Rev. Father Boyle, of Johnstown preached an eloquent sermon in which he referred briefly to the life and trials of Father Gailitzin, in his efforts to plant the faith on the Alleghenies. After the sermon and the conclusion of the Mass a procession was formed headed by a number of little girls dressed in white, the Loretto cornet band, the Reverend clergy and a large concourse of people they moved to the chapel when Very Rev. E. A. Bush, of Altoona, dedicated the chapel to the service of God. A high Mass was then celebrated by Father Rosensteel, of Ashville, which concluded the dedicatory services.
