GOVERNOR HILL according to the New York Sun's Albany letter of Monday has concluded to accept the New York Senatorship, which it is believed, he can have without the asking. This will simplify political matters in the Empire State.

SENATOR CULLOM, of Illinois, is the first of the Republican Senators to catch the new light. He says the Mc-Kinley bill will have to be materially modified before it will be acceptable to the people. The Senator voted for the bill.

THE municipal election heldlin Boston on Tuesday proved another landslide in favor of the Democrats. Last year the Republican candidate for Mays or was elected by 5,600 plurality, while this year Nathan Matthews, Jr., the Democratic candidate is elected by 13 000 plurality. A PHILADELPHIA correspondent says that unless Banker Martin, who cashed a $5,000 check for Delamater last week, is protected from loss he will tell some ugly tales. THE McKinley act, says the Chicago Globe, increases the tariff on windowglass. All of the manufactories from Pitteburg west are controlled by the American Window-Glass company, a "combine," or trust. The promoters takers, met in Chicago recently and advanced the price of window glass five per cent. This is another exemplification of how protection for a few favored monopolists results in the robbery of many.

OF the 175 Republican members in the present House 171 voted or were paired for the force and fraud election bill. Of these only 56 will have seats in the next House, the remaining 117 having failed to be renominated or to be elected-generally the latter, because 137 out of the 171 were renominated. These figures show what the American people think of the force bill. Lat Harrison and Hoar persevere and there won't be a grease spot left of their party in 1892.

For twenty years Congress has permitted the pension agents at Washington to dictate the pension legislation of the country. During this time the flock of pension cormorants has reveled in the plunder of the public Treasury and of the soldier. At last it is discovered, when the extreme limit of profligate legislation has been reached, that the pension agents are of little use as intermediarles, and that the applicants for pensions can have their claims adjusted as rapidly, if not more so, by direct communication with the Government.
