Governor Campbell has been nominated by the Democrats of Ohio for the next Governor of that state.

The state has just paid out the sum of $35,029.31 to the National Guard of Pennsylvania for service rendered in keeping peace during the coke riots.

The decree for the expulsion of Jewish artisans from St. Petersburg has been indefinitely postponed, and the Russian press has been ordered not to arouse further anti-Jewish feeling.

In the last thirty years we spent $1,310,000,000 in pensions, and at our present rate will spend $4,500,000,000 in the next thirty. Every dollar of the billion came out of the earnings of the men who work.

Gold coin is shipped abroad in five-gallon, iron-bound cask kegs. Each keg holds ten bags and each bag contains $5,000, so that the value of a keg is $50,000. Gold from the other side usually comes in boxes.

It is stated that Ex-President Cleveland has promised Governor Campbell to make six speeches in Ohio. One will be made in Dayton, one in Cincinnati, but where the other four will be delivered has not yet been decided on.

The prohibitionists will hold a state convention at Harrisburg on the 26th of August next, to nominate candidates for State Treasurer, Auditor General and eighteen delegates-at-large to the proposed constitutional convention.

While in Chicago recently Pension Commissioner Ramm said to an interviewer: "Affairs here are going altogether to slow in the pension department and I am going to hurry through and dump 350,000 original cases upon the various pension agencies of the country before the year is out." Should this program be carried out by Ramm, the New York Herald estimates that it will entail on the government an additional expense of $60,000,000.

In an article taken from the Portland Oregonian published in another column, we see that George W. Delamater, late Republican candidate for Governor in this State, whose exploits as a financier have caused wreck and ruin to his neighbors and a number of people in Crawford county who trusted in him, is occupying the pulpit on Sundays in the Western country. The people of the wild and woolly West may not be particular in their choice of preachers but they had better watch the collection plate when Republican politicians of the Delamater ilk are hovering around the pulpits.

The London Times summarizes the harvests of the world as follows: In Russia there is a grave deficit, the peasantry are starving and there is small hope of relief. In India there is considerable anxiety; a famine prevails over a considerable portion of the country. The American harvest will be good in quality and amount, but with the failure of the Indian and Russian supplies it is of the utmost importance that the English shall not be short. The prospect on the whole is good. In the chief wheat countries—Essex, Norfolk and Suffolk—the crop is above the average, and in other countries up to the average. The harvest will be late and prices will be high. There is therefore a good outlook for the English farmer to break the long series of disastrous years.

The announcement that Governor Pattison has decided to prosecute all those criminally connected with the loss of the state's money through Bardsley's rascalties, says the Philadelphia Herald, will end the feeble attacks which have been made in certain directions.

Since the Bardsley exposures efforts have been made to make it appear that the Democratic state administration was partially responsible for his crimes. It has been charged that the Governor should have known that the Republican State Treasurer had not compelled Bardsley to comply with the law. In fact, the reasons given are that the treaty stipulations would result in a serious loss of revenue to Venezuela without any compensating advantage to her own producers in increasing prices for the agricultural products which they would be permitted, under the proposed treaty, to export to the United States free of duty.

Honest John Bardsley, late City Treasurer of Philadelphia is now learning the trade of a carpenter. He will be known hereafter by a number between 5,000 and 6,000. He is now engaged in making small boxes. These boxes will be used to hold the "scraps" left over from the prisoners' meals.

Washington Letter.

WASHINGTON, D. C. July 18, 1891. "I was not for Campbell first" said a member of the Democratic National Committee, "but recently, after looking carefully over the field, I became convinced that Campbell's hold on the farmers of the State made him the most available man for the nomination of a man who could under the peculiar circumstances surrounding the Ohio campaign this year, poll the most votes, and now that he has been nominated I trust that every Democrat in Ohio will recognize the national importance of the election in that State and lay aside all personal objection to the candidate and work as hard as he knows how for the success of the Democratic party. The adoption of the free coinage plank in the platform leaves the Farmer's Alliance no excuse for putting a third ticket in the field, and if they vote as they have talked, Campbell should receive their support. Of course, I am not sure, and he will; but anyway I am confident that we can elect Campbell and the legislature, if all of the Democrats of the State can be persuaded to actively assist.

Representative Crisp, of Georgia, whose chances of being the next Speaker of the House have been such a decided upward spurt recently, is in town this week. He talks confidently but not boastfully of his Speaker's prospects, and has nothing but good words to say of the man who calls the friendly competition. He inquired whether he or one of the other candidates gets the prize there will be no soreness or hard feelings, as every one of them will cheerfully accept the decree of the caucus.

Secretary Rusk is to attend the annual encampment of the G. A. R. at Detroit next month, and he is expected to help fix up things for Mr. Harrison with the old soldiers.

Look out for a break between the Harrison and Blaine people. It may be avoided, but it may also occur at any time. The Blaine people have long suspected that most of the misrepresentations concerning Blaine's health were the work of Mr. Harrison's friends, but it was only the other day that they succeeded in running one of the fakes down—the one saying that Blaine had placed his resignation in Harrison's hands, and that he had never since again well—and in placing the authorship mightily close to "Lige" Halford, it having been telegraphed from here by correspondent who represents the Indianapolis Journal, that the "Lige" used to edit, and which has for years been regarded as Mr. Harrison's personal organ. This correspondent is known to be on the closest terms with Halford, and it is charged by the Blaineites that Halford inspired this dispatch, which the correspondent did not dare to wire his own paper although it was sent to several other papers in the West. To say that the Blaineites are able to do this is very mildly indeed. One of them—a man with an international reputation—has gone to Bar Harbor to lay the facts that he has discovered about the systematic attempts of Harrison to keep the name of Blaine out of the public mind, and to press that Mr. Blaine is a wreck, mentally and physically, before that gentleman, and to implore him to grant the use of his name as a Presidential candidate, which would put an end to the Harrison candidacy at once.

Senator Call, of Florida, is in Washington. He says that his opponents are at work on several schemes by which they hope to bring him out of the Senate on the ground that his election was illegal, but that he isn't alarmed, as he knows that he was legally elected and hasn't the least doubt of his ability to establish that fact before either a legislative or legal tribunal.

The count of cash in the Treasury was completed this week, and some foolish Republicans are disposed to shout because the total reaches more than $600,000,000, forgetting that there are liabilities outstanding against this amount in the shape of gold certificates, silver certificates, silver Treasury notes and United States notes (Greenbacks) amounting to $13,748,838, which makes a very different face on the matter.

Representative Oates, of Alabama, says if the Democratic party in the South does not wake up and do some lively fighting it will be swallowed lock, stock and barrel by the Farmers Alliance.

Died With Her Babe. PHILADELPHIA, July 19.—The body of a woman was found floating in the Delaware river to-day. Bed and pinned to the mattress, she had been found with arms with the grip of death was the body of her four-months-old child. At the morgue she was identified later in the day as Maggie Kramer, the wife of a brewer employed at the home of her mother on the marble slab in the morgue after an all-night search, and he was nearly frantic with grief. The babe in her arms, he said, was slightly deformed in his little feet, and his arms and ankles were slightly twisted, and as he grew older his mother seemed to take the affliction very much to heart. She pondered over the baby boy's failure until she was unhappy and rather strange at times. It is supposed that her baby's affliction preyed so on her mind that she became temporarily insane.

Chief Ross is Dead. TAMMERSBURG, I. T., July 21.—The chief of police here died yesterday of death of his leading statesman, Senator W. H. Ross, who died very suddenly yesterday morning of heart disease, at his home in Fort Gibson. Senator Ross was a half-breed, about 68 years of age, and was educated at Princeton college, by his uncle, Chief John Ross. He entered public life at the age of 22, and had almost every office in the gift of the people of this Territory. He was a lieutenant colonel, during the war, in the confederate army. He was a brilliant orator and a leader of the national party. All business in this city has been suspended by proclamation of the mayor.

Search for Find Marsh. "The search for Gideon Marsh will be kept up until he is found, either dead or alive," declared H. W. Wamamaker said. He lost $18,000 as bondsman for the ascending Keystone bank president.

There is not a "big city," he continued, "from Valparaiso, Chile, to St. Petersburg, Russia; from Sikkim, Sikkim, to Constantinople, Turkey; from Berlin, Prussia, to Rio Janeiro, Brazil; that police and detectives are not on the looking for Marsh. He will be found, you can rest assured, before we are done with him."

To Release School Funds.

HARRISBURG, July 20.—Attorney General Hensel will hold a conference on Wednesday with the counsel of Superintendent of Public Instruction Waller, whose claim to that office was recently declared invalid, to arrange if possible some means to release the State school funds, which are now tied up pending final settlement of the dispute. If an amicable arrangement can be made $2,000,000 will be paid out at once. Of this amount $1,500,000 will go to the common schools, $300,000 to the state normal schools, $30,000 to the graduates of the normal schools, who receive $50 each, and about $25,000 to normal school undergraduates who are studying for teachers.

The decision against Waller, which also declared that Dr. Snyder was ineligible, because his appointment was rejected by the Senate, will also apply to Factory Inspector Watcher, who is now carrying his honeymoon in Europe, and has not yet been made aware of his unseating.

Delamater in the Pulpit. There arrived in Portland yesterday a man whose name was as prominent in the Democratic party as the name of McKinley, Joseph G. Cannon, and other Republican leaders who suffered defeat. He is G. W. Delamater, the late Republican nominee for Governor of the State, who was defeated by Robert E. Pattison. He will be in Portland several days, the guest of George W. Staver & Wilker. Tomorrow morning and evening he will occupy the pulpit in Taylor street church.

Mr. Delamater is in Meadville, and he is a banker. His trip to the West is for rest and recreation. Since his arrival here he has made many inquiries about Portland, its schools and public institutions, and seems to be satisfied of its prosperity. To a reporter he said yesterday that Portland looks strong and substantial, and appears not to have been boomed to a disastrous extent. Mr. Delamater's next car to talk politics very much.—Portland Oregonian.

Bardsley's Money Missing. PHILADELPHIA, July 18.—Checks in the possession of Thomas L. Hicks, one of the Bardsley Investigating Committee, which the firm of Bardsley, Manning & Co., had paid to Bardsley in their settlement with him over $1,250,000. These checks show that from October 10, 1890, to the 21st of May, the day upon which Bardsley resigned, the firm paid him $1,374,729.79.

This money cannot be accounted for as being represented by due bills of the Keystone Bank, for it was received after the last due bill from the institution was received by Bardsley. None of the experts' reports submitted can account for what has been done with his money. Mr. Hicks says this fact, together with the report that the City Solicitor had notified a certain sum of money with the trust companies, leads him to believe that some of the money has been quietly and safely placed in hiding.

Ree Blugging at a Baptism. LITIZ, Pa., July 19.—As the minister waits for the baptismal service near Litiz the ear-piercing screams of little Bertha Iglus, the daughter of a Lancaster merchant, interrupted the proceedings. The child had been standing in the crowd when a woman, who had been moved along and alighted on her limbs under her clothing. It was a little while before the cause of the child's cries were ascertained, and then the woman around turned and heavily fought the intruder. The woman held the child, and with their hair, aprons and sticks the other gave battle. The contest lasted fifteen minutes, during which time the religious ceremonies were suspended. For some time the women were engaged in the battle more or less seriously struck about the hands and face. The child was frightened and finally the women were swollen to twice their natural size.

A Postal Clerk Arrested. Robert Earley a well-known and heretofore trusted employe of the Postal Service, was arrested at Union Station, Harrisburg, at 8:30 o'clock Thursday night of last week, on a charge of robbing the mails. The accused is a native of Philadelphia, forty-five years old, and a married man. His run was between Pittsburgh and New York. For some time past the Government officials have received numerous complaints from Altoona, Johnstown, Latrobe, Greensburg, Hillsideburg, Bradfordsburg, Harrisburg, and other points of let-ter-carriers, many having been lost or stolen. These money losses varied from $20 to $200, and in addition quite a number of checks and drafts failed to reach their destinations. At length the discovery of a scheme for robbing the mails was employed and the young man caught up.

Works at Steelton Will Close. HARRISBURG, July 21.—A committee of the Amalgamated Association waited upon Benj. Bent, President of the Pennsylvania Steel Company, this afternoon, but received no encouragement. At 11 o'clock word came from Steelton that the company has ordered a shut down of the entire plant and all the furnaces are being banked. This action, it is said, was taken after the company discovered that there would not be sufficient men to continue operations. Almost 4,000 men are thus made idle. The outcome of the struggle is problematical.
