On Tuesday, Right Hon. Edward Robert Lytton Bulwer-Lytton, Earl of Lytton and British Ambassador to France, died in Paris, of heart disease.

WILLIAM J. FLORENCE, one of the cleverest and most popular comedians of this country died at the Continental erity. Hotel, Philadelphia, on last Thursday evening. He was born in Albany, N. Y., July 26, I831, and had great success on the stage.

At the meeting of the National Republican Committee at Washington, on Monday last for the purpose of fixing upon the time and place for holding their next national convention, after eight ballots, Minneapolis was chosen as the place and June 7th as the time.

One thousand coal miners employed in the mines near Washington, Ind. quit work on Saturday and resolved to remain out until the trouble in the Brazil district has been adjusted. The men had no grievances, but struck in order to prevent the output of the mines there relieving the coal famine caused by the Brazil strike.

GOVERNOR PAITISON on Tuesday appointed Charles W. Krnmbhaar, late sheriff of Philadelphia, superintendent of banking under the law passed by the last legislature creating a state banking department, but which has not been in operation owing to the omission in the law of the necessary appropriation to carry the law into effect.

THE fruit growers of California have had the shrewdness to develop their region beyond most others. Some 300 carloads of raisins of fine quality have been shipped east this fall. In thirtyeight counties ornnges are growing, and their are altogether 4,000,000 orange trees with 1,000,000 in bearing. Besides this, California has already 3,000,-000 lemon trees.

THE scheme to transmit electric power from Niagara Falls to operate the electrical exhibit at the World's Fair is now thought to be a "go." It is proposed to divert water from Nispara by a canal and drop it 140 feet. By this means 125,000 horse power can be furnished. The distance from Chicago to Niagara is 475 miles. The estimated cost of the power delivered there is $50 per horse

GOV. ALVIN P. HOVEY, of Indiana, died at the Executive Mansion in Indianapolis on Monday. He was attacked by lung trouble while visiting Mexico with friends, and, although he hurried home for treatment, never rallied. Governor Hovey was 62 years of age. He won distinction as a volunteer General in the war of the rebellion, and served several terms in Congress. He was elected Governor of Indiana in 1888.

MR. EDWIN A. SMITH, father of Governor Pattison's wife, died on Monday of paralysis at his residence in Philadelphia, aged seventy-eight years. His daughter was with him when he died. Mr. Smith was for many years engaged in the lime business, but was compelled to retire owing to a stroke of paralysis 223 which rendered him unfit for business. The funeral took place on Wednesday, Pattison was in attendance.

SEVENTEEN Democratic districts in New York state with a population of 1,700,-000 send seventeen members to the Assembly of that state, while seventeen Republican districts with a population of 600,000, send as many members. And this is all owing to the refusal of the Republican legislature to make a new apportionment to take the place of the present one which was made in 1875. This is a great condition of things for the party of honesty and everything else that is noble, high and good, to say nothing of some things that are not

A DISPATCH from Rio De Janeiro on Monday conveys the intelligence that President Da Fonseca has resigned in fayor of Floraine Pioxette. Da Fonseca was the leader of the movement two years ago this month that resulted in the overthrow of the empire and the banishment of Dom Pedro. The revolt in the present instance was led by the navy and the revolution was accomplished without bloodshed. The provinces have not yet been heard from, but it is believed, from the advices hitherto received in regard to the growing opposition throughout the country to Fonseca's supremacy, that the news of his downfall will everywhere be received with the same satisfaction as at the capital. The revolution at Rio De Janeiro only broke out in the morning, and its work was quickly accomplished. A Washington dispatch says: Much nourishing food, hundreds of people

We can all remember says the Harrisburg Patriot the painful deliberation with which Auditor General McCamant made public the statement showing the mount lost to the state through John Bardsley's embezzlement. For weeks he was in doubt about the sum, and even yet he does not seem to quite fully understand to what extent the state suffered. Likewise may we well recall Mr. McCamant's inability to reach other facts and figures in this and other important matters with any degree of cel-

It is most agreeable, therefore to, observe that the Auditor General is improving. While the Senate has only safely got out of town and all the bills for salaries, mileage, printing, stenographic work and witness fees and expenses are not yet in, the Auditor General is able to give what he calls an "accurate estimate" of the expenses of the extraordinary session, namely, "at least $60,000 instead of $40,000 as was estimated by Democratic newspapers." This hasty effort to let a disinterested public know where its money is going shows that Mr. McCamant in his fading days as an official has begun to appreciate the breadth of his duties.

There is one thing lacking, however, in Mr. McCamant's commercial statement about the extra session which we presume he only needs to have his attention directed to to remedy. He should tell the distressed public that his own negligence, not to say criminality, made necessary this expenditure of $60,-

Had Thomas McCamant conducted the business of his office as he swore would conduct them the loss by John Bardsley would never have ocurred and the Governor would never have found it necessary to enforce the demands of his duty at an expense to the state of "at least $60,000."

On Friday evening at 9:15 Judge Silas M. Clark, of the State Supreme Court, died at his home in Indiana, sursounded by all the immediate members of his family. Justice Clark was elected in 1862, the year of Governor Pattison's first election and had completed not quite nine years on the Supreme bench. His term would not have expired until 1904. Always a Welcome Visitor

No visitor in the household, particularly the rural household, is more welcome than a favorite publication, be it newspaper or magazine. The newspaper, however, is foremost in the affections of the people, and outside the cities the weekly newspaper easily takes precedence. It is a necessity, and since it contains the news of the week, in conjunction with the freshest current miscellany, all who are not located where they can receive the daily fresh from the press prefer the weekly with its vast stores of news, its choice stories and special departments. In this class of journals the Pittsburg Weekly Post stands without a rival. All the foreign and domestic news finds a place in its columns. Its stories, original and otherwise come fresh from the pens of the most popular authors: its editorial expressions are clear, forcible and honest; its agricultural department is conducted by a practical nineteenth century farmer; its financial and commercial reports are complete, and altogether it is a paper that no well-regulated family-especially no well-regulated family in love with true Democracy-car do without. Its great worth is attested by its large and steadily-growing circulation. Price. $1.25 a year.
