Lines kindly offered by a friend on the death of Joseph, two-year-old son of Francis and Mary Ivory, of St. Augustine, on November 15th

There's a pair of little hands There's a pair of little natus
Laid to rest forever more;
There's two pearly dimpled cheeks
Whose rich blossoming is o'er.
Death has sealed two little eyes
That will no more smile or weep,
Tiny windows of the soul.
Little Josie 's gone to sleep. There's another bud removed
Ere it felt the blight of siu;
Through the door that angels make,
Little Josie has passed in;
Far beyond the asure skies
Will the tiny star-eyes peep.
From all earth's doubts and fears,
Little Josie's gone to sleep. Josie 's gone to sleep. He will wake in fairer lands, Where the angel's voice will sing, where the flowr et shall expand, Then shall love perfection bring; He has reached the golden shore, Through the river cold and deep, Angels bore him safely there,
