----A Sorrowful Christmas week-

From the Johnstown Tribune of Friday last we take the particulars of a fatal shooting accident that occurred on Christ-morning: Joseph Frick and his son George, aged between six and seven years, went out into the woods near their home at Brownstown yesterday (Christmas) morning. The fath-er had with him a breech-loading gun. He shot two loads out of it in the woods. When the father and son returned home the former jokingly remarked to his wife that he was done hunting; that he never got any game and never could see anything it at when he went to the woods. The father put the gun in the corner and ok off his hat and coat, and the boy sat at the end of a table to crack some nuts the weapon was discharged and the ball entered the boy's forehead
