AFTER a very close contest the Democratic cancus at Washington on Monday night nominated Charles F. Crisp, of Georgia, to be Speaker of the House on the thirtieth ballot, the vote standing Crisp 119; Mills 105: Springer 4; Stevens 1. Mr. Kerr, of this State was nominated for Clerk of the House by acclamation. Judge Crisp was born January 29, 1845, in Sheffield, England, while bis parents were there on a visit. He was brought to this country the year of his birth, his parents going to Georgia. He served as a lieutenant in the Confederate army during the war; was taken prisoner in 1864 and confined in Fort Delaware. After practicing law in Ellaville, Ga., for several years he was appointed Solicitor General of the southwestern judicial district in I872 and reappointed in 1873 for four years. He served as Judge of the Superior court, of the same circuit from 1877 to 1882, when he was elected to Congress from the Third Georgian district. He was reelected to the Fiftieth, Fifty-first and Fifty-second Congress without opposition. Judge Crisp's most marked characteristics are his good nature, coolheadedness and extreme affability, for which he is noted

THE Philadelphia Times in speaking of the election of Charles F. Crisp, of Georgia as Speaker of the House by the Democratic cancussays: McMillin, the most promising of the field candidates, withgave Crisp the victory.

The contest between Crisp and Mil has been one of unusual earnestness and bitterness, but Mills exhibited the highest degree of manliness by steadily refusing to combine with any of the field THE final count in Ohio shows that candidates, on the open assumption that, if he could not succeed. Crisp was entitled to the nomination. There is, therefore, every indication of harmony between the Crisp and the Mills followers in the House, and Crisp's brief but emphatic utterance on tariff reform in acknowledging the honor conferred upon him must silence all quibbles as to the attitude of the Democratic majority of the House on that issue.

While there will be no halt in the work of tariff reform because of the success of Mr. Crisp, will be generally, and we believe gratefully, accepted by the country as a triumph of the more conservative element of the Democracy. The one unerring index of the wisdom of Crisp's election to the Speakership is in the fact that the Republican leaders were practically unanimous in the desire for great political advantage from it. The loss to the building is estimated to be very small. There was tremendous excitement among the prisoners and much difficulty in getting them transferred to a place of safety. The female prisoners were turned loose, but the men were locked up in their cells and all yelled to be taken out.

A large crowd which gathered outside the prison began to get uneasy lest the prisoners should be roasted to death, and their appeals and excited actions added to the confusion and impeded the efforts of the police and firemen. Finally the police succeeded in quieting the crowd and all the prisoners were rescued without accident.
