ESTABLISHED 1847. PUBLISHED WEEKLY.

FRIDAY, MARCH 12, 1909.

SECRETARY BLANKS is again reported to have been confined to his home since Tuesday last week.

DAVID McMAKER, of Lancaster Pa., has been appointed Associate Judge of that county in place of Judge Patterson, deceased.

LEADING MEMBERS of Utah have petitioned the president for a proclamation of amnesty to all convicted or indicted polygamists. They declare that polygamy is dead.

THE draft of a treaty of extradition between the United States and France has been prepared at the State Department and has been mailed to Paris for the action of the French authorities.

GOVERNOR PATTERSON, on Tuesday appointed Colonel W. W. Greenleaf, of Clarion county, to be Adjutant General, and Colonel E. M. Culland, of Harrisburg, to be Quarter Master General of the National Guard.

THE Judiciary Committee of the New York Assembly has reported a concurrent resolution calling upon New York representatives in Congress to favor the bill providing for the election of United States Senators by the people.

JOHN W. KENDALL, a member of Congress from Kentucky was suddenly stricken with apoplexy at Washington on Monday morning and died the same evening. He was 55 years of age and was a new member, this being his first term.

EDWARD PERMONT MORGAN, who was appointed Attorney General under General Grant's administration in 1877 and served in that capacity until he was appointed Minister to England, died last night in New York on Sunday night 78 years.

THE Brooke Iron Company, at Bidsborough, Berks county, has posted notices in its large building hall, reducing salaries from $3.25 to $3 per ton, and all employees in proportion, and yet there is no change in the tariff that is supposed to benefit the workmen by keeping up wages.

THE contest for the collectorship of the Twenty-third Internal Revenue district of Pennsylvania was ended on Wednesday by the appointment of Geo. W. Miller, of Pittsburgh. The appointment is regarded as a victory for Congressman Ditzell, as Quay's man was knocked out.

Mrs. W. M. SPENCER, chairman of the Ways and Means committee of Congress has been confined to his room with a severe attack of erysipelas. For several days last week his life was despaired of but as his condition has somewhat improved there is hope since Saturday that he will be restored to health again.

PORTLAND, Maine, is wild over a Democratic victory there on Monday, and the jubilant Democrats celebrated the event with bands and torches. For the first time in many years they have gained control of the city government, electing a majority of thirty council on joint ballot, and their mayor by a wide margin.

A TEN per cent. reduction in the wages of the 500 employees of the Vesuvius Iron Works, of Moorhead, Butler & Co., at Salisbury, was ordered to go into effect on Monday. The tariff is still at the top notch, but it is only at election time that the shakers for high tariff claim that high wages are kept up by the tariff. Wages go up and down it seems regardless of the tariff.

EVILS immigrants were detained at Baltimore last week upon evidence that they had come here by contract to work at the coke works at Conowingo. One of them said that the Superintendent of the Conowingo Coke Company, had advanced their passage money and promised them from $2 to $2.20 a day. Paul Krautz, who engaged them, says he gets $2 a head for all he can bring over, and finds it a paying business.

THE Clearfield county Democratic committee meets today (Thursday) to divide the county into thirteen delegate districts on what is known as the Orvis plan, based on the Democratic vote, with the hope of securing better representation in congressional district conferences. Under this plan if carried out the counties will have in congressional conferences the following representation: Forest 2; Clarion 3; Elk 4; Centre 10; Clearfield, 10.

THE plans of the program to accommodate the Democratic national convention were finally adopted by the local arrangements committee, at Chicago on Monday and forwarded to the national committee for approval. With the boxes contemplated, and a little crowded, the hall will accommodate over 18,000 persons. The frontage on Michigan avenue is 350 feet and the depth 250 feet. It is expected the hall will be built and ready to receive its interior decorations by June 1st.

A PETITION containing the names of 800 prominent residents of Beaver valley, has been forwarded to Governor Patterson and the petition board asking for the pardon of Ellison Mellon and Porter, of the Beaver Store, who are now serving sentences for killing Senator Quay. Mr. Porter is quite ill and his wife and two children are also very ill. Colonel Robert H. Thomas Secretary of the Pennsylvania State Editorial Association has also sent out petitions for each member to sign asking for their pardon. They will be presented at the next meeting of the Pardon Board.

Washington Letter.

WASHINGTON, D. C. March 5th, 1909.

THE man who says the present House of Representatives is a do-nothing body either makes an awful mistake or is a hypocrite. The work of the House is not for itself, but for the people. It is the duty of the House to represent the people and to do so as well as it can.

THE Judiciary Committee of the House has reported a bill to amend the act of March 3, 1875, relating to the appointment of Justices of the Peace. The bill provides that Justices of the Peace shall be appointed by the courts in which they are to serve, and that they shall hold office for a term of four years.

THE Senate has passed a bill to amend the act of March 3, 1875, relating to the appointment of Justices of the Peace. The bill provides that Justices of the Peace shall be appointed by the courts in which they are to serve, and that they shall hold office for a term of four years.

The Schuyllkill Judgeship. The Judgeship nomination in Schuyllkill county this year is exciting much interest among some discussion. Judge Curtis L. Pershing, whose term expires, is a Democrat, and is the Democratic candidate for Governor in 1912. He is a man of high standing in the community, and his nomination is a matter of great importance.

Next Monday the House will vote on the resolution reported by the Judiciary Committee, which provides for the election of Justices of the Peace by the courts in which they are to serve. This is a measure of great importance, and it is expected that it will be passed by a large majority.

The Democratic leaders of the House have been unsuccessful in having important legislative plans passed by the House. The House has been divided on many of the important questions, and the Democrats have been unable to secure a majority on many of the bills.

After an unusual amount of oratory he has been elected to the Senate. The election was a close one, and it was a matter of great interest to the people. The winner is a man of high standing in the community, and his election is a matter of great importance.

When General Count von Schuvaloff, the Russian Minister at Berlin, was appointed to the post, it was a matter of great interest to the people. He is a man of high standing in the community, and his appointment is a matter of great importance.

Ernest Wakefield, who was a clerk in the store of Kaufman Bros., Pittsburgh, was last Friday married to Miss Ida Clark, the daughter of Dr. H. H. Clark, of Lawrenceville, without the consent of the parents of the young lady, who is not of age. The young man is said to have asked the consent of the parents, but they refused to give it.
