A BEAUTIFUL BED-ROOM SUIT FOR $100!

FRIDAY, JUNE 10, 1892.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL
Mrs. J. S. Balsinger is visiting friends in West Virginia.
Mrs. Margaret Henry, of this place, has been removed to Houtalale.

Mr. J. B. Denny is making improvements to his Mountain House.
D. C. Sullivan has been appointed postmaster of the new town of Spangler.

Mr. William George, of this place, is erecting a new house on his lot on Sample street.
Miss Minnie Strong, of this place, is in Eaton this week representing the Ladies Aid Society.

Mrs. Ellen Williams, of Carrolltown, spent a couple of days in Ebensburg this week.
The South Cove Courier is out in a new dress and looks as pretty as a young girl with a new bonnet.

We are in receipt of a communication from Chest Springs, describing the series held at that place and St. Augustine on Memorial Day, but the election table, court proceedings and the election board have crowded it out after having it set up in type.

Mrs. Mary Williams, the oldest resident of Ebensburg, died at her home in this place on Saturday, June 5th, in the 77th year of her age.
This morning a party of four, including the wife of the late John Williams, Esq., who died in this place in 1872, and was an aunt of Messrs. C. T. Roberts, E. R. Davis, Mrs. H. P. Lloyd and Miss Nell Jones, of this place, were interested in a look at the cemetery on Tuesday.

On Tuesday evening while Mr. Daniel Carney, of Cambria township, was driving home from where he had been working on the township road leading from Ebensburg to Ellig's mill, his son Willie, aged about 10 years, was struck by the hind wheel of the wagon passing over his breast.
It was at first thought that the wheel was the cause of the injury, but the little fellow rallied and the doctor in attendance thinks there is no danger of his recovery. There were several heavy planks on the wagon intended for repairing a bridge and several men, but the boy fell off so close to the wheel that it was impossible to stop until he was run over.

The wife of one of our subscribers writes giving us "Hail Columbia" for putting her name in the cases for court cases last week, when as she says the case was settled.
As no case is "settled" after it is returned to court unless a leave of court is given after court is called, the case was not "settled" until Monday, and we had no means of knowing of the settlement until the District Attorney, on leave of court, returned from the city on Tuesday. We published the case as it appeared on the record with all the others, and if there was any wrong done it must be attributed to the manner of the law of this Commonwealth, which has provided for doing business in our courts.

H. C. Reed, of near Strongstown, Indiana county, reached this place on Tuesday evening with two horses which he had charge of, intending to take them to some place in Huntington county. Licensed hotels are unknown in Indiana county, and Mr. Reed had been accustomed to stopping at such places in small quantities, staying by it until the supply was exhausted and then getting his share.
He invested in two half pint bottles, filled with "bug juice" carefully balanced them, and started on his way. He fell off twice before he had gotten three squares and lay on again and when last seen was heading toward Strongstown, the place of beginning, and will likely take a fresh start at some future time.

On Thursday night last week lightning struck the stable of Mr. O. O. Phillips on Julian street in this place, but with the exception of knocking a few shingles off the roof did but little damage.
The new barn of Mr. Levi Weaver, on the Scarp Level road, about a mile and a half beyond Strongstown, was struck by lightning on Tuesday night last week about eleven o'clock and totally destroyed, together with a lot of new harness, top buggy, hay, etc. Mr. Weaver succeeded in getting his stock out, although he and the last animal getting out were considerably scorched by the heat. The loss has not yet been learned. It is understood there was an insurance of $8000 on the barn.

We have exhibited in our store window a Handsome Bed-room Suit, and every customer buying One Dollar's worth of goods at our store is entitled to a guess on the number of Beans contained in the jar.
You can have as many guesses as you buy One Dollar's worth of goods. On July 5th, at 12 o'clock, the jar will be opened and the beans counted in the presence of 3 responsible citizens of Gallitzin.
The party guessing the largest number, or nearest to it, will receive the Bed-room Suit.
