

DISPATCHES were received at Washington by Gen. Schofield from Gen. Miles announcing the end of the Indian troubles in the west. Gen. Miles says: "The entire camp of Indians came into the agency this morning. They moved in three columns while passing under the guns of the command."

The wages of the employees of the Iron Company will be reduced 10 per cent. on the first of February, but the McKinley bill will demand its 60 per cent. for the benefit of tariff-protected monopolies. Wages may go up or down, but the tariff must give its pound of flesh all the time.

SENATOR BLAIR of New Hampshire, has been laid on the cooling board. He will be succeeded by Dr. Jacob H. Gallagher who last week received the Republican caucus nomination for United States senator for that State. Senator Blair had but one hobby, his "Clubb" or "club," and when that was defeated, it was well enough to lay the old fossil away to rest.

The long exile of Ex-Gov. Thayer of Nebraska, the victim of some of the opening of the Legislature, when he remained in his apartments eighty hours for the purpose of keeping out Governor Root, has resulted in a dangerous attack of nervous prostration. The Ex-Governor is now a raving maniac, and his physicians say his condition is alarming, owing to his age. He is nearly 70 years old.

GENERAL HARRISON is taking a hand in the Pennsylvania Senatorial contest against the New York Star and is using all the power of the Administration machine to prevent the re-election of Senator Cameron. It is an interesting episode—the President trying to whip the leaders into support of his Administration and punishing them for their recalcitrance, while they are nearly all eager to cut the President's throat. Harrison is fast losing the respect even of those who use him. No other President has ever stooped so low into petty machine politics as this Indiana man.

A CONCURRENT resolution was adopted by the Senate at Harrisburg, on Monday providing for a committee of three Senators and five Representatives to make a thorough investigation of the present methods of conducting business in the State Treasury, especially in regard to the present system of depositions of the public funds, and to report in time for action at this session of the Legislature what exists, as well as to prepare and recommend such legislation as may be necessary to correct the same. A concurrent resolution was also adopted providing for an investigation of the recent failure of private banking institutions with a view of presenting a bill to cover State and private banks and to protect depositors of the same.

GEORGE BARSTOW, the historian, died at his home in Washington D. C. on Tuesday after a short illness. Owing to his advanced age his death was not unexpected. Mr. Bancroft was born in Worcester, Mass., October 3, 1800. After attaining manhood he spent several years in travel and then returned to his country and devoted his time to literary pursuits. In March, 1845, President Polk called him to a seat in his cabinet as Secretary of the Navy, which he occupied until September, 1846. He resigned to accept the appointment of minister plenipotentiary to Great Britain, where he remained until the Summer of 1849. He then returned to his country and commenced work on his history of the United States. His work in that field places him as one of the ablest historians in the English language.

KING KALAKUA, the ruler of the Sandwich Islands, died at the Palace hotel, in San Francisco, on Wednesday after a brief illness. The deceased monarch was fifty-four years of age and was elected King of the Hawaiian Islands on the 12th of February, 1874. Shortly after his accession to the throne he visited this country and was for the time the guest of this Republic. His second visit was made a short time ago for the purpose of benefitting his health which had been failing for some time. On his arrival he commenced improving, but the improvement was only temporary, and on Monday his case became alarming and he continued to grow worse until the end came on Wednesday afternoon. His remains will be taken back to Honolulu on the United States flag-ship Charleston the latter part of this week. His successor will be elected by the Hawaiian legislature.

SENATOR J. DOS CAMERON was re-elected to the United States Senate from this State, on Tuesday. The Democrats voted for Chauncey F. Black. The vote in full in the House was: Cameron 113; Black, 77; Taggart, 7; Ford, 3; and White, 1. In the Senate all the Republicans voted for Cameron, and all the Democrats, except Logan, of Colorado, and Laubaek, of Northampton, voted for Chauncey F. Black. Senator Logan cast his vote for J. C. Sibley, of Vermont, of the stock-raising firm of Miller & Sibley, and Laubaek was absent. The total vote in both benches was: Cameron, 141; Black, 94; Taggart, 7; Ford, 3; White, 1; Sibley, 1. The Republican opposition to Senator Cameron, which several weeks ago threatened a formidable revolt, amounted to nothing, and continued to grow less when it was discovered that the administration of President Harrison opposed Cameron's re-election.

GOVERNOR BEAVER, Governor-elect Pattison, Lieutenant Governor-elect, Watres the joint committee of the Senate and House and other invited guests assembled at the executive mansion at Harrisburg at 11 o'clock on Tuesday, and a half hour later proceeded to the southwest front of the capitol, under the following escorts:

Chief marshal and aids to chief marshal; Ringgold band, of Reading; the Eighth regiment, National Guard of Pennsylvania, under command of Lieutenant Colonel Hoffman, and the Governor's troop of Harrisburg, Lieutenant F. M. Ott commanding the latter acting as guard of honor. Following carriages came Governor Beaver, Governor-elect Pattison, Chief Justice E. M. Paxson, Hon. Henry D. Green, chairman of the inaugural committee, Lieutenant Governor Davies, Lieutenant Governor-elect Watres, Secretary of Internal Affairs Stewart, Hon. William R. Leeds, Secretary of the State, Hon. J. C. Sibley, Hon. J. M. Cass, Hon. Henry D. Green, chairman of the Supreme Court, Hon. Samuel M. Wherry, Hon. Brewster McCullom, Hon. James T. Michael, Rev. Dr. S. C. Swallow, Hon. George Handly Smith, joint committee of the Senate and House of Representatives; President of the Senate Penrose and Speaker of the House of Representatives Thompson; heads of Departments; William H. H. Harris, William U. Hensel, Captain William McClelland and Humphrey D. Tate, staff of the commandant-in-chief, Judge of the Court of common pleas, J. May, Erie, of Harrisburg, and President Denbury, of common council, and President Hershey, of select council, Major General George R. Snowden, chief, Brigadier General John A. Wiley and staff, Brigadier General Robert P. Dechert and staff. All the military men were in full uniform.

It was 11.50 when the party arrived at the capitol. The crowd in front of the main corridor was immense. The Governor's troop filed up in front of the gray bedecked stand and the Governor was given a rousing cheer as he was drawn through the dense crowd by four spanking horses. The Ringgold band of Reading was stationed to the north of the main corridor and formally opened the ceremonies by rendering a beautiful selection.

When Governor-elect Pattison took his place on the stand someone in the crowd cried: "Turn on the light," and in an instant a deafening cheer went up from more than a thousand throats.

Rev. S. C. Swallow, pastor of the Ridge Avenue church, of Harrisburg, was then introduced by Lieutenant Governor Davies who presided during the ceremonies. Rev. Dr. Swallow offered prayer, after which Chief Clerk of the Senate Stanley read the certificate of election. Chief Justice Paxson then stepped forward and in clear tones administered the oath of office, after which Lieutenant Governor Davies proclaimed Robert Emory Pattison Governor of the commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

After a salute of guns were fired in honor of the new Governor, he began the delivery of his inaugural address. It was a most brilliant and impressive, and dark black overcoat buttoned close up to his throat. He spoke in loud tones and very distinct. His address was frequently interrupted by loud cheers.

At the conclusion of the address the Governor and his party repaired to the Senate chamber, where the oath of office was administered to Lieutenant Governor-elect Watres and Secretary of Internal Affairs Stewart.

AGAINST the supreme will of the people the Republican party says the New York Star stands in open rebellion. Foreign invaders armed to the teeth could not more threaten the destruction of our free institutions than do the Imperialists with their Fraud and Force Election bill and their revolutionary State proceedings.

Last November a patriotic people, indignant at corruption and abuse in the administration of public affairs, hurried the Republican party from power. The iniquitous tariff, election and financial legislation projected or consummated by the party in power was distinctly and emphatically repudiated. Instead of accepting the verdict with the humility and honesty that should characterize patriotic citizens, the Republicans promptly issued a proclamation of war and organized their forces in rebellion. President Harrison took the lead in declaring that the people did not know what they were about. Senator Edmunds said that it is no consequence what the people want. Senator Hoar and other rebels are busy throwing up the earthworks of a Fraud and Force Election bill, from behind which, supported by the bayonets of the Army and the cutlasses of the Navy, they can safely forth to destroy freedom of suffrage and to enslave the country to their party.

In closely contested States we see the Republican minority following in the path pointed out to them at Washington. New Hampshire, Connecticut, Illinois, Nebraska, Dakota, present the same spectacle of resistance, often by force and always by chicanery, to the will of the people, as declared by their votes. The Imperialists regard the possession of government as theirs by divine right. The freedom of the ballot, the rights of the people, are nothing to them, save as instruments to confirm them in control of public affairs to mercenary ends.

Anything to Beat the Bill. The one supreme duty of the hour for Democrats is to prevent the passage of the Force bill. By an unexpected turn of events it raised its ugly head in the Senate again, and is squirming, alive.

For the seven weeks that remain before the end of the Fifty-first Congress the responsibility that rests upon the Democrats of the Senate is tremendous.

This bill passes the Senate, it will be signed by the President. On the eve of its passage from the Senate it will be signed by the President. On the eve of its passage from the Senate it will be signed by the President. On the eve of its passage from the Senate it will be signed by the President.

Thrifty is a good revenue. Best saving results from cleanliness and Sapolio. It is a solid cake of scouring soap.

Looking out over the many homes of this country, we see thousands of women wearing away their lives in household drudgery that might be materially lessened by the use of a few cakes of SAPOLIO. If an hour is saved each time a cake is used, if one less wrinkle gathers upon the face because the toil is lightened, she must be a foolish woman who would hesitate to make the experiment, and he a churlish husband who would grudge the few cents which it costs.
