILTON, whose trouble with his wife at Atlantic City, New Jersey, caused such a sensation about a year ago, was drowned in Yellowstone Park, Montana.

THERE is one provision of the anti-lottery bill says the Harrisburg Patriot, that is now awaiting the President's signature which confers a rather dangerous power upon the post office officials.

SPEAKER REED'S majority is nearly five thousand but if the next House should be Democratic and the majority follow the precedents established by the Republican majority of the present House, it might be contested.

EX GOVERNOR PATTISON says the Wayne News (Republican), has the unimpeachable record of an honest ruler. He is active, honest, capable, with the traits of extreme idiosyncrasy.

REMEMBER Saturday, October 4th, is the last day for naturalization, and the last day for the payment of taxes. To be qualified to vote, each elector must have paid a State or County tax within two years, and at least one month prior to the election.

THE Republican campaign was opened in Pittsburgh on Saturday evening by holding a Republican meeting at which United States Senator Ingalls, Candidate Delamater and ex-candidate Haastings were the speakers.

THE Democrats of New Hampshire, in the platform adopted on Tuesday, have described the McKinley bill in terms quite as remarkable for their accuracy and justice as for their severity.

THE New York World says that "Maine and Vermont offend each other in the elections this month. In Vermont the Republicans voted at home and the Democrats stayed. As a result the Republican majority was reduced one-half. In Maine both Republicans and Democrats absented themselves."

In all the movements of the organization of the Republican party in Pennsylvania, it is manifest that the principles of "Quayism" are strictly adhered to. Instead of denying, or attempting to answer the charges made against Delamater, the managers of the party campaign have adopted a plan of sowing broadcast throughout the State, in a series of documents of the most remarkable character, the mutilated record of Governor Pattison while in office.

As has been said, these documents are of the most remarkable character. Nothing like them has been imposed upon the intelligence of the people of Pennsylvania by the managers of a political party for many a day. Where they failed to insult the intelligence of the people, it is simply because they are too ridiculous to be seriously considered.

The document upon which these acute managers evidently pride themselves most is the one in which they attempt to set forth the alleged hostility of Governor Pattison toward the soldiers. Of course their chief target is his veto of the "Soldiers' Burial Bill," and the lesser ones the veto of a number of personal pension bills.

While engaged in this futile appeal to the prejudices of the soldiers, the Republican managers suddenly recollect how their present standard bearer, Senator G. W. Delamater, on the occasion of his return from the Republican State Convention in 1888, in the midst of an enthusiastic speech at Meadville, "put his foot into it," so to speak, by indicating very plainly that in his opinion "it was time for the 'old soldier' to take a back seat and give the young man a chance."

At last Chris Magee, than whom there is scarcely a more popular Republican in the State, has taken the matter up. He has at last come out square against the Republican State ticket. He says very plainly that he doesn't want to have anything to do with Quay, and he can't support Delamater because he can't support Quay's man.

A BILL was introduced in the House on Tuesday for the erecting of a statue in the city of Washington to the memory of John Ericsson at the cost of $50,000.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 15.—Senator Quay is being put in a bad position by the demands made on him from various parts of the State to furnish distinguished speakers from Washington to fill campaign engagements. The bad standing in which Senator Quay finds himself is the result of the fact that his fellow Senators and the leading Republicans in Washington, makes it extremely difficult for him to comply with these requests.

The Philadelphia Daily News, one of the leading Republican papers of that city, which announces its refusal to support Delamater, in its issue of Sept. 22, says: "A number of respectable newspapers in this city and in other cities in Pennsylvania, are trying, in vain, to prove that Delamater is not a puppet."

THE discussion in the Republican party produced, not so much by an aversion for Mr. Delamater as by the determination to rescue the party from the dishonor into which the selfishly selfish and unprincipled Republicanism finds in the fear that the grand old party is being led into corruption by a leasable stimulus to the discharge of duty.

THE country has been disgraced in the eyes of the world by the shameful scandals which have characterized the course of Reed as speaker. The leaders themselves have been disgraced in fashion, and have amply testified their unworthiness to be entrusted with the affairs of the Nation.

THE publication of the expurgated and mitigated version of Congressman Kennedy's speech in the Congressional Record is a fraud upon the public. The portions now omitted were not uttered hastily in the heat of debate. They were, like the rest of the address, written down and read from a manuscript carefully prepared.

IT is evident that the Chairman of the Republican National Committee has not been entirely successful in his attempt to compel an apparently daring opponent to give down words. For omitting from a speech such vulgarities and obscenities as Cannon uttered in the heat of discussion there might be some excuse in the necessity of preserving decency in the presence of the public.
