Three Idiot Children.

M. B. Stephens, Esq., took testimony to day, Monday on the appeal of Clarion county in the matter of hability for the maintenace of the three idiot children of James and Emily Randolph, Col. John P Linton and Donald E Dufton, Esq., ap peared as counsel for the Directors of th Poor of Cambria county, and Alvin Evans, Esq., for Clarion county. The Randolph family came to Johnstown in 1888 from Clarion county, and lived in what is now i the Fourteenth Ward. Three of their children are idiots, and were put upon the county and taken to the Almshouse

he store of Thomas J. Armstrong in Al- | Later they were sent, by order of the Camtoona, stole time pairs of men's boots, a bria county court, to Manor township, Clarion county, to be supported. That county appealed in 1890 to the Supreme court, which tribunal reversed the order and sent them back to Cambria county.

The Cambria county court was again appealed to and made an order sending the children to Toby township, Clarian county. It is from this order that Clarion county is appealing. The poor authorities of this county claim that the Randolphs had not gained a residence here when their children were put upon the county, and that, therefore, Clarion coun ty whence they came, has a legal right to maintain them.-Johnstown Tribune.
