—An eastern agency advertised to send "no articles of every day convenience about the household" for the sum of 30 cents. It takes just that many pins to answer the demands of the advertisement and justly capture the thirty cents.

—Cornelius Neason, of Clearfield township, died at his home on the ship on Friday of last week, aged forty-two years. The deceased had been a sufferer from rheumatism for a long time and for nearly two years had not been able to walk. His remains were interred in the Catholic cemetery at St. Augustine on Sunday.

—The prospects are bright for the present term of the Ebensburg Normal. It opened on Monday with an attendance of 125 students, largely of the advanced grade. The instructions are doing all in their power to make the term a beneficial one, and request all who intend coming to get in soon as possible and thus get full benefit of the term.

—The herbs are too much neglected in gardens. Sage, savory, thyme, parsley and marjoram are almost indispensable to well regulated garden. Nearly all herbs grow from seed, and once obtained many of them remain for years, and they are also propagated from roots. Herbs, even when established, are so often neglected. They should be cultivated and manured.

—On Monday Sheriff Steinman, Deputy Sheriff Duffon, accompanied by H. J. Croese and Dr. T. M. —Edward Johnston, an employe of the Whitney works in Westmoreland county, has been killed by a train, which he was riding in a most artistic manner. The work is an ornament to the town as well as a credit to themselves. We are giving them no more notice than they deserve, and to prove our assertion, go to their establishment and see for yourself. They take pleasure in showing their work, whether you wish to purchase or not.

They have an exhibition at their works two car-loads of monuments and headstones, and in April and May will receive two car-loads more. They will then have a large assortment of the latest styles for customers to select from. They have made arrangements with wholesale grocers and dealers so that they can fill all orders for granite monuments and headstones in a short time and as cheap as can be done anywhere. They buy their stock in such large quantities that they defy competition. They also have the agency for the Champion Iron Company and are prepared to furnish all kinds of fencing or anything in iron. Persons wishing to purchase anything in their line of business would do well to give them a call before leaving their order with any other manufacturer, as they have as fine, if not the finest stock of marble that ever came to Western Pennsylvania, give them a trial and you can depend upon getting a good job at a fair price.

—We heartily concur in the editorial comment of our neighbor the Herald this week on the bill before the legislature relative to pensioning the judiciary in this state. Our reasons for so doing are indicated by the right opinion is the fact that the article originated in the Freeman two weeks ago.

Evans, in the East ward, on Saturday last, lost his foothold by the breaking of a plank and fell to the ground, a distance of sixteen feet, and, alighting on his side on the corner of a board that was around a garden bed, had the misfortune to break free of his ribs.

—The ceremony of laying the cornerstone of the new Catholic Church of the Sacred Heart, at Altoona, took place on Sunday last. Extensive preparations had been made for the event, which was participated in by a number of Catholic societies and about 8,000 people. Rev. Father Smith, formerly of this place, is the pastor and the edifice to be erected will cost about $35,000.

—Mr. A. J. Younkin, of Fallen Timber, while cutting wood one day last week met with a singular accident. He had raised the axe to make a stroke when it caught in a clothes line above his head, which raised the weapon to descend, the bit cutting an ugly gash from his forehead to his chin. It might have been much worse, but luckily the axe is not dangerous.

—Wanted, a reliable, energetic young man who is determined to make money, to sell our lubricating and harness oils to farmers and threshers in all the adjoining counties. We can offer paying position during next three months, and if your work justifies it, a permanent paying position. Address, stating age, name and references, Keystone Oil Works, Cleveland, Ohio.

—The miners of the Clearfield district are preparing for the general strike down which they threaten to inaugurate May 1st. This section was very strong in asking for the eight hour concession on the day of the general strike, and it is believed that unless his demands are granted, The men say they are sure of success, and are not alarmed as to the outcome should the strike take place.

—Mr. Geo. Wilkinson, of the well-known marble firm, J. Wilkinson & Son, of this place, started out on Monday selling orders for marble work. We don't want any of our subscribers, especially those who pay in advance, to be misled by the friends of giving some an order, but the friends of those who are come cannot deal with a more gentlemanly solicitor or a more reliable business man.

—Thursday night, of last week, Constable R. McDonald, of West Newton, was taking Sandy Wilson to the Greenburg jail, and when the train had just passed Peasbloss, Wilson jumped and was struck by a train and killed. McDonald jumped after his prisoner but escaped with a broken collar bone and several bruises. Wilson was arrested for cruelty to his wife. —The Johnstown Herald of Tuesday says: Mrs. Sarah Davis, of Wilkesbarre, mother of the wife of Dr. G. A. Zimmerman, of this place, was accompanied by her home this morning by her son, Mr. J. W. Davis. Several weeks ago Mrs. Zimmerman became critically ill, when her mother was telegraphed for and she came on at once. While waiting at her daughter's bedside, Mrs. Davis returned ill and as she had a desire to return to her home, her son came on and took her home. Although able to travel she was not at all well when she left but it was thought, best that she should be allowed to go home. Mrs. Zimmerman is now recovering.

—According to instructions issued from the United States Revenue Department, on and after May 1st, 1903, the law requiring a special tax as herebefore from dealers in and manufacturers of tobacco and cigars is repealed, but every dealer in leaf tobacco and every manufacturer or peddler of tobacco, snuff, cigars or cigarettes, must register with the collector of Internal Revenue of his district his name, residence and place where the business to be carried on, and procure and keep displayed a certificate of registry. A non-compliance subjects the dealer to severe penalties. Dealers in manufactured tobacco are not required to register.

—A new clock has been invented by a railroad man that promises to be a great advantage to locomotive engineers. The clock has two hands, one large and one small, and the hour and minute hands. As the train whistles by the station the hour and minute hands will start around like a flash to mark into the clock time, and a red ball's eye flashes on or off. The clock is a very light turn green, and in five minutes the green light disappears. The engineer on the next train following can tell exactly how many minutes ahead is the train that precedes him. The clock is a perfect timekeeper, and when the train passes drops the signal light.

—Consumption Surely Cured. To the Editor:—Please inform your readers that I have a positive remedy for the above-named disease. It is the only one thousands of hopeless cases have been permanently cured. I shall be glad to send you two bottles of my remedy FREE to any of your readers who have consumption if they will send me their Express and P. O. Address. Respectfully, — A. S. BLOOMING, M. C., 138 Pearl St., N. Y.

Every day brings in new goods and their stock is constantly changing. Go and see their goods, learn their prices and you cannot help buying.

—Fifteen years ago Joseph McCullough, a son of the late Isaac McCullough, of Green township, left for Colorado and engaged in mining. In February last he and two companions resolved to pass the remainder of the winter in their mine on the mountains. They were well provisioned, and having the solitude preferred to get through safely. March 28 a neighbor named Robinson, living in the valley eight miles below, concluded to pay them a visit. As he approached their camp, evidence of a snowslide was apparent, and later investigations resulted in the conviction that the three men had been swallowed up in a terrible mountain avalanche. Mr. McCullough was about 25 years of age and unmarried. His mother was a sister of the wife of Jury Commissioner John McGuire. —Indiana Messenger.

—The erection of marble is the last work of respect to the memory of departed friends, and is a custom which has been followed from the earliest ages of antiquity. For many years J. Wilkinson & Son have been in the marble business in Ebensburg and through their energy and honorable dealings, they have built for themselves a reputation for doing their work in a most artistic manner. Their work is an ornament to the town as well as a credit to themselves. We are giving them no more notice than they deserve, and to prove our assertion, go to their establishment and see for yourself. They take pleasure in showing their work, whether you wish to purchase or not.

—The Philadelphia Weekly Times. The Philadelphia Weekly Times may justly claim the title of the cheapest family paper in the world. It is not only the cheapest, but also indisputably among the best. Always handsomely printed, it is, in its new form of sixteen pages, more attractive in appearance than ever and is filled with a choice selection of the best literature for all classes of readers. Its contents include bright and original stories by leading writers, letters of travel and adventure, literary and artistic reviews, fashions, sports, domestic topics and political and personal intelligence from all over the world, with a great abundance of fine illustrations. The department devoted to "Our Boys and Girls," which has become one of the most popular juvenile publications in the country, is a feature of the Weekly Times that alone would make it cheap at the exceedingly low price of fifty cents a year, at which this favorite journal is now offered. Those who wish a paper that will please and interest every member of the family, old or young, should send a postal card for a specimen copy of the Philadelphia Weekly Times and read the inducements $100,000 cash offered to those who get up clubs.

—A Bustle for a Bank. Miss Maggie Schlott, of Derry, Westmoreland county, died last week. Miss Schlott's relatives had been puzzled to know what she did with her money. She lived like a perverse old maid, and indulged in no luxuries or frivolities. Three days after her funeral two of the young women of the house concluded to clean up the room occupied by Miss Schlott.

—Mrs. Jennie Bennett unearthed a large, well-made, heavy bustle of ticking. With the remark, "Well, here it goes, Kate," Jennie threw it into the flames. Taking a second thought she pulled it out again. "It seems awfully heavy for a bustle," said she, "let's rip it open." When turning it over to insert the scissors a piece of green paper was seen sticking out of a hole in the seam. The green paper was a bright $50 bill. Scissors were thrown aside and deft fingers took their place. The whole thing was ripped open. There was a feminine scream. There lay tens, twenties, fifties, and nestling in the bed of greenbacks were shining gold eagles and double eagles and some small silver coin. The find netted $1,000.

—The money will be divided between her two sisters, with a seat toward to the girls who discovered it. The old bustle will be covered with tinted satin, decked with ribbons and handed down to generations.

—The Enemy in Ambush. Everyone knows that at this season of the year disease in ambush, ever ready to pounce and prey upon the weak. And any fair minded physician will tell you that the only safeguard lies in keeping the system thoroughly keyed up by the use of a tonic of a reliable stimulant. Hundreds of testimonials advertised for this purpose, but experience shows that a pure iron whiskey is the only one to be depended upon. Max Klein's "Silver Age" and "Duquesne" brands are sold under a vigorous guarantee of absolute purity; an affidavit accompanies each bottle. "Silver Age" sells for $1.50 and "Duquesne" at $1.25 per full quart bottle. The difference in size makes the difference in price—both brands are warranted to be unadulterated.

You can get Guckenheimer, Fleisch, Gibson, or Overholt from Mr. Klein at $1.00 per quart, or six quarts for $5.00. His brands of wines, brandies, gins, etc., are well known to be the largest and choicest in the state. Goods shipped to all parts of the United States. Send for catalogue and price list mentioning this paper. Max Klein, 22 Federal street, Allegheny, Pa.

—Marriage Licenses. The following marriage licenses were issued by the Clerk of the Orphans' Court for the week ending Wednesday, April 22nd, 1903: William Parker and Josephine Pittman, Lilly.

Peter Klunz and Sidney Mahan, Johnstown.

Charles H. Reed and Mary Martha Smith, Sheridan Station.

He had labored patiently with the disease under his care and made a grand success of it both school and entertainment. Indiana county should be proud of such earnest young men. The citizens also took a great interest in the work and we hope they will continue in helping on the great cause of education. — S. P. L.

—The Pennsylvania Railroad's Double Lines to Atlantic City—A Subsequent Schedule. The coming summer promises to be a most notable one for sea-shore travel. Eagerly anticipated already in advance for the accommodations at Atlantic City and inquiries received indicate the widespread popularity of this great resort.

Never before in the history of the City-by-the-Sea have the railroad facilities been so perfect as they will be over the Pennsylvania sea-shorelines. Arrangements have been perfected by which this popular route will consolidate its two railroads (the West Jersey and Camden and Atlantic City and Philadelphia and Atlantic City), so as to be operated on the plan of a double track. This mode of management will greatly facilitate the handling of the enormous passenger traffic, and will present the safest and most rapid system of double lines in the country. The schedule of trains will be greatly improved over that of previous years, both in number of trains, their equipment and speed. A large number of trains will run on a time table best adapted to the needs of the public. They will be equipped with comfortable and hand-some passenger coaches and attractive parlor cars drawn by the Pennsylvania Standard hard-wood burning locomotives. The majority of trains will make the run in each direction in eighty minutes, thus reducing the time of transit to the minimum consistent with safety and good management.

—The Philadelphia Weekly Times. The Philadelphia Weekly Times may justly claim the title of the cheapest family paper in the world. It is not only the cheapest, but also indisputably among the best. Always handsomely printed, it is, in its new form of sixteen pages, more attractive in appearance than ever and is filled with a choice selection of the best literature for all classes of readers. Its contents include bright and original stories by leading writers, letters of travel and adventure, literary and artistic reviews, fashions, sports, domestic topics and political and personal intelligence from all over the world, with a great abundance of fine illustrations. The department devoted to "Our Boys and Girls," which has become one of the most popular juvenile publications in the country, is a feature of the Weekly Times that alone would make it cheap at the exceedingly low price of fifty cents a year, at which this favorite journal is now offered. Those who wish a paper that will please and interest every member of the family, old or young, should send a postal card for a specimen copy of the Philadelphia Weekly Times and read the inducements $100,000 cash offered to those who get up clubs.

—A Bustle for a Bank. Miss Maggie Schlott, of Derry, Westmoreland county, died last week. Miss Schlott's relatives had been puzzled to know what she did with her money. She lived like a perverse old maid, and indulged in no luxuries or frivolities. Three days after her funeral two of the young women of the house concluded to clean up the room occupied by Miss Schlott.

—Mrs. Jennie Bennett unearthed a large, well-made, heavy bustle of ticking. With the remark, "Well, here it goes, Kate," Jennie threw it into the flames. Taking a second thought she pulled it out again. "It seems awfully heavy for a bustle," said she, "let's rip it open." When turning it over to
