It is a very foolish practice for people to keep large sums of money about their houses, and especially where they live in country or in small villages.

A Shooting in Bedford County. In the Snake Spring Valley, in the east rn part of Bedford county, on Monday Adam Hofecker was mortally shot by Dan el Miller. The Miller and Hofecker famlies live on adjoining farms. Hofecker moved there from Johnstown last fall and before long was on intimate terms with Mrs. Miller, who is the mother of two children. Last April, after leading her husband to believe that she was going to visit relatives in Martinsburg, Mrs Miller eloped with Hofecker to Johns town. Miller found them, but both were for given by pleading innocence of any wrong, and all returned home and resumed their usual duties. Miller found a letter from his wife's seducer appointing a meeting, they thinking he had gone to Bedford. Intead of going to Bedford, however, Miller hid near the house with a shotgun. In a short time Hofecker appeared and entered the house. As the couple left the house together Miller approached them and filled son.
