JAS. C. HASSON, Editor and Proprietor.

VOLUME XXV.

EBENSBURG, PA., FRIDAY, AUGUST 14, 1891.

Vidual interest must be paid for as advertisement Book and Job Printin, of all kinds neatly ar exediously executed at the lowest prices. At you were in my place what would you

"Do?" repeated Mrs. Mansfield.

"Why, I should go and demand my property, no matter how young and rich and pretty the person was in whose

"Your advice accords with my own pinion," said the doctor, "and I shall

The next afternoon he drove over to Irvington again, and, leaving his horse at his friend's, he walked up to

He asked the footman who answered his ring if Mr. Masters was in, and receiving a reply in the affirmative, he

"Please take him my card and say I

He was ushered into the receptionearance and announced himself as

"I come on a delicate errand, Mr.

Masters," said the doctor, with the feeling of a man eager to be soon

through with an unpleasant duty.

'About two months ago I lost a valuable St. Bernard, which I brought home with me on my return from Europe last fall. Yesterday, in passing your place, I was very sure I saw the appeal, and I reasoned that, if you owned him, you must have obtained

"There is certainly such a dog as you speak of here," said Mr. Masters, "but he was given to my daughter, who is much attached to the splendid creature.

by a young gentleman from Fair View,

went hurriedly out, returning in a short time with the young lady, who seemed to the doctor even more beautiful than when he had seen her on the

Mr. Masters introduced the doctor to

"The dog could not have been his daughter, and immediately told the stolen," said the blushing girl: "for Mr.

Harry Collins gave him to me, and said

he had himself imported him for that

The doctor knew that Harry Collins

"It is quite possible that I have been

was a worthless scapegrace and his own mistaken," said the doctor, somewhat confused, but now more cure of his ground than ever, for Collins was his next neighbor; "but if you will kindly

Laura went into the hall, and, in response to her musical call the splendid creature came bounding in and began to fawn upon her, and to lick her dainty

But in an instant he became aware of

Then, when he had satisfied Mr. Maser, and his danghter that he had found his rightful master, he ran first to one and then to the other of them, as if eager to show that they held second

"You are certainly right, Dr. Mans-

On hearing this, tears filled Laura's beautiful eyes, and she turned away to

The doctor saw her emotion, and with

"Pardon me, Miss Masters, but Rex seems happy here. The fear that the fine fellow had fallen into unkind hands annoyed me, but now that I know he will be well eared for. I beg you to accept him with my compliments."

became the undisputed owner of Rex.

Mr. Masters gave him a pressing invitation to call again, "to see us as well

From that day on Harry Collins never visited Bellaire, and as soon as it became known that he had presented to a young lady a dog stolen by himself he

The doctor accepted the invitation,

but, though he felt grateful to Rex for having been the means, we may be

A year after Edgar Mansfield's first visit to Bellaire, Laura Masters became his wife. And the old gentleman said, when the marriage ceremony was

"The dog did it, and I shall get him a

Wire Finer Than Hair.

We are at work just now on som pretty small wire. It is 1-500th of an inch in diameter-finer than the hair

on your head, a great deal, said a man-afacturer to a Globe-Democrat reporter.

Ordinary fine wire is drawn through steel plates, but that wouldn't do for this work because if the hale were away ever so little it would make the wire larger, and that would spoil the job. Instead, it is drawn through what is practically a hole in a diamond, to which of course there is no wear. These diamond plates are made by a woman

in New York, who has a monopoly of the art in this country. The wire is then run through machinery, which winds it spirally with a layer of silk thread that is .0015 of an inch in thickness-even finer than the wire, you see-

This wire is used in making the receiving instruments of ocean cables, the galvanometers used in testing cables

sure that he was not the attraction.

collar of gold."-Saturday Night.

as the dog," he said, in conclusion.

field," said the old gentleman, "the dog is yours, and I cannot retain him."

let me see the dog, I can tell."

"Rex!" said the doctor.

face as if crazed with delight.

place in his canine heart.

a gallant bow, he said:

hide her grief.

fled the country.

another presence.

Then the old gentleman rose and who is a frequent visitor here."

object of his visit.

him from some person who did not."

shall detain him only a few minutes.'

possession I knew it to be,"

et on it to-morrow afternoon."

NUMBER 31

"Mr. Masters."

ON THE UP GRADE.

And go out to do the feedin' and milk and other (And the air's so cool and spicy when a body's out of doors), I always like to listen to the puffin' that is Atteman.

By the locomotive engine a climbin' up the grade. 'Tis a picture worth a painter, the hazy morn-ing's glow, The lazy, drifting clouds above, the dewy grass below; The screechin of the whistle and the smoke a Above the string of box cars and fadin' down the track, An' the wakin' birds all joinin' in this mornin' By that puffin', chuffin' engine a climbin' up the grade.

all up-hill work,
An' our loads keep gittin' heavy and we feel inclined to shirk;

An' if we keep on pullin' ontil we reached the There's still a weary piece of track before we our fortune's made, When our air eastles are broken and we strike another grade.

look back on the road An' think of the obstructions and trials you've overthrowed. And you'll thank your perseverance when you see how it has paid "To keep on puffin', chuffin' and a climbin' up -Waiter Wakemen, in Inter Ocean.

THE DOG DID IT.

Ga., that can talk and whistle"Johnny, How Rex Played a Part in His Master's Romance.

> a wealthy widow living on the beautiful Hudson a short ride north of New York city.

On returning from a journey in Europe he brought home with him a magnificent St. Bernard dog. Rex soon became as well known to the surrounding residents of Fair View children delighted to gather on the lawn before Mrs. Mansfield's fine mansion to play with him. Rex was kept about the house, seldom accompanying his master, and never following him on his professional visits. One evening Dr. Mansfield came coat in the hall his mother came from the sitting-room and startled him by saving: "Edgar, I fear I have bad news for

"What is it, mother?"

All the people have been down in the village and all about searching for him, but they cannot find him," said Mrs. Mansfield, anxiously.

"Oh! he has followed some of the children nome: fle is very fond of children. Don't let that bother you; he will turn up all right to-morrow, or we the doctor.

ing the dog, and the day passed without any news of him. Anyone who has ever had an animal for a pet and playmate can imagine Dr. Mansfield's feelings over his loss. After some weeks, during which the dog that might excit e cupidity. business; and while he walking along the eastern suburbs of that charming village he was surprised to see, on the opposite side of the way. Rex. walking contentedly beside one of the most his part and embarrassing to Rex's new mistress.

find out who she was. lady, with the St. Bernard still close at her side, entering a gate, from which a hard drive led up to one of the finest mansions in the place. While he was wondering if he should

of the arched gate.

laire, though he did not state his purpose in asking.

"Bellaire?" repeated the friend. "Why, I thought everybody in Westchester county knew about the palace which the wealthy Californian, James T. Masters, built here last year. But I forgot that you have been in college or abroad since his coming."

prostrating themselves at her feet for the last year.' Here the subject dropped, but the doctor's interest in Rex was not lessened, while there was added to it very atural curiosity to know more a the beautiful girl. When he got home that night he said to his mother:

"I have found Rex."

"And why did you not bring him back with you?" "Well, he seems very happy where he s," laughed the doctor. And then he went on and told all he

He was not surprised that his mother should show more interest in the dog than in the young lady; but, as he had unbounded faith in her tact and judgment, he said:

"That is the case, mother. Now, if

SUNDRY FREAKS.

Advertising Rates.

2 inches, I year.... 3 inches, 6 months 3 inches, 1 year.... (column 6 months...

I column, I year ......

THE name of a Philadelphia debutante is Miss Sybil Pine-Coffin. A MAN in Kansas glories in the possession of a calf that weighs only six pounds and has to be placed on a box

n order to reach the "maternal foun-In the public schools of Portland, Me., are two children, a boy and a girl, aged respectively ten and twelve years, no relation at all, both of whom are as bald as the traditional billiard ball, and each of whom wears a wig. THOMAS COOPER and wife, who live near Flowery Branch, Ga., have four daughters. All except one married widows' sons, all of their husbands being named William, and all of them the youngest of the family, and all married on the third Sunday in the

NOTABLE FOREIGN EVENTS.

Twelve persons died from injuries in the football season in England, which is just over.

at the waist, having four arms. mond merchants, by the use of aniline. have been in the habit of "bleeching" diamonds of poor quality.

Everything went well so long as he made kings only, but when he tried the tenced by the courts of Alexandria. He made his articles with carefully peepared asses' skins, and had a good trade. An Englishman has invented an apparatus through which he declares he can see the soul leave the body. He arlenses that so magn ticles of dust in the air that their dis turbance by anything passing upward REMARKS BY LITTLE TOTS.

"Он, mamma!" exclaimed little Maidie, as a bright-winged insect passed the door, "here goes a flutter-new dwess to play in." Papa-"What is the matter with that one?" Little Dot-"It's all worn out 'cept th' button MAMMA-"Why, what nile you, Charlie "Charlie - "Oh! oh! I'd just as lief the bees'd walk on me, but it hurts when they sit down,"-Demores, "

FIGURATIVE ZOOLOGY .- Little Harold for the first time saw a tame rabbit twitching its lips as it munched a cabwith its nose."-Kate Field's Washing-

FLOSSIE is a little girl whose ideas of "Yes, Flossie." "Little babies, too?" "Yes." Flossie was silent for a moment. "Mamma," she said, "Heaven must be a drefful dusty place."

REMARKABLE YOUNGSTERS.

ty-four wild pigeons with one swoop of BALTIMORE claims to have a boy of fifteen who can speak eleven languages. THE youngest traveling salesman in Illinois is in the employ of a drug house at Quincy. He is thirteen. A LITTLE boy of Gordon, Ga., was recently promoted to the head of his class by the teacher for his orginality in spell-

A KANSAS boy carned a nice Bible by

A LITTLE boy from North East. Md.,

while visiting his grandmother in Chester, fell asleep on the floor and rolled under the bed. Before he reappeared the police were scoming the town for a missing boy.

One reason why sharpers succeed so well in preying upon country folks who come to the city seems to be that the strangers do not know how to say no. They reel alone and unsupported and they lose their nerve, so that they may be led to do many foolish things which they would not do at bome. This is well illustrated at the ferry houses. Little street Arabs stand at the crossings in front of the ferries and accost the strangers who have valises, saying: "Let me carry that for you, sir?" The smartest of them do not solicit at all. but rush up and seize the strangers' bags, even using a little force. It is noticeable that in at least half such eases the countrymen let the boys have their way. They are able to carry their own burdens, and really want to do so, but they seem to grow helpless with the first whist of the city atmosphere. - N. Y. Sun.

Buried Towns.

The sand-laden winds from the Lake Michigan shores have wiped out the town of Singapore, near Saugatuck, Mich. Every house except one has been completely covered up, and the family in this lone house has now been compelled to move into the second floor, the sand having filled the first The same cause, it is claimed, will eventually drive the people to the roof, as these sand dunes respect neither man nor his abode, and this little old town will become as thoroughly buried as Pompeii.

Not an Asylum Subject.

Stranger-That man is evidently erazy. Why is he not put in an asylum? Native-His property is so heavily mortgaged that none of his relatives want it .- N. Y. Weekly.

Florence-"The idea of saying you were only twenty-three!" Bessie-"You forget mamma told us that it is always better to underrate than to exaggerate, as it is contain in its effects and closs not

KENDALL'S SPAVIN CURE. BELVERSON, Fra., Nov. 27, 30.

DR. R. J. Kesnata. Co.:
dents—I would like to make kerwan to those who are almost persussied to use Kensall's Spavin Curs
the fact that I think it is a most excellent Limmont
i have mad from Blood Spavin. The horse went on three logs for three years when I commenced to ase year Konkall's Spavin Care. I used the hose tles on the hose and have worked him for three years since age has not been lame.

Eours truly.

WM. A. CURL GERMANTOS N. N. Y., Nov. 2, 1893. DR. B. J. GENDALL CO...

Enosbeigh Palls, Vt.

Gents: In praise of Kenskall's Spavin Core 1 will say thair a war and I had a calmable your lines of come very dame, hock call rect and so that a calmable your lines of the horsemate about here two may no Very dame in set of horsemate about here two may no Very dame and the Thorsemate, they for the total nor there are no nearly for the production of the interest of the new large for it, he because about the case we have the siderest on a line of the merges of your Ke shall's Stavin Core, at I boughts a bettle, and I calmid see very think are a improvements immediately for the case was a supproviments immediately a very chains, are a supproviments immediately a very chains, and a supproviments immediately a very chains, as a such or a improviments immediately a very chains, as a such or a complete way that the says a such or a complete way that the says a such or a complete way that the says a such or a complete way that the says a such or a complete way that the says a such or a complete way that the says are such or a complete way that the says a such or a complete way that the says are such or a complete way that the says a such or a complete way that the says are such or a complete way that the say

FORLADIES

LOUISVILLE, KY.

Made from finest

The Standard Oil Company, of Pittsburg, Pa., make a specialty of manufacturing for the domestic trade the finest brands of Illuminating and Lubricating Offs,

MADE FROM PETROLEUM

Naphtita sad Gasoline

We challenge comparison with very known product of petrolum. If you wish the most lost : Uniformly : Satisfactory : Oils n the market ask for ours. STANDARD OIL COMPANY, PITTSBURG, PA.

ST. CHARLES'

HOTEL. Chas. S. Gill, Prop'r.

ed. Remodeled with office on Car. Wood St., and Third Ave., Pittsburgh, Pa.

TAR SHAVING PARLOR OR, CENTRE AND SAMPLE STREETS EBENSBURG, PA.

. H. GANT, Proprietor. URLIC will always find us at our place sthese in business hours. Everything kept dours. A bath room has been consisted the shap where the public can be aclated with a hot or cold bath. Bath tub rything connected therein kept perfectly CLEANTOWELS ASPROIALTY.

BLAIR HOUSE

Barber :-: Shop! suches will be carried on in lion is in the hands of skilled FRANK FEES.

ONANZA TO ASENTS SAMPLES FREE

Thrift is a __ good revenue.

Have you tried Price $1 per bottle, or six bottles for $5. All drugrists have it or ear get it for you, or it will be sent o any address or receipt of price ay the proprie DE. B. J. KENDALE. CO., Enosburgh Falls, Vermont. NLD BY ALL DRUGGISTS. Ask my agents for W. L. Douglas Shoes. If not for sale in your place ask your dealer to send for entalogue, secure the agency, and get them for you.

27 TAKE NO SUBSTITUTE. 21 grades of Leaf Tobacco Ask your dealer for it.

Insist on trying it.

John Finzer & Bros.

W. L. DOUGLAS $3 SHOE GENTERMEN

grads than any other manufactures; it equals hand-sewed shows costing from $4.00 to $230.

55.00 Genuine Hand-sewed, the finest calf inported shoes which cost from $5.00 to $42.00.

50.10 Hand-Sewed Weit Shoe, fine calf, stylish, confortable and durable. The best shoe ever offered at this price; same grade as custom-made shoes costing from $3.00 to $9.00.

$3.50 Police Shoe; Farmers !Railroad Men
$3.50 Police Shoe; Farmers !Railroad Men ever offered at $2.25 and $2.00 Workingman's shoe $2. are very strong and durable. Those who Boys' $2.00 and $1.75 school shoes are wern by the hops everywhere; they sell

Ladies 33.00 Hand-seved shoe, best ported shoes costing from $1.0 to $6.8. Ladies' 2,50, $2.00 and $1.25 shoe for

T. ROBERTS.

ROBERT EVANS.

UNDERTAKER, AND MANUFACTURER OF and dealer in all kinds of FURNITURE, Ebensburg, Pa. A full line of Caskets always on hand.

Bodies Embalmed WHEN REQUIRED.

NOT DEAD YET! VALLIE LUTTRINGER, MANUPACTURER OF TIN, COPPER AND SHEET-IRON WARE

AND TIN ROOFING. Respectfully invites the attention of his friends and the public in general to the fact that he is still carrying on business at the old stand opposite the Mountain House, Ebensburg, and is prepared to supply from a large stock, or manufacturing to order, any article in his line, from the smallest to the largest, in the best manner and at the lowest living prices.

He No penitentiary work either made or sold at this establishment. TIN ROOFING a SPECIALTY. Give me a call and satisfy yourselves as to my ork and prices V. LUTTRINGER.

Erensburg, April 13, 1883-ti. THE FREEMAN is the largest paper in North-Cambria. Bon't forget it.

Tom Grimes brought home a set of pearls one night for his wife. She was n the parlor when he came.

> Of course it was Mrs. Damon whom Tom was addressing, and she sat silent he was making love to her! She deteras Jack got home to tell him everything. Her poor sister! Tom ought to be severely punished. So she thanked her in spite of herself, and went off down town, feeling a little vexed at Sarah's want of enthusiasm over his

ONE YEAR AGO. "Confound the women!" he said to himself; "a fellow never knows how in field and wood the Verdant grass was spring-

The orchard trees were pink and white with The shy aroutus trailed in lowly beauty. And filled the woodland with its rich per

The robin built its nest among the branches, Where was pering breezes murmured soft And earth seemed full of life and joy and glad-That happy day-but one short year ago.

We walked together where the winding river Flushed back the brightness of the glowing and pledged a faith that should remain us-Turough all the years, till life itself were

Our hearts grew tender with the pain of part and from the violets nestling at our feet Each plucked for each a purple, fragrant blos

Sweet souvenit will we again should asset. To-day the grassis green upon the billsade; The orchard revels in its wealth of bloom; The river finshes in the morning sunshing And wild flowers breathe their delicate per-

But she who gave my world its light and beauty Is gove, and on her grave with hitter wee, I lay this bunch of tear-wet, purple blossoms, In memory of that day, one year ago. -Lucia M. Cayton, in Detroit Free Press.

And the Many Unpleasant Circumstances Resulting Therefrom. Jack Damon met Mary Learey at a

MARRYING A TWIN.

"By chance, the usual away." He fell in love with her at once. Fortunately, his passion was returned, and as Jack and Mary both wisely be lieved "delays are dangerous," their wedding day came along just four weeks after their first meeting. At the wedding Jack for the first time saw Sarah Learey, Mary's twin sister. The two girls were as much alike as two peas-both blondes with curling hair, soft, dangerous-looking blue eyes, exquisite mouths, and handsome figures. There was but one es-wore boots No. 2, and Sarah was so unfortunate as to wear No. 4, and a close Stat that. When the girls get vexed with each other- and of course, being sisters, they were constantly falling out-Mary always twitted Sarah of her No. 4 shoes, and Sarah, by way of retaliation, accused Mary of putting India ink under her eyes to make them appear

sential difference between them - Mary

The two girls dressed exactly alike a the minutest particular, they had always done so, and new that Mary was to be married Sarah saw no reason why she should not have a white silk dress and veil as well as her sister, especially as she was to be first bridesmaid. As soon as the ceremony was over and the kissing gene through with Jack gave his arm to his wife, as he theaght, to lead her out to supper. "My darling!" he whispered in her ear, "how much your sister looks like you! Only you are a thousand times bountiful in my eves!" "Why Jack Damon! now you talk!" cried Sarah Learey. "What would Mary say to that?" "Mary? Mary who, dearest?" asked Jack, pressing her hand.

"Why, your wife, of course!" said "My wife! I don't think I undertand you, dear!" said Jack, begin ring to feel a little mixed up in his

"Do you think I'm your wife?" asked "I should think so, from what Parson Smith just said."

Sarah giggled.

times lovelier!"

my washerwoman!"

"Mary!" she called over her shoulder to the sullen-looking bride, who was following after with Tom Grimes, the groomsman. "Your husband here claims me for his wife!" "You can have him, and welcome snapped Mary, "and he won't be likely to mistake you for anybody else, i once he gets sight of those number fours of yours." "The Great Mogul!" cried Jack, turning round and surveying his pretty and angry wife. "Is this Mary, or the other one? Somebody please tell me which voman I am the busband of, for by Jupiter! I do not know myself:"

"Look at the ink under her eyes and you'll always know her!" whispered Sarah, spitefully. Jack dropped her arm and went back "My love, forgive me. You look se much alike! But you are a thousand "That remark must be a favorite one rith you, Jack Damon!" pouted the bride. "I've heard you make it once before to-night-to Sarah!" "Oh, goodness gracious!" eried Jack, 'what a mess I've got into! Forgive me, darling, and I'll never speak to another woman again! Never! Not even

And after considerable pleading, and great display of contrition on Jack's part, pardon was granted. Two weeks afterward Tom Grimes and Sarah were married and, to make matters as bad as possible, Grimes and is wife, and Damon and his wife all went to live at the same boarding-house. Scarcely a day passed but the extraorfinary resemblance of the two sisters to each other got somebody into difficulty. Messages were delivered to Sarah which were intended for Mary; secrets were told to Mary which were designed only for Sarah; the servants were always calling Mary Mrs. Grimes and Sarah Mrs. Damon.

"Here, dear," said be, "I have brought you something as a Chriftmas gift, but I don't want your sister to know anything about it. She's so confoundedly jealous that there'd be a row forthwith. She wants a set of pearls herself, but just between you and me -don't say a word-she's getting too sallow to wear pearls!"

with astonishment. She had thought Tom a very devoted husband, and here mined not to say anything, but as soon Tom for the jewels, and Tom kissed costly present.

SNAP SHOTS AT THE DEVIL

When Jack came home Mary went to him at once with the pearls, and with tears in her eyes told him the whole

Juck was horrified That Tom should be unfaithful was bad enough, but that Tom should be in love with his Mary was-productions! He decided to labor with Tom in se-

He twok Tom aside that very night. "Thomas," said be, "I want to have a little serious talk with you." "Go ahead!" said Yom. "I own up that I did go a little too far. But then what is a fellow te do when such a temptation is put before him? Don't toll Sarah. By George! she'd be fero-

"And who'd blance her?" said Jack, solemnly "Didn't you promise to love and honor her, and none other, till cleath did you part?" "I guess the thing did read about so,

"And yet here you are, only five months married making love to arother woman. "What," cried Tom, springing to his feet, and glaring at Jack like a tiger.

"You admitted it," said Jack, coldly,

"Admitted it" Whoever says I admitted that is a liar!" "You said yet had gone too far-" "And so I did I drank too much at Higgin's the other night, and, as for the matter of that, so did you, Jack, and you know it's "But you gave my wife jewelry and you kissed her.' "I zever, so help me Peter! Your wife? Way, good gracious? Jack Damen! Whe'd ever think of kissing your wife when he could kiss mine as well* Don't be offended, Jack, but your wife is beginning to look old and sallow. I was telling Sarah seonly a little while ego."

Sarah. "Never! Hurust I am not a fool!" "Very well; we'll call up the women and see what they say," said Jack, in desperation. The ladies were summoned. "To which of you did Tom Grimes present a set of jewelry?" asked Jack.

"To me!" said Mary Damon.

"The deuce you were! And Mary says you told her the same thing about

"And you are my wife?" said Tom, looking doubtfully from one to the "His wife," shrieked Sarah. "Only hear him!" "Jerusalem" cried Tom, "what a muddle if either of you women is my wife step forward." Neither stirred. Mary pointed to Sarah's feet. "Tora Grimes, behold those feet. Haven't you dived with them long enough to recognize them? And you gave me jewelry and kissed me. And poor Sarah trusting you all the time." Tom leaped forward and caught the weeping owner of the No. 4 feet in his

"Thank Meaven that your feet are No. 4!" said he. "I wish they were No. 10, and then I might know my own wife when I saw her. Mrs. Damon, I mistook you for my wife, and hope you'll excuse me for intimating that on were getting sallow."

"Come, Mary," said Jack, "I guess we'll be going to our own room. Maters seem to be getting straightened The pearls found their rightful wner, but a little coolness sprang up between the two sisters, which resulted in Tom taking his wife to Chicago and Jack taking his we'le to Bangor. And now the resemblance of the sisters has ceased to be a source of annoyance.-Clara Augusta, in N. Y. Weekly. MEN WELL-KNOWN. THE prince of Wales' life is insured for $800,000.

COUNT D'ABRAZ, the French consul at New York, has a neat little salary of S11.000 a year. THERE are over ten miles of pneumatic tubing in Wanamaker's Philadelphia store, requiring ninety-horse power operate it. Born of Henry Irving's sons have definitely decided to go upon the stage. The younger, Lawrence, had originally intended to enter the diplomatic service. A. J. DREXEL heads the list of Philadelphia rich men with $25,000,000. The city has one hundred and sixty millionaires whose total holdings foot up over $400,000,000. OSCAR WILDE recently startled society by dancing at a private reception attired in a long brown coat, fantastically fashioned, a heliotrope necktie, and yellow carnations in his button-

A New England man is the legal adviser of the mikado of Japan. His name is Henry W. Denison, and he formerly resided in New Hampshire, though for twenty years or more his home has been in Japan.

RRV. DR. BRECKINRIDGE, who fell dead

in the Presbyterian general assembly

at Detroit, kad $20,000 insurance on his life. His policy expired the day before his death and he renewed it by telegraph.

RAILWAY MATTERS. It keeps three large Chicago factories busy to manufacture the locomotive headlights and railroad lanterns that are used in this country. The factories give employment to 1,100 men and

An Italian engineer has originated a system by which he proposes to utilize the power of trains running down grade.

He has perfected a machine for compressing air as the train goes down grade, which can be used to actuate a motor at the will of the engineer, and be used to assist the locomotive on up grades. THE largest locomotive ever made weighs nearly one hundred tons, and was recently turned out by the Baldwin locomotive works, Philadelphia. It has five pairs of driving wheels, the firebox is eleven feet long, and is guaranteed to haul seven hundred and sixty tons up a grade one hundred and five feet to the mile. As experiment has been made on a railroad between Rome and Frascati with a new combustible prepared from lignite, rich deposits of which have been found in Italy. Of the new fuel three hundred and sixty-seven kilograms did the work of three hundred kilograms of coal. It is thought the discovery will obviate the necessity of importing coal.

THE devil feels proud of the man who Up in the early mornin' when the sun begins to joins the church to make money. Above the gray herizon, and I rise up from my THE man who belongs altogether to the devil is generally the last to find it THE devil never gets a chance to loaf in a neighborhood where a good man

Tun devil has to work extra hard to get hold of the children who have good mothers. EVERY time a sermon is heard without repentance the devil gives his fire another stir. THE devil probably finds a good deal of satisfaction in watching the woman who loves to talk about her neighbors. THE man who simply wants to be good enough to get to Heaven is not a man that the devil wastes any powder on. THE devil is not much afraid of the preacher who measures a service to God by the amount of money in it for him-

Ir isn't likely that the devil feels much out of place is the company of a man who doesn't pay for his news-As soon as church members begin to give more money for missions than they begin to feel uneasy. -Ram's Horn. CAUGHT ON THE WING.

A TURKEY flew through a plate glass

do for cigars and tobacco the devil will window five-eighths of an inch thick at Mansfield, O., but was not injured. A TENNESSED country newspaper has discovered that roaches can fly like grasshoppers, and can be seen flate at night coming home to roost. THERE is a mocking bird in Estonton, Get Your Hair Cut," and, in fact, any simple tune which anyone hums or whistles to it as an example. A swarm of bees entered the cab of a iscomotive at Huntington, Pa., last week, drove the engineer and fireman out, and stopped travel on the road until the farmer owning the invaders appeared and effected their removal.

must have been invisible to a quail. The bird flew through it with such velocity that it made a hole in it only a little larger than its body. The crash-of glass directed attention to the incident and the quail was found dead on the THE BIG BROOKLYN BRIDGE.

A WINDOW in the post office at Hannibal, Mo., was so clean that the glass

THE total length of the Brooklyn bridge is 6,537 feet. It is 135 feet above the river, computed from the middle of The weight of each anchor plate on the bridge is twenty-three tons; the height of the towers above the roadway

THE grade of the bridge readway is 314 feet per 100 feet of length.

is 159 feet.

THE New York end of the Brooklyn bridge proper is founded on bed-rock; the Brooklyn end of the bridge proper rests on clay. THE Brooklyn terminus of the bridge is 68 feet above high tide. The foundation of the Brooklyn tower is 45 feet below high water. The foundation of the

New York tower is 78 feet below high sonry in the two ends of the bridge.

THERE are 85,000 yards of cubic ma-

The distance between the New York anchorage and the Brooklyn anchorage is 3,454 feet. The weight of the span is 7,000 tons.

FACTS FROM DISTANT LANDS.

In British India 28,000,000 acres are cultivated by irrigation. AUSTRALIA is the largest tea consuming country in proportion to its population.

NINE hundred and fifty submarine telegraph cables are now in operation, most of them in Europe; their total length is over 89,000 miles. THE lowest temperature ever recorded anywhere was noted Gorochow, December 30, 1871, at Werehojansk, Siberia - 81 degrees

Fahr., or 113 degrees of frost.

A vast "banyan" tree covering between 6 and 7 acres has been discovered on the tiny Lord Howe island, 300 miles from Port Macquarie, in Australia. It is surpassed in size only by the greatest of those in India.

BEFORE THE COURTS.

Two Boys are held for trial in New York upon the charge of stealing three A MAN has been arrested at Gate City. Wash., for stealing a sawmill and carting it twenty miles.

THE county jail at Somerville, N. J., was entered by burglars the other night and a pocketbook stolen, A surr about a calf in Texas has resulted in wiping out all the parties involved except the calf. One of the litigants shot the other and the sheriff shot the survivor in trying to arrest him. The calf was valued at six dollars.

A LANSING (Mich.) man applied for a warrant against himself for assault and battery. He said he had been in a fight, and he wanted to get himself convicted and fined, because the fellow he licked wouldn't be able to attend to the case for some time, and he wanted it off his For some imaginary offense a woman of Philadelphia sought to get even with her neighbors by scattering ashes and shaking carpets over their washing. Not only this, but she frequently amused herself by firing off a shotgun in the middle of thenight. The neighbors complained to the courts, and the offending female was obliged to contribute sev-

Planting by Lamplight. In the vineyards of Fresno county, Cal., hundred of men may be seen plantthe city.

enty-five dollars towards the support of ing grapevines at night by lantern light. The vineyard lands seem to be infested with a multitude of huge fireflies, which are darting and moving in every direction. It is claimed that the setting of the stakes can be done much more easily and accurately by the aid of lanterns than in broad daylight, that more work is accomplished by the men in the same number of hours, and that a large amount of time is saved. One set of men work from nine o'clock in the evening until six o'clock in the morning, when they are relieved by another relay.

How it's like our lives, for sometimes it seems get to stop,

But we go down track a whizzin' and think

But you want to keep on climbin' and never goin' back, And remember up the incline is a piece of level track. An' when you've done your journey you will

Dr. Edgar Mansfield was the son of home weary after a long afternoon's trave, and while he was taking off his

He kisses her and asked: "Rex has not been seen about the Mace since the middle of the afternoon.

shall hear of him. Rex is a dog that it would be hard to steal and hide," said But the morning came without bring-doctor spent twice as much money in trying to get Rex back as he had paid for him, he made up his mind to give up the search and never again to own a Nearly two months after this, Dr. Mansfield had to go to Irvington on beautiful girls his eyes had ever rested His first impulse was to cross over, call Rex by name, and ask the young lady where she got that dog, but a second's deliberation told him that such a course would be indelicate on

When the young lady had passed on, evidently without seeing the young man on the opposite ride of the way, the doctor turned back, determined to Without being observed, he saw the go in and learn who were the occupants of the house his eye fell on the name "Bellaire," cut in the keystone Of the gentlemen whom he had come over to see Dr. Mansfield made inquiries as to the people who lived at Bel-

"Has he any children?" asked the doctor, with affected carelessness. "Yes, Miss Laura Masters. She is a beauty, and the youngest swells hereabouts and from New York have been

"Where?" she cried. "Over at Irvington."

had learned.

is chiefly confined to Florida. The tree large, frequently five inches in diameter, has a smooth, light-yellow skin, ripens later than the orange and is properties, and when well ripened is by orange. The bitter membrane that difore the latter is eaten or the pulp should be scooped out from it. There are several varieties, and the number is enlarged by importations. The grape room, and within a few minutes a rugged, gray haired man put in an ap-

A RAT with only three legs was caught last week by a son of J. E. Andrews, on his farm near Perry, Ga. In no other way was the rodent deformed, and the absence of the fourth leg in no way decreased its power of locomotion. The third leg was in the middle of the under part of the body, and not where the hind legs usually are.

A REMARKABLE freak originated in Bohemia is a two-headed maiden, joined An interesting case will be tried at Antwerp in a short time. Two diaproduction of high priests he committed archeological errors that led to his de-A MANUFACTURER of ancient Egyptian mummies has been severely sen-

can be detected.

LITTLE DOT-"Papa, I mus' have a With a bark of joy the noble brute rushed at his master, and, putting both paws on his shoulder, began to lick his > bage leaf. "On, took, mamma!" he cried. "The rabbit's winking at me creation are yet erude, but she is very curious. "Is all of us made out of dust, mamma?" she asked, the other

A nov in Washington state caught fif-"To make a long story short," as the old-fashioned story tellers have it, Laura Masters, with her father's consent, When the doctor left that evening, > ing the word cat-q-u-a-t-t-e. committing 1,000 verses to memory, and then he traded his Bible for a shotgan, and he accidentally shot his aunt in the

They Understand Human Nature.

and measuring insulation of covered closely resembling, and by some said fruit is known also as the pomele

"Grape Fruit."

to be identical with, the shaddock. named from the growth of the fruit in clusters. Its production in this country is larger and handsomer than that of other fruits of its class. The fruit is found in the northern markets from December to May. It has medicinal many people considered superior to the vides the pulp should be removed be-

"Grape fruit" is a citrous fruit.

my dear."-American Grocer.

pompelmouse and by other names.

face because the toil is lightened, she must be a foolish woman who would hasitate to make the experiment, and he a churlish husband who would grudge the few cents which it costs.

results from SAPOLIO Itisa solid cake of scouring soap. Try it in your next house-cleaning and be happy Looking out over the many homes of this country, we see thousands women wearing away their lives in household drudgery that might be materially lessened by the use of a few cakes of SAPOLIO. If an hour a saved each time a cake is used, if one less wrinkle gathers upon the