Judge Johnston for several years had charge of its editorial columns, and in a great measure was instrumental in establishing it firmly as a Democratic paper in this county. He was a vigorous, graceful writer and the old files are replete with gems of force and wit from his ready pen.

He was twice the candidate of his party for Congress in this district but being in the minority party, he was defeated -in 1864 by Hon. A. A. Barker, of Ebensburg, and in 1866 by Hon. D. J. Morrell, of Johnstown. In 1883 Cambria county became a separate Judicial district and at the Democratic pris mary election Robert 1. Johnston received the nomination of his party, and in November was elected the first President Judge of Cambria county, taking his seat on the judicial beach on the 7th of January-his 60th birthday. Being possessed of a fine legal mind, Judge Johnston, after he obtained admission to the Har, soon attained a high rank in the legal profession. For years before his elevation to the bench, but few cases of any importance were tried in our Cambria county courts that Robert L. Johnston was not employed in, on one side or the other. On the bench his decisions denoted his long legal training and ability, were seldom appealed from and pothought of bias on the part of the Judge was ever entertained by a defeated suitor.
