—The erection of marble is the last work of respect to the memory of departed friends, and is a custom which has been followed from the earliest ages of antiquity. For many years J. Wilkinson & Son have been in the marble business in Ebensburg and through their energy and honorable dealings, they have built for themselves a reputation for doing their work in a most artistic manner. Their work is an ornament to the town as well as a credit to themselves. We are giving them no more notoriety than they deserve, and to prove our assertion, go to their establishment and see for yourself. They take pleasure in showing their work, whether you wish to purchase or not. They have on exhibition at their works two car-loads of monuments and headstones, and in April and May will receive two car-loads more. They will then have a large assortment of the latest styles for customers to select from. They have arrangements made with wholesale granite dealers so that they can fill all orders for granite monuments and headstones in a short time and as cheap as can be done anywhere. They buy their stock in such large quantities that they defy competition. They also have the agency for the Champion Iron Company, and are prepared to furnish all kinds of fencing or anything in iron. Persons wishing to purchase anything in their line of business would do well to give them a call before leaving their order with any other manufacturer, as they have as fine, if not the finest stock of marble that ever came to Western Pennsylvania. Give them a trial and you can depend upon getting a good job at a fair price.

—The Golden Troupe.
Manager Bank of the Opera House, informs us that at great expense he has succeeded in securing the famous Golden Troupe for Friday, April 12th, Saturday night and Sunday morning. Mr. Golden's company is by all odds the strongest organization ever playing in Ebensburg. It not only excels in point of dramatic merit, but the Golden band and orchestra, which has won a reputation as a musical organization, forms a peculiarly attractive adjunct. This company is pronounced by local managers and the press wherever they have played to be the best company visiting them in years. As this is the first company visiting us for several weeks, the Opera House should be crowded. Seats now on sale at James Drug store.

—A steady girl.
Cokeville, Westmoreland county, can boast of having the heaviest girl of her age in the United States. Her name is Della Beck, and at the age of eighteen she weighs 320 pounds. Her height is five feet six inches and waist fifty-four inches. She has just returned from a tour through the East and South. In the town meeting at Boston, Mass., she took the prize for the largest girl. The other fat women at this convention had her a present of a bracelet made of silver ten cent pieces. She was born at Appolla, Pa., and had a sister that died at the age of 14 years. Her parents are of ordinary size.—Letrobe Clipper.

—Consumption Surely Cured.
To the Editor—Please inform your readers that I have a positive remedy for consumption. By its timely use thousands of hopeless cases have been cured. It is a simple remedy to send two bottles of my remedy $10.00 to your readers who have consumption if they will send me their names and addresses fully. T. A. MAGUIRE, M. D., 121 Pacific, N. Y.

—Will Live in Ohio.
GREENSBURG, Pa., April 11.—The Nicelys have at last given up all hope of saving the lives of the doomed boys. As an evidence of this, Mrs. Kate Nicely, wife of Dave, last Saturday disposed of all her personal effects and yesterday, with her children, left for Ohio, where she expects to make her future home.

—The Theatre.
A large audience greeted the Golden Dramatic Company at White's Opera House last evening. The play produced was "The Martyr," and it was presented in a manner that reflected great credit upon the company and pleased the audience highly. The acting of Miss Emma Butler was very refined, and proved the lady to be a talented artist. The supporting company is the best that has been seen in this city for some time. The selections rendered by the orchestra carried by the company were very fine, particularly "The Martyr" and "The Martyr". The orchestra is composed of musicians of ability. This evening the company will produce "Millions In It," made famous by John T. Raymond.—McKeessport Daily News, February 12, 1891.

—Marriage Licenses.
The following marriage licenses were issued by the Clerk of the Orphans' Court for the week ending Wednesday, April 1st, 1891:
Charles H. Riman and Sarah Rigney, Johnstown.
Philip Kirkpatrick and Charlotte Delaney, West Taylor township.
Mark Waskaluk, Susquehanna township, and Ida Delozier, Elder township.
James R. Davidson and Eva Naylor, West Taylor township.
Andrew C. Ford and Maggie Gibson, Indiana county.
John R. Crawford county, Pa., and Rachael C. Richardson, Johnstown.
John R. Crawford county, Pa., and Mary A. Anthony, Dyrar.
William Beaujourn and Maggie Barry, Johnstown.
William D. Gabert, Johnstown, and Amelia Yensch, Upper Yoder township.

—An Honest Show.
As we go to press Tuesday evening the Golden Troupe are presenting the "Little Dutchess," at the opera house. On Monday night, "The Martyr" held the boards and won for the Golden's golden opinions. The company is strong from end to end, the strongest, indeed, which has appeared here in its time. The band and orchestra are in itself worth the admission price, and their selections were warmly applauded. We can do unhesitatingly say that the Golden Troupe is an excellent company, which we would highly recommend, if they are honest, in so far that they do not cut their plays, do all they advertise and carry good people. The Golden can come to Ebensburg and give a fine show, and be certain of success.—Letrobe Advance, February 11, 1891.
