

Democratic State Ticket. For Governor, ROBERT E. PATTON, of Philadelphia.

Democratic County Ticket. For Congress, THOMAS H. GREVY. For Assembly, M. FITZGERALD, of Gallitzin.

Vote the straight Democratic ticket from top to bottom.

If you want an honest man in the executive chair at Harrisburg, vote for Robert E. Patton for Governor.

Beware of false rumors, got out on the eve of the election for the purpose of capturing voters. Vote the straight Democratic ticket.

Get out every Democratic vote and swell Patton's majority in Cambria county to 1,000. It should not be any less than that figure.

The election of Robert E. Patton, as the next Governor of Pennsylvania, depends entirely upon getting out the full Democratic vote. Get the vote out.

Present indications point to the election of Ex-Governor Patton by a large majority. At Democratic headquarters in Philadelphia they put his majority at not less than 36,000.

Four hundred and thirty-two Democratic societies in Pennsylvania outside of Philadelphia have reported to Secretary Worman that they have appointed vigilance committees to work on election day.

The nomination of Scull as the Republican candidate for Governor in this district is a bitter pill to swallow by the Republicans of Blair, and Bedford, and by a number in Cambria county. Next Tuesday will tell how they take their medicine.

It is said that Boss Quay, at present is very uncertain as to the probability of his ever "owning a Governor of his own." It is his last chance and the price of Governor, like everything else, excepting wages, since the McKinley bill has advanced to a much higher figure than heretofore.

TOM MARSHALL speaks rather irreverently of our Pennsylvania United States Senators. He says: "One is the son of his father and the other is the father of his son Dick." Tom is on the stump every day for Patton, and he gives positive assurance that Allegheny county will give Patton a majority.

In England, Scotland and Wales, women, unless married, vote for all officers except members of Parliament, and some of them now hold offices as school directors, aldermen and city councilmen, and a bill has now been introduced to give them, whether married or single, the absolute right of suffrage.

A STREAM cannot rise higher than its source and the election of Delamater for Governor, would be but a perpetuation of the rule of Quay, who is responsible for the nomination of Delamater as the Republican candidate for Governor. Vote for Patton for Governor and insure an honest, upright administration of the executive office in Pennsylvania for the next four years.

A MEETING of the Importers of New York was held on Tuesday which had under consideration the McKinley bill. Secretary McKeever said he had talked with numerous lawyers and it was nearly an unanimous opinion among them that the act was unconstitutional because of the omission of section 50. A committee was appointed to devise some united mode of action and report back at a subsequent meeting.

THE dead-lock in the Republican Congressional conference in this place, was broken at two o'clock this (Thursday) morning by the re-nomination of Congressman Scull, by lottery. Twelve names were placed in a hat, six by Scull, three by Hicks, and three by Cessna, when a party was blindfolded and drew one of the names out. The three remaining were to make the nomination and as two of them happened to be for Scull, the sentiment of the Republicans in this congressional district was declared to favor his nomination for Congress.

LAST week the postmaster at Bellefonte, refused to mail the edition of the Democrat of that place, containing a supplement with the New York World's charges against Matthew Stanley Quay, until the objectionable supplement was taken out of each paper. The Bellefonte postmaster was either suffering from "big head" or thought Matthew Stanley Quay was the government, and that anything derogatory to the afore-said Quay, ought not to pass through the mails. Postmaster General Wana-maker, on being appealed to decided that it was a case of "big head" on the part of the postmaster, and that the Democrat was entitled to be mailed with the supplement.

THE Johnstown Tribune, of Monday, after publishing the card of the FURNAN offering a reward for the conviction of any person violating the election laws, published in another column, comments as follows:

We do not know why Mr. Henson thus goes back on his part of offering a reward for the conviction of those who work to the interests, for this is really what the above means, if it means anything, as the Democrats have done in the case of bad conduct in this county, from the counting of names on the sidewalks of Washington township to the counting of the votes in Cambria City, year after year, and putting none but Democrats on the Board, with the presumed intention and apparent action of the Board in counting by few Democratic votes.

Other places there may be in which there have been long-continued and systematic frauds and bull-dozing, but unless the Republicans of the Cambria districts are very far off in their statement of facts they do not get their votes counted as cast. The Tribune evidently forgets the fact that the count of the names on the sidewalks in Washington township as voters, was done by the opposition to the Democratic ticket and not by or for the Democratic party. Mr. Abel Lloyd, of Harrisburg, who is a well-known Republican to-day, but who at the time the Washington township tabulations were voted and counted was a Democrat and a candidate for County Commissioner on the Democratic ticket and the counting of the Washington township tabulations in favor of Lewis Fisher, the Republican candidate, defeated Mr. Lloyd. Mr. Lloyd, the Democratic candidate contested the election, exposed the fraud, and secured his office as a county commissioner.

The Tribune's assertion that "the Democrats alone have been guilty of bad conduct in this county" will be regarded as a huge joke by the depositors in the wrecked bank of Lloyd & Co. when they remember that that institution went down under the severe strain of corrupting voters and giving the Republican party a foothold in Cambria county. All the glories of the Republican party in Cambria county in the past have been attained by bodice and their only hope in the future lies in the same unclean, debauchery of the people.

The promissory with which Governor Patton summoned his detractors into Court, says the Philadelphia Herald, presents a sharp contrast with the action of Delamater under similar conditions. It exhibits the difference between an upright, honest and manly citizen, conscious of his integrity and strong in the right, and a smirched and sneaky politician, afraid of the truth.

The story upon which this malicious libel against Governor Patton was based is so palpably false that only the most reckless or the most vicious purveyors of slander would have given it encouragement or currency. The direct, positive and unequivocal testimony of Governor Patton, ex-Secretary Stenger and Judge Gordon was not necessary to disprove it in the minds of intelligent men, but honorable men will not submit to unjust aspersions, and they were justified in thus resending the outrage put upon them by the Inquirer and the North American. There is no privileged communication in a down-right and vicious lie, and the Court will be as ready to vindicate Governor Patton as they would have been to punish the detractors of Delamater if he had been innocent of the charges preferred by Senator Emery. Meantime the public will have an opportunity to compare the difference between honesty and dishonesty under accusation and the people will have a new guide to determine their minds in making up their ballots on the 4th of November.

JUSTUS C. STRAWBRIDGE, chairman of the Lincoln Independent Republicans, says the Doylestown Intelligencer (Rep.) has addressed an open letter to Mr. Quay, asking him to give permission to Hon. Wayne MacVeagh to tell what he knows about the payment of $100,000, by Senator Cameron, to make good the alleged deficiency in the Pennsylvania State Treasury, caused by Quay's speculations. The letter declares that either Mr. MacVeagh will substantially corroborate the charge or the Lincoln Independents will, in the event of his failure to do so, withdraw their allegations and apologies for their mistake. Will Quay meet the challenge? Can he meet it?

If he can and does it will be the best thing for himself he has done in many months. If he does not, it will be only because he cannot, and the effect will be but a corroboration of the damning charges already piled up mountain high against himself and threatening to engulf both him and his candidate on the 4th of November. A prompt and unequivocal answer is now the alternative for Mr. Quay as against stronger and deeper and broader censure and condemnation by honest men everywhere. No middle course is open. The challenge must be met or ignored—and the latter is confession.

DURING the presidential campaign the workmen were sold by subversive monopolistic organs, says the Harrisburg Patriot, that the election of Harrison would be followed by an increase of wages, but the increase never came. It was a campaign lie pure and simple. These same organs not long ago declared that the passage of the McKinley bill meant better pay for the wage-worker, and again they lied. The McKinley bill has already put up prices on the necessities of life, but it hasn't put a penny in the pocket of any worker, and furthermore, it never will. It is difficult to understand how the organs that uphold tariff robbery can have the impudence to attempt to hood-wink the workmen year after year with their falsehood about protection. They are a disgrace to honest journalism.

MAYOR FITZGER, of Philadelphia, has decided that an enumeration of the city's population shall be made by the municipal authorities. The correctness of the census taken by the Federal authorities is doubted.

Delamater is Beaten!

We believe that Delamater is beaten, hopelessly and largely beaten, in the race for Governor. There is revolution in every county of the State, and in every district of every county, against the political aims and methods of Senator Quay and Senator Delamater, while not only the inspiration of politics and constitutional government, but also the inspiration of assured victory, unites and enlivens to active effort the solid Democratic vote of the State.

With six or seven daily Republican journals of Pittsburgh openly opposing Delamater, with Delbert, the nationally-renowned Republican candidate for Congress, denouncing Quay and refusing to urge Delamater's election, and with a Pittsburgh Republican organization, extending to every district of the county Allegheny, the Republican Gibraltar of the West, is certain to fail. Quay's immediate Senatorial and Congressional districts are both in jeopardy, and his own Senatorial and Congressional districts of Venango, Warren, McKean and Forest, will elect him to Congress by 3,000 because he has lost Quay's constituency.

The Tribune's assertion that "the Democrats alone have been guilty of bad conduct in this county" will be regarded as a huge joke by the depositors in the wrecked bank of Lloyd & Co. when they remember that that institution went down under the severe strain of corrupting voters and giving the Republican party a foothold in Cambria county. All the glories of the Republican party in Cambria county in the past have been attained by bodice and their only hope in the future lies in the same unclean, debauchery of the people.

Forty Points in Patton's Record.

A staines private life. A succession of victories at the polls. A CONTROLLER. Public records thrown open. Rogues' lists exposed. Outdoor receipts of Almshouse, amounting to $26,308.51, traced up and recovered.

Exposure of Almshouse thefts, amounting to $570,000, and punishment of thieves. Exposure of delinquencies in Register of Wills office. Discrepancy of $119,000 in tax payments uncovered.

Payment of poll-taxes into City Treasury unforced—previous City Treasurers had gone into the pockets of Tax Office clerks. Interest on city warrants reduced, saving $100,000 per annum. Demanded politicians forced to pay their taxes like other persons. City debt refunded.

City finances established on pay-as-go basis. He was a Controller who controlled. AS GOVERNOR. The youngest in the history of the State. Enforced the Constitution. Opposed railroad discriminations. Prevented unlawful consolidation of railroads. Attacked dangerous combinations of carriers.

Contended for the equal rights of shippers. Checked corporate encroachments. Proceeded against Sinking Fund Commissioners, who kept State money in favored banks instead of investing it in government bonds, as required by law. Reduced State debt five million dollars. Reduced expenses of State administration. Substituted salaries for fees.

Subjected accounts of public institutions to rigid audit. Stopped waste of money in worthless public printing. Urged Legislature to equalize taxes. Labored for abolition of State Board of Health and the State Board of Agriculture, as they are supposed to contain cholera germs. Fire in New York on Wednesday evening destroyed the large carpenter shop of the Pennsylvania agricultural works, owned by B. F. Pennington & Co. (Incubated) and four brick dwellings owned by Samuel Schrum, Mrs. James Spangler, Mrs. Jane Noye and A. B. Paragon. Loss on the carriage shop, about $70,000; insured for about half that amount. It will be immediately replaced.

A party of hunters discovered a remarkable cave a few days ago near Pilot Knob, about four miles from Gettysburg. It was explored to the distance of a half mile or more, and found to contain many rooms or vaulted openings, lined from top to bottom with stalactites, glistening cubes of mineral and other beautiful geological formations. Further investigation of this subterranean wonder is soon to be made. Early on Sunday morning, while hunting near Onondaga, N. Y., a party of young men from Auburn fired a cannon and proceeded to shoot down the tree. Before the hunters were aware of their danger the tree fell over and three of them were struck by the falling branches. William Davis, 30 years of age, was killed outright, a large limb crashing his skull. The other two were soaped with severe bruises and few broken bones.

Two hundred and eighty thousand gallons of water contained in a thousand pipe sections for the construction of a tunnel, Tex., about 3 o'clock on Friday morning and flooded the town. Immense sheets of boiler steel, hundreds of pieces of scaffolding, beams, bars, fuses and all the debris of the surrounding neighborhood were floating in all directions. The people fled in panic, and stood in frightened groups watching the destruction of their homes and property.

The officials of the H. O. Fricke Co. Company were notified on Monday by Frank J. J. Eise, of the United Mine Workers of America, that unless the men who have recently been discharged without cause are reinstated at the same pay and the company will be called out. The company six days will be allowed for the reinstatement of the company to reply. If they fail to accede to the demands of the United Mine Workers it is probable that ten thousand men will be on a strike throughout the coke region next Monday morning. Other companies may also be affected by the strike.

Barnum's circus train in five sections left Mason, Ga., on Tuesday morning for Athens on the Covington and Mason road. Five miles from Athens the train was stopped by a fire which broke out in the rear of the second section, on the end of which was the cooks' car, proceeded by a car containing horses. A man named Kelly, of Kalamazoo, Mich., in the car was killed and another man, whose name is unknown, was hurt. Eight horses in the forward car were killed. The two engines pulling the third section were derailed and badly damaged, as were six or eight cars following. The train of the first engine, Lewis Glenn, was instantly derailed and the engineers of both engines and the other trainmen jumped. The show lost two or three appointments. The tracks were cleared the same night.

A Pennsylvania German has been manacled around Woodstock, Ont., in the guise of a cowboy for some time among the farmers and eating a wild swine. The man of operation was a German settler in Bismarck township, near the scene of the Besswell tragedy. The stranger showed checks amounting in value to $25,000, and whether good or not they mentioned the Besswell tragedy. He purchased several farms in the neighborhood at high figures, giving notes for the payment. He took possession and began to dispose of the poultry and stock. He also succeeded in capturing one of Bismarck's fair daughters, and they were married. But he was arrested on Monday on the charge of horse stealing, and it turns out that he is G. E. Miller, a veterinary surgeon from Pennsylvania, who is wanted here on several charges. It is also charged that he has half a dozen wives in his State.

Hence Johnson, of Middle Haddam, Conn., who is on the way still in the estimation of Connecticut people as a weather prophet, predicts a hard winter. He bases his prediction on the phenomally large bay crop and the hard, thick shells of crabs. He finds that the fur is in triple status thick and very fine. Geese are fatter than usual, and the sign that they are preparing for a long siege. Mr. Johnson paid a man 50 cents to dig out a wood chuck, and more signs were found in the bottom of the burrow. A plink clock hung on a projecting stone, and it has been Mr. Johnson's experience that woodchucks never purchase plink clocks unless the weather is going to be unusually cold. Pumpkin rinds are of the thickest this fall. He has not yet had a goose's head to study, but he is willing to stake his reputation as the Wiggins of Connecticut that it will induce all he claims for the winter.

Remarkable Rescue. Mrs. Michael Curran, Pleasant, Ill., makes the statement that she caught cold, which settled on her lungs, and she was treated for a month by her family physician, but grew worse. Her doctor said she was a hopeless victim of consumption and that no medicine could cure her. Her druggist suggested Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption; she bought a bottle and her doctor said she had herself benefited from first dose she continued. Her use and after taking ten bottles, found herself cured and well, now does her own housework and is as well as ever. Free trial bottles of this great discovery at the drug stores of St. James, Elmberg, and W. McKnight, Toronto. Large bottles $6. and $12.

About three weeks ago a fission broke out among the 1,360 boys being fattened at Hamburg's distillery at Brownsville, Pa. After 300 boys had died the firm stopped the fattening process and the State Board of Health and the State Board of Agriculture are in hot pursuit of the 600 boys, as they are supposed to contain cholera germs.
