

PAUL, Democrat, was elected to Congress in the Second district of Rhode Island, Saturday, by over 5,000 majority.

A NITRO-GLYCERINE factory, near Flint, lay, O. Friday, was struck by lightning. It contained 50 cases of the terrible compound. The shock of the explosion was felt 40 miles away.

The President sent a number of nominations to the Senate on Saturday, and among them that of ex-Governor Charles Foster, of Ohio, to be Secretary of the Treasury, as predicted by the dispatches, this setting at rest all the surmises and guesses as to the successor of the late Secretary Windom.

WILLIAM WEST, of Washington county, who is to be hung to-day (Thursday) for the murder of old Farmer Crouch, his wife and their infant son, near Belvernon, last summer, is said to be so weak from progressive paralysis that he will have to be carried to the gallows, and that he cannot stand without support.

On Saturday, Inspector Burns, the head of the New York Police Department, while testifying before the Committee investigating the method of taking the Federal Census testified that two of the enumerators employed in taking the census in New York city were professional thieves. The g. o. p. must have had hard run for capable officials.

JUDGE MITCHELL, of Tioga county, has created something like a sensation among the lawyers over a decision of the court [L. S.] in not a legal seal, but simply a mark to indicate where the seal should be placed in printed documents. The initials stand for the Latin word 'seal', 'place of the seal', and were used first by William Bradford, a printer of the time of William Penn. Judge Mitchell held that this seal on a judgment note was not a seal, and the note being without seal was invalid.

The House Committee on Finance at Washington on Saturday reported back the Senate bill providing for free coinage of silver with a recommendation that it should not pass. The committee's report states that under the present law $54,000,000 is being added annually to the volume of currency. This largely exceeds the contraction by the way of the retirement of national bank notes, and in a period of ten years would at the same rate gradually add to the volume of the currency about the amount of bank notes already in circulation, the sum of $260,000,000.

On Monday night the men who have been working to recover the bodies of the miners who were entombed in the Jeannetteville in Luzerne county, on the morning of February 4th, were surprised to hear sounds of rapping from an abandoned portion of the mine. Further investigation revealed the fact that four of the men were still alive after having spent nineteen days in the mine. They were taken out on Tuesday morning and after being given some nourishment were taken to their homes and although very weak, it is thought with careful nursing they will recover. The men are foundering and owing to their enfeebled condition and the broken English which they speak it is impossible at present to get a correct version of their sufferings.

There is a report, says the Harrisburg Patriot, that Representative Wherry's bill providing for a constitutional convention has mysteriously disappeared from the committee on constitutional reform and that no one seems to know where it may be found. If the report turns out to be well founded it will be the plain duty of the Legislature to inaugurate a searching investigation, for if the measure has been stolen the object of the thief is to put a barrier in the way of thorough ballot reform which can not be brought about until the people shall have been called into sovereign convention.

It is a somewhat significant fact that when a bill is stolen, or turns up on the Governor's desk without the signature of the legislative officer of the senate, it is invariably a measure in the passage of which the people are interested. No one has ever heard of the mysterious loss of an important bill. Oh, no.

A DISPATCH to the Philadelphia Times from Harrisburg says: The publishing firms which have been wont to furnish the public schools of Pennsylvania with the necessary books are leaving no opportunity unimproved to defeat the bills by the State. Among the arguments against the adoption of the proposed change is its very unbusinesslike character in California. J. V. Anderson, Superintendent of Public Instruction in that State, has written a letter, which is being extensively used by representatives of publishing firms with the members of the Legislature.

The only merit it has, in his opinion, is that it secures State uniformity. The cost has been immense, 50,000 of each of ten books published in California having cost $400,000. Private publishers have been required to reduce the price of their books, but superior books than those turned out by the State can be purchased in the open market even without a discount. Superintendent Anderson closes his letter with the statement that he cannot advise any State to assume the publication of the school books in view of the vast appropriations required, the interest on these appropriations, the wear and tear of the books and the inferiority of the books and their greater cost than that of better books in the market.

Death's Great Harvest.

HARRISBURG, Feb. 21.—A tremendous explosion took place in the east side of the east slope of the Spring Hill mine at 1 o'clock to-day, which resulted in a large loss of life and the destruction of the mine. It is likely that the death list will contain more than 100 names. The Spring Hill mine is the most important in the Cumberland coal field. It employs 1,000 men. Its output is 2,000 tons of coal daily, and it is owned by Montgomery, Edgerly and company. Hitherto it has been singularly free from explosions and the cause of the disaster is so far unexplained.

The news of the disaster created the most intense excitement and the whole population appear to have gone wild. It was only yesterday that the mine was examined by Deputy Inspector Madden and a few days previously by a committee of the town and found to be in a satisfactory condition. The news spread like wildfire and a few minutes after the report was heard the mouth of the pit was surrounded by heart-broken wives and mothers, whose shrieks and cries of anguish to be heard as they dealt and dying friends of their husbands and sons were brought to the surface. The bodies were terribly mutilated and many of them were so badly mangled that they were unrecognizable.

Volunteer parties were organized to bring up the bodies, although the rescue of any of the men who were supposed to be alive in the mine was considered as a remote possibility. It was known to be impossible.

Pursued Him with a Rope.

Ada, Minn., Feb. 21.—One hundred infuriated farmers got John Erickson into the Ada House yesterday afternoon and made all preparations to hang him. In case he refused to do their bidding, the county and city officers numbered only seven men, and were powerless to resist the wrath of the mob. The Minnesota Mutual Live Stock Insurance Company of Ferguson Falls had sued about fifteen farmers of this county for assessments. Erickson refused to pay and the suit came on Thursday. A large number of the parties to the case came to town to fight it.

John Erickson of Ferguson Falls, Secretary of the insurance company, and his lawyers, were also here. When the farmers saw Erickson they determined to sue him into the oblivion of his claim against them.

Plans of the Vanderbilts.

INDIANA, Pa., Feb. 21.—A syndicate, represented by M. C. Watson of this city, and George Elliott of Philadelphia, have completed the purchase of a tract of coal land in the southwestern part of Indiana county, comprising about 800 acres, at an aggregate price of about $300,000. The Vanderbilts are known to be back of the purchase, and this is only one more link to a chain of coal land extending from the western end of the State to the Pennsylvania railroad across the State, or from Pittsburgh to New York. The surveys for this road have been made quietly, and as soon as the route was decided upon, the final survey will be made and work begun.

Porter's Census.

The great question in reviewing Porter's census of the Southern States is where the negroes have drifted. The population by race of Tennessee and West Virginia has just been reported, and we are told the white population of the former has increased 1 per cent since 1880 and the colored population only 7.7 per cent, or less than half the rate of the whites. The white population of West Virginia has increased 23.3 per cent; the colored population only 3 per cent. The country is as much at a loss as ever, therefore, to know what has become of the brothers in black who ought to be on this side of the Mississippi river. There is no extraordinary increase so far heard in the Southern States and unless the reports from the United States census of the vanished colored people we shall have to conclude they have been translated quietly to another sphere. The negroes have drifted, and considered prolific race, but the Porter census is less extravagant in that direction than New England with its decreasing baby crop. The true explanation is that for ignorant comparisons on social matters, the census is absolutely valueless.—Pittsburg Post.

A Brother's Sad Blunder.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 22.—Laura Holland, aged 23, was shot and fatally injured this morning by her brother Frank, who mistook her for a burglar. The brother has been a crank on the subject of burglary and always kept a loaded rifle near his bed. Early this morning he thought he heard a noise down stairs and rising he seized his gun and went below. He found nothing in the house, but imagined he saw a shadow in the back yard, at which he fired twice. The report of the gun awoke his sister Laura and she came down stairs to investigate. Being in the sleeping feet she moved noisily and Frank, seeing her coming through the hall, took aim and fired. The bullet struck the unfortunate in the side, inflicting a mortal wound. She still alive this evening, but expected to die at any moment. Frank was arrested, but released on Christmas day as his term for burglary is complete. He is almost heart-broken at his unfortunate mistake.

Protection for the Workman.

The facts, easily obtainable, are sad enough, but the protection which the workmen have is so meagre that it is almost nothing. It does not, and here in Pennsylvania the wage-earners have learned to their sorrow that under all the yokes of the Republic, prohibitive tariffs their wages have been steadily and largely reduced. These reductions still continue, even in midwinter, as the following table demonstrates: Broad company, Pennsylvania, wages reduced seven per cent; Ellis & Leasing Steel and Iron Company, Pennsylvania, reduction twelve and a half per cent; seven hundred men on a strike; Potomac Iron Company, Pennsylvania, reduction seven per cent; Bethlehem Iron Company, Pennsylvania, reduction ten per cent; Pennsylvania Steel Company, Steelton, Pa., reduction eight to ten per cent; Home Steel Works, Carnegie, Bridge and Steel Company, Ohio, reduction ten per cent; Chattanooga Steel Company, reduction ten per cent. In addition to this list of wage losses in an absolutely protected industry are the losses of employes in reaper works at Akron, Ohio, in blast furnaces at Cleveland, Ohio. Some fifteen thousand men in the coke region of Pennsylvania are on strike against the Lackawanna Coal Company. The Lackawanna Coal Company has reduced wages twenty cents a day; five Duquesne coal mines, in Illinois, sixty cents a day; eleven per cent, in Kansas, eleven per cent.

"Don't Pass Around the Hat."

Not long before the death of General Sherman he expressed himself freely to his old friend, George W. Childs, of this city, about his funeral, his grave and his monument. He wanted a military funeral becoming his rank, but he added a hearty in the seat. The conductor didn't notice it particularly until the train reached Rockford, when he found it contained a whole lot of money.

A woman boarded a Grand Rapids and Indiana train at Reed City and rode to Reed City, where she alighted. She had a basket in the seat. The conductor didn't notice it particularly until the train reached Rockford, when he found it contained a whole lot of money.

The longest board fence in New Jersey, and possibly the country, is just being built in Trenton. It is owned by J. O. Stuyvesant's new deer park and will be 12 miles long. The tract is 2,000 acres. The fence is 10 feet high and is made of boards broken, his small fractured and injured internally.

The couple had been visiting friends in Bradford during the afternoon. They were walking in the woods, and they strolled in, lovers fashion, up the tracks. Returning, they stepped directly in front of the express and were run over by the train. The unfortunate people witnessed the distressing accident. Miss Quinn's body was removed to an undertaker's room and will be brought home this morning. Her head was crushed to a pulp. Hughes was taken to Mercy Hospital in a dying condition. The house physician thinks he is only a few days from death. Both of the young people were popular in their society and were soon to have been married.

To Run Against McKinley.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 23.—Congressman Yoder, of Ohio, who is believed to have an excellent chance of becoming the Democratic nominee for Governor of his State, has been nominated by the State as Secretary of the Treasury and will have a beneficial effect on Congressman McKinley's gubernatorial prospects. He says that the Chairman of the present Ways and Means Committee will undoubtedly have the Ohio delegation, but Foster's absence from the State will deprive him of the support of an able politician.

The Loss in Wages.

GREENSBURG, Feb. 22.—The coke strike at the end of the tenth day showed a loss to the men in wages of $227,500. This sum is correct, as it was given by one of the largest operators in the region, and is arrived at on the basis of $1.75 per day for the 13,000 men involved. With one year of prosperous labor before them, the strike has not yet come to actual need. When they do the defense fund in the hands of the United Mine Workers will provide for them.

What Quay Really Knows.

M. S. Quay displayed astonishing disingenuousness when in speaking of Black Walter's connection with the speculation in which the State money was used, he says: "I had every assurance that the money was to be used in the way of the loss." No one knew better than Quay that poor Walters wasn't worth a dollar and had no money to put in the deal without taking from the treasury.—Bellefonte Watchman.
