The Trio Now in the Ebensburg Jail.

The indications at present are that the much-talked-of Cambria county reunion of Sons of Veterans and Veterans will, in all probability, be held in this place—Gallatinville.

A passenger on Eastern Express on Tuesday night acted so queerly that he was watched by the conductor and train men, and he was himself almost comatose. Some place east of South Fork the man eluded the train men and jumped from the cars while going at full speed. He had a ticket for New York and a steamship ticket.

Dr. W. E. Matthews, who is inspector for the state board of health, has been ordered to go to Richmond, Indiana county, to investigate the cause of the typhoid fever, which is epidemic there. Dr. H. P. Tompkins accompanied him. There is a small village about ten miles from Painesville. There are about a dozen serious cases, and the inhabitants are said to be panic-stricken.

John Bruner, of Summitville township, has become intimate and was brought to jail on Tuesday. Bruner had not been altogether right in his mind for some time ago, but some time ago his farm was sold at Sheriff's sale and lately he was discharged. He has become much worse, and at times is wild and dangerous. He is about 45 years of age, and has a wife and family.

Johnston has a scandal on hand which is sharking the town from center to circumference. Professor Siffert Brunkiewicz, director of the Conservatory of Music, of that city, has been arrested charged with rape, adultery and bastardy. The victim of the Professors will be a daughter of Rev. A. J. Furber, pastor of the Baptist church, of that city. Brunkiewicz gave bail for his appearance at court.

The testimony in the Greasy-Smill contest arrived here. The contest contains 2,500 pages, or three volumes of closely printed matter, and is a larger amount of testimony than in the famous Curtin-Yocum contest. According to the rules, the testimony of the witnesses is to be taken at their points and testimony in the case. If it can be shown that he was fairly elected, we hope he will take the seat, and then look out for a public building here.—Allgemeine Times.
