THE West Virgina legislature, on Tuesday re-lected Charles J Faulkner for the long term in the United States Senate and Johnson N. Camden to serve the unexpired term of the late Senator Kenna, which runs until March 4, 1895. This is a good ending to what at one time promised to be a bitter contest.

A REPUBLICAN who signed the petition for the election contest of Davis vs. Mc-Gough, remarked the other day that he was surprised when he found that Postmaster Barker's name was not on it. Postmaster Barker was present when the arguments were used to induce him to put his name on and he had no doubt but that the name of the postmaster would be found near the top of the list. But he was sadly mistaken.

THE election of a straight Democrat as Senator from California and the surety of electing another in Wisconsin give the Democrats forty-two Senators in the next Congress. Two more, with the aid of the Vice Presidents casting vote, will give the party control of the Upper House without counting the Alliance Senators.
